The application of Arkansas-Oklahoma Gas Company is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than fifteen days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of the rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946), and shall set out clearly and concisely the facts from which the nature of the petitioner's or protestant's alleged right or interest can be determined.

Petitions for intervention shall state fully and completely the grounds of the proposed intervention and the contentions of the petitioner in the proceeding, so as to advise the parties and the Commission as to the specific issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted, by admitting, denying, or otherwise answering specifically and in detail, each material allegation of fact or law asserted in the proceeding.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[S. O. 396, Special Permit 214]

RECONSIGNMENT OF POTATOES AT CHICAGO, ILL.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by paragraph (f) of the first ordering paragraph of Service Order No. 396 (10 F. R. 15008), permission is granted for any common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act:

To disregard entirely the provisions of Service Order No. 396 insofar as it applies to the reconsignment at Chicago, Ill., June 13, 1947, by National Produce Co., of car PFE 97970, potatoes, now on the Chicago Produce Terminal to Kankakee, Ill. (NYC).

The waybill shall show reference to this special permit.

A copy of this special permit has been served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and notice of this permit shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 13th day of June 1947.

UNLOADING OF STEEL AT CHARLESTON, W. VA.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of June A. D. 1947.

It appearing, that 2 cars containing scrap steel at Charlestown, W. Va., on The New York Central Railroad Company, have been on hand for an unreasonable length of time and that the delay in unloading said cars is impeding their use; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action. It is ordered, that:

(a) Steel at Charleston, W. Va., be unloaded. The New York Central Railroad Company, its agents or employees, shall unload immediately cars CNJ 84078 and CBQ 165456, containing scrap steel, on hand at Charleston, W. Va., consigned to Consolidated Steel Mills Co.

(b) Demurrage. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall charge or demand or collect or receive any demurrage or storage charges, for the detention under load of any car specified in paragraph (a) of this order, for the detention period commencing at 7:00 a. m., June 18, 1947, and continuing until the actual unloading of said car or cars is completed.

JUN 24 '47

(c) Provisions suspended. The operation of any or all rules, regulations, or practices, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order, is hereby suspended.

(d) Notice and expiration. Said carrier shall notify V. C. Clinger, Director, Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., when it has completed the unloading required by paragraph (a) hereof, and such notice shall specify when, where, and by whom such unloading was performed. Upon receipt of that notice this order shall expire.

It is further ordered, that this order shall become effective immediately; that a copy of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

[No. 29770]

INCREASED LESS-CARLOAD RATES, OFFICIAL TERRITORY

JUNE 16, 1947.

By petition dated May 29, 1947, common carriers by railroad and certain common carriers by water, operating within official territory and between official territory and northern Illinois, extended Zone C in Wisconsin, and eastern Canada, request leave to file and make effective not later than July 20, 1947, after statutory notice, schedules of increased class rates applicable to less-than-carload and any-quantity freight traffic, within the territory above stated, and to that end petition also for (1) special permission to employ simple forms of supplements to schedules of existing rates, (2) relief from the provisions of the long-and-short-haul clause of the fourth section of the Interstate Commerce Act, and (3) for a general order modifying all outstanding orders to the extent necessary to enable them to make such schedules of increased rates effective as requested.

The petition has been docketed as No. 29770, increased less-carload rates, official territory, and will be assigned for hearing. Notice of the hearing will be given hereafter.

It will be unnecessary for interested parties to file answers or responses to the petition, as they may appear at the hearing and present pertinent evidence without formal pleadings.

The Commission has assigned the proceeding to Division Two for administrative handling.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 54-81]

MIDDLE WEST CORP. ET AL.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa. on the 12th day of June 1947.

In the matter of The Middle West Corporation, Central and South West Utilities Company, and American Public Service Company, File No. 54-81.

The Middle West Corporation ("Middle West"), a registered holding company, and Central and South West Corporation ("Central"), also a registered holding company and a subsidiary of Middle West, having jointly filed an application requesting that an Order of the Commission entered herein under date of April 30, 1946, as modified, approving a plan filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 providing, among other things, for the merger of Central and South West Utilities Company and American Public Service Company into a single corporation to be known as Central and South West Corporation, and a supplemental order entered herein under date of April 15, 1947, be modified in the following respects:

(1) Central requests that the order of April 30, 1946, as modified, be further modified (a) by extending to June 12, 1947, the time within which stock certificates representing shares of common stock of Central may be issued and delivered under the plan, together with appropriate cash payments in lieu of fractional shares, in exchange for old preference and common shares of Central and South West Utilities Company and American Public Service Company for which such stock certificates were surrendered for exchange to Central or its transfer agent, in due legal form for transfer, on or prior to May 31, 1947, (b) by extending the time within which stock certificates representing shares of common stock of Central may be issued and delivered under the plan, together with appropriate cash payments in lieu of fractional shares, in exchange for old preference and common shares of Central and South West Utilities Company and American Public Service Company for which stock certificates were not surrendered for exchange to Central or its transfer agent, in due legal form for transfer, on or prior to May 31, 1947, to not exceeding ten days after surrender of the certificates representing such old shares, in due legal form for transfer, to Central or its transfer agent any time after May 31, 1947.

(2) Middle West requests that the supplemental order of the Commission entered herein under date of April 15, 1947, granting an extension of time to June 14, 1947, within which Middle West shall distribute to its own stockholders the common stock of Central received pursuant to the plan exclusive of fractional shares, be modified to provide appropriate recitals with respect to tax matters; and

The Commission having considered the application and deeming it appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers that said application be granted:

It is hereby ordered, That the provisions of the order of April 30, 1946, as modified, be further modified to extend to June 12, 1947, the time within which stock certificates representing common stock of Central may be issued and delivered under the plan, together with appropriate cash payments in lieu of fractional shares, for old preference shares and common shares of Central and South West Utilities Company and American Public Service Company for which certificates therefor were surrendered for exchange to Central or its transfer agent, in due legal form for transfer, on or prior to May 31, 1947.

It is further ordered, That the order of April 30, 1946, as modified, be further modified by extending the time within which stock certificates representing shares of common stock of Central may be issued and delivered under the plan, together with appropriate cash payments in lieu of fractional shares, in exchange for all preference and common shares of Central and South West Utilities Company and American Public Service Company for which stock certificates were not surrendered in exchange to Central or its transfer agent, in due legal form for transfer, on or prior to May 31, 1947, to not exceeding ten days after surrender of the certificates representing such old shares, in due legal form for transfer, to Central or its transfer agent at any time after May 31, 1947.

It is further ordered, That the supplemental order of April 15, 1947, be, and the same is hereby, amended by adding thereto the following provision:

It is further ordered and recited, That the distribution and transfer by Middle West to its own stockholders of 3,307,302 shares of common stock of Central on the basis of one share of such common stock of Central for each share of stock of Middle West, including 13,738 shares of stock of Middle West reserved for issue, is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; that such distribution and transfer be made by Middle West on or before June 14, 1947, in respect of the 3,293,564 shares of its stock issued and outstanding at the close of business on May 23, 1947; and that such distribution and transfer be made in respect of the 13,738 shares of stock of Middle West reserved for issue, within a reasonable time after the issue and delivery of such reserved shares.

By the Commission.

Chapter II—Production and Marketing Administration (Commodity Credit)

[1947 C. C. C. Seed Bulletin 1 (Loan)]

PART 274—SEED PURCHASE AND LOAN PROGRAM

1947 SEED LOAN PROGRAM

This bulletin states the requirements with respect to the 1947 Seed Loan Program formulated by Commodity Credit Corporation and the Production and Marketing Administration. Loans will be made available on winter cover crop seed (hereinafter referred to as the "commodity") produced in 1947 in accordance with this bulletin.

Sec.
274.60 Administration of program.
274.61 Availability of loans.
274.62 Approved lending agencies.
274.63 Eligible producer.
274.64 Eligible seed.
274.65 Eligible storage.
274.66 Approved forms.
274.67 Determination of quantity.
274.68 Determination of quality.
274.69 Liens.
274.70 Charges to be paid by producer.
274.71 Set-offs.
274.72 Loan rates.
274.73 Interest rate.
274.74 Transfer of producer's equity.
274.75 Safeguarding of the commodity.
274.76 Insurance.
274.77 Loss or damage to the commodity.
274.78 Personal liability.
274.79 Maturity and satisfaction.
274.80 Removal of the commodity.
274.81 Release of the commodity.
274.82 Storage allowance.
274.83 Purchase of notes.
274.84 Offices of the Commodity Credit Corporation.
274.85 Schedules of rates and specifications.

AUTHORITY: §§ 274.60 to 274.85, inclusive, issued under authority contained in Article Third, par. (b) of the Corporate Charter of the Commodity Credit Corporation; sec. 7 (a), 49 Stat. 4 as amended, sec. 4 (b), 55 Stat. 498 as amended, sec. 302 (a), 52 Stat. 43; 15 U. S. C., Sup., 713 (a), 713a–8 (b), 7 U. S. C. 1302 (a).

§ 274.60 Administration of program. The program will be administered at the county level by the county agricultural conservation committees under the general supervision of the respective State committees.

Forms may be obtained from county committees in areas where loans are available, or from the office of Commodity Credit Corporation serving the area. State and county committees will determine or cause to be determined the quantity and grade of the commodity and the amount of the loan. All documents will be completed and approved by the county committee, which will retain copies of all documents: Provided, however, That the county committee may designate in writing certain employees of the county agricultural conservation association to execute such forms on behalf of the committee.

The county committee will furnish the borrower with the names of local lending agencies approved for making disbursements on loan documents, or with the address of the Grain Branch office to which loan documents may be forwarded for disbursement.

§ 274.61 Availability of loans. (a) Seed loans shall be available in the areas where the seed is produced. Insofar as is practicable, warehouse rather than farm storage shall be required by the county committee in all areas.

(b) Seed loans shall be available after the 1947 harvest season begins and loan documents must be completed prior to August 16, 1947, for blue lupine and March 1, 1948, for Austrian Winter Pea seeds.

§ 274.62 Approved lending agencies. An approved lending agency shall be any bank, cooperative marketing association, corporation, partnership, individual, or other legal entity with which the Commodity Credit Corporation has entered into a Lending Agency Agreement (Form PMA–97) or other lending agency agreement prescribed by Commodity Credit Corporation.

§ 274.63 Eligible producer. An eligible producer shall be any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other legal entity producing the commodity in 1947, as landowner, landlord, tenant, share cropper, or custom harvester.

§ 274.63 Eligible seed. Any seed specified in the attached schedule of specifications and loan rates (Table 1) which is harvested in 1947 by an eligible producer, which can be or is cleaned to meet the specifications, and which does not contain noxious weeds or seeds of White Top, Canada Thistle, Dodder, Quackgrass, Johnson Grass, Bindweed, Russian Knapweed, Perennial Sow Thistle, or Leafy Spurge singly or combined in excess of 45 seeds per pound is eligible for a loan when placed in proper storage, if the beneficial interest is and always has been in the eligible producer, or now is in the custom harvester.

§ 274.65 Eligible storage—(a) Farm. Only inspected and approved structures will qualify. Farm storage is applicable only to blue lupine seed and only in areas designated by the Production and Marketing Administration. Farm storage shall consist of farm buildings which are of such substantial and permanent constructions as determined by the county agricultural conservation committee to afford safe storage of the seed for a period of 2 years and permit effective fumigation for the destruction of insects and afford protection against rodents, other animals, thieves, and weather.

(b) Warehouse. Seed shall be stored in a warehouse which has executed a Seed Cleaning and Storage Agreement on CCC Seed Form A (revised May 11, 1947) and which complies with other provisions of the instructions in §§ 274.60–274.85. Upon delivery of the seeds to producers on payment of their loans, warehousemen shall label all seed as required by the Federal Seed Act and the applicable State seed law. Upon delivery of the seed to CCC, warehousemen shall label all seed as required by the Federal Seed Act and the seed law of the State or county into which shipment is directed by CCC.

§ 274.66 Approved forms. The approved forms constitute the loan documents which together with the provisions of the instructions in §§ 274.60–274.85 govern the rights and responsibilities of the producer, and should be read carefully. Any fraudulent representation made by a producer in obtaining a loan or in executing any of the loan documents will render him subject to prosecution under the United States Criminal Code.

(a) Farm storage. Approved forms shall consist of producer's note on CCC Commodity Form A, secured by chattel mortgage on CCC Commodity Form AA.

(b) Warehouse storage. Approved forms shall consist of note and loan agreements, CCC Commodity Form B, secured by negotiable warehouse receipts representing the commodity stored in approved warehouses.

(c) Note and loan agreements. Notes and note and loan agreements must be executed in accordance with the instructions in §§ 274.60–274.85, with State and documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto where required by law. Notes and note and loan agreements executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee will be acceptable only where legally valid.

§ 274.67 Determination of quantity. The actual weight of the seed shall constitute the quantity of seed to be under loan; except that the quantity of blue lupine seed in farm storage may be determined by multiplying the number of net cubic feet in the bin times 47, times the percent of pure seed as determined by the analysis, and the product shall be the pounds of seed to be placed under loan. Measurements and computation shall be according to instructions in Commodity Loan–2, Part 1.

§ 274.68 Determination of quality. All determinations of germination and purity shall be on the basis of an official test of a representative sample. An official test shall be an analysis made by a seed-testing laboratory approved by the State PMA committee. A representative sample of bagged seed shall consist of equal portions taken from evenly distributed parts of the lot of seed to be sampled. In quantities of five bags or less, each bag shall be sampled; in quantities of more than five bags, at least every fifth bag but not less than five bags shall be sampled. A probe or trier shall be used in drawing these samples. Bulk seed shall be sampled by inserting a long probe or thrusting the hand into the bulk as circumstances require in at least seven uniformly distributed parts of the quantity being sampled. Samples of Austrian Winter Pea and blue lupine seed shall be at least 2 pounds in weight.

§ 274.69 Liens. The commodity must be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, or if liens or encumbrances exist on the commodity, proper waivers must be obtained.

§ 274.70 Charges to be paid by producer—(a) Service fees. Where the commodity is farm-stored the producer shall pay a service fee of 2 cents per hundredweight but not less than $3.00; and where the commodity is warehouse-stored the producer shall pay a service fee of 1 cent per hundredweight but not less than $1.50.

(b) Other charges. Costs of cleaning, bags and baggage, testing, tagging, fumigating if necessary, and transportation to approved warehouses are to be borne by the producer. Such costs should not exceed the charges provided in the CCC cleaning and storage agreement for seed processors. In case of warehouse storage in bulk or otherwise where the seed is not ready for merchandising, the cost of the above items not paid for by the producer shall be deducted from the amount of the loan.

§ 274.71 Set-offs. A producer who is listed on the county AAA debt register as indebted to any agency or corporation of the United States Department of Agriculture shall designate the agency or corporation to which he is indebted as the payee of the proceeds of the loan to the extent of such indebtedness, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of the service fees and amounts due prior lien-holders. Indebtedness owing to the Commodity Credit Corporation shall be given first consideration after claims of prior lien-holders.

§ 274.72 Loan rates. Loan and settlement rates for the designated qualities of seed are set out in Tables I and II.

§ 274.73 Interest rate. Loans shall bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum; and interest shall accrue from the date of disbursement of the loan, notwithstanding the printed provisions of the note.

§ 274.74 Transfer of producer's equity. The right of the producer to transfer either his right to redeem the commodity or his remaining interest may be restricted by Commodity Credit Corporation.

§ 274.75 Safeguarding of the commodity. The producer is obligated to maintain the farm storage structures in good repair, and to keep the commodity in good condition.

§ 274.76 Insurance. Commodity Credit Corporation will not require the producer to insure the commodity placed under farm storage loan; however, if the producer does insure such commodity such insurance shall inure to the benefit of Commodity Credit Corporation to the extent of its interest, after first satisfying the producer's equity in the commodity involved in the loss.

§ 274.77 Loss or damage to the commodity. The producer is responsible for any loss in quantity or quality to farm-stored commodity, except that uninsured physical loss or damage occurring without fault, negligence, or conversion on the part of the producer resulting solely from an external cause other than insect infestation or vermin will be assumed by the Corporation. Provided, The producer has given the county committee immediate notice in writing of such loss or damage, and Provided, There has been no fraudulent representation made by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan.

§ 274.78 Personal liability. The making of any fraudulent representation by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan, or the conversion or unlawful disposition of any portion of the commodity by him, shall render the producer personally liable for the amount of the loan and for any resulting expense incurred by any holder of the note.

§ 274.79 Maturity and satisfaction. Loans mature on demand but not later than September 1, 1947, for blue lupine, and April 30, 1948, for Austrian Winter Pea seed. In the case of farm storage loans, the producer is required to pay off his loan on or before maturity date, or to deliver the mortgaged commodity within 60 days after maturity date. Credit will be given for the total quantity delivered, provided it was stored in the bins in which the commodity under loan was stored, at the applicable settlement rate, according to quality. If the settlement value of the commodity delivered exceeds the amount due on the loan, the amount of the excess shall be paid to the producer. If the settlement value of the commodity is less than the amount due on the loan, the amount of the deficiency, plus interest, shall be paid by the producer to the Corporation, and may be set off against any payment which would otherwise be made to the producer under any agricultural programs administered by the Secretary of Agriculture, or any other payments which are due or may become due to the producer from Commodity Credit Corporation or any other agency of the United States. In the event the farm is sold or there is a change of tenancy, the commodity may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan upon prior approval by the county committee.

§ 274.80 Removal of the commodity. If the loan is not satisfied upon maturity by payment, or delivery, the holder of the note may remove the commodity and sell it, either by separate contract or after pooling it with other lots of the same commodity similarly held. The producer has no right of redemption after the commodity is pooled, but shall share ratably in any overplus remaining upon liquidation of the pool. The Commodity Credit Corporation shall have the right to treat a pooled commodity as a reserve supply to be marketed under such sales policies as the Corporation determines will promote orderly marketing, protect the interests of producers and consumers, and not unduly impair the market for the current crop of the commodity, even though part or all of such pooled commodity is disposed of under such policies at prices less than the current domestic price for such commodity. Any sum due the producer as a result of the sale of the commodity or of insurance proceeds thereon, or any ratable share resulting from the liquidation of a pool, shall be payable only to the producer without right of assignment by him.

§ 274.81 Release of the commodity. A producer may obtain release of the commodity by paying to the holder of the note, or note and loan agreement, the principal amount thereof, plus interest. If the note is held by an out-of-town lending agency or by Commodity Credit Corporation, the producer may request that the note be forwarded to a local bank for collection. In such case, where Commodity Credit Corporation is the holder of the note, the local bank will be instructed to return the note if payment is not effected within 15 days. All charges in connection with the collection of the note shall be paid by the producer. Upon payment of a farm storage loan, the county committee should be requested to release the mortgage by filing an instrument of release or by a marginal release on the county record. Partial releases of the commodity may be arranged with the county committee by paying to the holder of the note the amount of the loan, plus charges and accrued interest, represented by the quantity of the commodity to be released. In case of warehouse storage loans, each partial release must cover all of the commodity under one warehouse receipt number.

§ 274.82 Storage allowance. On farm-stored blue lupine seed a storage allowance of 10 cents per 100 pounds on the quantity of seed shown on the loan document less any amount owing the Corporation will be paid borrowers if the seed is delivered to Commodity Credit Corporation after September 1, 1947, provided there has been no fraudulent representation or conversion of any part of the collateral by the producer, and the collateral has not been abandoned or has not become damaged or impaired through the fault or negligence of the producer. The storage allowance will also be paid if, pursuant to demand by the Corporation or agreement for repayment of the loan, the seed is delivered to the Corporation before September 1, 1947, Provided, The demand for repayment was not due to any fraudulent representation on the part of the borrower or was not made because the seed was damaged, threatened with damage, abandoned, or otherwise impaired.

For warehouse-stored seeds, the maximum warehousing charges that may be paid by Commodity Credit Corporation if the seed becomes the property of CCC are stated in CCC Seed Form A, Supplement 1–1947.

§ 274.83 Purchase of notes. Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase, from approved lending agencies, notes evidencing approved loans which are secured by chattel mortgages or negotiable warehouse receipts. The purchase price to be paid by Commodity Credit Corporation will be the principal sums remaining due on such notes, plus accrued interest from the date of disbursement to the date of purchase at the rate of $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent per annum. Lending agencies are required to submit a weekly report to the Corporation and to the county committee on 1940 CCC Form F or such other form as the Corporation may prescribe, of all payments received on producers' notes held by them, and are required to remit promptly to Commodity Credit Corporation an amount equivalent to $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent interest per annum, on the amount of the principal collected, from the date of disbursement to the date of payment. Lending agencies should submit notes and reports to the CCC office serving the area.

§ 274.84 Offices of Commodity Credit Corporation. The area offices of Commodity Credit Corporation, and the areas served by them, are shown below:

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter I—Production and Marketing Administration (Standards, Inspections, Marketing Practices)

PART 29—TOBACCO INSPECTION

DESIGNATION OF FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., TOBACCO MARKET

Upon a referendum conducted, pursuant to prior notice (12 F. R. 3305), during the period June 5 through June 7, 1947, among tobacco growers who, during the 1946 marketing season, sold tobacco at auction on the market at Fayetteville, North Carolina, it is found that more than two-thirds of the growers voting in such referendum favor the designation of such market under section 5 of the Tobacco Inspection Act (49 Stat. 731; 7 U. S. C. 511 et seq.) for the mandatory inspection and certification of tobacco sold on such market. Therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture, and for the purposes of said act, the orders of designation of tobacco markets (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 29.301; 9 F. R. 11571; 10 F. R. 11104; 11 F. R. 7967; 11 F. R. 8712; and 11 F. R. 13099) are amended by adding thereto at the end thereof the following paragraph (aa):

§ 29.301 Designation of tobacco markets. * * *

(aa) The tobacco market at Fayetteville, North Carolina. Effective 30 days after June 24, 1947, no tobacco of any type shall be offered for sale at auction on the market at Fayetteville, North Carolina, until such tobacco shall have been inspected and certified by an authorized representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture according to standards established under the Tobacco Inspection Act (49 Stat. 731; 7 U. S. C. 511 et seq.): Provided, however, That such requirement of inspection and certification may be suspended at any time when it is found impracticable to provide inspection or when the quantity of tobacco available for inspection is not sufficient to justify the cost of such service. No fee or charge shall be imposed or collected for the inspection and certification of tobacco sold or offered for sale at auction on the market designated in this paragraph.

(49 Stat. 731; 7 U. S. C. 511 et seq.; E. O. 9280, Dec. 5, 1942, 7 F. R. 10179; E. O. 9322, March 26, 1943, 8 F. R. 3807; E. O. 9334, Apr. 19, 1943, 8 F. R. 5423; E. O. 9392, Oct. 28, 1943, 8 F. R. 14783; E. O. 9577, June 29, 1945, 10 F. R. 8087)

Issued this 17th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

[Orange Reg. 123]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.349 Orange Regulation 123—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 933.1 et seq.; 11 F. R. 9471), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that the compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., June 23, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., June 30, 1947, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which grade U. S. Combination Russet, U. S. No. 2 Russet, U. S. No. 3, or lower than U. S. No. 3 grade (as such grades are defined in the United States standards for citrus fruits, as amended (11 F. R. 13239; 12 F. R. 1)); or

(ii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size larger than a size that will pack 126 oranges, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack (as such pack is defined in the aforesaid amended United States standards), in a standard box (as such box is defined in the standards for containers for citrus fruit established by the Florida Citrus Commission pursuant to section 3 of Chapter 20449, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1941 (Florida Laws Annotated § 595.09)).

(2) As used herein, "handler" and "ship" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in said amended marketing agreement and order.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 18th day of June 1947.

[Lemon Reg. 227]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.334 Lemon Regulation 227—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 53 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 953.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 2d Sess.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 22, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 29, 1947, is hereby fixed at 625 carloads, or an equivalent quantity.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference. The Lemon Administrative Committee, in accordance with the provisions of the said marketing agreement and order, shall calculate the quantity of lemons which may be handled by each such handler during the period specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in the said marketing agreement and order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of June 1947.

[Peach Order 2, Amdt. 1]

PART 962—FRESH PEACHES GROWN IN GEORGIA

REGULATION BY SIZE

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 62 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 962.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh peaches grown in the State of Georgia, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Industry Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of peaches, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

Peach Order 2, as amended. Effective at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., June 23, 1947, the provisions in § 962.302 (b) (1) of Peach Order 2 (12 F. R. 3601) shall read as follows:

(b) Order, as amended. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., June 23, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., July 7, 1947, no handler shall ship any peaches of any variety of a size smaller than $1\frac{5}{8}$ inches in diameter (as "diameter" is defined in the United States Standards for Peaches, 12 F. R. 3798), except that not more than ten (10) percent, by count, of the peaches contained in any bulk lot or in any lot of packages may be of a size smaller than $1\frac{5}{8}$ inches in diameter, as aforesaid, but not more than fifteen (15) percent, by count, of the peaches contained in any individual package in any lot may be of a size smaller than $1\frac{5}{8}$ inches in diameter, as aforesaid.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed (1) as affecting or waiving any right, duty, obligation, or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may arise in connection with any provision of said Peach Order 2, or (2) as releasing or extinguishing any violation of said Peach Order 2 which has occurred or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may occur.

(48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 7 C. F. R. Cum. Supp., 962.1 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 18th day of June 1947.

PART 966—ORANGES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 966.329 Orange Regulation 183—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of Order No. 66 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 966.1 et seq.) regulating the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such oranges which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 2d Sess.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 22, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 29, 1947, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate District No. 1, unlimited movement; (b) Prorate District No. 2, 1500 carloads; and (c) Prorate District No. 3, unlimited movement.

(ii) Oranges other than Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate Districts Nos. 1, 2, and 3, no movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference. The Orange Administrative Committee, in accordance with the provisions of the said order, shall calculate the quantity of oranges which may be handled by each such handler during the period specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in the said order; and "Prorate District No. 1," "Prorate District No. 2," and "Prorate District No. 3" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in § 966.107 of the rules and regulations (11 F. R. 10258) issued pursuant to said order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of June 1947.

TITLE 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Bureau of Animal Industry

Subchapter F—Animal Breeds

[B. A. I. Order 365, Amdt. 16]

PART 151—RECOGNITION OF BREEDS AND PUREBRED ANIMALS

DOGS; BOOK OF RECORD RECOGNITION

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by paragraph 1606, section 201, Title II, of the act of June 17, 1930 (46 Stat. 673; 19 U. S. C. 1201, par. 1606), paragraph (a) of § 151.6, Chapter I, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations, as amended (par. 1, sec. 2, reg. 2, B. A. I. Order 365), is amended by adding to the subdivision of said paragraph relating to dogs the following breeds and book of record:

Dogs

Name of breed	Book of record	By whom published
Various recognized breeds	Newfoundland Live Stock Register.	Department of Natural Resources, Kenneth J. Carter, Secretary, St. John's Newfoundland.

This amendment shall become effective on publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

NOTE: Whereas the importation into the United States of purebred animals for breeding purposes benefits the public by improving the breeds of animals in the United States, and Congress has recognized this fact in paragraph 1606, section 201 of the act of June 17, 1930 (19 U. S. C. 1201, par. 1606) under which purebred animals imported by United States citizens may be imported duty-free if they are certified by the Department of Agriculture as registered in a book of record recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for the particular breed; and whereas, pending issuance of such certificate, the importer is required by regulations of the United States Customs Bureau to post a bond valid for a limited period and subject to forfeiture unless the certificate is obtained and submitted to the Customs Bureau within such time; and whereas certificates have been requested from the Department of Agriculture for purebred dogs registered in the book of record specified above which has not heretofore been recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture in his regulations under said act; and whereas the Secretary of Agriculture has determined that the regulations should be amended to recognize such book of record and thereby to relieve restrictions upon the importation of such dogs; and whereas the foregoing amendment to accomplish this purpose should be made effective as soon as possible in order to be of maximum benefit to the public and in order to prevent unnecessary hardship to importers through forfeiture of their bonds, it is found, upon good cause, that compliance with the notice and hearing requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable, unnecessary and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found to exist for issuance of the foregoing amendment effective less than thirty days after publication.

Issued this 17th day of June 1947.

(46 Stat. 673; 19 U. S. C. 1201, par. 1606)

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter VII—Personnel

PART 708—DECORATIONS, MEDALS, RIBBONS AND SIMILAR DEVICES

PART 709—PRESCRIBED SERVICE UNIFORM

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Part 708, Chapter VII, Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations is amended in the following respects:

1. In § 708.1 paragraph (a) (2) is revoked and paragraphs (b) and (c) are superseded by the following:

§ 708.1 Decorations. (a) • • •

(2) [Revoked]

(b) War Department military decorations. An Oak-Leaf Cluster is awarded in lieu of an additional decoration and its precedence is that of the decoration it represents. Order of precedence of military decorations is as follows:

(1) Medal of Honor.
(2) Distinguished-Service Cross.
(3) Distinguished-Service Medal.
(4) Silver Star.
(5) Legion of Merit.
(6) Distinguished-Flying Cross.
(7) Soldier's Medal.
(8) Bronze Star Medal.
(9) Air Medal.
(10) Army Commendation Ribbon.
(11) Purple Heart.

(c) Duplication of awards. Not more than one decoration will be awarded for the same act of heroism, the same meritorious achievement, or the same period of meritorious service.

2. In § 708.2 paragraphs (a) (3) and (b) (3) are added as follows:

§ 708.2 To whom decorations awarded—(a) Medal of Honor. • • •

(3) Description. A bronze five-pointed start 1 9/16 inches in diameter, surrounded by a laurel wreath in green enamel, suspended by two links from a bronze bar bearing the inscription "Valor," and surmounted by an eagle. In the center of the star is the head of Minerva surrounded by the inscription "United States of America." Each ray of the star bears an oak leaf in green enamel. On the reverse of the bar are stamped the words "The Congress to," and on the reverse of the medal are engraved the grade, name, and organization of the recipient, with the place and date of the act for which the medal is awarded. The medal is suspended by a hook to a ring fastened behind the eagle. The hook is attached to a neckband of ribbon 20 inches in length. The neckband is of light blue watered silk 1 3/16 inches in width and midway between the ends of the neckband are 13 white stars arranged in the form of a triple chevron, consisting of two chevrons of 5 stars each and one of 3 stars.

(b) Distinguished-Service Cross. • • •

(3) Description. A cross of bronze 2 inches in height and 1 13/16 inches in width with an eagle on the center, and a scroll below the eagle bearing the inscription "For Valor." On the reverse, in the center of the cross, is a space for the name of the recipient (which is to be engraved within a wreath). The cross is suspended by a ring from a watered silk ribbon 1 3/8 inches in length and 1 3/8 inches in width, composed of a band of red (1/8 inch), white (1/16 inch), blue (1 inch), white (1/16 inch), and red (1/8 inch).

3. In § 708.2 revise paragraph (c) (1) and add (c) (4) as follows:

(c) Distinguished-Service Medal. (1) The Distinguished-Service Medal is awarded to members of the armed forces who, while serving in any capacity with the Army, distinguished themselves by exceptionally meritorious service to the Government in a duty of great responsibility. (See act July 9, 1918 (40 Stat. 871; 10 U. S. C. 1407, 1408; M. L. 1939, sec. 906)

• • • • •

(4) Description: The coat of arms of the United States in bronze surrounded by a circle of dark blue enamel 1 1/2 inches in diameter, bearing the inscription "For Distinguished Service MCMXVIII." On the reverse is a scroll for the name of the recipient (which is to be engraved) upon a trophy of flags and weapons. The medal is suspended by a bar from a watered silk ribbon 1 3/8 inches in length and 1 3/8 inches in width, composed of a band of scarlet (1/16 inch), a stripe of dark blue (1/16 inch), a band of white (5/8 inch), a stripe of dark blue (1/16 inch) and a band of scarlet (7/16 inch).

4. Revise § 708.2 (d) (1) (i), add paragraph (d) (1) (iii), and in paragraph (d) (2) (i) where the word "personnel" appears, substitute the word "members" in lieu thereof; add paragraph (d) (2) (iii) as follows:

(d) Legion of Merit—(1) United States armed forces. (i) The Legion of Merit, without degree, is awarded to members of the armed forces of the United States who, while serving in any capacity with the Army, distinguish themselves by exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding services. See sec. 2, act July 20, 1942 (56 Stat. 662; 10 U. S. C. 1408b; M. L. 1939, Supp. III, sec. 924a), and E. O. 9260, October 29, 1942 (sec. 1 WD Bul. 54, 1942).

• • • • •

(iii) A five-pointed American white star of heraldic form bordered in purplish red enamel 1 7/8 inches circumscribing diameter with 13 white stars on a blue field emerging from a circle of clouds; backing the star a laurel wreath with modeled crossed arrows pointing outward between each arm of the star and the wreath. On the bronze reverse is a disk (which is to be engraved with the name of the recipient) surrounded by the words "Annuit Coeptis" (He (God) has favored our undertakings) and "MDCCLXXXII," on the scroll the words "United States of America." The pendant is suspended by a silk ribbon 1 7/8 inches in length and 1 3/8 inches in width, composed of a band of purplish red (1 1/4 inches), with edges of white (1/16 inch).

(2) Armed forces of foreign nations. (i) The Legion of Merit, in four degrees, is awarded to members • • •.

• • • • •

(iii) Description—(a) Chief Commander. A domed five-pointed American white star plaque of heraldic form bordered in purplish red enamel 2 15/16 inches circumscribing diameter with 13 white stars on a blue field emerging from a circle of clouds; backing the star a laurel wreath with pierced crossed arrows pointing outward between each arm of the star and the wreath. The reverse is engraved with the words "United States of America" and the name of the recipient.

(b) Commander. A five-pointed American white star of heraldic form bordered in purplish red enamel 2 1/4 inches circumscribing diameter with 13 white stars on a blue field emerging from a circle of clouds, backing the star a laurel wreath with pierced crossed arrows pointing outward between each arm of the star and the wreath. A bronze wreath connects an oval suspension ring to neck ribbon. The reverse of the five-pointed star is enameled in white, bordered in purplish red enamel, in the center of a disk (which is to be engraved with the name of the recipient) surrounded by the words "Annuit Coeptis" and "MDCCLXXXII," on the scroll the words "United States of America." The neck ribbon is 2 1/4 inches in length, 1 15/16 inches in width composed of a band of purplish red (1 13/16 inches) with edges of white (1/16 inch).

(c) Officer. Same as subparagraph (1) (iii) of this paragraph with the addition of an all-bronze device of same design as the pendant, 3/4 inch in diameter, on the center of suspension ribbon.

(d) Legionnaire. Same as subparagraph (1) (iii) of this paragraph.

5. Revise § 708.2 (c) (2) and add paragraph (e) (3) as follows:

(e) Silver Star. • • •

(2) Those individuals who, prior to December 7, 1941, have been cited for gallantry in action in orders issued by the headquarters of a force commanded by a general officer, may make application for the Silver Star to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C.

(3) Description: A bronze star 1 1/2 inches in circumscribing diameter. In the center thereof is a 3/16 inch diameter raised silver star, the center lines of all rays of both stars coinciding. The reverse has the inscription "For gallantry in action" and a space for the name of the recipient (which is to be engraved). The star is suspended by a rectangular-shaped metal loop with corners rounded from a silk moire ribbon 1 3/8 inches in length and 1 3/8 inches in width, composed of stripes of blue (3/32 inch), white (3/64 inch), blue (7/32 inch) white (3/64 inch), and blue (3/32 inch).

6. So much of the text following the headnote of § 708.2 (f) (1) is amended, and paragraph (f) (4) is added as follows:

(f) Distinguished-Flying Cross. (1) The Distinguished-Flying Cross is awarded to members of the armed forces who, while serving * * *.

* * * * *

(4) On a bronze 1½ inch cross patee a four-bladed propeller 1 1/16 inches across blades; in the reentrant angles, rays forming a 1 inch square. On the reverse is engraved the name of the recipient. The cross is suspended by a plain straight link from a silk moire ribbon 1⅜ inches in length and 1⅜ inches in width, composed of stripes of blue (⅛ inch), white (⅛ inch), blue (1/32 inch), white (1/32 inch), red (3/32 inch), white (1/32 inch), blue (1/32 inch), white (⅛ inch), and blue (⅛ inch).

7. Paragraph (g) of § 708.2 is superseded by the following:

(g) Soldier's Medal. (1) The Soldier's Medal is awarded to members of the armed forces who, while serving in any capacity with the Army, distinguish themselves by heroism not involving actual conflict with the enemy and not in aerial flight. See sec. 11, act July 2, 1926 (44 Stat. 789; 10 U. S. C. 1428).

(2) The Soldier's Medal may be awarded to an individual for performance of an act or acts of heroism involving voluntary risk of life under conditions other than those of conflict with an enemy and while not in aerial flight. The same degree of heroism is required as for the Distinguished-Flying Cross.

(3) Description: On a 1⅜ inch bronze octagon and eagle displayed, standing on a fasces, between two groups of stars of six and seven, above the group of six a spray of leaves. On the reverse is a shield paly of 13 pieces on the chief, the letters "U. S." supported by sprays of laurel and oak, around the upper edge the inscription "Soldier's Medal" and across the face the words "For Valor." In the base is a panel for the name of the recipient (which is to be engraved). The medal is suspended by a rectangular-shaped metal loop with corners rounded from a silk moire ribbon 1⅜ inches in length and 1⅜ inches in width composed of two outside stripes of blue ⅜ inch in width, the center containing 13 white and red stripes of equal width (7 white and 6 red).

8. Paragraph (h) of § 708.2 is superseded by the following:

(h) Purple Heart. (1) The Purple Heart, established by General George Washington at Newburgh, August 7, 1782, during the Revolutionary War, is awarded to members of the armed forces of the United States and to civilian citizens of the United States, who, while serving with the Army, are wounded in action against an enemy of the United States, or as a direct result of an act of such enemy, provided the wound necessitates treatment by a medical officer.

(2) A wound is defined as an injury to any part of the body from an outside force, element, or agent sustained as the result of a hostile act of the enemy or while in action in the face of the enemy. One award is authorized for each such wound, except that only one award is authorized for two or more wounds received at the same instant. The word "element" refers to weather and permits award to personnel severely frostbitten while actually engaged in combat. Trench foot will not be considered as meriting award. The phrase "at the same instant" prohibits duplicate awards of the Purple Heart for two or more injuries or wounds received from one missile, force, explosion, or agent.

(3) Description: On a purple enameled heart within a bronze border, a profile head in relief of General George Washington in military uniform. Above the enameled heart is the shield of Washington's coat of arms between two sprays of leaves in green enamel. On the reverse below the shield and leaves without enamel, is a raised bronze heart with the inscription, "For Military Merit," with a space for the name of the recipient (which is to be engraved). The entire device is 1 1/16 inches in length. The medal is suspended by a rectangular-shaped metal loop with corners rounded from a silk moire ribbon 1⅜ inches in width and 1⅜ inches in length, consisting of a purple (pansy) center with ⅛-inch white edges.

(4) Those individuals who, as members of the Army of the United States, prior to December 7, 1941, were awarded a meritorious services citation certificate in World War I, or were authorized to wear a wound chevron, or received wounds in action which would have entitled them to wear a wound chevron under regulations existing at that time, may make application to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C., for award of the Purple Heart in lieu of the meritorious service citation certificate or wound chevron.

(5) Those individuals who, on or after December 7, 1941, were awarded a Purple Heart for meritorious achievement or meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy may make application to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C., for an appropriate award in lieu of the Purple Heart.

9. Paragraph (i) (3) is added to § 708.2 as follows:

(i) Air Medal. * * *

(3) Description. A bronze compass rose 1 11/16 inches circumscribing diameter suspended by the pointer and charged with an eagle volant carrying two lightning flashes in its talons. The points of the compass rose on the reverse are modeled with the central portion plain for the name of the recipient (which is to be engraved). The medal is suspended from a moire silk ribbon 1⅜ inches in length and 1⅜ inches in width, composed of a band of ultramarine blue (⅛ inch), a band of golden orange (¼ inch), a band of ultramarine blue (⅜ inch), a band of golden orange (¼ inch), and a band of ultramarine blue (⅛ inch) by a ring engaging the pointer.

10. Paragraphs (j) and (k) of § 708.2 are superseded by the following:

(j) Oak-Leaf Cluster—(1) Award. No military decoration will be awarded more than once to any one person, but for each succeeding act of heroism, meritorious achievement, or period of meritorious service justifying an award, a bronze Oak-Leaf Cluster will be awarded in lieu. A silver Oak-Leaf Cluster may be worn in lieu of five bronze Oak-Leaf Clusters.

(2) Description. A bronze or silver twig of four oak leaves with three acorns on the stem 13/32 inch in length for the suspension ribbon and ⅜ inch in length for the service ribbon.

(3) Replacement. The provisions of (1) above do not preclude the issuance of a duplicate decoration or a replacement to the next of kin or to the person to whom it was awarded whenever the decoration previously presented has been lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use without fault or neglect on the part of the person to whom it was awarded (see § 708.7).

(k) Bronze Star Medal—(1) Heroism. (i) The Bronze Star Medal is awarded to persons who, while serving in any capacity with the Army, on or after December 7, 1941, distinguish themselves by heroism in combat against the armed enemy, in operations not involving participation in aerial flight. See E. O. 9419, February 4, 1944 (9 F. R. 1495).

(ii) The Bronze Star Medal may be awarded to recognize minor acts of heroism in actual ground combat against the enemy where the award of a Silver Star is not warranted.

(2) Meritorious achievement or meritorious service. (i) The Bronze Star Medal is awarded to members of the armed forces who, while serving in any capacity with the Army, on or after December 7, 1941, distinguish themselves by meritorious achievement or meritorious service, not involving participation in aerial flight, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. See E. O. 9419, February 4, 1944 (9 F. R. 1495).

(ii) The required meritorious achievement or meritorious service for award of the Bronze Star Medal is less than that required for the Legion of Merit, but must nevertheless be accomplished with distinction. The Bronze Star Medal may be awarded to recognize meritorious service or single acts of merit.

(3) Description. (i) A bronze star 1½ inches in circumscribing diameter. In the center thereof is a 3/16 inch diameter raised bronze star, the center line of all rays of both stars coinciding. The reverse has the inscription "Heroic or meritorious achievement" and a space for the name of the recipient (which is to be engraved). The star is suspended by a rectangular-shaped metal loop with corners rounded from a silk moire ribbon 1⅜ inches in length and 1⅜ inches in width composed of stripes of white (1/32 inch), red (3/16 inch), white (1/32 inch), blue (⅛ inch), white (1/32 inch), red (3/16 inch), and white (1/32 inch).

(ii) Letter "V" device: A bronze block letter "V" ¼ of an inch in height, with serifs at the top of the members.

(4) Letter "V" device. The letter "V" device is authorized for wear on the suspension ribbon and the service ribbon of the Bronze Star Medal to indicate that an award was made for heroism (valor) rather than for meritorious achievement or meritorious service. Only one letter "V" will be worn. All additional awards whether for heroism, meritorius achievement, or meritorious service will be designated by Oak-Leaf Clusters. All orders awarding the Bronze Star Medal will specifically state whether the award was for heroism, meritorious achievement, or meritorious service.

11. Paragraph (1) of § 708.2 is revoked and paragraph (m) of the same section is added as follows:

(1) United States America Typhus Commission Medal. [Revoked]

(m) Army Commendation Ribbon. (1) The Army Commendation Ribbon is awarded to members of the armed forces who, while serving in any capacity with the Army, on or after December 7, 1941, distinguish themselves by meritorious achievement or meritorious service, not in connection with military operations against the enemy.

(2) The meritorious achievement or meritorious service required is less exceptional than that required for the Legion of Merit, but nevertheless must be accomplished with distinction. Exactly the same degree of meritorious achievement or meritorious service is required as that for which the Bronze Star Medal and/or the Air Medal are awarded. It is particularly desired that the Army Commendation Ribbon be awarded to outstanding company-grade officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men whose achievement or service meets the standards prescribed. An Army Commendation Ribbon will not be awarded for the same period of service or achievement for which the Bronze Star or Air Medal has been awarded.

(3) The Army Commendation Ribbon will not be awarded for meritorious achievement or meritorious service rendered during World War II within the following operational areas between the inclusive dates indicated below:

(i) December 7, 1941 through May 8, 1945: European, Mediterranean, and North African Theaters of Operations; United States Forces in Africa and Middle East; and Persian Gulf Command.

(ii) December 7, 1941 through September 2, 1945: United States Army Forces in Pacific; and China and India-Burma Theaters.

(iii) June 3, 1942 through August 24, 1943: Alaskan Department in the area west of longitude 165 degrees west, and south of latitude 55 degrees north, which is the area of the Aleutian Islands west of Fort Mears (inclusive).

(4) Those individuals who, as members of the armed forces of the United States, on or after December 7, 1941 and prior to January 1, 1946, were commended in a letter of commendation or certificate of commendation by a major general, or officer occupying the position vacancy of a major general, for meritorious achievement or meritorious service, not in connection with military operations against the enemy (see subparagraph (3) of this paragraph) may make application for the Army Commendation Ribbon to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C.

12. Section 708.4 is rescinded and the following substituted therefor:

§ 708.4 Time limits. (a) Except as prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section when the decoration is to be awarded in lieu of another decoration previously awarded, or on the basis of an existing letter, certificate, or citation in orders (see paragraph (e) (2), (h) (4), (h) (5) and (m) (4) of § 708.2), no military decoration will be awarded to any person after more than 3 years from the date of the heroism, meritorious achievement or meritorious service justifying an award, nor unless the recommendation was submitted through military channels within 2 years from the date of the heroism, meritorious achievement, or meritorious service.

(b) As an exception, military decorations may be awarded when the heroism, meritorious achievement, or meritorious service justifying the award was performed between December 7, 1941 and December 31, 1946, both dates inclusive, providing a recommendation is submitted through official channels prior to July 1, 1947.

13. In § 708.5 amend the last portion of the text to read as follows:

§ 708.5 Posthumous awards. * * * Widow or widower, eldest son, eldest daughter, father, mother, eldest brother, eldest sister, eldest grandchild.

14. Section 708.7 is rescinded and the following substituted therefor:

§ 708.7 Replacement. Whenever a decoration and/or appurtenance is lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use without fault or neglect on the part of the person to whom it was awarded, it will be replaced without charge upon application to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C.

15. Add § 708.11 as follows:

§ 708.11 Medal of Freedom—(a) Citizens and habitual residents of the United States. (1) The Medal of Freedom without degree, is awarded to citizens or habitual residents of the United States not in the armed forces who, on or after December 7, 1941, distinguish themselves by meritorious achievement or meritorious service to the United States in the prosecution of the war against an enemy. See E. O. 9586, July 6, 1945 (10 F. R. 8523).

(2) The Medal of Freedom will not be awarded to any citizen or habitual resident of the United States for any meritorious achievement or meritorious service performed within the continental limits of the United States. The degree of meritorious achievement or meritorious service required is the same as that for which the Bronze Star Medal is awarded to members of the armed forces.

(b) Citizens of foreign nations. (1) The Medal of Freedom, in four degrees, is awarded to persons, not citizens or habitual residents of the United States nor members of the armed forces, who distinguish themselves by meritorious achievement or meritorious service which has aided the United States in the prosecution of the war against the enemy.

(2) The degree of the Medal of Freedom and corresponding degrees of the Legion of Merit are:

Medal of Freedom	Legion of Merit
(i) Gold palm	Chief Commander.
(ii) Silver palm	Commander.
(iii) Bronze palm	Officer and Legionnaire.

(3) The Medal of Freedom without palm is equivalent to the Bronze Star Medal awarded members of the armed forces.

(c) Description. (1) The medal of bronze is 1¼ inches in diameter. On the obverse is the head, shoulders, and headdress of freedom (taken from the statue on the top of the United States Capitol dome). In the lower portion in an arc is the inscription "Freedom." On the reverse is the "Liberty Bell" without carriage, within a circle composed of the words "United States of America." The medal is suspended by a ring from a silk moire ribbon 1⅜ inches in length and 1⅜ inches in width composed of red (5/16 inch), white (1/32 inch), red (⅛ inch), white (1/32 inch), red (⅛ inch), white (1/32 inch), red (⅛ inch), white (1/32 inch), and red (5/16 inch).

(2) Palm. A gold, silver, or bronze palm 1⅛ inches in length.

(d) Time limits. See § 708.4.

(e) Additional awards. No more than one Medal of Freedom will be awarded to any one person. For each additional meritorious achievement or meritorious service warranting an additional award to a citizen or habitual resident of the United States, an Oak-Leaf Cluster will be awarded in lieu. For each additional meritorious achievement or meritorious service warranting an additional award to a citizen of a foreign nation, the Medal of Freedom in higher degree will be awarded in lieu. A subsequent award in a lesser degree is not authorized.

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Reg., Serial No. 392]

PART 301—ORGANIZATION, DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY AND PUBLIC INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION OF ORGANIZATION

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Board held at its office in Washington, D. C. on the 13th day of June 1947.

The Civil Aeronautics Board, acting pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, particularly sections 205 (a) and 1001 thereof, and pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, particularly sections 3 and 12 thereof, hereby amends § 301.1 Description of organization, of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations as follows, effective immediately.

1. Subparagraph (2) The Office of the General Counsel, of paragraph (b) Principal office and organization, of § 301.1 is amended by striking therefrom the following: "(iii) Safety Legal Division."

2. Section 301.1 (b) (5) is amended to read as follows:

(5) The Office of Trial Examiners.
(i) Economic Proceedings Division.
(ii) Safety Enforcement Proceedings Division.
(iii) Docket Section.
(iv) Editorial Unit.

(52 Stat. 984, 1017, as amended, secs. 3, 12, Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 238, 244; 49 U. S. C. 425, 641)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[Regs., Serial No. 393]

PART 302—DESCRIPTION OF FUNCTIONS; COURSE AND METHOD BY WHICH FUNCTIONS ARE CHANNELED; SCOPE AND CONTENTS OF DOCUMENTS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Board held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of June 1947.

The Civil Aeronautics Board, acting pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938 as amended, particularly sections 205 (a) and 1001 thereof, and pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, particularly sections 3 and 12 thereof, hereby amends Part 302 of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations as follows, effective immediately:

1. Paragraph (b) The Office of the General Counsel, of § 302.2 is amended by striking therefrom all of subparagraph (4) The Safety Legal Division, of such section:

2. Paragraph (e) of § 302 2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 302.2 Functions of officers and bureaus. • • •

(e) The Office of the Trial Examiners. The Chief Examiner is directly responsible to the Board for the conduct and disposition of all formal proceedings before the Board arising under Titles IV and VI, and section 1002 of the Civil Aeronautics Act. The following activities within the Office of Trial Examiners are performed under the administrative supervision and direction of the Chief Examiner;

(1) The Economic Proceedings Division. The Examiners assigned to this division of the Office of Trial Examiners preside at prehearing conferences and hearings in all formal economic proceedings. All matters concerning the conduct of a hearing and motions and requests arising in connection with any such proceeding are referred to the Examiner assigned to the proceeding. Such examiner acts upon such matters as may be disposed of by him and prepares recommendations to the Chief Examiner or to the Board respecting disposition of such matters as require action by the Chief Examiner or the Board. Recommended decisions are made by the examiners in all economic proceedings other than those for the fixing of passengers, cargo, and mail rates. The final decision in such economic proceedings is also drafted by the examiner pursuant to instructions from the Board.

(2) The Safety Enforcement Proceedings Division. This division handles all formal proceedings under sections 602 and 609 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938. In addition to the regular functions of examiners, the regional examiners supervise the regional dockets, maintain a calendar of cases for the region, conduct correspondence relating to regional cases and in general conduct the business essential to the handling of safety enforcement proceedings in their regions. An examiner does not prepare any review on exceptions or appeal of any initial decision made by him. The division drafts opinions and orders for the Board as instructed by the Board.

(3) The Docket Section. The Docket Section receives, dockets, and maintains all documents in formal proceedings before the Board; makes official service of notices, orders, rules, reports, and decisions in economic proceedings; and issues periodic statements and reports respecting the status of all formal proceedings.

(4) The Editorial Unit. The Editorial Unit edits and prepares for printing: reports decisions, and opinions; and prepares the index digest for the bound volumes of the Board's official reports.

3. Paragraph (a) of § 302.5* Channeling of complaints, is amended by striking out the words "Informal complaints" appearing as the heading thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Informal complaints in economic matters."

4. Paragraph (b) of § 302.5 is amended by striking out the words "Formal complaints" appearing as the heading thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Formal complaints in economic matters."

5. Section 302.5 is amended by adding thereto a new paragraph (c) reading as follows:

(c) Complaints and petitions in safety enforcement matters. Formal complaints in safety matters are filed by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics with the Docket Section of the Board in Washington, or in the Regional Docket in which the case arises. Informal complaints should be filed with the legal staff of the Administrator. Any person whose application for the issuance or renewal of an airman certificate or rating has been denied may petition the Board for a review of the action of the Administrator. All such formal complaints or petitions for review are referred to the Office of Trial Examiners and are handled by the Safety Enforcement Proceedings Division. Proceedings are conducted as provided for in dPart 97 of the Civil Aair Regulations of this chapter.

6. Section 302.7 (c) (3) of this chapter is amended to read as follows:

§ 302.7 Channeling of formal proceedings • • •

(c) Suspension and revocation of safety certificates. • • •

(3) A Trial Examiner is designated by the Chief Trial Examiner or an Assistant Chief Trial Examiner; where a Regional Examiner has been assigned, he will ordinarily be designated for all cases within his region.

7. Paragraph (c) of § 302.7 is amended by adding subparagraph (9), to read as follows:

(9) Proceedings for a review of the action of the Administrator in denying the issuance or renewal of an airman certificate or rating also follow the requirements of and the procedure described in Part 97 of the Civil Air Regulations of this chapter. Such proceeding may be instituted by an informal request by a party whose interests have been adversely affected by the action of the Administrator.

CONSTRUCTION COST ALLOWANCES

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Federal Airport Act (60 Stat. 170; Pub. Law No. 377, 79th Cong.), I hereby amend Part 550 of the regulations of the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics, as follows:

By adding a new subdivision, to be numbered (iii), to § 550.9 (a) (2):

§ 550.9 Allowable project costs. • • •

(a) Classification of project costs. • • •

(2) Construction costs; contract • • •

(iii) Sponsor's stock-pile materials and supplies. Stock-pile items of appropriate materials and supplies owned by the sponsor or furnished from a source of supply owned by the sponsor, when incorporated into an approved airport project by the contractor: Provided, That such materials and supplies shall not have been appropriated to the project prior to the date of execution of the Grant Agreement relating to such project.

This amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency

PART 141—TESTS AND METHODS OF ASSAY FOR ANTIBIOTIC DRUGS

CRYSTALLINE PENICILLIN TABLETS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of section 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040, 1055, as amended by 59 Stat. 463 and Pub. Law 16, 80th Cong., 1st Sess.; 21 U. S. C. Sup. 357) the regulations for tests and methods of assay of antibiotic drugs (12 F. R. 2215) are hereby amended by adding the following new section:

§ 141.21 Crystalline penicillin tablets—(a) Potency. Proceed as directed in § 141.1 except paragraph (i) thereof, and in lieu of the directions in paragraph (d) of § 141.1 prepare sample as follows:

Dissolve 12 tablets in sterile distilled water to make an appropriate stock solution. The average potency of the tablets is satisfactory if it contains not less than 85% of the number of units per tablet it is represented to contain.

(b) Microorganism count. Accurately weigh from 3 to 5 tablets in a test tube and add sufficient sterile penicillinase contained in a total volume of 15 ml. to inactivate the penicillin present. Let stand one hour. Thoroughly shake the mixture and transfer aseptically one-third the amount to each of three sterile petri dishes. Pour into the petri dish 20 ml. of nutrient agar, described in § 141.1 (b) (1), which has been melted and cooled to 48° C. Thoroughly mix, allow the agar to solidify, invert the petri dish, and incubate for 48 hours at 37° C. Count the number of colonies appearing on the plates and calculate therefrom the number of viable microorganisms per gram.

(c) Toxicity. Proceed as directed in § 141.4.

(d) Moisture, pH, microscopical test for crystallinity, stability, penicillin G content and penicillin K content. Proceed as directed in § 141.5.

This order, which provides for the marketing of a new penicillin product, crystalline penicillin tablets, shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the penicillin industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order and would be contrary to the public interest, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry, and since it would be against public interest to delay the marketing of a new penicillin product. (Sec. 507, 52 Stat. 1040, as amended by 59 Stat. 463 and Pub. Law 16, 80th Cong., 21 U. S. C. and Sup. 357)

Dated: June 16, 1947.

[SEAL] MAURICE COLLINS,
Acting Administrator.

PART 146—CERTIFICATION OF BATCHES OF PENICILLIN- OR STREPTOMYCIN-CONTAINING DRUGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of section 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040, 1055, as amended by 59 Stat. 463 and Public Law 16, 80th Cong., 1st Sess.; 21 U. S. C., Sup. 357) the regulations for the certification of penicillin-containing drugs and streptomycin-containing drugs are hereby amended as indicated below:

1. Paragraph (a) of § 146.25, Penicillin oil and wax, is amended by deleting the last two sentences of the paragraph and substituting therefor the following: "The peanut oil, sesame oil, and the white wax used conform to the standards prescribed therefor by the U. S. P."

2. Part 146 is amended by adding the following new section:

§ 146.39 Crystalline penicillin tablets—(a) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Crystalline penicillin tablets are molded, freely soluble tablets of crystalline penicillin. It is tableted without the addition of diluents, binders, lubricants, colorings, or flavorings. The potency of each tablet is not less than 50,000 units; it conforms to the requirements of § 146.24 (a) for crystalline penicillin except subparagraphs (2), (4), and (7) of § 146.24 (a), but its content of viable microorganisms is not more than 50 per gram.

(b) Packaging. Each tablet is enclosed in a foil or plastic film or other container each of which is a tight container as defined by the U. S. P. except the provision that it shall be capable of tight reclosure. The composition of the container shall be such as will not cause any change in the strength, quality, or purity of the contents beyond any limit therefor in applicable standards, except that minor changes so caused which are normal and unavoidable in good packaging, storage, and distribution practice shall be disregarded.

(c) Labeling. Each package of crystalline penicillin tablets shall bear, on its label or labeling as hereinafter indicated, the following:

(1) On the outside wrapper or container and the immediate container:

(i) The batch mark;

(ii) The number of units in each tablet of the batch;

(iii) The statement "Warning—Not for injection";

(iv) The statement "Expiration date --------", the blank being filled in with the date which is 36 months after the month during which the batch was certified;

(v) The statement "Caution: To be dispensed only by or on the prescription of a --------", the blank being filled in with the word "physician" or "dentist" or both, as the case may be;

(vi) A reference specifically identifying a readily available medical publication containing directions and precautions (including contraindications and possible sensitization) adequate for the use of such tablets; or a reference to a brochure, or other printed matter containing such directions and precautions, and a statement that such brochure and printed matter will be sent on request.

(d) Requests for certification; samples. (1) In addition to complying with the requirements of § 146.2, a person who requests certification of a batch of crystalline penicillin tablets shall submit with his request a statement showing the batch mark, the number of packages of each size in such batch, the batch mark and (unless it was previously submitted) the date on which the latest assay of the penicillin used in making such batch was completed, the number of units in each tablet, the quantity of crystalline penicillin used in making the batch, and the date on which the latest assay of the tablets comprising such batch was completed.

(2) Such person shall submit in connection with his request results of the tests and assays listed after each of the following, made by him on an accurately representative sample of the batch: Average potency per tablet, toxicity, average moisture, pH, microorganism count, penicillin K content (unless it is crystalline penicillin G), crystallinity, heat stability, and the penicillin G content if it is crystalline penicillin G.

(3) Such person shall submit in connection with his request accurately representative samples of the batch: One tablet for each 5,000 tablets in the batch, but in no case less than 40 tablets or more than 120 tablets, collected by taking single tablets at such intervals throughout the entire time the tablets are being made that the quantities made during the intervals are approximately equal.

(e) Fees. The fee for the services rendered with respect to each batch of crystalline penicillin tablets under the regulations in this part shall be:

(1) $1.00 for each tablet in the sample submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) of this section; and

(2) If the Commissioner considers that investigations, other than examination of such tablets, are necessary to determine whether or not such batch complies with the requirements of § 146.3 for the issuance of a certificate, the cost of such investigations.

The fee prescribed by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall accompany the request for certification unless such fee is covered by an advance deposit maintained in accordance with § 146.8 (d).

This order, which provides for the marketing of a new penicillin product, crystalline penicillin tablets, and new and amended standards for peanut oil, sesame oil, and white wax shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER since both the public and the penicillin industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order and would be contrary to the public interest, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry and since it would be against public interest to delay the marketing of a new penicillin product and revising the standards for peanut oil, sesame oil, and white wax.

(Sec. 507, 52 Stat. 1040, as amended by 59 Stat. 463 and Pub. Law 16, 80th Cong., 21 U. S. C. and Sup. 357)

Dated: June 16, 1947.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VII—Sugar Rationing Administration, Department of Agriculture

[3d Rev. RO 3,[1] Amdt. 55]

PART 707—RATIONING OF SUGAR

SUGAR

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Third Revised Ration Order 3 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2.8 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) All sugar (other than sugar which was included in his present inventory and sugar acquired under the provisions of section 8.9) received without giving up evidences.

2. Section 2.10 (b) is amended by adding a sentence to read as follows: "However, an industrial user who acquires sugar under the provisions of section 8.9 may use such sugar in excess of his allotment for the period in which such sugar was acquired, or any subsequent period."

3. Section 8.9 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 8.9 Ration-free delivery of sugar manufactured for own use. (a) Any person who manufactures sugar for his own use, or has it manufactured for his own use by another person, from (1) an imported sugar-containing product, or from (2) a sugar-containing product for which ration evidences have been surrendered for the amount of sugar contained in such product, may acquire and use such sugar in his registered industrial user establishment without the surrender of ration evidences.

4. Section 17.2 (a) is amended by adding a sentence to read as follows: "However, the provisions of this section do not apply to sugar acquired under the provisions of section 8.9."

This amendment shall become effective June 20, 1947.

Issued this 18th day of June 1947.

CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Rationale Accompanying Amendment No. 55 to Third Revised Ration Order 3

Under the present regulations, a person who manufactures sugar is a primary distributor and he may not make an industrial use of sugar he produces unless he is also a registered industrial user. As an industrial user, he must give up evidences to his primary distributor establishment for any sugar he acquires or uses in such operations. Thus, a person who manufactures sugar from a product containing sugar for which ration evidences have been surrendered, or from an imported sugar-containing product, may not thereafter make an industrial use of the sugar recovered from such products unless he is a registered industrial user and unless he surrenders ration evidences covering the amount of the sugar.

Sugar-containing products and imported sugar-containing products which are used by an industrial user to make another product and which are damaged in the course of manufacture, may have no commercial value unless the sugar contained therein is recovered. However, under the present provisions of the regulations he may not recover the sugar from such products and make an industrial use of it without surrendering ration evidences. Since it is desirable to provide for the use of such recovered sugar without requiring the surrender of ration evidences, this amendment permits a person who, for his own use, manufactures, or has another person manufacture for him, sugar from a sugar-containing product for which ration evidences have been surrendered, or from an imported sugar-containing product, to acquire and use such sugar in his registered industrial user establishment without the surrender of ration evidences.

TITLE 36—PARKS AND FORESTS

Chapter I—National Park Service, Department of the Interior

PART 01—ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURE

ORGANIZATION; MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 01.6 General description, is amended to read as follows:

§ 01.6 Director's Office. The Director of the National Park Service is in charge of the Service. The headquarters organization consists of the Director, Associate Director, and Assistant Director, four staff divisions, and eight technical branches. Under the supervision of the Director, the headquarters staff formulates policies for the protection, preservation, and use of the national park areas. It supervises the interpretive services in natural sciences, history, and archeology rendered for the public, provides for museum developments, and investigates proposed additions to the National Park System.

Staff offices and divisions consist of the Fiscal Division, the Personnel Division, the Safety Division, and the Office of the Chief Clerk.

2. Section 01.8 Branch of Engineering, is amended to read as follows:

§ 01.8 Branch of Development. The Branch of Development supervises all architectural and landscape design, engineering, planning, construction, and maintenance; prepares master plans and construction programs for the control of physical developments; collaborates with the Public Roads Administration regarding the location, design and construction of major roads and parkways; supervises sanitation control and water rights; has charge of engineering construction, surveys, maps, plans, codes, standards, designs, estimates, specifications, road maintenance, minor road construction, hydraulic structures, materials research, radio research and installation, construction bid invitations, and construction contract preparation; reviews concessioners' building plans; and directs the Historic American Buildings Survey.

3. Section 01.13 Branch of Plans and Design, is amended to read as follows:

§ 01.13 Office of the Chief Counsel. The Office of the Chief Counsel performs all legal services for the National Park Service; including rendition of legal advice concerning land acquisition, water rights, contracts, and other matters; preparation and interpretation of legislation and regulations relating to the National Park System; and advises the Director on legal aspects of concession policies.

4. A new § 01.15 Office of Information, is added, reading as follows:

§ 01.15 Office of Information. The Office of Information supervises public relations, informational, and editorial work, including the presentation of information concerning the policies and objectives of the Service, and preparation of reports and manuscripts for publication; advises authors and editors concerning demands for publications; represents the Director in interviews with the press, meetings with Government agencies, Congressional committees, and civic organizations.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 5—ADJUDICATION; DEPENDENTS' CLAIMS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The following amendments are made to Part 5:

§ 5.2591 Conditions under which apportionment may be made. No change in paragraphs (a) and (b).

(c) (1) Rates payable. (i) Apportionment of death compensation or pension under any law administered by the VA, except as provided in subdivisions (ii) and (iii) of this subparagraph, shall be computed as follows: The share for all children for whom claim is filed will be that amount to which they would be entitled if there were no widow. The widow's share will be the difference between the children's share and the total amount payable on account of the widow and all children for whom claim is filed. In all instances, the amount payable to or for the children will be divided equally among the children. The share for any children in the widow's custody will be added to the widow's share. If, in the application of this rule, the widow's share would be increased to an amount greater than the amount to which she would be entitled if there were no children, then her share will be the amount to which she would be entitled if there were no children and the difference between the amount of such widow's share and the entire amount payable for the widow and children will be the children's share. If, however, in the application of this rule, the widow's share would be reduced to an amount lower than 50 percent of that to which she would be entitled if there were no children, then her share will be 50 percent of the amount to which she would be entitled if there were no children, and the difference between the amount of such widow's share and the entire amount payable for the widow and children will be the children's share.

No change in remainder of section.

§ 5.2592 Changing prior apportionments; discontinuance of apportionments, effective dates—(a) (1) When change may be made. If an award has been made pursuant to a prior apportionment regulation, and a retroactive increase in the total amount payable is in order, the awards will be adjusted in accordance with § 5.2591 (c), effective as of the commencement date of the prior apportionment or the date of the increase in the total amount payable, whichever is the later, provided no overpayment to any payee will result. If an overpayment to any payee will result, the amount of the retroactive increase will be divided equally among the children from the effective date of such increase to the last day of the month in which the action is taken, thereafter applying the rates prescribed in § 5.2591 (c).

No change in remainder of section.

PART 25—MEDICAL

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The following amendments are made to Part 25:

§ 25.6047 Eligibility for hospital treatment or domiciliary care of persons discharged or retired from Military or Naval Service. Within the limits of Veterans' Administration facilities, hospital treatment or domiciliary care may be furnished the following applicants in the specified order of preference:

No change in paragraphs (a) and (b).

No change in paragraph (c) (1).

Paragraph (c) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Domiciliary care for persons enumerated in paragraph (c) (1) of this section, when suffering from a permanent disability or tuberculous or neuropsychiatric ailment and who are incapacitated from earning a living and who have no adequate means of support. If a member is discharged on his own request or at the expiration of seven days following an authorized pass or leave of absence, it will be presumed he no longer regards himself as incapacitated from earning a living. Under such circumstances he will not be furnished hospitalization or domiciliary care until the expiration of one month from the date of such discharge, except when requiring readmission in a medical emergency.

No change in paragraphs (d) (1) and (d) (2).

(3) If a member is discharged on his own request or at the expiration of seven days following an authorized pass or leave of absence it will be presumed he no longer regards himself as incapacitated from earning a living. Under such circumstances he will not be furnished hospitalization or domiciliary care until the expiration of one month from the date of such discharge except when requiring readmission in a medical emergency.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 6768]

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 12th day of June 1947.

The Commission having under consideration proposed amendments to Part 3, Subpart B, §§ 3.203 and 3.204 of the Commission's rules governing Standard and FM Broadcast Stations, and to sections 1, 2 and 4 of the Commission's Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning FM Broadcast Stations;

It appearing, that the existing rules provide for the assignment to Class A

FM stations of channels 281 through 300 (104.1 to 107.9 mc) and to Class B FM stations of channels 221 through 280 (92.1 to 103.9 mc); for a normal minimum separation for Class A stations of 50 miles on the same channel and 35 miles on adjacent channels; for the availability for assignment of all Class A channels in cities which are not the central city or cities of a metropolitan district, and for the availability for assignment of ten such channels in central cities of metropolitan districts which have fewer than six Class B stations; and for the reservation from assignment until July 1, 1947, of Class A channels 297, 298, 299 and 300;

It appearing, that under the existing FM standards the term "antenna height above average terrain" is defined as meaning the height of the radiation center of the antenna above the terrain 10 miles from the antenna in case of Class A stations, and as the height of the radiation center of the antenna above the average terrain 2 to 10 miles from the antenna in case of Class B stations; that Class A stations normally will not be required to determine their contours, while Class B stations shall determine the extent of their 1000 uv/m and 50 uv/m contours; and that objectionable interference is not considered to exist when the channel separation is 400 kc or greater, and, accordingly, FM broadcast stations in the same city or same area may be assigned channels 400 kc apart;

It appearing, that the application of the foregoing rules and standards tended to group stations 400 kc apart in most cities, resulting in some interference between stations located in the same city and difficulty in identifying stations close together on the FM receiver dial; and

It appearing, that the proposed amendments to the rules and standards are designed to resolve these interference and related problems by providing for the interspersing of Class A and Class B FM stations throughout the FM frequency band in order to provide a normal minimum separation of 800 kc between stations in the same city, and a minimum of 400 kc separation between stations in nearby cities in a few areas where the demand for such facilities so requires; and

It appearing, that the proposed amendments, in order to effectuate the foregoing design, further provide for the allocation of Class A stations in the same manner as Class B stations; for the availability for assignment of all Class A channels in cities which are not the central city or cities of a metropolitan district and in central cities of metropolitan districts which have fewer than six Class B stations; and for the reservation from assignment until July 1, 1947, of Class A channels 224, 240, 272 and 288; and

It appearing, that the adoption of the proposed amendments would make possible the issuance by the Commission of a revised tentative allocation plan for Class B FM broadcast stations (as proposed on April 10, 1947) under which additional Class B FM channels could be made available in many cities and areas to meet the recently developed demand for FM facilities in such cities and areas; and

It appearing, that on April 17, 1947, a general notice of proposed rule-making with respect to the proposed amendments was published in accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; that such notice provided that any interested party of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted might file on or before May 1, 1947, a brief or written statement setting forth his comments; that such notice scheduled a hearing before the Commission on May 8 and 9, 1947, to permit persons filing briefs or written statements to submit evidence or argument; and

It appearing, that statements in opposition to the proposed amendments have been filed only (1) by Richard Field Lewis, Jr., permittee of WINC–FM, a class B station at Winchester, Virginia, who subsequently advised the Commission that he desired to withdraw his appearance at the scheduled hearing, but who has requested by letter to the Commission that Channel No. 260 be assigned to WINC–FM under the proposed revision to the tentative allocation plan for class B FM broadcast stations (issued April 10, 1947); and (2) by Hearst Radio, Inc., The Tower Realty Company, and Radio-Television of Baltimore, Inc., jointly, whose applications for new class B FM stations at Baltimore, Maryland, have been heard in a comparative hearing upon issues which include whether three additional channels should be allocated to the Baltimore area, and whose statement in opposition requested, in the alternative, that Channel No. 260 be allocated to the Baltimore area in the proposed revision to the tentative allocation plan for class B FM broadcast stations (in addition to the two additional Class B channels allocated to the Baltimore area in the proposed plan), or that Channel No. 260 be held available for assignment in the event the Commission concludes in the Baltimore hearing that an additional channel should be assigned to that area; and

It appearing, that the Commission on May 7, 1947 announced that the hearing then scheduled for May 8 and 9, 1947 had been cancelled, since the question of the allocation of Channel No. 260, raised by both Lewis and the Baltimore applicants, was an issue between these parties, which did not affect the general merits of the proposed amendments, and which issue could be more appropriately determined at a later date without the necessity of delaying the adoption of the proposed amendments or proposed revision to the tentative allocation plan (which as proposed does not allocate Channel No. 260 in either the Baltimore or Winchester areas); and since, accordingly, no useful purpose would have been served by holding the hearing;

It appearing, that the adoption of the proposed amendments would not reduce the total number of FM channels heretofore assigned or presently available for assignment in any city or area, and would permit an increase in the total number of such channels available for assignment in certain cities and areas where the demand appears to exceed the channels presently available; that no substantial objection to the adoption of the proposed amendments has been made;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That §§ 3.203 and 3.204 of the Commission's rules governing Standard and FM Broadcast Stations be, and they are hereby, amended in the following respects:

1. Sections 3.203 (a), (b) and (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.203 Class A stations. (a) A Class A station is a station which operates on a Class A channel and is designed to render service primarily to a community or to a city or town other than the principal city of an area, and the surrounding rural area. The transmitter power and antenna height of a Class A station shall normally be capable of coverage equivalent[1] to a minimum of 100 watts and a maximum of 1 kw effective radiated power and antenna height of 250 feet above average terrain, as determined by the methods prescribed in the Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning FM Broadcast Stations. Class A stations will not be authorized with more than 1 kw effective radiated power. Standard power ratings of transmitters used for Class A stations shall be not less than 250 watts nor more than 1 kilowatt. Class A stations will normally be protected to the 1 mv/m contour; however, assignments will be made in a manner to insure, insofar as possible, a maximum of service to all listeners, whether urban or rural, giving consideration to the minimum signal capable of providing service.

(b) The following frequencies are designated as Class A channels and are assigned for use by Class A stations:

Frequency (mc)	Channel No.	Frequency (mc)	Channel No.
92.1	221	100.1	261
92.7	224	100.9	265
93.5	228	101.7	269
94.3	232	102.3	272
95.3	237	103.1	276
95.9	240	103.9	280
96.7	244	104.9	285
97.7	249	105.5	288
98.3	252	106.3	292
99.3	257	107.1	296

These channels are available for assignment (1) in cities which are not the central city or cities of a metropolitan district, and (2) in central cities of metropolitan districts which have fewer than six Class B Stations.[2]

* * * * *

(d) No assignments will be made on channels 224, 240, 272 and 288 until July 1, 1947.

2. Section 3.204 (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.204 Class B stations. * * *

(b) The following frequencies are designated as Class B channels and are assigned for use by Class B Stations:

[1] For the purpose of determining equivalent coverage, the 1 mv/m contour should be used.

[2] For the time being, until more FM broadcast stations are authorized, the Commission will not authorize Class A stations in central cities of metropolitan districts having four or more standard broadcast stations.

99.9	260	107.9	300

It is further ordered, That sections 1, 2 and 4 of the Commission's Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning FM Broadcast Stations be, and they are hereby, amended in the following respects:

1. Definitions. * * *

M. Antenna height above average terrain. (1) The term "antenna height above average terrain" means the height of the radiation center of the antenna above the terrain 2 to 10 miles from the antenna. (In general a different antenna height will be determined for each direction from the antenna. The average of these various heights is considered as the antenna height above average terrain.)

(2) Where circular or elliptical polarization is employed the antenna height above average terrain shall be based upon the height of the radiation center of the antenna which transmits the horizontal component of radiation.

2. Engineering standards of allocation. A. Sections 3.202 to 3.206 inclusive of the rules and regulations describe the basis for allocation of FM Broadcast Stations, including the division of the United States into Areas I and II.

B. FM broadcast stations shall determine the extent of their 1 mv/m and 50 uv/m contours in accordance with the methods prescribed in these Standards.

C. Although some service is provided by tropospheric waves, the service area is considered to be only that served by the ground wave. The extent of service is determined by the point at which the ground wave is no longer of sufficient intensity to provide satisfactory broadcast service. The field intensity considered necessary for service is as follows:

TABLE I

Area:	Median field intensity
City business or factory areas	1 mv/m
Rural areas	50 uv/m

A median field intensity of 3 to 5 mv/m should be placed over the principal city to be served and for Class B stations, a median field intensity of 1 mv/m should be placed over the business district of cities of 10,000 or greater within the metropolitan district served. A field intensity of 5 mv/m should be provided over the main studio of a Class B station except as otherwise provided in § 3.205 of the rules. The location of the main studio of a Class A station is specified in § 3.203 of the rules. These figures are based upon the usual noise levels encountered in the several areas and upon the absence of interference from other FM stations.

* * * * *

E. The service area is predicted as follows: Profile graphs must be drawn for at least eight radials from the proposed antenna site. These profiles should be prepared for each radial beginning at the antenna site and extending to 10 miles therefrom. Normally the radials are drawn for each 45° of azimuth; however, where feasible the radials should be drawn for angles along which roads tend to follow. (The latter method may be helpful in obtaining topographical data where otherwise unavailable, and is particularly useful in connection with mobile field intensity measurements of the station and the correlation of such measurements with predicted field intensities.) In each case one or more radials must include the principal city or cities to be served, particularly in cases of rugged terrain, even though the city may be more than 10 miles from the antenna site. The profile graph for each radial should be plotted by contour intervals of from 40 to 100 feet and, where the data permits, at least 50 points of elevation (generally uniformly spaced) should be used for each radial. In instances of very rugged terrain where the use of contour intervals of 100 feet would result in several points in a short distance, 200- or 400-foot contour intervals may be used for such distances. On the other hand, where the terrain is uniform or gently sloping the smallest contour interval indicated on the topographic map (see below) should be used, although only a relatively few points may be available. The profile graph should accurately indicate the topography for each radial, and the graphs should be plotted with the distance in miles as the abscissa and the elevation in feet above mean sea level as the ordinate. The profile graphs should indicate the source of the topographical data employed. The graph should also show the elevation of the center of the radiating system. The graph may be plotted either on rectangular coordinate paper or on special paper which shows the curvature of the earth. It is not necessary to take the curvature of the earth into consideration in this procedure, as this factor is taken care of in the chart showing signal intensities (fig. 1).

The average elevation of the 8-mile distance between 2 and 10 miles from the antenna site should then be determined from the profile graph for each radial. This may be obtained by averaging a large number of equally spaced points, by using a planimeter, or by obtaining the median elevation (that exceeded for 50 per cent of the distance) in sectors and averaging these values.

To determine the distance to a particular contour, figure 1 concerning the range of FM broadcast stations should be used. This chart has been prepared for a frequency in the center of the band and is to be used for all FM broadcast channels, since little change results over this frequency range. The distance to a contour is determined by the effective radiated power and the antenna height. The height of the antenna used in connection with figure 1 should be the height of the center of the proposed antenna radiator above the average elevation obtained by the preceding method. The distances shown by figure 1 are based upon an effective radiated power of 1 kilowatt; to use the chart for other powers, the sliding scale associated with the chart should be trimmed and used as the ordinate scale. This sliding scale is placed on the chart with the appropriate gradation for power in line with the lower line of the top edge of the chart. The right edge of the scale is placed in line with the appropriate antenna height graduations and the chart then becomes direct reading for this power and antenna height. Where the antenna height is not one of those for which a scale is provided, the signal strength or distance is determined by interpolation between the curves connecting the equidistant points.

The foregoing process of determining the extent of the required contours shall be followed in determining the boundary of the proposed service area. The areas within the required contours must be determined and submitted with each application for these classes of FM broadcast stations. Each application shall include a map showing these contours, and for this purpose sectional aeronautical charts or other maps having a convenient scale may be used. The map shall show the radials along which the profile charts and expected field strengths have been determined. The area within each contour should then be measured (by planimeter or other approximate means) to determine the number of square miles therein. In computing the area within the contours, exclude (1) areas beyond the borders of the United States, and (2) large bodies of water, such as ocean areas, gulfs, sounds, bays, large lakes, etc., but not rivers.

In cases where the terrain in one or more directions from the antenna site departs widely from the average elevation of the 2 to 10 mile sector, the application of this prediction method may indicate contour distances that are different from those which may be expected in practice. In such cases the prediction method should be followed, but a showing may be made if desired concerning the distance to the contour as determined by other means. Such showing should include data concerning the procedure employed and sample calculations. For example, a mountain ridge may indicate the practical limit of service although the prediction method may indicate the contour elsewhere. In cases of such limitation, the map of predicted coverage should show both the regular predicted area and the area as limited or extended by terrain. Both areas should be measured as previously described; the area obtained by the regular prediction method should be given in the application form, with a supplementary note giving the limited or extended area. In special cases the Commission may require additional information as to the terrain in the proposed service area.

In determining the population served by FM broadcast stations, it is considered that the built-up city areas and business districts in cities having over 10,000 population and located beyond the 1 mv/m contour do not receive adequate service. Minor civil division maps (1940 census) should be used in making population counts, excluding cities not receiving adequate service. Where a contour divides a minor division, uniform distribution of population within the division should be assumed in order to determine the population included within the contour, unless a more accurate count is available.

4. Interference standards. Field intensity measurements are preferable in predicting interference between FM broadcast stations and should be used, when available, in determining the extent of interference. (For methods and procedure, see section 5.) In lieu of measurements, the interference should be predicted in accordance with the method described herein.

Objectionable interference is considered to exist when the interfering signal exceeds that given by the ratios of Table II. In Table II the desired signal is median field and the undesired signal is the tropospheric signal intensity exceeded for 1 per cent of the time.

TABLE II

Channel separation:	Ratio of desired to undesired signals
Same channel	10:1
200 kc	2:1
400 kc	(1)
800 kc and above	No restriction [2]

[1] To be determined.

[2] Intermediate frequency amplifiers of most FM broadcast receivers are designed to operate on 10.7 megacycles. For this reason the assignment of two stations in the same area, one with a frequency 10.6 or 10.8 megacycles removed from that of the other, should be avoided if possible.

Standards have not been established for channel separations in excess of 200 kc; various types of present FM receivers are under study by the Commission to provide data for determining such standards. Pending the completion of such studies and the promulgation of such standards, stations normally will not be authorized to operate in the same city or in nearby cities with a frequency separation of less than 800 kc, Provided, That stations may be authorized to operate in nearby cities with a frequency separation of not less than 400 kc where necessary in order to provide an equitable and efficient distribution of facilities, and Provided further, That class B stations will not be authorized in the same metropolitan district with a frequency separation of less than 800 kc. In the assignment of FM broadcast facilities the Commission will endeavor to provide the optimum use of the channels in the band, and accordingly may assign a channel different than that requested in an application.

In predicting the extent of interference within the ground wave service area of a station, the tropospheric signal intensity (from co-channel and adjacent channel stations) existing for 1 per cent of the time shall be employed. The 1 per cent values for 1 kilowatt of power and various antenna heights are given in figure 2, and values for other powers may be obtained by use of the sliding scale as for figure 1. The values indicated by figure 2 are based upon available data, and are subject to change as additional information concerning tropospheric wave propagation is obtained.[1]

In determining the points at which the interference ratio is equal to the values shown in Table II, the field intensities for the two interfering signals under consideration should be computed for a considerable number of points along the line between the two stations. Using this data, field intensity versus distance curves should be plotted (e. g., cross-curves on graph paper) in order to determine the points on this path where the interference ratios exist. The points established by this method, together with the points along the contours where the same ratios are determined, are considered to be generally sufficient to predict the area of interference. Additional points may be required in the case of irregular terrain or the use of directional antenna systems.

The area of interference, if any, shall be shown in connection with the map of predicted coverage required by the application form, together with the basic data employed in computing such interference. The map shall show the interference within the 50 uv/m contour.

It is further ordered, That the said amendments shall be effective immediately.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of June A. D. 1947.

Upon further consideration of Service Order No. 93 (7 F. R. 8903) as amended, (8 F. R. 13752, 13925; 9 F. R. 2481, 11208; 10 F. R. 15175; 11 F. R. 561, 2189, 14271, 14469, 12 F. R. 46, 104) and good cause appearing therefor: It is ordered, that:

Section 95.301 Giant type refrigerator cars, of Service Order No. 93, as amended, be, and it is hereby, further amended by substituting the following paragraph (g) for paragraph (g) thereof:

(g) Expiration date. This section shall expire at 11:59 p. m., December 31, 1947, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled by order of this Commission.

It is further ordered, that this amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., June 29, 1947; that a copy of this amendment and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

DEMURRAGE CHARGES ON CLOSED BOX CARS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of June, A. D. 1947.

Upon further consideration of Service Order No. 369 (10 F. R. 14030), as amended (10 F. R. 15073; 11 F. R. 639, 2383, 7857, 8453, 10304, 11013, 14522; 12 F. R. 1606, 1724, 2053, 2453), and good cause appearing therefor: It is ordered, that:

Section 95.369, Demurrage charges on closed box cars, of Service Order No. 369, as amended, be, and it is hereby, further amended by vacating and setting aside the following paragraph (c) (5) thereof:

(c) Application. * * *

(5) Demurrage charges substituted for charges for storage of freight in closed box cars. (i) The operation of all tariff rules, regulations, and charges for storage of freight in closed box cars at or short of ports consigned or reconsigned for export, coastwise or intercoastal movement is suspended insofar as they provide charges lower than the charges provided in this section.

(ii) In lieu of the charges for storage of freight in closed box cars at or short of ports suspended in subparagraph (5) (i) of this paragraph, the applicable charges for detention of closed box cars held at or short of ports, for unloading freight consigned to or reconsigned for export, coastwise or intercoastal movement shall be the demurrage charges prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

It is further ordered, that this amendment shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., June 23, 1947, and the provisions of this amendment shall apply only to cars arriving at, or held at ports on or after the effective date hereof.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon each State railroad regulatory body, and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. PART 95—CAR SERVICE

RESTRICTIONS ON RECONSIGNING OF PERISHABLES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of June A. D. 1947.

Upon further consideration of Service Order No. 396 (10 F. R. 15008), as amended (11 F. R. 1627, 4038, 9453; 12 F. R. 1235, 2238, 2479, 3673), and good cause appearing therefor: It is ordered, that:

Service Order No. 396, Perishables; restrictions on reconsigning (codified as 49 CFR, § 95.396), as amended, be, and it is hereby, further amended by substituting the following paragraph (a) for paragraph (a) thereof:

(a) Definitions. (1) The term "perishables" as used in this section means fruits and vegetables, fresh or green, other than cold pack, including citrus fruit; potatoes; onions; bananas; berries, other than cold pack; cantaloupes; cocoanuts; corn, fresh or green, other than cold pack; cranberries; melons; and pineapples.

(2) The term "arrival" as used in this section means the actual time a refrigerator car loaded with perishables is made available for inspection; is placed on a hold track for diversion or reconsignment; or is actually or constructively placed for unloading. Whenever any one of the three events occur the other two shall have no application to that car at that point.

It is further ordered, that this amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., June 20, 1947, and it shall apply only on cars to be diverted or reconsigned on or after the effective date hereof.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order and direction be served upon each State railroad regulatory body, and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. Upon further consideration of Service Order No. 653 (11 F. R. 14572), as amended (12 F. R. 128, 1606, 1816, 1952, 2093), and good cause appearing therefor: It is ordered, that:

Section 95.653 Demurrage charges on gondola, open and covered hopper cars, of Service Order No. 653, as amended, be, and it is hereby, further amended by vacating and setting aside the following paragraph (c) (5) thereof:

(c) Application. * * *

(5) Demurrage charges substituted for charges for storage of freight in closed box cars. (i) The operation of all tariff rules, regulations, and charges for storage of freight in gondola, open or covered hopper cars at or short of ports consigned or reconsigned for export, coastwise or intercoastal movement is suspended insofar as they provide charges lower than the charges provided herein.

(ii) In lieu of the charges for storage of freight in gondola, open or covered hopper cars at or short of ports suspended in subparagraph (5) (i) of this paragraph, the applicable charges for detention of gondola, open or covered hopper cars held at or short of ports, for unloading freight consigned to or reconsigned for export, coastwise or intercoastal movement shall be the demurrage charges prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

It is further ordered, that this amendment shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., June 23, 1947, and the provisions of this amendment shall apply to cars arriving at, or held at ports on or after the effective date hereof.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order and direction be served upon each State railroad regulatory body, and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. PART 95—CAR SERVICE

FREE TIME AT PORTS ON GONDOLA, OPEN AND COVERED HOPPER CARS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of June A. D. 1947.

It appearing, that there is a critical shortage of gondola, open and covered hopper cars and that free time published in tariffs for unloading such cars at ports aggravates the shortage thereof; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action at all ports of the country. It is ordered, that:

§ 95.758 Free time at ports on gondola, open and covered hopper cars—(a) Free time reduced on gondola and hopper cars. No common carrier by railroad, subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, shall allow, grant or permit more than a total of 7 days' free time on gondola, open and covered hopper cars held for unloading in coastwise, intercoastal or foreign commerce at the point of transshipment from car to vessel or when held short of such transfer point. The provisions of this paragraph shall not be constructed to require or permit the increase of any free time published in tariffs lawfully on file with this Commission.

(b) Computation of free time. (1) All Sundays and legal holidays shall be included in computing the free time provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) The free time provided in paragraph (a) of this section shall be computed continuously from the first 7:00 a. m. after actual or constructive placement until final release, less actual time required to move a constructively placed car to point of unloading.

(c) Description of cars. This section shall apply to cars suitable for interchange described under the headings Class G-Gondola Car Type, Class H-Hopper Car Type, also covered hopper cars having a mechanical designation prefixed by "LO" in the current Official Railway Equipment Register.

(d) Exemptions. This order shall not apply to cars described in paragraph (c) of this section loaded with coal or coke.

(e) Extreme weather. During the period when weather conditions exist as described in Rule 8, section A, Agent B. T. Jones' Tariff I. C. C. No. 3963, the provisions of this order are suspended. In lieu thereof the rules, regulations, and charges provided in lawfully published tariffs shall apply.

(f) Effective date. This section shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., June 23, 1947.

(g) Expiration date. This section shall expire at 7:00 a. m., December 1, 1947, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled by order of this Commission.

(h) Tariff provisions suspended. The operation of all tariffs, rules and regulations, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this section is hereby suspended.

(i) Announcement of suspension. Each railroad, or its agent shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected thereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter) announcing the suspension of the operation of any of the provisions therein, and establishing the substituted provisions set forth in this section.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as Agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

NOTICES

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

TERMINATION OF FM CHANNEL RESERVATION POLICY ON JULY 1, 1947; WAIVER AS TO CLASS B FM APPLICANTS OF RULE AGAINST REPETITIOUS APPLICATIONS

JUNE 13, 1947.

The Commission announced today[1] that the reservation of certain Class A and Class B FM channels from assignment will automatically terminate on July 1, 1947, under §§ 3.203 (d) and 3.204 (c) of the Commission's rules, and that the Commission will consider and act upon applications for such facilities as promptly as possible after that date.

The Commission also announced today the adoption of an order waiving the requirements of § 1.363 (a)[2] of the Commission's rules with respect to any applicant for Class B FM facilities whose application has been denied, or may hereafter be denied, in a comparative hearing (where the applicant was not found to be disqualified), to permit the applicant to file an application for any reserved Class B FM channel prior to the expiration of one year from the effective date of the Commission's order or decision denying his prior application.

Under the FM channel reservation policy, one out of every five Class B channels tentatively indicated as available to an area to which at least five Class B channels have been assigned, has been withheld from assignment since July 17, 1946, and Class A channels Nos. 297, 298, 299 and 300 have been withheld from assignment since April 3, 1947. On July 1, 1947 all of these reserved channels will again become available for assignment to qualified applicants. Since the Commission will consider and act upon applications for such reserved channels as promptly as possible after July 1, persons desiring to make application for either Class A or Class B reserved channels should file their applications promptly, and, if possible, should have them on file on or before July 1, 1947. In this connection, it is pointed out that under § 1.304 of the Commission's rules all FM applications filed on or after July 1, 1947 must specify the particular channel desired.

Commissioner Durr takes the position that the Commission should take steps looking towards further extension of reservation of FM channels.

Listed below are the additional Class B FM channels that will become available for assignment in the cities or vicinities mentioned upon July 1, 1947:

CLASS B FM BROADCAST STATIONS

NOTICE OF AMENDMENTS TO FM RULES AND STANDARDS AND ADOPTION OF REVISED TENTATIVE ALLOCATION PLAN

JUNE 13, 1947.

The Commission announces adoption of an order[1] making final the amendments to the rules and engineering standards concerning FM broadcast stations which were proposed on April 10, 1947, and adoption of the revised tentative allocation plan for Class B FM broadcast stations,[2] which was issued as a proposed revision on April 10, 1947. Also released today is a list of the new channel assignments in accordance with the revised rules and standards for all FM licensees, construction permit holders, and those conditional grantees authorized for interim operation, as of June 9, 1947.

The amended rules and engineering standards, and the revised tentative allocation plan, were made effective immediately.

The amendments to the rules affect §§ 3.203 (a), (b) and (d); and 3.204 (b). The amendments to the standards affect sections 1–M; 2–A, B, C and E; and 4.

The amendments to the rules are identical with those proposed on April 10, 1947. The amendments to the standards are identical with those proposed on April 10, 1947, except that a change has been made in proposed section 4 to conform to the purposes of the amendments as stated in the Commission's Public Notice of April 10, 1947. The change modifies section 4 by adding the provision at the beginning of the paragraph which follows Table II to provide that pending the determination by the Commission of interference ratios for 400 kc and 600 kc channel separation "stations normally will not be authorized to operate in the same city or in nearby cities with a frequency separation of less than 800 kc, Provided, That stations may be authorized to operate in nearby cities with a frequency separation of not less than 400 kc where necessary in order to provide an equitable and efficient distribution of facilities, and, Provided further, That class B stations will not be authorized in the same metropolitan district with a frequency separation of less than 800 kc." The change also explains that the Commission is studying various types of present FM receivers to provide data for determining such interference ratios.

The revised tentative allocation plan is the same as that proposed on April 10, 1947, except that a relatively few changes in the particular channels allocated to certain cities or areas have been made to provide a better use of the frequencies in those cities and areas. No change has been made in the total number of Class B channels allocated to any city or area. The changes in channel assignments affect the following cities:

California:	Indiana:
Fresno.	Hammond.
Los Angeles.	Evansville.
Salinas.	Iowa:
San Diego.	Burlington.
Santa Barbara.	Kentucky:
Stockton.	Bowling Green.
Connecticut:	Massachusetts:
Hartford.	Fall River.
New Britain.	North Adams.
Florida:	Michigan:
Fort Lauderdale.	Ann Arbor.
Orlando.	Minnesota:
Palm Beach.	Albert Lea.
Georgia:	Nebraska:
Savannah.	Grand Island.
Illinois:	Hastings.
Aurora.	Norfolk.
Carthage.	West Virginia:
Chicago.	Berkley.
Waukegan.	Charleston.
Galesburg.

Outstanding construction permits and licenses will not be reissued at this time to specify the changed frequency assignments, but instead these changes will be included in succeeding instruments of authorization. In order to minimize the possibility of interference during the transition period, stations which will change frequency must request Commission approval prior to beginning operation on the new frequency. In some metropolitan areas it may be necessary to set a date on which all stations in the area will be required to change simultaneously to the new frequency assignments. The Commission will assist in resolving any conflicts which may arise in particular areas. It appears, however, that conflicts will be few and that stations now operating may for the most part schedule the change in frequency to meet their particular requirements. It is expected that all changes will have taken place by October 1, 1947.

CLASS B FM BROADCAST STATIONS

REVISED TENTATIVE ALLOCATION PLAN

JUNE 13, 1947.

Revised Tentative Allocation Plan for Class B FM Broadcast Stations

The attached revised tentative allocation plan for FM broadcast stations is based on the amendments to the FM rules and engineering standards adopted on this date. The former tentative allocation plan, as revised by the Commission on September 3, 1946 was based on assignments in a general area which were for the most part, on alternate channels (400 kilocycles apart). Recent developments appear to indicate that such operation resulted in interference in many of the receivers being produced at the present time. As a result, the revised plan provides for a minimum frequency separation of class B stations in the same general area of 800 kilocycles. In no case has the number of class B channels in an area been reduced in this revision from that listed in the previous plan. In addition, in instances where the need has developed, channels have been added where possible, to provide assignments for applications which are now on file with the Commission. This revision of the tentative allocation plan is subject to further revisions in the future as the development of FM broadcasting might require, in the same manner as the previous allocation plan has been revised from time to time.

The revised tentative allocation plan is subject to § 3.204 (c) of the Commission's rules which provides for the reservation of certain class B channels until July 1, 1947. As in previous plans, it is emphasized that this allocation plan is tentative only and that deviations will be made wherever desirable or necessary. Consequently, the lack of a channel listing for a particular locality does not necessarily mean that a channel cannot be made available there. For example, a channel listed for a particular area may be assigned to any of several cities within that same general area, provided that the geographical change will not result in objectionable interference.

While the allocation plan is based on stations employing an effective radiated power of 20 kilowatts and antenna height of 500 feet above average terrain, stations in most areas of the United States are not limited to this power. The separation of stations varies from that required by ground wave interference (principally in the eastern United States) to the separation required for freedom from tropospheric interference one percent of the time or less (principally in the western areas). In general, the separation of stations increases toward the western part of the country where the expected demand for channels will be less and where added protection for weak signals will be provided. Since, under the rules, Class B stations may vary considerably in power and antenna height, the interference may be more or less than that which would be indicated by this allocation plan. It will be noted that only a few channels have been designated for a number of small cities, particularly in the West, since it appears that these will supply the probable demand. In such cases, more channels are available and will be provided as required. Examination will also reveal that in some sections of the country more channels are designated for certain areas than for others therein having comparable or larger populations. This results from the fact that areas near large centers of population usually contain a number of cities which require channels, while other areas are farther from dense population centers and thus involve no objectionable interference by the allocation of more channels in its section.

GLENS FALLS PUBLICITY CORP. (WGLN)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Glens Falls Publicity Corporation (WGLN), Glens Falls, New York, Docket No. 8404, File No. BML-1247; For Modification of License.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application requesting a modification of license of Station WGLN, Glens Falls, New York, to change the facilities of said station from 1230 kc, 100 w power, unlimited time, to 1230 kc, 250 w power, unlimited time, and a petition by Vermont Broadcasting Corporation, licensee of Station WJOY, Burlington, Vermont, requesting that the above entitled application be designated for hearing and that petitioner be made a party to the proceeding;

It is ordered, That the petition of Vermont Broadcasting Corporation be, and it is hereby, granted; and

It is further ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application of Glens Falls Publicity Corporation be, and it is hereby, designated for hearing, at a time and place to be designated by subsequent order of the Commission, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station WGLN as proposed and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the operation of Station WGLN as proposed would involve objectionable interference with Stations WJOY, Burlington, Vermont; WSNY, Schenectady, New York; and WHUC, Hudson, New York, or with any other existing broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether the operation of Station WGLN as proposed would involve objectionable interference with the services proposed in any pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

It is further ordered, that Vermont Broadcasting Corporation, licensee of Station WJOY, Burlington, Vermont; Western Gateway Broadcasting Corporation, licensee of Station WSNY, Schenectady, New York; and Robert P. Strakos and John F. Kearney, d/b as The Colgren Broadcasting Company, permittee of a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station, WHUC, Hudson, New York, be, and they are hereby, made parties to this proceeding.

Notice is hereby given that § 1.857 of the Commission's rules and regulations is not applicable to this proceeding.

By the Commission.

PAWTUCKET BROADCASTING CO. (WFCI)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Pawtucket Broadcasting Company (WFCI), Pawtucket, Rhode Island, Docket No. 8416, File No. BML-1249; for Modification of License.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of June 1947.

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application requesting a modification of license for Station WFCI to move its main studios from 450 Main Street, Pawtucket, Rhode Island, to 11 Dorrance Street, Providence, Rhode Island;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application be, and it is hereby, designated for hearing at a time and place to be designated by subsequent order of the Commission, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the comparative needs of the cities of Pawtucket and Providence, Rhode Island, for broadcast service originating in local studios, and, in view thereof, whether a grant of this application would contribute to a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service to each.

2. To determine whether the operation of Station WFCI as proposed would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations with particular reference to whether satisfactory service would be rendered to the business and industrial district of Providence, Rhode Island.

Notice is hereby given that § 1.857 of the Commission's rules and regulations is not applicable to this proceeding.

By the Commission.

FM BROADCAST STATIONS

FREQUENCY ASSIGNMENTS

JUNE 12, 1947.

In accordance with the revised FM rules and standards adopted June 12, 1947, in Docket No. 6768,[1] the Commission announces frequency assignments for all FM broadcast station licensees, construction permit holders, and those holders of conditional grants which are authorized for interim operation, as of June 9, 1947. These frequency assignments are shown in the following list.

Operation prior to March 1, 1948, on channel assignments indicated by asterisks (*) will be contingent on clearance of image frequency interference in present aeronautical navigational aid receivers.

[Docket Nos. 8129, 8130, 8405]

COMMUNITY BROADCASTING CO. ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Community Broadcasting Company, St. Cloud, Minnesota, Docket No. 8405, File No. BP-6027; Harry Willard Linder, St. Cloud, Minnesota, Docket No. 8129, File No. BP-5650; Max H. Lavine, St. Cloud, Minnesota, Docket No. 8130, File No. BP-5678; For Construction Permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of June 1947.

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of Community Broadcasting Company requesting a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1240 kc., with 250 watts power, unlimited time, at St. Cloud, Minnesota; and

It appearing, That the Commission on February 20, 1947, designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding the above-entitled applications of Max H. Lavine and Harry Willard Linder each requesting a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1240 kc., with 250 watts power, unlimited time, at St. Cloud, Minnesota;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application of Community Broadcasting Company be, and it is hereby, designated for hearing in the above consolidated proceeding at a time and place to be designated by subsequent order of the Commission, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial and other qualifications of the applicant corporation, its officers, directors and stockholders to construct and operate the proposed station.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain primary service from the operation of the proposed station and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with any existing broadcast stations and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which, if any, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the orders of the Commission dated February 20, 1947, designating the above-entitled application of Max H. Lavine and Harry Willard Linder for hearing in a consolidated proceeding be, and they are hereby, amended to included the said application of Community Broadcasting Company and to change the word "either," appearing in issue No. 7 thereof, to "any."

Notice is hereby given, that § 1.857 of the Commission's rules and regulations is not applicable to this proceeding.

By the Commission.

[File No. 70-1505]

MIDDLE WEST CORP.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 16th day of June, A .D. 1947.

The Middle West Corporation ("Middle West"), a registered holding company, having filed a declaration, and amendments thereto, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-44 promulgated thereunder regarding the following proposed transactions:

Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc. ("Service Company"), a subsidiary of Middle West and parent of Indiana Gas & Water Company, Inc. ("Gas-Water") has adopted a program of distributing to its own common stockholders, in lieu of cash dividends, the shares of common stock of Gas-Water at the quarterly rate of 1/20 share of Gas-Water common on each share of Service Company common. Middle West, as the owner of 224,586 shares (approximately 20.27%) of the common stock of Service Company has received two such quarterly dividends aggregating 22,458⅗ shares of Gas-Water common stock representing 3.74% of the total of such shares outstanding.

Middle West proposes to sell such 22,458⅗ shares of Gas-Water common stock to certain of the directors of Gas-Water and Service Company, or to members of their families, and to a business enterprise, of which one of such directors is President, as set forth in said declaration, as amended, for investment and not for resale or distribution, at a price of $14 per share, for a total consideration of $314,420.40.

Said declaration having been filed on April 18, 1947 and amendments thereto subsequently having been filed, and notice of filing having been duly given in the manner and form prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to said declaration, as amended, that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said declaration, as amended, be permitted to become effective; and

The declarant having requested that the Commission's order with respect to said declaration, as amended, become effective as soon as may be reasonably practicable:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the said declaration, as amended, be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

KENTUCKY UTILITIES CO. ET AL.

ORDER PERMITTING APPLICATIONS-DECLARATIONS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE AND RESERVING JURISDICTION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 16th day of June A. D. 1947.

In the matter of Kentucky Utilities Company, Old Dominion Power Company, and The Middle West Corporation, File No. 70-1520.

Joint applications-declarations, and amendments thereto, having been filed pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and the applicable rules thereunder, by The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, Kentucky Utilities Company, a subsidiary of The Middle West Corporation, and Old Dominion Power Company, a subsidiary of Kentucky Utilities Company, proposing a recapitulation of Kentucky Utilities Company and of Old Dominion Power Company and related transactions; and

A hearing having been held in such matter and the Commission having considered the record and having made and filed its findings herein:

It is ordered, That said applications-declarations, as amended, be, and hereby are, granted and permitted to become effective, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the general rules and regulations under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and subject further to the following terms and conditions:

(a) That the proposed issue and sale of bonds and preferred stock by Kentucky Utilities Company, pursuant to Rule U-50, shall not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding have been made a matter of record in this proceeding and a further order entered by this Commission in the light of the record so completed, which order may contain such further terms and conditions as may then be deemed appropriate, jurisdiction being reserved for this purpose.

(b) That in respect of the application for exemption pursuant to section 6 (b) of the issue and sale of securities by Old Dominion Power Company, the granting thereof shall become effective upon receipt by this Commission of a certified copy of an appropriate order of the State Corporation Commission of Virginia authorizing such issue and sale.

It is further ordered, That, in accordance with the request of Kentucky Utilities Company, the ten-day period for inviting bids as provided in Rule U-50, be, and hereby is, shortened to a period of not less than six days.

It is further ordered, That, except as indicated by the foregoing, this order become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

NEW ENGLAND POWER ASSN.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 16th day of June A. D. 1947.

New England Power Association, a registered holding company, having filed a declaration, pursuant to section 12 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-45 promulgated thereunder, with respect to the following transactions:

New England Power Association proposes to guarantee performance of a lease to be entered into between Dartmouth Corporation, a non-affiliated company, and New England Power Service Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of declarant, of certain premises located at 441 Stuart Street, Boston, Massachusetts, which declarant now occupies. The proposed new lease is for a term of 15 years commencing July 1, 1947, with an option to renew for a further period of 5 years or 10 years, as New England Power Service Company elects by July 1, 1961 with the assent of New England Power Association. The stipulated rental for the initial 15-year term is to be $207,000 annually and thereafter $207,000 plus any amount by which the then fair yearly rental value of the space, as determined by appraisers, exceeds such yearly rental during the initial term.

Said declaration having been filed May 13, 1947 and notice of said filing having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to said declaration that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder are satisfied, that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said declaration be permitted to become effective, and deeming it appropriate to grant a request of declarant that the order become effective forthwith:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the declaration be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

MILWAUKEE ELECTRIC RAILWAY & TRANSPORT CO. AND WISCONSIN ELECTRIC POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 16th day of June, 1947.

Notice is hereby given that a joint declaration and application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") by The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company ("Transport"), a wholy-owned subsidiary of Wisconsin Electric Power Company ("Electric"), a subsidiary holding company of The North American Company, a registered holding company. Declarants-applicants have designated section 12 (c) and Rule U-42 as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than June 25, 1947, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said declaration-application which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. At any time after June 25, 1947 said joint declaration-application, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective or be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt all of the proposed transactions or any of them as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof. All interested persons are referred to said joint declaration-application which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Transport proposes to redeem prior to January 1, 1948, at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest, the balance, aggregating $4,000,000 in principal amount, of its First Mortgage 4% Bonds, held by Electric. Such redemption is contingent upon and will be made simultaneously with the receipt of the proceeds from the proposed sale by Transport of substantially all of its operating properties, consisting principally of its Milwaukee Metropolitan System, its bus lines operated in the City of Milwaukee and known as Wisconsin Motor Bus Lines, its local suburban railway service and certain properties incidental to such operations.

The proposed sale of such transportation properties is to be made pursuant to the terms and conditions of a competitive bidding procedure adopted by the company, under the terms of which procedure sealed written proposals for the purchase of such properties are to be submitted to the company not later than 12:00 noon, central standard time, July 21, 1947, at Room 444, Public Service Building, 231 West Michigan Street, Milwaukee 1, Wisconsin.

With respect to the proposed sale of the transportation properties by Transport, declarants-applicants state that they do not feel that any section of the act or rules of the Commission requires the approval of the Commission for such sale, but if the Commission should determine that the provisions of subdivision (c) of Rule U-44 are applicable, then their application shall be deemed to be a notice of intention by Transport to invite competitive bids and to sell such properties as described therein. In connection with such sale the declarants-applicants have requested that the proposed sale be exempted from the provisions of Rule U-44 (c) under the provisions of Rule U-100, in the event the Commission deems the provisions of Rule U-44 applicable to such sale.

Electric seeks authorization to surrender the bonds to Transport upon the basis above described.

By the Commission.

BANKERS SECURITIES CORP. AND ALBERT M. GREENFIELD & CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION, STATEMENT OF ISSUES, AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 17th day of June A. D. 1947.

Notice is hereby given that Bankers Securities Corporation ("Bankers"), and Albert M. Greenfield & Co. ("Greenfield & Co.") have filed an application pursuant to section 6 (c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") for an order of the Commission exempting from section 17 (e) (1) of the act, the proposed receipt of $37,000 by Greenfield & Co. as a real estate brokerage fee for services rendered in negotiating the sale of No. 315-31 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Bankers is a closed-end management non-diversified investment company and is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

Greenfield & Co. is a fully licensed real estate broker under the laws of Pennsylvania. Greenfield & Co. and Bankers are affiliated persons.

Greenfield & Co. as agent negotiated an agreement of sale of the aforesaid real estate beneficially owned by Bankers to Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society for $740,000. Bankers agreed to pay Greenfield & Co. a commission of 5% of the selling price, or $37,000 of which Greenfield & Co. has agreed to pay $8,000 to a non-affiliated cooperating broker and to pay $5,000 for certain expenses. Payment of such commission is prohibited by section 17 (e) (1) of the act unless an exemption therefrom is granted by the Commission pursuant to section 6 (c). The applicants assert that an exemption is necessary or appropriate within the standards set forth in section 6 (c) of the act.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the office of this Commission for a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law asserted.

The Corporation Finance Division of the Commission has advised the Commission that, upon a preliminary examination of the application, it deems the following issues to be raised thereby without prejudice to the specification of additional issues upon further examination: Whether and the extent to which an exemption from section 17 (e) (1) of the act so as to permit the receipt by Greenfield & Co. of a commission of 5% of the selling price in connection with the transaction hereinbefore referred to is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

It appearing to the Commission that a hearing upon the application is necessary and appropriate:

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 40 (a) of the said act, that a public hearing on the aforesaid matter be held on June 30, 1947 at 9:30 a. m. eastern daylight saving time in Room 318 in the Securities and Exchange Commission building, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania;

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing and any officer or officers so designated to preside at any such hearing are hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under sections 41 and 42 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and to hearing officers under the Commission's rules of practice.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to the above-named applicants, Bankers Securities Corporation and Albert M. Greenfield & Co., and to any other person or persons whose participation in such proceedings may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors. Any person desiring to be heard or otherwise desiring to participate in said proceeding should file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before June 27, 1947 his application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission, setting forth therein any of the above issues of law or fact which he desires to controvert and any additional issues he deems raised by the aforesaid applications.

By the Commission.

PART 3—ACQUISITION OF A COMPETITIVE STATUS

EXAMINATIONS FOR DISABLED VETERANS HELD QUARTERLY

Section 3.101 (c) is amended by the addition of the following second paragraph:

§ 3.101 Examinations for disabled veterans held quarterly. • • •

(c) • • •

Incumbents of positions on the date the positions are brought into the competitive service who are involuntarily separated because of reduction of force before acquiring a competitive status under this section may be recalled to duty for permanent appointment to their former positions within 90 days after separation, provided they are recalled in the inverse order in which they were considered for separation on the appropriate retention preference register. Employees so recalled and appointed may be recommended for a competitive status in accordance with this section as if their service had been continuous, but the period of separation shall not be regarded as service.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter III—Farmers Home Administration, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter A—Administration

PART 300—GENERAL

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO DEBT SETTLEMENT OPERATIONS IN NATIONAL OFFICE

1. Pursuant to the authority contained in the act of Congress, approved December 20, 1944 (58 Stat. 836), as delegated by the Secretary of Agriculture (10 F. R. 809), in the Farmers Home Administration Act of 1946, approved August 14, 1946 (60 Stat. 1062), and in the transfer agreements with the various State Rural Rehabilitation Corporations, as delegated by the Secretary of Agriculture (11 F. R. 12520), Part 300 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by the addition of the following section:

§ 300.18 Delegation of authority to Deputy Administrator, Assistant Administrator in Charge of Program Operations, and Director, Production Loan Division, severally and not jointly, to exercise debt settlement functions in National Office. There is hereby delegated to the Deputy Administrator, the Assistant Administrator in Charge of Program Operations, and the Director, Production Loan Division, severally and not jointly, the power and authority, subject to general supervision of the Administrator, to do all things the Administrator is required or empowered to do in connection with the debt settlement activities and operations in the National Office, pursuant to the act of Congress, approved December 20, 1944 (58 Stat. 836), the Farmers Home Administration Act of 1946, approved August 14, 1946 (60 Stat. 1062) and the transfer agreements with the various State Rural Rehabilitation Corporations. This delegation shall be deemed to include but is not limited to the approval and disapproval of applications for the compromise, cancellation and adjustment of debts pursuant to the within named acts and transfer agreements. This delegation shall not (a) have any effect on the delegation of authority to State Directors issued April 21, 1947 (12 F. R. 2765); nor (b) revoke or modify other existing authorizations and instructions except to the extent such other authorizations and instructions are in conflict herewith. (Orders of Secretary of Agriculture, 10 F. R. 809 and 11 F. R. 12520.)

This delegation shall be effective as of June 16, 1947.

Issued this 16th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] DILLARD B. LASSETER,
Administrator,
Farmers Home Administration.

Approved: June 18, 1947.

[Plum Order 7, Amdt. 1]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of Wickson plums, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amended regulation is based became available and the time when this amended regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

Plum Order 7, as amended. Effective at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 25, 1947, the provisions in § 936.308 (b) of Plum Order 7 (12 F. R. 3759) shall read as follows:

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 25, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 11, 1947, no shipper shall ship:

(i) Any package or container of Wickson plums containing plums which do not meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade (as specified for such grade in the United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh), 12 F. R. 2305), with a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage, in addition to the usual tolerances permitted in said United States Standards; or

(ii) Any package or container of Wickson plums containing plums of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack, as specified in the aforesaid United States Standards, in a standard basket, as specified in paragraph numbered 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California. The aforesaid 4 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) As used in this section, the aforesaid 4 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically as follows: (i) At least thirty-five (35) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure not less than $1^{11}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, such diameter, as defined in the aforesaid United States Standards, being the shortest distance measured through the center of the plum at right angles to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end; (ii) at least sixty (60) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, not less than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and (iii) no plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter.

(3) Each shipper, prior to making each shipment of Wickson plums shall, during the period set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, have the plums included in each such shipment inspected by a duly authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, heretofore designated by the Plum Commodity Committee and hereby approved; and each such shipper shall submit promptly, or cause to be submitted promptly, to the Plum Commodity Committee, Federal-State shipping point inspection certificates stating the grades and sizes of the Wickson plums contained in each such lot or shipment: Provided, however, That in case the following conditions exist in connection with any such shipment:

(i) A request for inspection is made to the Federal-State Inspection Service not later than 5:00 p. m. of the day before the fruit will be available for inspection;

(ii) The fruit is available for inspection between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. of the day specified in the request for such inspection; and

(iii) The Federal-State Inspection Service furnishes the shipper with a signed statement that it is not practicable, under such conditions, for the Federal-State Inspection Service to make the inspection within the necessary time;

the shipper, by submitting or causing to be submitted such signed statement to the Plum Commodity Committee, may make the particular shipment without such inspection, but such shipper shall still be held responsible for conforming with all grade and size regulations applicable to such shipment.

(4) The determination in § 936.301 with respect to shipments of plums into, in, or through the San Francisco-Sacramento region and the Los Angeles region shall be applicable to this section.

(5) As used in this section, the terms "shipper" and "ship" shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order; and the term "serious damage" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the aforesaid United States Standards.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed (1) as affecting or waiving any right, duty, obligation, or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may arise in connection with any provision of said Plum Order 7, or (2) as releasing or extinguishing any violation of said Plum Order 7 which has occurred or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may occur.

(48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 7 CFR, Cum. Supp. 936.1 et seq.)

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of El Dorado plums, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amended regulation is based became available and the time when this amended regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

Plum Order 8, as amended. During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 25, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 11, 1947, the provisions in § 936.309 (b) (2) (i) (a) of Plum Order 8 (12 F. R. 3761) shall read as follows:

(a) Of said total quantity, at least seventy-five (75) percent, by number of packages, shall be of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack, as specified in the aforesaid United States Standards, in the aforesaid standard basket; and said 4 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph; and

Nothing contained herein shall be construed (1) as affecting or waiving any right, duty, obligation, or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may arise in connection with any provision of said Plum Order 8, or (2) as releasing or extinguishing any violation of said Plum Order 8 which has occurred or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may occur.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of Gaviota plums, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amended regulation is based became available and the time when this amended regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

Plum Order 9, as amended. Effective at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 25, 1947, the provisions in § 936.310 (b) of Plum Order 9 (12 F. R. 3857) shall read as follows:

(b) Order as amended. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 25, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 11, 1947, no shipper shall ship:

(i) Any package or container of Gaviota plums containing plums which do not meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade (as specified for such grade in the United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh), 12 F. R. 2305), with a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage, in addition to the usual tolerances permitted in said United States Standards; or

(ii) Any package or container of Gaviota plums containing plums of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack, as specified in the aforesaid United States Standards, in a standard basket, as specified in paragraph numbered 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California. The aforesaid 4 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) As used in this section, the aforesaid 4 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically as follows: (i) At least thirty-five (35) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure not less than $1^{11}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, such diameter, as defined in the aforesaid United States Standards, being the shortest distance measured through the center of the plum at right angles to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end; (ii) at least sixty (60) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, not less than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and (iii) no plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter.

(3) Each shipper, prior to making each shipment of Gaviota plums shall, during the period set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, have the plums included in each such shipment inspected by a duly authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, heretofore designated by the Plum Commodity Committee and hereby approved; and each such shipper shall submit promptly, or cause to be submitted promptly, to the Plum Commodity Committee, Federal-State shipping point inspection certificates stating the grades and sizes of the Gaviota plums contained in each such lot or shipment: Provided, however, That in case the following conditions exist in connection with any such shipment:

(i) A request for inspection is made to the Federal-State Inspection Service not later than 5:00 p. m. of the day before the fruit will be available for inspection;

(ii) The fruit is available for inspection between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. of the day specified in the request for such inspection; and

(iii) The Federal-State Inspection Service furnishes the shipper with a signed statement that it is not practicable, under such conditions, for the Federal-State Inspection Service to make the inspection within the necessary time;

the shipper, by submitting or causing to be submitted such signed statement to the Plum Commodity Committee, may make the particular shipment without such inspection, but such shipper shall still be held responsible for conforming with all grade and size regulations applicable to such shipment.

(4) The determination in § 936.301 with respect to shipments of plums into, in, or through the San Francisco-Sacramento region and the Los Angeles region shall be applicable to this section.

(5) As used in this section, the terms "shipper" and "ship" shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order; and the term "serious damage" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the aforesaid United States Standards.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed (1) as affecting or waiving any right, duty, obligation, or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may arise in connection with any provision of said Plum Order 9, or (2) as releasing or extinguishing any violation of said Plum Order 9 which has occurred or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may occur.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of Duarte plums, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Con.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amended regulation is based became available and the time when this amended regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

Plum Order 10, as amended. Effective at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 25, 1947, the provisions in § 936.311 (b) of Plum Order 10 (12 F. R. 3909) shall read as follows:

(b) Order as amended. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 25, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 1, 1947, no shipper shall ship:

(i) Any package or container of Duarte plums containing plums which do not meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade (as specified for such grade in the United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh), 12 F. R. 2305), with a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage, in addition to the usual tolerances permitted in said United States Standards; or

(ii) Any package or container of Duarte plums containing plums of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack, as specified in the aforesaid United States Standards, in a standard basket, as specified in paragraph numbered 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California. The aforesaid 5 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) As used in this section, the aforesaid 5 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically as follows: (i) At least thirty-five (35) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure not less than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, such diameter, as defined in the aforesaid United States Standards, being the shortest distance measured through the center of the plum at right angles to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end; (ii) at least sixty (60) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, not less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and (iii) no plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, less than $1^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter.

(3) Each shipper, prior to making each shipment of Duarte plums shall, during the period set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, have the plums included in each such shipment inspected by a duly authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, heretofore designated by the Plum Commodity Committee and hereby approved; and each such shipper shall submit promptly, or cause to be submitted promptly, to the Plum Commodity Committee, Federal-State shipping point inspection certificates stating the grades and sizes of the Duarte plums contained in each such lot or shipment: Provided, however, That in case the following conditions exist in connection with any such shipment:

(i) A request for inspection is made to the Federal-State Inspection Service not later than 5:00 p. m. of the day before the fruit will be available for inspection;

(ii) The fruit is available for inspection between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. of the day specified in the request for such inspection; and

(iii) The Federal-State Inspection Service furnishes the shipper with a signed statement that it is not practicable, under such conditions, for the Federal-State Inspection Service to make the inspection within the necessary time;

the shipper, by submitting or causing to be submitted such signed statement to the Plum Commodity Committee, may make the particular shipment without such inspection, but such shipper shall still be held responsible for conforming with all grade and size regulations applicable to such shipment.

(4) The determination in § 936.301 with respect to shipments of plums into, in, or through the San Francisco-Sacramento region and the Los Angeles region shall be applicable to this section.

(5) As used in this section, the terms "shipper" and "ship" shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order; and the term "serious damage" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the aforesaid United States Standards.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed (1) as affecting or waiving any right, duty, obligation, or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may arise in connection with any provision of said Plum Order 10, or (2) as releasing or extinguishing any violation of said Plum Order 10 which has occurred or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may occur.

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter III—Claims and Accounts

PART 307—CLAIMS ON BEHALF OF THE UNITED STATES

RECOVERY OF PROPERTY UNLAWFULLY DETAINED BY CIVILIANS

Rescind § 307.2 and substitute the following therefor:

§ 307.2 Recovery of property unlawfully detained by civilians—(a) Legal proceedings. Whenever information is received that any property belonging to the military service of the United States is unlawfully in the possession of any person not in the military service, the property officer or other proper officer will make an immediate report direct to The Judge Advocate General (by telephone or telegraph when the use of such means of communication seems advisable) in order that legal proceedings may be instituted for the recovery of the property and, if the property has been stolen, for the arrest, trial, conviction, and punishment of the guilty person or persons. Each report will contain:

(1) A complete description of the property involved, and its location.

(2) The name and location of the person unlawfully in possession of such property; and

(3) The facts and circumstances surrounding the unlawful possession of the property.

(b) Summary action. (1) Upon satisfactory information that such United States property unlawfully in the possession of any party or parties is likely to be removed beyond the jurisdiction, concealed, or otherwise disposed of before the necessary proceedings can be had in the proper civil tribunal for its recovery, the post or detachment commander will, as hereinafter provided, accomplish its immediate recovery. In the event the property consists of clothes, arms, military outfits or accouterments furnished by the United States to any enlisted man, the Federal statutes (R. S. 3748; 10 U. S. C. 1316; M. L. 1939, sec. 2018) authorizes such property to be seized and taken from any person not an enlisted man or officer of the United States, by any officer, civil or military, of the United States. With respect to other Government property, the post or detachment commander will cause the property to be seized, provided such seizure can be accomplished without committing a breach of the peace or a trespass on private premises, tendering to the person, if any, in possession or custody of the property a receipt or certificate showing that such property has been seized as belonging to the United States, and the post or detachment commander will thereafter hold the property subject to any legal proceedings that may be instituted by other parties.

(2) Persons caught in the act of stealing public property will be summarily arrested by the troops and turned over to the civil authorities for trial. [AR 36-6640, May 21, 1947] (R. S. 3748, 40 Stat. 228; 10 U. S. C. 1316; 18 U. S. C. 611)

Chapter VI—Organized Reserves

PART 601—OFFICERS' RESERVE CORPS

GENERAL OFFICERS

Rescind §§ 601.15 to 601.19, inclusive, and 601.25 to 601.30, inclusive, and substitute the following §§ 601.15 to 601.22 as follows:

Sec.
601.15 General officers, appointment.
601.16 Promotion to Major General.
601.17 Qualifications.
601.18 Reappointment.
601.19 Examining Boards.
601.20 Examination.
601.21 Assignment.
601.22 Transfer to Honorary Reserve.

AUTHORITY: §§ 601.15 to 601.22, inclusive, issued under authority contained in sec. 37, 39 Stat. 189; sec. 32, 41 Stat. 755 and sec. 2, 42 Stat. 1033; 10 U. S. C. 352, 353.

§ 601.15 General officers, appointment—(a) Appointment of officers who served in Army of United States as general officers. Officers who have served on active duty in the Army of the United States for a period of at least 6 months subsequent to December 7, 1941 (including those now on active duty) and who, during that period, held the grade of general officer, may be recommended for appointment as general officers in the active reserve in the highest grade held satisfactorily during that period, provided they meet the moral, physical, and age requirements. Applications for appointment may be submitted by letter to The Adjutant General (Attn.: AGPR-P), Washington 25, D. C. Those who are otherwise qualified as indicated above, but do not meet the physical or age requirements may apply for appointment in the Honorary Reserve only.

(b) Appointment of brigadier generals and major generals from among those officers who did not hold the grade of general officer during World War II. Officers who have served on active duty for at least 6 months subsequent to December 7, 1941 and who did not hold the grade of general officer during that period, and who meet the requirements in § 601.17 may, after appearance before a board of officers be recommended for appointment as brigadier general or major general in the active reserve to fill existing position vacancies in Reserve units or in staff positions.

§ 601.16 Promotion to Major General. Promotion to the grade of major general will be made from those who have served as brigadier generals of the Officers' Reserve Corps for at least 1 year.

§ 601.17 Qualifications. Officers must meet the following qualifications for appointment in the active reserve.

(a) Age. At the time of appointment a candidate for the grade of brigadier general or major general must have at least 1 year to serve before he reaches the statutory age prescribed for the retirement of Regular Army officers of that grade.

(b) Physical. Physical requirements for appointment or promotion of general officers will be those prescribed in AR 40-100 and AR 40-105 (Army Regulations relative to Physical Examinations).

(c) Professional. Satisfactory demonstration of qualifications by actual service on active duty in the Army of the United States for at least 6 months subsequent to December 7, 1941 in the grade and position contemplated, or by the satisfactory discharge of duties of corresponding and equal responsibility.

§ 601.18 Reappointment. Upon expiration of the 5-year period of his appointment, a general officer occpuying an authorized position vacancy in a Reserve unit or in a staff position will, provided he meets the moral, age, and physical requirements be recommended for reappointment in the active reserve for an additional 5-year period. Recommendations by the commanding general of the appropriate major force concerning reappointment will be submitted in time to reach The Adjutant General not less than 90 days prior to expiration of appointment.

§ 601.19 Examining boards. Candidates for appointment as general officers for assignment in the active reserve, or for promotion to a higher grade will be examined by a board of officers appointed by the commanding general of the major force or major command to determine their general fitness.

§ 601.20 Examination—(a) Examination by the board. The board will thoroughly investigate into the candidates' professional (military knowledge), moral, and physical qualifications and carefully weight the evidence as to his suitability for the appointment, promotion, and assignment for which he is being considered.

(b) Physical examination. A final type physical examination will be given.

(c) Inquiry into moral character. The board will inquire into the moral character of the candidate. He will be carefully questioned and may be required to submit in writing such information as the board may desire. The board is authorized to seek verification of the candidate's statements or additional information from reliable sources. The candidate will be informed of any unfavorable statements of fact relative to his moral character and will be given an opportunity to refute or explain such statements.

(d) Professional examination. The professional examination will be conducted as prescribed by the president of the board and will include such military knowledge and ability tests as the board may deem necessary.

(e) Reexamination. A candidate who has been found disqualified for other than moral reasons may apply for reexamination after a period of 1 year from the prior examination.

§ 601.21 Assignment. The assignment of all general officers in the active reserve will be made by The Adjutant General, upon recommendation of the commanding general of the major force or chief of administrative or technical service concerned.

§ 601.22 Transfer to Honorary Reserve. A general officer whose service has been honorable will be transferred to the Honorary Reserve when:

(a) He reaches the statutory retirement age prescribed for officers of the Regular Army.

(b) He is found physically disqualified, other than through his own misconduct, and applies for such transfer.

(c) He has completed a total of 20 years' service in any component of the Army of the United States, and applies for such transfer. [WD Cir. 139, June 3, 1947]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of April A. D. 1947.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent, and a stipulation as to the facts entered into between counsel for the Commission and counsel for the respondent, which provides, among other things, that the Commission may issue and serve upon respondent findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939:

I. It is ordered, That respondent, David D. Doniger & Company, a corporation, and its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of wearing apparel in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the terms "Yorkshire Quad", "Shetlane", "Scotchshire" or "Ryder Vest Scot" or any other term obviously denoting British or Scotch origin, to designate or describe products which are not in fact made in the British Isles.

2. Using the terms "Bonnie Lamb", "Heather Vee", "Tweedmoor", or "Lochmoor", or any other term connoting or suggesting British or Scotch origin, to designate or describe products not made in the British Isles, unless in connection with such terms there appear other words clearly and conspicuously disclosing the country of origin of such products.

3. Using pictures, designs, or symbols connoting or suggesting British or Scotch origin in connection with products not made in the British Isles, unless such pictures, designs, or symbols are accompanied by words clearly and conspicuously disclosing the country of origin of such products.

4. Advertising, offering for sale, or selling products composed in whole or in part of rayon without clearly disclosing such rayon content; and when such products are composed in part of rayon and in part of other fibers or materials, all of such fibers or materials, including the rayon, shall be clearly and accurately disclosed.

II. It is further ordered, That said respondent, and its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction or manufacture for introduction into commerce, or the sale, transportation or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid acts, of wearing apparel or other wool products, as such products are defined in and subject to the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, which contain, purport to contain, or in any way are represented as containing "wool", "reprocessed wool" or "reused wool", as those terms are defined in said act, do forthwith cease and desist from misbranding such apparel or other products by failing to affix securely to or place on such products a stamp, tag, label, or other means of identification showing in a clear and conspicuous manner:

(a) The percentage of the total fiber weight of such product, exclusive of ornamentation not exceeding five percentum of said total fiber weight, of (1) wool, (2) reprocessed wool, (3) reused wool, (4) each fiber other than wool where said percentage by weight of such fiber is five percentum or more, and (5) the aggregate of all other fibers;

(b) The maximum percentage of the total weight of such product of any nonfibrous loading, filling, or adulterating matter;

(c) The name of the manufacturer of such product; or the manufacturer's registered identification number and the name of a seller of such product; or the name of one or more persons introducing such product into commerce, or engaged in the sale, transportation, or distribution thereof in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939;

Provided, however, That when such product is composed in whole or in part of any of the specialty fibers named in section 2 (b) of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, the name of any such specialty fiber may be used in place of the word "wool" on the stamp, tag, label, or other means of identification affixed to such product, in identifying the percentage of the product composed of such specialty fiber: And provided further, That when the name of a specialty fiber is used, such fiber shall not be described by any other name on said label or on any other stamp, tag, label, or other means of identification affixed to such product.

Provided, further, That the foregoing provisions concerning misbranding shall not be construed to prohibit acts permitted by paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 3 of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939: And provided further, That nothing contained in this order shall be construed as limiting any applicable provisions of said act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

III. It is further ordered, That said respondent and its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction or manufacture for introduction into commerce, or the sale, transportation or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid acts, of wool products, as such products are defined in and subject to the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, do forthwith cease and desist from placing on any tag, label, or other means of identification purporting to contain the information required by said act, the statement "Detach for Stock Control", or any statement suggesting the removal of such tag, label, or other means of identification.

IV. It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] OTIS B. JOHNSON, Secretary.

§ 230.400 Application of §§ 230.400 to 230.493, inclusive. Sections 230.400 to 230.493, inclusive, shall govern every registration of securities under the act, except that any provision in a form covering the same subject matter as any such section shall be controlling unless otherwise specifically provided in §§ 230.400 to 230.493, inclusive.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

§ 230.401 Requirement as to proper form. A registration statement shall be prepared in accordance with the form prescribed therefor by the Commission as in effect on the date of filing. Any registration statement shall be deemed to be filed on the proper form unless objection to the form is made by the Commission prior to the effective date of the statement.

§ 230.402 Number of copies; binding; signatures. (a) Three copies of the complete registration statement, including exhibits and all other papers and documents filed as a part of the statement, shall be filed with the Commission. Each copy of the registration statement so filed shall be bound, in one or more parts, without stiff covers. The binding shall be made on the left-hand side and in such manner as to leave the reading matter legible.

(b) At least the original of every registration statement filed with the principal office of the Commission, and two original counterparts of every statement filed with a regional office pursuant to § 230.455 (b) shall be signed by the persons specified in section 6 (a) of the act. Unsigned counterparts of the registration statement shall be conformed.

(c) If any name is signed to the registration statement pursuant to a power of attorney, copies of such power of attorney shall be filed with the registration statement. In addition, if the name of any officer signing on behalf of the registrant, or attesting the registrant's seal, is signed pursuant to a power of attorney, certified copies of a resolution of the registrant's board of directors authorizing such signature shall also be filed with the registration statement.

§ 230.403 Requirements as to paper, printing and language. (a) Registration statements shall be filed on good quality, unglazed, white paper 8½ x 13 inches in size, insofar as practicable. However, tables, charts, maps, and financial statements may be on larger paper if folded to that size, and the prospectus may be on smaller paper if the registrant so desires.

(b) All papers and documents filed as a part of a registration statement shall, insofar as practicable, be printed, mimeographed or typewritten. All such material shall be clear, easily readable, and suitable for repeated photocopying. Debits in credit categories and credits in debit categories shall be designated so as to be clearly distinguishable as such on photocopies.

(c) The registration statement proper shall be in the English language. If any exhibit or other paper or document filed with the registration statement is in a foreign language, it shall be accompanied by a translation into the English language.

§ 230.404 Preparation of registration statement. (a) Notwithstanding any requirement of the appropriate form to the contrary, a copy of the proposed prospectus may be filed as a part of the registration statement proper in lieu of furnishing the information in item-and-answer form. Wherever this procedure is followed, either pursuant to this section or otherwise, the text of the items of the form are to be omitted from the registration statement, as well as from the prospectus, except to the extent provided in paragraph (b) of this section. All general instructions, instructions to items of the form and instructions as to financial statements, exhibits, or prospectuses are to be omitted from the registration statement in all cases.

(b) Where any items of a form call for information not required to be included in the prospectus the text of such items together with the answers thereto shall be filed with the prospectus under cover of the facing sheet of the form as a part of the registration statement proper. If any such item is inapplicable, or the answer thereto is in the negative, a statement to that effect shall be made. Any financial statements not required to be included in the prospectus shall also be filed as a part of the registration statement proper, unless incorporated by reference pursuant to § 230.411.

(c) Every registration statement shall include a cross reference sheet showing the location in the prospectus of the information required to be included in the prospectus in response to the items of the form. If any such item is inapplicable, or the answer thereto is in the negative and is omitted from the prospectus, a statement to that effect shall be made in the cross reference sheet.

§ 230.405 Definitions of terms. Unless the context otherwise requires, all terms used in this regulation or in the forms for registration have the same meanings as in the act and in the general rules and regulations. In addition, the following definitions apply, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) Affiliate. An "affiliate" of, or a person "affiliated" with, a specified person, is a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the person specified.

(b) Amount. The term "amount", when used in regard to securities, means the principal amount if relating to evidences of indebtedness, the number of shares if relating to shares, and the number of units if relating to any other kind of security.

(c) Certified. The term "certified", when used in regard to financial statements, means certified by an independent public or independent certified public accountant or accountants.

(d) Charter. The term "charter" includes articles of incorporation, declarations of trust, articles of association or partnership, or any similar instrument, as amended, effecting (either with or without filing with any governmental agency) the organization or creation of an incorporated or unincorporated person.

(e) Commission. The term "Commission" means the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(f) Control. The term "control" (including the terms "controlling", "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

(g) Director. The term "director" means any director of a corporation or any person performing similar functions with respect to any organization whether incorporated or unincorporated.

(h) Employee. The term "employee" does not include a director, trustee, or officer.

(i) Equity security. The term "equity security" means any stock or similar security; or any security convertible, with or without consideration, into such a security, or carrying any warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase such a security; or any such warrant or right.

(j) Fiscal year. The term "fiscal year" means the annual accounting period or, if no closing date has been adopted, the calendar year ending on December 31.

(k) Majority-owned subsidiary. The term "majority-owned subsidiary" means a subsidiary more than fifty percent of whose outstanding securities representing the right, other than as affected by events of default, to vote for the election of directors, is owned by the subsidiary's parent and/or one or more of the parent's other majority-owned subsidiaries.

(l) Material. The term "material", when used to qualify a requirement for the furnishing of information as to any subject, limits the information required to those matters as to which an average prudent investor ought reasonably to be informed before purchasing the security registered.

(m) Officer. The term "officer" means a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer or principal financial officer, comptroller or principal accounting officer, and any other person performing similar functions with respect to any organization whether incorporated or unincorporated.

(n) Parent. A "parent" of a specified person is an affiliate controlling such person directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

(o) Predecessor. The term "predecessor" means a person the major portion of the business and assets of which another person acquired in a single succession, or in a series of related successions in each of which the acquiring person acquired the major portion of the business and assets of the acquired person.

(p) Principal underwriter. The term "principal underwriter" means an underwriter in privity of contract with the issuer of the securities as to which he is underwriter, the term "issuer" having the meaning given in sections 2 (4) and 2 (11) of the act.

(q) Promoter. The term "promoter" includes:

(1) Any person who, acting alone or in conjunction with one or more other persons, directly or indirectly takes initiative in founding and organizing the business or enterprise of an issuer;

(2) Any person who, in connection with the founding and organizing of the business or enterprise of an issuer, directly or indirectly receives in consideration of services or property, or both services and property, 10 percent or more of any class of securities of the issuer or 10 percent or more of the proceeds from the sale of any class of securities. However, a person who receives such securities or proceeds either solely as underwriting commissions or solely in consideration of property shall not be deemed a promoter within the meaning of this paragraph if such person does not otherwise take part in founding and organizing the enterprise.

(r) Registrant. The term "registrant" means the issuer of the securities for which the registration statement is filed.

(s) Share. The term "share" means a share of stock in a corporation or unit of interest in an unincorporated person.

(t) Significant subsidiary. The term "significant subsidiary" means a subsidiary meeting any one of the following conditions:

(1) The assets of the subsidiary, or the investments in and advances to the subsidiary by its parent and the parent's other subsidiaries, if any, exceed 5 percent of the assets of the parent and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis.

(2) The sales and operating revenues of the subsidiary exceed 5 percent of the sales and operating revenues of its parent and the parent's subsidiaries on a consolidated basis.

(3) The subsidiary is the parent of one or more subsidiaries and, together with such subsidiaries would, if considered in the aggregate, constitute a significant subsidiary.

(u) Subsidiary. A "subsidiary" of a specified person is an affiliate controlled by such person directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries. (See also "majority-owned subsidiary," "significant subsidiary," and "totally-held subsidiary.")

(v) Succession. The term "succession" means the direct acquisition of the assets comprising a going business, whether by merger, consolidation, purchase, or other direct transfer. The term does not include the acquisition of control of a business unless followed by the direct acquisition of its assets. The terms "succeed" and "successor" have meanings correlative to the foregoing.

(w) Totally - held subsidiary. The term "totally-held subsidiary" means a subsidiary (1) substantially all of whose outstanding securities are owned by its parent and/or the parent's other totally-held subsidiaries, and (2) which is not indebted to any person other than its parent and/or the parent's other totally-held subsidiaries in an amount which is material in relation to the particular subsidiary, excepting indebtedness incurred in the ordinary course of business which is not overdue and which matures within one year from the date of its creation, whether evidenced by securities or not.

§ 230.406 Title of securities. Wherever the title of securities is required to be stated there shall be given such information as will indicate the type and general character of the securities, including the following:

(a) In the case of shares, the par or stated value, if any; the rate of dividends, if fixed, and whether cumulative or non-cumulative; a brief indication of the preference, if any; and if convertible, a statement to that effect.

(b) In the case of funded debt, the rate of interest; the date of maturity, or if the issue matures serially, a brief indication of the serial maturities, such as "maturing serially from 1950 to 1960"; if the payment of principal or interest is contingent, an appropriate indication of such contingency; a brief indication of the priority of the issue; and if convertible, a statement to that effect.

(c) In the case of any other kind of security, appropriate information of comparable character.

§ 230.407 Interpretation of requirements. Unless the context clearly shows otherwise:

(a) The forms require information only as to the registrant.

(b) Whenever any fixed period of time in the past is indicated, such period shall be computed from the date of filing the registration statement, as determined by sections 6 (c) and 8 (a) of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder.

(c) Whenever words relate to the future, they have reference solely to present intention.

(d) Any words indicating the holder of a position or office include persons, by whatever titles designated, whose duties are those ordinarily performed by holders of such positions or offices.

§ 230.408 Additional information. In addition to the information expressly required to be included in a registration statement, there shall be added such further material information, if any, as may be necessary to make the required statements, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

§ 230.409 Information unknown or not reasonably available. Information required need be given only insofar as it is known or reasonably available to the registrant. If any required information is unknown and not reasonably available to the registrant, either because the obtaining thereof would involve unreasonable effort or expense, or because it rests peculiarly within the knowledge of another person not affiliated with the registrant, the information may be omitted, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The registrant shall give such information on the subject as it possesses or can acquire without unreasonable effort or expense, together with the sources thereof, and may include a disclaimer of responsibility for the accuracy or completeness thereof.

(b) The registrant shall include a statement either showing that unreasonable effort or expense would be involved or indicating the absence of any affiliation with the person within whose knowledge the information rests and stating the result of a request made to such person for the information.

§ 230.410 Disclaimer of control. If the existence of control is open to reasonable doubt in any instance, the registrant may disclaim the existence of control and any admission thereof; in such case, however, the registrant shall state the material facts pertinent to the possible existence of control.

§ 230.411 Incorporation of certain information by reference. (a) Where an item calls for information not required to be included in the prospectus, matter contained in any part of the registration statement, other than exhibits, may be incorporated by reference in answer, or partial answer, to such item. Matter contained in an exhibit may be so incorporated to the extent specified in § 230.422.

(b) Any financial statement or part thereof filed with any office of the Commission pursuant to any act administered by the Commission may be incorporated by reference in any registration statement filed with any office of the Commission, if it substantially conforms to the requirements of the appropriate form and is not required to be included in the prospectus.

§ 230.412 Form of and limitation upon incorporation by reference. Material incorporated by reference shall be clearly identified in the reference. An express statement that the specified matter is incorporated by reference shall be made at the particular place in the registration statement where the information is required. Matter shall not be incorporated by reference in any case where such incorporation would render the statement incomplete, unclear or confusing.

§ 230.413 Registration of additional securities. The registration of additional securities of the same class as other securities for which a registration statement is already in effect shall be effected through a separate registration statement relating to the additional securities

FORM AND CONTENT OF PROSPECTUSES

§ 230.420 Legibility of prospectuses. The body of all printed prospectuses shall be in type at least as legible as ten-point leaded type, except that to the extent necessary for convenient presentation financial statements and notes may be in type at least as legible as eight-point leaded type.

§ 230.421 Presentation of information in prospectuses. (a) The information required in a prospectus need not follow the order of the items or other requirements in the form. Such information shall not, however, be set forth in such fashion as to obscure any of the required information or any information necessary to keep the required information from being incomplete or misleading. Where an item requires information to be given in a prospectus in tabular form it shall be given in substantially the tabular form specified in the item.

(b) All information contained in a prospectus shall be set forth under appropriate captions or headings reasonably indicative of the principal subject matter set forth thereunder. Except as to financial statements and other tabular data, all information set forth in a prospectus shall be divided into reasonably short paragraphs or sections.

(c) Every prospectus shall include in the forepart thereof a reasonably detailed table of contents showing the subject matter of the various sections or subdivisions of the prospectus and the page number on which each such section or subdivision begins.

(d) All information required to be included in a prospectus shall be clearly understandable without the necessity of referring to the particular form or to the general rules and regulations. Except as to financial statements and information required in tabular form, the information set forth in a prospectus may be expressed in condensed or summarized form. Financial statements included in a prospectus are to be set forth in comparative form if practicable, and shall include the notes thereto and the accountants' certificate.

§ 230.422 Summaries or outlines of documents. Where a summary or outline of the provisions of any document is required, only a brief statement shall be made, in succinct and condensed form, as to the most important provisions of the document. In addition to such statement, the summary or outline may incorporate by reference particular items, sections, or paragraphs of any exhibit and may be qualified in its entirety by such reference. Matter contained in an exhibit may be incorporated by reference in a prospectus only to the extent permitted by this section.

§ 230.423 Date of prospectuses. Each prospectus used upon the commencement of the public offering of registered securities shall be dated approximately as of the effective date of the registration statement. In addition, each revised or amended prospectus, and each supplement to a prospectus, used thereafter shall bear the approximate date of its issuance.

§ 230.424 Filing of prospectuses; number of copies. (a) In addition to the three copies of the proposed prospectus included in the body of the registration statement proper, five copies of such prospectus shall be filed with the registration statement at the time the statement is filed. A copy of the cross reference sheet required by § 230.404 (c) shall accompany each copy of the prospectus so filed.

(b) Within five days after the commencement of the public offering, twenty copies of each form of prospectus used in connection with such offering shall be filed, in the exact form used with the office of the Commission with which the registration statement was filed.

(c) No prospectus which purports to comply with section 10 of the act and which varies from any form of prospectus filed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall be used until twenty copies thereof shall have been filed with the office of the Commission with which the registration statement was filed.

(d) Every prospectus consisting of a radio broadcast shall be reduced to writing. At least five days before the prospectus is broadcast or otherwise issued to the public, five copies thereof shall be filed with the office of the Commission with which the registration statement was filed.

§ 230.425 Statement required in all prospectuses. There shall be set forth on the outside front cover page of every prospectus the following statement, in capital letters, printed in type at least as legible as ten-point boldface leaded type:

> THESE SECURITIES HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION NOR HAS THE COMMISSION PASSED UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THIS PROSPECTUS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

§ 230.426 Statement as to stabilizing. In any case in which the registrant or any of the underwriters knows or has reasonable grounds to believe that the price of any security may be stabilized to facilitate the offering of the registered securities, there shall be set forth, either on the outside front cover page or on the inside front cover page of the prospectus, a statement in substantially the following form, subject to appropriate modifications where circumstances require. Such statement shall be in capital letters, printed in type at least as legible as ten-point boldface leaded type:

> IN CONNECTION WITH THIS OFFERING, THE UNDERWRITERS MAY EFFECT TRANSACTIONS WHICH STABILIZE OR MAINTAIN THE MARKET PRICE OF (IDENTIFY EACH CLASS OF SECURITIES IN WHICH SUCH TRANSACTIONS MAY BE EFFECTED) AT A LEVEL ABOVE THAT WHICH MIGHT OTHERWISE PREVAIL IN THE OPEN MARKET. SUCH TRANSACTIONS MAY BE EFFECTED ON (IDENTIFY EACH EXCHANGE ON WHICH STABILIZING TRANSACTIONS MAY BE EFFECTED. IF NONE, OMIT THIS SENTENCE). SUCH STABILIZING, IF COMMENCED, MAY BE DISCONTINUED AT ANY TIME.

§ 230.427 Contents of prospectuses used after thirteen months. Information contained in a registration statement may be omitted from a prospectus used more than 13 months after the effective date of the registration statement insofar as information on the same subjects, including certified financial statements, as of a date not more than 12 months prior to the use of the prospectus is contained therein. Twenty copies of the prospectus shall be filed with the Commission pursuant to § 230.424 (c).

§ 230.428 Invitations for competitive bids. Any information or documents contained in a registration statement may be omitted from any communication which is only an invitation for competitive bids for registered securities: Provided (a) The terms of the bidding require that each bid shall be for the purchase of the entire amount of one or more of the issues; and (b) the communication states that prior to the acceptance of any bid, the bidder will be furnished a copy of the official prospectus. Such communication need not comply with any other rules and regulations with respect to the form and content of prospectuses and shall not be deemed a prospectus meeting the requirements of section 10 for the purpose of section 2 (10) (a) or 5 (b) (2) of the act.

§ 230.429 Contents of prospectus when several statements in effect. When two or more registration statements become effective for different blocks of securities of the same class, a prospectus which meets the requirements of the act and the rules and regulations of the Commission for use in connection with the securities covered by the latest registration statement will be deemed to meet such requirements for use in connection with the securities covered by the earlier registration statements, provided such prospectus also contains the information contained in the earlier prospectuses with respect to (a) the underwriting, marketing and distribution arrangements, (b) the price to the public, underwriting discounts and commissions and proceeds to the registrant, and (c) the application of the proceeds.

§ 230.430 Prospectus for employees' savings, profit sharing or pension plans. (a) Any prospectus for shares of stock of an issuer in which funds of a savings, profit sharing or pension plan for directors, officers or employees of the issuer are to be invested need contain only the information specified below if the prospectus is sent or given only to directors, officers or employees of the issuer who have previously received a prospectus for registered interests or participations in the plan and for registered shares of stock of the issuer and who have become members of the plan prior to receipt of the prospectus prepared in accordance with this section:

(1) Such information (other than financial statements) in regard to the plan and the administration thereof and in regard to the issuer of the underlying stock and its subsidiaries as may be necessary to bring up to date the corresponding information furnished to members of the plan in previous prospectuses.

(2) Financial statements of the plan corresponding to those included in previous prospectuses for each fiscal year after the last fiscal year for which financial statements of the plan were furnished to members of the plan in previous prospectuses.

(3) Financial statements of the issuer of the underlying stock and its subsidiaries corresponding to those included in previous prospectuses for each fiscal year after the last fiscal year for which financial statements of the issuer and its subsidiaries were furnished to members of the plan in previous prospectuses.

(b) The financial statements specified in paragraph (a) of this section may be omitted from any prospectus used in the manner specified in that paragraph if:

(1) The fiscal year of the issuer of the underlying stock has ended within ninety days prior to the date when it is desired to distribute the prospectus to members of the plan.

(2) The prospectus contains, or is accompanied by, financial statements (which need not be certified) substantially meeting the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section.

(3) Within 120 days after the close of the fiscal year the financial statements omitted from the prospectus pursuant to this paragraph are made conveniently available to all members of the plan at their respective places of employment.

(4) There is set forth in conspicuous print on the first page of the prospectus a statement as to the manner in which and the approximate date on which the financial statements will be made available to members of the plan pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

WRITTEN CONSENTS

§ 230.435 Formal requirements as to consents. All written consents filed with the registration statement pursuant to section 7 of the act or pursuant to these rules shall be dated and signed manually. A list of such consents shall be filed with the registration statement. Where the consent of an expert is contained in his report, a reference shall be made in the list to the report containing the consent.

§ 230.436 Consents required in special cases. (a) If any portion of the report of an expert is quoted or summarized as such in the registration statement or in a prospectus the written consent of the expert shall expressly state that the expert consents to such quotation or summarization.

(b) If it is stated that any information contained in the registration statement has been reviewed or passed upon by any persons and that such information is set forth in the registration statement upon the authority of or in reliance upon such persons as experts, the written consents of such persons shall be filed with the registration statement.

§ 230.437 Application to dispense with consent. An application to the Commission to dispense with any written consent of an expert pursuant to section 7 of the act shall be made by the registrant and shall be supported by an affidavit or affidavits establishing that the obtaining of such consent is impracticable or involves undue hardship on the registrant. Such application shall be filed and the consent of the Commission shall be obtained prior to the effective date of the registration statement.

§ 230.438 Consents of persons about to become directors. If any person who has not signed the registration statement is named therein as about to become a director, the written consent of such person shall be filed with the registration statement. Any such consent, however, may be omitted if there is filed with the registration statement a statement by the registrant, supported by an affidavit or affidavits, setting forth the reasons for such omission and establishing that the obtaining of such consent is impracticable or involves undue hardship on the registrant.

§ 230.439 Consent to use of material incorporated by reference. If the act or the rules and regulations of the Commission require the filing of a written consent to the use of any material in connection with the registration statement, such consent shall be filed with the registration statement even though the material is incorporated therein by reference.

EXHIBITS

§ 230.445 Additional exhibits. The registrant may file such exhibits as it may desire, in addition to those required by the appropriate form. Such exhibits shall be so marked as to indicate clearly the subject matters to which they refer.

§ 230.446 Omission of substantially identical documents. In any case where two or more indentures, contracts, franchises, or other documents required to be filed as exhibits are substantially identical in all material respects except as to the parties thereto, the dates of execution, or other details, the registrant need file a copy of only one of such documents, with a schedule identifying the other documents omitted and setting forth the material details in which such documents differ from the document of which a copy is filed. The Commission may at any time in its discretion require the filing of copies of any documents so omitted.

§ 230.447 Incorporation of exhibits by reference. (a) Any document or part thereof filed with any office of the Commission pursuant to any act administered by the Commission may be incorporated by reference as an exhibit to any registration statement filed with any office of the Commission.

(b) If any modification has occurred in the text of any document incorporated by reference since the filing thereof, the registrant shall file with the reference a statement containing the text of any such modification and the date thereof.

(c) If the number of copies of any document filed is less than the number required to be filed with the registration statement which incorporates such document as an exhibit, the registrant shall file with the registration statement as many additional copies of the document as may be necessary to meet the requirements of such statement.

FILING; FEES; EFFECTIVE DATE

§ 230.455 Place of filing. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, all registration statements shall be filed with the Commission at its principal office.

(b) If the principal executive offices of the registrant, or of a principal underwriter of the securities being registered, are located in the State of California, Nevada, Arizona, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, or Montana, or in the Territory of Hawaii, the registration statement may be filed with the regional office of the Commission in Room 308 Appraisers Building, 630 Sansome Street, San Francisco 11, California. However, the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to registrants which are subject to the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or the Investment Company Act of 1940.

§ 230.456 Date of filing. The date on which any papers are actually received in the proper office of the Commission pursuant to § 230.455 shall be the date of filing thereof, if all the requirements of the act and the rules with respect to such filing have been complied with and the required fee paid. The failure to pay an insignificant amount of the required fee at the time of filing, as the result of a bona fide error, shall not be deemed to affect the date of filing.

§ 230.457 Computation of fee. (a) At the time of filing a registration statement the registrant shall pay to the Commission a fee of one one-hundredth of 1 percent of the maximum aggregate price at which the securities are proposed to be offered, but in no case shall such fee be less than $25.

(b) Where securities are to be offered at prices computed upon the basis of fluctuating market prices, the registration fee is to be calculated upon the basis of the price at which securities of the same class were sold, or upon the average of the bid and asked prices of such securities, on a specified date within fifteen days prior to the date of filing of the registration statement.

(c) Where securities are to be offered at varying prices based upon fluctuating values of underlying assets, the registration fee is to be calculated upon the basis of the market value of such assets as of a specified date within fifteen days prior to the date of filing, in accordance with the method to be used in calculating the daily offering price.

(d) Where securities are to be offered to existing security holders and the portion, if any, not taken by such security holders is to be reoffered to the general public, the registration fee is to be calculated upon the basis of the proposed offering price to such security holders or the proposed reoffering price to the general public, whichever is higher.

(e) Where securities are to be offered in exchange for other securities (except where such exchange results from the exercise of a conversion privilege) the registration fee is to be calculated as follows:

(1) Upon the basis of the market value of the securities to be received by the registrant in the exchange as established by bona fide transactions as of a specified date within fifteen days prior to the date of filing.

(2) If there is no market for the securities to be received by the registrant in the exchange, the book value of such securities computed as of the latest practicable date prior to the date of filing the registration statement shall be used, unless the issuer of such securities is in bankruptcy or receivership, in which case one-third of the principal amount, par value or stated value of such securities shall be used.

(3) If any cash is to be received or paid by the registrant in connection with the exchange, the amount thereof shall be deducted from or added to, as the case may be, the value of the securities to be received by the registrant in exchange as computed in accordance with subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph.

(4) Securities to be offered directly or indirectly in exchange for certificates of deposit shall be deemed to be offered in exchange for the securities represented by the certificates of deposit.

§ 230.458 Payment of fee. All payments of fees shall be made in cash, or by United States postal money order or certified check payable to the Securities and Exchange Commission, omitting the name or title of any official of the Commission.

§ 230.459 Calculation of effective date. Saturdays, Sundays and holidays shall be counted in computing the effective date of registration statements under section 8 (a) of the act. In the case of statements which become effective on the twentieth day after filing, the twentieth day shall be deemed to begin at the expiration of nineteen periods of twenty-four hours each from 5:30 p. m. eastern standard time or eastern daylight-saving time, whichever is in effect at the principal office of the Commission on the date of filing.

§ 230.460 Supplementary statement of actual offering price. Within ten days after registered securities are initially offered to the public, there shall be filed with the office of the Commission with which the registration statement was filed, a statement setting forth the actual price at which, and the date on which, the securities were so offered. If such price differs from the proposed price set forth in the registration statement, a brief explanation of such difference shall be made. Where the securities are to be offered first to existing security holders and then to the general public, a statement as required by this rule shall be filed with respect to each of such offerings if made at different prices.

AMENDMENTS; WITHDRAWALS

§ 230.470 Formal requirements for amendments. Except as provided in § 230.473, amendments to a registration statement shall be filed under cover of an appropriate facing sheet, shall be numbered consecutively in the order in which filed, and shall conform to all pertinent rules applicable to the original registration statement.

§ 230.471 Signatures to amendments. Except as provided in § 230.478, every amendment to a registration statement shall be signed by the persons specified in section 6 (a) of the act. At least the original of every amendment filed with the principal office of the Commission, and two original counterparts of every amendment filed with a regional office, shall be signed. Unsigned counterparts of amendments shall be conformed.

§ 230.472. Filing of amendments; number of copies. (a) Three copies of every amendment, other than telegraphic amendments pursuant to § 230.473 shall be filed. Amendments shall be filed with the office of the Commission with which the registration statement was filed.

(b) Where an amendment relates to the prospectus, five copies of the amended prospectus shall be filed in addition to the three copies required by paragraph (a) of this section. If the amendment results in a change in the cross reference sheet filed pursuant to § 230.404 (c) a copy of an amended cross reference sheet shall be filed with each copy of the amended prospectus.

§ 230.473 Delaying amendments. An amendment altering the proposed date of the public offering may be made by telegram or by letter. Each such telegraphic amendment shall be confirmed within a reasonable time by the filing of three copies, one of which shall be signed. Such confirmation shall not be deemed an amendment.

§ 230.474 Date of filing of amendments. The date on which amendments are actually received in the office of the Commission with which the registration statement was filed shall be the date of filing thereof, if all of the requirements of the act and the rules with respect to such filing have been complied with.

§ 230.475 Amendment filed with consent of Commission. An application for the Commission's consent to the filing of an amendment with the effect provided in section 8 (a) of the act may be filed before or after or concurrently with the filing of the amendment. The application shall be signed and shall state fully the grounds upon which it is made. The Commission's consent shall be deemed to have been given and the amendment shall be treated as a part of the registration statement only when the Commission shall after the filing of such amendment enter an order to that effect.

§ 230.476 Amendment filed pursuant to order of Commission. An amendment filed prior to the effective date of a registration statement shall be deemed to have been filed pursuant to an order of the Commission within the meaning of section 8 (a) of the act so as to be treated as a part of the registration statement only when the Commission shall after the filing of such amendment enter an order declaring that it has been filed pursuant to the Commission's previous order.

§ 230.477 Withdrawal of registration statement or amendment. Any registration statement or any amendment or exhibit thereto may be withdrawn upon application if the Commission, finding such withdrawal consistent with the public interest and the protection of investors, consents thereto. The application for such consent shall be signed and shall state fully the grounds upon which made. The fee paid upon the filing of the registration statement will not be returned to the registrant. The papers comprising the registration statement or amendment thereto shall not be removed from the files of the Commission but shall be plainly marked with the date of the giving of such consent, and in the following manner: "Withdrawn upon the request of the registrant, the Commission consenting thereto."

§ 230.478 Powers to amend or withdraw registration statement. All persons signing a registration statement shall be deemed, in the absence of a statement to the contrary, to confer upon the registrant, and upon the agent for service named in the registration statement, the following powers:

(a) A power to amend the registration statement (1) by altering the date of the proposed offering; (2) by filing any required written consent; (3) by correcting typographical errors; or (4) by reducing the amount of securities registered, pursuant to an undertaking contained in the registration statement.

(b) A power to make application pursuant to § 230.475 for the Commission's consent to the filing of an amendment.

(c) A power to withdraw the registration statement or any amendment or exhibit thereto.

(d) A power to consent to the entry of an order under section 8 (b) of the act, waiving notice and hearing, such order being entered without prejudice to the right of the registrant thereafter to have the order vacated upon a showing to the Commission that the registration statement as amended is no longer incomplete or inaccurate on its face in any material respect.

NONDISCLOSURE OF CONTRACT PROVISIONS

§ 230.485 Contracts in general. Public disclosure will not be made of the provisions of any material contract or portion thereof if the Commission determines that such disclosure would impair the value of the contract and is not necessary for the protection of investors. In any case where the registrant desires the Commission to make such a determination, the procedure set forth below shall be followed:

(a) The registrant shall omit from the registration statement as originally filed the portion of the contract which it desires to keep undisclosed, or, if the registrant desires to keep the entire contract undisclosed, any copy of the contract.

(b) The registrant shall file with the registration statement, but not bound as part thereof, (1) three copies of the contract or portion thereof which it desires to keep undisclosed, clearly marked "Confidential", and (2) an application for an order making the above described determination. Such application shall set forth the considerations relied upon for obtaining such order. Pending the granting or denial by the Commission of the application, the terms and existence of the contract or portion thereof will be kept undisclosed.

(c) If the Commission determines that the application shall be granted, an order to that effect will be entered. Prior to any determination denying the application, confirmed telegraphic notice of an opportunity for hearing, at a specified time within 10 days after the dispatch of such notice, will be sent to the agent for service. After such hearing, an order granting or denying the application will be entered.

(d) If the Commission denies the application, confirmed telegraphic notice of the order of denial will be sent to the agent for service. In such case, within 10 days after the dispatch of such notice, the registrant shall have the right to withdraw the registration statement in accordance with the terms of § 230.477, but without the necessity of stating any grounds for the withdrawal or of obtaining the further assent of the Commission. In the event of such withdrawal, the contract or portion thereof filed confidentially will be returned to the registrant.

(e) If the registration statement is not withdrawn pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, the contract or portion thereof filed confidentially will be made available for public inspection as part of the registration statement, and the registrant shall amend the registration statement to include all information required to be set forth in regard to such contract or portion thereof.

§ 230.486 Contracts affecting the national defense. (a) Notwithstanding any requirement of the form used for registration, the registrant need not file as an exhibit to the registration statement a copy of any contract as to which all the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) A copy of the contract is on file with an executive department of the United States or with the United States Maritime Commission or Atomic Energy Commission.

(2) The registrant has been notified in writing that such executive department or commission has administratively determined that the subject of such contract relates to and affects the national defense and that disclosure thereof would be contrary to the public interest.

(b) The registrant shall file as an exhibit to the registration statement, in lieu of the copy of the contract omitted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, a copy of each notification received from such executive department or commission with respect to the filing of copies of the contract or of information as to its terms.

(c) Notwithstanding any requirement of the form used for registration, the registrant need not furnish any information as to any terms of the contract relating directly or indirectly to any of the following subjects as to which the registrant has been notified in writing that such executive department or the commission with which a copy of the contract is on file has administratively determined that such subjects relate to and affect the national defense and that disclosure thereof would be contrary to the public interest:

(1) Quantity of equipment or materials to be constructed or supplied.

(2) Designations of type, descriptions, specifications, deliveries, test, or guarantees of performance with respect to such equipment or materials.

(3) Nature and extent of experimental facilities, services, or information to be furnished.

(d) Public disclosure will not be made of the contents of any notification filed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, or of any portion of the information as to the terms of the contract required to be furnished notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, if the Securities and Exchange Commission determines that such disclosure would impair the value of the contract and is not necessary for the protection of investors. In any case where the registrant desires the Commission to make such a determination, the procedure set forth in § 230.485 shall be followed, except that there shall be filed in lieu of the three copies of the contract or portion thereof required by paragraph (b) (1) of § 230.485, three copies of the notification and three copies of the information as to the terms of the contract which the registrant desires to keep undisclosed, all clearly marked "Confidential".

REGISTRATION BY FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS OR POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS THEREOF

§ 230.490 Information to be furnished under paragraph (3) of Schedule B. Any issuer filing a registration statement pursuant to Schedule B of the act need not furnish the detailed information specified in paragraph (3) as to issues of outstanding funded debt the aggregate amount of which outstanding is less than 5 percent of the total funded debt outstanding and to be created by the security to be offered, provided the amount thereof is included in the statement of the total amount of funded debt outstanding and a statement is made as to the title, amount outstanding, rate of interest, the date of maturity of each such issue.

§ 230.491 Information to be furnished under paragraph (6) of Schedule B. Any foreign government filing a registration statement pursuant to Schedule B of the act need state, in furnishing the information required by paragraph (6), the names and addresses only of principal underwriters, namely, underwriters in privity of contract with the registrant, provided they are designated as principal underwriters and a brief statement is made as to the discounts and commissions to be reecived by subunderwriters or dealers.

§ 230.492 Omissions from prospectuses. In the case of a security for which a registration statement conforming to Schedule B is in effect, the following information, contained in the registration statement, may be omitted from any prospectus: Information in answer to paragraph (3) of the Schedule with respect to the amortization and retirement provisions for debt not being registered, and with respect to the provisions for the substitution of security for such debt; information in answer to paragraph (11); the copy of any agreement or agreements required by paragraph (13); the agreement required by paragraph (14); all information, whether contained in the registration statement itself or in any exhibit thereto, not required by Schedule B.

§ 230.493 Filing of opinions of counsel. The copy of the opinion or opinions of counsel required by paragraph (14) of Schedule B shall be filed either as a part of the registration statement as originally filed, or as an amendment thereto.

The foregoing action shall become effective July 15, 1947.

By the Commission.

PART 239—FORMS PRESCRIBED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, particularly sections 6, 7, 8, 10 and 19 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and necessary to carry out the provisions of the act, hereby takes the following action:

1. Form D–1 (17 CFR 239.6) is amended by inserting immediately preceding "Part I" thereof the following:

Omissions from the prospectus. The following information and documents may be omitted from the prospectus: In Part I, Items 4, 18, 39, and all exhibits except financial statements filed in compliance with Items 14 and 15; in Part II, Item 44 and all exhibits.

2. Form D–1A (17 CFR 239.7) is amended by inserting immediately after the General Instructions thereof the following:

Omissions from the prospectus. The following information and documents may be omitted from the prospectus: All exhibits and all information contained in schedules, on condition that copies of each of the schedules attached to the registration statement are included.

3. Form F–1 (17 CFR 239.9) is amended by adding at the end of the "Instructions as to preparing Form F–1" the following:

Omissions from the prospectus. The following information and documents may be omitted from the prospectus: Items 3, 26, 27 and all exhibits.

The basis and purpose of the foregoing action is the elimination from Regulation C of obsolete provisions and the reorganization and revision of the remaining rules of that Regulation in a manner intended to facilitate the registration of securities under the act.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 51702]

PART 6—AIR COMMERCE REGULATIONS

CUT BANK AIRPORT, CUT BANK, MONT.; REDESIGNATED AS AIRPORT ENTRY FOR ONE YEAR

JUNE 13, 1947.

The Cut Bank Airport, Cut Bank, Montana, is hereby redesignated as an airport of entry for civil aircraft and merchandise carried thereon arriving from places outside the United States, as defined in section 9 (b) of the Air Commerce Act of 1926 (U. S. C. Title 49, sec. 179 (b)), for a period of 1 year from May 25, 1947.

The list of temporary airports of entry in § 6.13, Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR, Cum. Supp., 6.13), as amended, is hereby further amended by changing the date of designation opposite the name of this airport to "May 25, 1947."

Notice of the proposed redesignation of this airport as an airport of entry was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 17, 1947 (12 F. R. 3230), pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (Public Law 404, 79th Congress). The redesignation shall be effective on May 25, 1947, the delayed effective date requirements of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act being dispensed with because the previous designation expired prior to the expiration of 30 days after the publication of this redesignation. The redesignation of this airport is based on a determination that a sufficient need exists to justify such redesignation and the redesignation is for the purpose of providing for convenient compliance with customs requirements.

TITLE 34—NAVY

Chapter I—Department of the Navy

PART 26—ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS OF THE NAVAL ESTABLISHMENT

NAVAL WAR COLLEGE

1. Amend paragraph (b) (3) of § 26.9 Bureau of Naval Personnel as follows:

After "Postgraduate Schools" delete "Naval War College" and insert the following: "Naval War College (Limited to the extent prescribed in § 26.14 (h))."

2. Add § 26.14 (h) as follows:

§ 26.14 Staff of the Chief of Naval Operations. * * *

(h) The Naval War College is under the supervision of the Chief of Naval Operations in matters relating to its mission, policy, and course of study. The President of the College may refer all matters pertaining to curriculum, future plans, and war studies directly to the Chief of Naval Operations. Matters purely administrative, such as fiscal, logistic support and personnel, are under the cognizance of the Chief of Naval Personnel.

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

PART 1—ORGANIZATION, PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

WAIVER AS TO CLASS B FM APPLICANTS OF RULE AGAINST REPETITIOUS APPLICATIONS

In the matter of waiver of § 1.363 (a) of the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission as to certain Class B FM applications.

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of June 1947;

It appearing, that § 1.363 (a) of the Commission's rules and regulations provides as follows:

(a) Where an applicant has been afforded an opportunity to be heard with respect to a particular application for new station, or for an extension or enlargement of service or facilities, and the Commission has, after hearing or default, denied the application or dismissed it with prejudice, the Commission will not consider a like application involving service of the same kind to the same area by the same applicant, or by his successor or assignee, or on behalf of or for the benefit of the original parties in interest, until after the lapse of 12 months from the effective date of the Commission's order. The Commission may, for good cause shown, waive the requirements of this rule.

It appearing, that under § 3.204 (c) of the Commission's rules and regulations one out of every five Class B FM channels tentatively indicated as available to an area to which at least five Class B channels have been assigned, has been withheld from assignment for the period ending June 30, 1947; and

It appearing, that various applicants have been afforded an opportunity to be heard with respect to particular applications for Class B FM broadcast stations in cities or areas in which certain Class B FM channels have been withheld from assignment, and that the Commission, after hearing, has denied or may hereafter deny certain of these applications; and

It appearing, that after denial of their applications these applicants may desire to file applications for reserved Class B FM channels involving service of the same kind to the same area as their previous applications, and that the public interest would be served by permitting these unsuccessful applicants to file applications for such reserved channels less than 12 months from the effective date of the Commission's decision or order denying their prior applications;

It is hereby ordered, That the provisions of § 1.363 (a) of the Commission's rules be, and they are hereby, waived as to applications for Class B FM channels now pending before the Commission, which after hearing have been denied or may hereafter be denied; Provided, however, That this waiver shall not be effective as to any such application which has been denied or may hereafter be denied on the ground that the applicant was disqualified to be a broadcast licensee.

[Order 130-O]

PART 12—AMATEUR RADIO SERVICE

FREQUENCIES AND FREQUENCY BANDS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the matter of relieving an existing restriction to the operation of amateur radio stations in the frequency band 430 to 450 Mc, and of indicating that the Amateur Radio Service recognizes the possibility of interference to its operations in the shared frequency band of 2400 to 2450 Mc; and

It appearing that the frequency band 420 to 450 Mc is allocated to the Amateur Radio Service, and that a previously existing restriction upon the use of the portion of this band between 430 and 450 Mc by amateurs may now be lifted; and

It appearing that the Commission by its order, dated and effective December 26, 1946 (Docket No. 7858) assigned the frequency 2450 Mc (band width 2400 to 2500 Mc) for the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical devices on a nonexclusive basis, and that as stated in the service allocation table attached to the Commission's Public Notice (Mimeograph No. 4803) dated February 18, 1947, the Amateur Radio Service recognizes that interference to its operations on frequencies within 50 Mc of 2450 Mc may result from the emissions on the frequency 2450 Mc of industrial, scientific, and medical devices; and

It further appearing that authority for the release of frequencies as specified herein and for the inclusion in Order No. 130-L (in relation to its provisions regarding the availability to the Amateur Radio Service of the frequency band of 2300 to 2450 Mc) of a clause relating to the possibility of interference to operations within that band, is contained in sections 303 (b), (c), and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended; and

It further appearing that the release of the frequencies between 430 and 450 Mc relieves an existing restriction, that such release and the inclusion of the above-mentioned interference clause are noncontroversial and in the public interest, and that Public Notice and Procedure required by section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act are unnecessary;

It is ordered, That for the purpose of correlating the Commission's Orders in the 130 series with its order of December 26, 1946 (Docket No. 7858), and to release additional frequencies to the Amateur Radio Service, the subparagraphs numbered 2 (a) (11) and 2 (a) (12) of the first ordering clause of Order No. 130-L be, and they are hereby amended to read as follows:

(11) 420 to 450 Mc, using types A0, A1, A2, A3, A4, A5 and special emissions for frequency modulation (radiotelephone transmissions and radiotelegraph transmissions employing carrier shift or other frequency modulation techniques). Peak antenna power shall not exceed 50 watts.

(12) 1215 to 1295 Mc, 2300 to 2450 Mc, 3300 to 3500 Mc, 5650 to 5850 Mc, 10,000 to 10,500 Mc, 21,000 to 22,000 Mc, and any frequency or frequencies above 30,000 Mc, using on these frequencies types A0, A1, A2, A3, A4, A5 and special emissions for frequency modulation (radiotelephone transmissions and radiotelegraph transmissions employing carrier shift or other frequency modulation techniques), and pulse emissions. Operations in the frequency band 2300 to 2450 Mc are subject to such interference between 2400 and 2450 Mc as may result from emissions on the frequency 2450 Mc of industrial, scientific and medical devices.

It is further ordered, That, for the reasons set forth above, this order be, and it is hereby made effective immediately.

(Sec. 303 (b), 48 Stat. 1082, 303 (c), 48 Stat. 1082, 303 (r), 50 Stat. 191; 47 U. S. C. 303 (b), 303 (c), 303 (r))

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In the matter of adoption of new card form of Restricted Radiotelephone Operator Permit and of amendments to Parts 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, and 17 of the rules and regulations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 11th day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the matter of adoption of a simplified, pocket-size, card form (FCC Form 761) of restricted radiotelephone operator permit and having under consideration the adoption of amendments to its rules and regulations for the purpose of implementing the adoption of the new card form of permit; and

It appearing that it is in the public interest, convenience and necessity to adopt the card form of restricted radiotelephone operator permit and to adopt amendments to the rules and regulations which will provide that the newly adopted card form of permit shall not be posted at stations where the holders thereof are employed or serving as operators, that the holders thereof shall whenever serving as station operators, keep such permits on their persons, and that the holders thereof shall not be issued any operator license verification cards (FCC Form 758-F) based thereon; and

It further appearing that authority to fix the forms of operator licenses and to promulgate rules concerning the posting or carrying of such licenses is contained in sections 303 (l) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended; and

It further appearing that, as the adoption of the new card form of restricted radiotelephone operator permit and of the amendments to the rules and regulations herein contained does not invalidate any valid outstanding permits of the diploma form, or otherwise affect the privileges or obligations of the holders of permits of either the diploma form or card form other than, in the case of holders of card form permits, to grant relief from existing restrictions regarding the posting of restricted radiotelephone operator permits and the carrying of operator license verification cards, the Public Notice and Procedure for Rule Making prescribed by sections 4 (a), (b), and (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act are unnecessary;

It is ordered, That hereafter new, renewed, duplicate, and replacement restricted radiotelephone operator permits shall be issued exclusively in a simplified, pocket-size, card form (FCC Form 761), and an equivalent permit on this form may be issued in exchange to the holder of a valid outstanding restricted radiotelephone operator permit of the diploma form if such holder requests the exchange and surrenders for cancellation his diploma form of permit and any outstanding operator license verification card based thereon,

It is further ordered, That Parts 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, and 17 of the rules and regulations of the Commission are hereby amended as follows:

1. Sections 4.464 (b) and 4.564 (b) are amended by changing the periods at the end of these sections to colons and adding thereafter the following language: "Provided further, however, That if the operator on duty holds a restricted radiotelephone operator permit of the card form (as distinguished from the diploma form) he shall not post that permit but shall keep it in his personal possession."

2. Sections 5.30, 7.43, 9.119, 10.84, 11.44, and 17.124 are amended by changing the periods at the ends of these sections to colons and adding thereafter the following language: "Provided, however, That if the operator on duty holds a restricted radiotelephone operator permit of the card form (as distinguished from the diploma form) he shall not post that permit but shall keep it in his personal possession."

3. Section 8.63 is amended by changing the period at the end of the section to a colon and adding thereafter the following language: "Provided further, however, That any operator who holds a restricted radiotelephone operator permit of the card form (as distinguished from the diploma form), and who is employed or designated as radio operator of a ship station shall not post that permit, but whenever on duty shall keep it in his personal possession."

4. Section 13.73 is amended by changing the period at the end of the first sentence to a colon and adding thereafter the following language: "Provided, however, That no verification card may be issued to the holder of a restricted radiotelephone operator permit of the card form (as distinguished from the diploma form) on the basis of that particular permit."

It is further ordered, That, for the reasons set out above, this order shall be effective July 1, 1947.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[S. O. 653, Corrected Amdt. 6]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

DEMURRAGE CHARGES ON GONDOLA, OPEN AND COVERED HOPPER CARS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of June A. D. 1947.

Upon further consideration of Service Order No. 653 (11 F. R. 14572), as amended (12 F. R. 128, 1606, 1816, 1952, 2093), and good cause appearing therefor: It is ordered, that:

Section 95.653 Demurrage charges on gondola, open and covered hopper cars, of Service Order No. 653, as amended, be, and it is hereby, further amended by vacating and setting aside the following paragraph (c) (5) thereof:

(c) Application. • • •

(5) Demurrage charges substituted for charges for storage of freight in gondola, open or covered hopper cars. (i) The operation of all tariff rules, regulations, and charges for storage of freight in gondola, open or covered hopper cars at or short of ports consigned or reconsigned for export, coastwise or intercoastal movement is suspended insofar as they provide charges lower than the charges provided in this section.

(ii) In lieu of the charges for storage of freight in gondola, open or covered hopper cars, at or short of ports suspended in subparagraph (5) (i) of this paragraph, the applicable charges for detention of gondola, open or covered hopper cars held at or short of ports, for unloading freight consigned to or reconsigned for export, coastwise or intercoastal movement shall be the demurrage charges prescribed in paragraphs in (a) and (b) of this section.

It is further ordered, that this amendment shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., June 23, 1947, and the provisions of this amendment shall apply to cars arriving at, or held at ports on or after the effective date hereof.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order and direction be served upon each State railroad regulatory body, and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C. and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

(40 Stat. 101, sec. 402; 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4; 54 Stat. 901; 49 U. S. C. 1 (10)-(17))

By the Commission, Division 3.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 56]

DRESSED POULTRY AND DRESSED DOMESTIC RABBITS AND EDIBLE PRODUCTS THEREOF

INSPECTION AND CERTIFICATION FOR CONDITION AND WHOLESOMENESS

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering an amendment, as hereinafter set forth, of the rules and regulations governing the inspection and certification of dressed poultry and dressed domestic rabbits and edible products thereof for condition and wholesomeness (7 CFR and Supps. 56.1 et seq.). Such rules and regulations are currently effective under the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1947 (Pub. Law 422, 79th Cong., 2d Sess., approved June 22, 1946).

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed amendment shall file the same in quadruplicate with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0308, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 15th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed amendment is as follows:

Delete the second sentence in paragraph (a) of § 56.23 Uninspected product may not be handled in any official plant; reinspection of products (7 CFR and Supps. 56.23) and substitute, in lieu thereof, the following: "No edible product, other than an inspected and certified edible product, may be brought into an official plant; Provided, That such inspected and certified edible product shall be properly identified and reinspected by an inspector at the time such product is brought into such plant."

(Pub. Law 422, 79th Cong., 2d Sess., approved June 22, 1946)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 18th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

[1947 Dept. Circ. 809]

7/8 PERCENT TREASURY CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS OF SERIES F-1948

OFFERING OF CERTIFICATES

JUNE 23, 1947.

I. Offering of certificates. 1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par, from the people of the United States, for certificates of indebtedness of the United States, designated 7/8 percent Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series F-1948, in exchange for Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series F-1947, maturing July 1, 1947.

II. Description of certificates. 1. The certificates will be dated July 1, 1947, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 7/8 percent per annum, payable with the principal at maturity on July 1, 1948. They will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the certificates shall be subject to all Federal taxes, now or hereafter imposed. The certificates shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift and other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The certificates will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

4. Bearer certificates will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. The certificates will not be issued in registered form.

5. The certificates will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States certificates.

III. Subscription and allotment. 1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of certificates applied for, and to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. Payment. 1. Payment at par for certificates allotted hereunder must be made on or before July 1, 1947, or on later allotment, and may be made only in Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series F–1947, maturing July 1, 1947, which will be accepted at par, and should accompany the subscription.

V. General provisions. 1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective Districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for certificates allotted, to make delivery of certificates on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive certificates.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

CALIFORNIA

RESTORATION ORDER 1227 UNDER FEDERAL POWER ACT

JUNE 16, 1947.

By Departmental order of September 19, 1925, creating Power Site Classification No. 116, the following described lands were classified as power sites:

HUMBOLDT MERIDIAN

T. 16 N., R. 7 E.,
sec. 10, lots 7, 8, and 9;
sec. 15, lot 21.

The areas described aggregate 102.79 acres.

Pursuant to the determination of the Federal Power Commission (DA–651, California) and in accordance with the Departmental regulations of August 16, 1946 (43 CFR 4.275 (16), 11 F. R. 9080), the lands above described are hereby opened to application, petition, location, or selection under the United States mining laws only, subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1063), as amended by the act of August 26, 1935 (49 Stat. 846, 16 U. S. C. 818), and subject to the condition that no claim shall be made against the United States, its transferees or assigns, for or on account of loss of prospective profits or for any injury or damage to properties, improvements or operations due to such power development.

This order shall not become effective to change the status of the lands until 10:00 a. m. on August 18, 1947, at which time the lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to disposition under the United States mining laws only, as above provided.

CLEVELAND UNION STOCK YARDS CO.

NOTICE OF PETITION FOR EXTENSION OF TEMPORARY RATES

Pursuant to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), the Judicial Officer issued an order on August 7, 1946 (5 A. D. 596), providing for certain temporary rates and charges for the respondent stockyard for a period beginning August 12, 1946, and ending August 12, 1947.

By a petition filed on June 9, 1947, the respondent requests that the rates and charges now in effect be continued in effect to and including August 12, 1948.

It appears that public notice should be given of the filing of such petition in order that all interested persons may have an opportunity to be heard in the matter.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given to the public and to all interested persons of the filing of such petition for an extension of temporary rates and charges.

All interested persons who desire to be heard upon the matter requested in said petition shall notify the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days from the date of publication of this notice.

Copies hereof shall be served upon the respondent by registered mail or in person.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of June 1947.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Wage and Hour Division

LEARNER EMPLOYMENT CERTIFICATES

ISSUANCE TO VARIOUS INDUSTRIES

Notice of issuance of special certificates for the employment of learners under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

Notice is hereby given that special certificates authorizing the employment of learners at hourly wage rates lower than the minimum wage rate applicable under section 6 of the act have been issued to the firms hereinafter mentioned under section 14 of the act, Part 522 of the regulations issued thereunder (August 16, 1940, 5 F. R. 2862, and as amended June 25, 1942, 7 F. R. 4725), and the determinations, orders and/or regulations hereinafter mentioned. The names and addresses of the firms to which certificates were issued, industry, products, number of learners, learner occupations, wage rates, learning periods, and effective and expiration dates of the certificates are as follows:

Regulations, Part 522—Regulations Applicable to the Employment of Learners.

Puerto Rico Ilustrado, Inc., San Juan, Puerto Rico; to employ 4 learners as pressmen in the printing industry, as follows: Not less than 21¢ an hour for the first 460 hours; not less than 27¢ an hour for the second 460 hours; not less than 33¢ an hour for the third 460 hours; and for every hour thereafter, not less than the minimum established by any applicable wage order that may be in effect at the termination of the learning period. If, however, no applicable wage order is in effect at the time of the termination of the learning period, the statutory minimum required by section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act must be paid. The certificate is effective May 22, 1947 and expires May 21, 1948. Imprenta Soltero, Santurce, Puerto Rico; to employ 3 learners in the printing industry, as follows: 1 learner as a type setter and 1 learner as a linotypist at not less than 16 cents an hour for the first 690 hours; not less than 21 cents an hour for the second 690 hours; and not less than 26 cents an hour for the third 690 hours; and 1 learner as a pressman at not less than 16 cents an hour for the first 460 hours; not less than 21 cents an hour for the second 460 hours; and not less than 26 cents an hour for the third 460 hours; and for every hour thereafter, not less than the minimum established by any applicable wage order that may be in effect at the termination of the learning period. If, however, no applicable wage order is in effect at the time of the termination of the learning period, the statutory minimum required by section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act must be paid. The certificates are effective May 28, 1947 and expires May 27, 1948.

The employment of learners under the certificates is limited to the terms and conditions therein contained and is subject to the provisions of the applicable determinations, orders and/or regulations cited above. These certificates have been issued upon the employers' representations that experienced workers for the learner occupations are not available for employment and that they are actually in need of learners at subminimum rates in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment. The certificates may be cancelled in the manner provided in the regulations and as indicated in the certificates. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of any of these certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof within fifteen days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER pursuant to the provisions of Regulations, Part 522.

Signed at Washington, D. C. this 11th day of June 1947.

VAN CURLER BROADCASTING CORP. ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation, Albany, New York, Docket No. 7173, File No. BP–4395; The Joseph Henry Broadcasting Co., Inc., Albany, New York, Docket No. 8439, File No. BP–6123; Governor Dongan Broadcasting Corporation, Albany, New York, Docket No. 8440, File No. BP–6124; for construction permits; and The Joseph Henry Broadcasting Co., Inc., Albany, New York, Docket No. 8441, File No. BL–2485; for license.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications of The Joseph Henry Broadcasting Co., Inc., and Governor Dongan Broadcasting Corporation, for construction permits for new standard broadcast stations at Albany, New York, using 1460 kc, 5 kw, unlimited time, and also having under consideration the above-entitled application of The Joseph Henry Broadcasting Co., Inc., for a license to operate on the present facilities of station WOKO, Albany, New York, upon termination of its present authorization using 1460 kc, 500 w, 1 kw-LS, unlimited time;

Whereas, the Commission on January 30, 1946, designated the above-entitled application of Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation for hearing in a consolidated proceeding with three other applications which have since been removed from that proceeding, the facilities sought being a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station at Albany, New York, using 1460 kc, 5 kw, unlimited time—the facilities formerly licensed to station WOKO, Albany, New York; and

Whereas, a hearing has been had on the above-entitled application of Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation and the record closed; and

Whereas, the Commission in a memorandum opinion and order entered on April 9, 1947, stated that it would entertain until June 1, 1947, applications from any person for the facilities of station WOKO, and upon their being received would consolidate them for hearing with the above-entitled application of Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation, reopening the record on the latter application for this purpose; and

It appearing that the above-entitled applications of The Joseph Henry Broadcasting Co., Inc., and Governor Dongan Broadcasting Corporation, were filed prior to June 1, 1947;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the record in the above-entitled application of Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation, be reopened, and that the said applications of The Joseph Henry Broadcasting Co., Inc., and Governor Dongan Broadcasting Corporation, be, and they are hereby, designated for hearing in the above consolidated proceeding, further hearing in which shall be held on July 14, 1947, at Washington, D. C., each upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial, and other qualifications of the applicant corporation, its officers, directors and stockholders, to construct and operate the proposed station.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to receive primary service from the operation of the proposed station and the character of other broadcast services available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with any existing broadcast stations and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast services to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast services to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which, if any, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the Commission's order, dated January 30, 1946, designating the aforesaid application of Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation for hearing, be, and it is hereby, amended to include the above-entitled applications of The Joseph Henry Broadcasting Co., Inc., and Governor Dongan Broadcasting Corporation, and to include among the issues for hearing issue No. 7, stated above.

Notice is hereby given, that § 1.857 of the Commission's rules and regulations is not applicable to this proceeding.

By the Commission.

EVANGELINE BROADCASTING CO., INC. (KVOL) AND MODERN BROADCASTING CO. OF BATON ROUGE, INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Evangeline Broadcasting Company Incorporated (KVOL), Lafayete, Louisiana, Docket No. 8417, File No. BP-5668; Modern Broadcasting Company of Baton Rouge, Inc., Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Docket No. 8418, File No. BP-5711; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of Evangeline Broadcasting Company, Incorporated (KVOL) for a construction permit to change frequency from 1340 kc to 1480 kc, increase power from 250 w day and night to 5 kw day and 1 kw night, install new transmitter, make changes in vertical antenna, and install new ground system, and also having under consideration the above-entitled application of Modern Broadcasting Company of Baton Rouge, Inc., for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on the frequency 1480 kc, with 1 kw power, daytime only, at Baton Rouge, Louisiana;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications be, and they are hereby, designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be designated by subsequent order of the Commission, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial, and other qualifications of Modern Broadcasting Company of Baton Rouge, Inc., its officers, directors, and stockholders, to construct and operate the proposed station, and the technical, financial and other qualifications of Evangeline Broadcasting Company, Incorporated to construct and operate Station KVOL as proposed.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operations and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the proposed operations would involve objectionable interference with any existing broadcast stations and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the proposed operations would involve objectionable interference each with the other or with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the proposed installations and operations would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which, if either, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

Notice is hereby given, that § 1.857 of the Commission's rules and regulations is not applicable to this proceeding.

Cooper, tr/as Del Paso Broadcasting Co., for a construction permit for a new standard broadcasting station to operate on the frequency 1580 kc, 250 w power, daytime only, at North Sacramento, California, and also having under consideration the above entitled application of Herbert W. Brown and David A. Brown d/b as Central Valley Radio (KCVR), presently operating on 1570 kc, 250 w power, daytime only, at Lodi, California, for a construction permit to increase power to 1 kw.

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications be, and they are hereby, designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding at a time and place to be designated by subsequent order of the Commission, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial, and other qualifications of the individual applicant to construct and operate the proposed station and the technical, financial and other qualifications of the applicant partnership and the partners to construct and operate station KCVR as proposed.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operations and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the proposed operations would involve objectionable interference with any existing broadcast stations and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the proposed operations would involve objectionable interference each with the other or with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the proposed installations and operations would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which, if either of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

Notice is hereby given, that § 1.857 of the Commission's rules and regulations is not applicable to this proceeding.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 54-158]

UNITED CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 17th day of June 1947.

Notice is hereby given that The United Corporation ("United"), a registered holding company, has filed an application for approval of a plan under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 proposing action designed to effectuate further compliance with the Commission's order of August 14, 1943, issued pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the act, directing United to change its existing capitalization to one class of stock, namely, common stock, and to take such action in a manner consistent with the provisions of said act as will cause it to cease to be a holding company.

All interested persons are referred to said application, which is on file in the offices of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

United has outstanding 1,136,199⅙ shares of $3 Cumulative Preference Stock, having a voluntary and involuntary liquidating value of $50 per share and callable at $55 per share. There are presently no dividend arrearages on such stock. The plan proposes that each share of the outstanding Preference Stock be cancelled and retired by payment to the holders of such stock a package of securities to consist of designated amounts of the common stock of Public Service Corporation of New Jersey (or of Public Service Electric and Gas Company, if meanwhile the pending plan of reorganization of that system shall have become effective), Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation and The Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company. The application states that the contents of the package of securities to be delivered in retirement of each share of Preference Stock shall be set forth by appropriate amendment to the application, as soon as practicable after the commencement of hearings on this application.

United proposes to pay such fees and expenses and remuneration in connection with the plan, and any amendment thereto, as the Commission may approve, determine, award or allocate.

Consummation of the plan is subject to the following conditions:

(a) The Order of the Commission approving the plan shall recite, in accordance with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, including sections 371 and 1808 (f) thereof, that the transactions under the plan are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act, and shall specify and itemize the stock that is ordered to be transferred under the plan;

(b) United shall have obtained from the Bureau of Internal Revenue a ruling as to the tax consequences to it of the transactions under the plan, and such ruling shall be satisfactory to United;

(c) The Commission shall apply to a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to section 18 (f) of the act and such court shall have entered a decree or order to enforce and carry out the terms of the plan and any amendments thereto;

The Commission being required by the provisions of section 11 (e) of the act, before approving any plan submitted thereunder, to find after notice and opportunity for hearing that the plan, as submitted or as modified is necessary to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11, and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby; and it appearing appropriate that notice be given and a hearing held with respect to said plan, and that said plan shall not become effective except pursuant to further order of the Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing under the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder be held at 10 a. m., e. d. s. t., on July 9, 1947, in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on that day by the hearing room clerk in Room 318. Any person desiring to be heard in connection with this proceeding or proposing to intervene herein, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before July 7, 1947, his request and application therefor as provided in Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It it further ordered, That Willis E. Monty, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Public Utilities Division of the Commission having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the application and that, upon the basis thereof, the following matters and questions are presented for consideration without prejudice to its specifying additional matters and questions upon further examination:

(1) Whether the plan, as submitted and as to be implemented by further amendment, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act and constitutes an appropriate step toward compliance with the Commission's order of August 14, 1943;

(2) Whether the proposed plan, as submitted and as to be implemented by further amendment, is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

(3) Whether the fees, expenses and other remuneration which may be claimed in connection with the plan and transactions incident thereto are for necessary services and are reasonable in amount;

(4) Whether the accounting treatment to be accorded the proposed transactions is proper and in conformity with sound accounting principles and the Commission's Uniform System of Accounts for Public Utility Holding Companies;

(5) Whether and to what extent the plan and amendments thereto should be modified, or terms and conditions imposed, to ensure adequate protection of the public interest and the interests of investors and consumers and to prevent circumvention of the Act and Rules and Regulations thereunder;

(6) Whether the plan as submitted and to be implemented by further amendment, or a plan proposed by the Commission, or by any person having a bona fide interest should, in accordance with the provisions of section 11 (d) of the act, be approved for the purpose of effectuating the order of the Commission dated August 14, 1943, and if proposed by the Commission or a person having a bona fide interest, what the terms and provisions of such plan should be;

(7) Whether the transactions proposed in any such plan comply with all the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules promulgated thereunder;

It is further ordered, That particular attention be directed at said hearing to the foregoing matters and questions.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing copies of this order by registered mail to The United Corporation, and that notice be given to all other persons by general release of the Commission distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and that further notice be given to all persons by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That The United Corporation give notice of this hearing to all holders of its common and preference stocks (insofar as the identity of such stockholders is known and available to United) by mailing a copy of this notice and order at least 15 days prior to July 9, 1947.

By the Commission.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9867

AMENDING EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 9492, AS AMENDED, PRESCRIBING REGULATIONS GOVERNING NON-MILITARY AND NON-NAVAL TRANSPORTATION ON ARMY AND NAVY AIR TRANSPORTS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States and as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, it is ordered that Executive Order No. 9492 of October 24, 1944, as amended by Executive Orders No. 9629 of September 25, 1945, No. 9714 of April 20, 1946, No. 9792 of October 23, 1946, and No. 9840 of April 22, 1947, prescribing regulations governing non-military and non-naval transportation on Army and Navy air transports, be, and it is hereby, further amended by substituting the words "two years and ten months" for the words "two years and eight months," occurring in paragraph 2 (c) thereof, as amended.

HARRY S. TRUMAN

THE WHITE HOUSE,
June 23, 1947.

TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 24—FORMAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR APPOINTMENT TO CERTAIN SCIENTIFIC, PROFESSIONAL, AND TECHNICAL POSITIONS

MEDICAL BACTERIOLOGIST AND MEDICAL SEROLOGIST

The following sections are added to this part:

§ 24.48 Medical bacteriologist, P-1 through P-8—(a) Educational requirement. Applicant for all grades must have successfully completed four years of study leading to a bachelor's degree in a recognized college or university, with at least twenty semester hours of credit in either general or medical bacteriology.

(b) Duties. Appointees perform bacteriological work, chiefly in two fields: Clinical laboratory diagnostic procedures and research.

Clinical laboratory diagnostic procedures: Appointees examine and direct the examination of cultures isolated from humans and animals suffering from infectious disease; prepare vaccines or other substances designed for therapeutic use; prepare or direct the preparation of ordinary and special culture media; conduct and interpret sero-diagnostic tests such as the Wassermann or Kahn tests; and other technical bacteriological work.

As an example of work performed, bacteriologists obtain cultures from patients such as smears from infected areas or blood specimens, etc., sub-culture the organisms obtained from the original culture and identify the disease-producing organisms; prepare from cultures obtained from patients vaccines of specific organisms as ordered by the physician in charge of the patient; prepare or direct the preparation of re-agents for serodiagnostic tests such as the Wassermann test, including antigen, complement, hemolytic amboceptor, red-cell suspension, and titration of hemolytic sera, testing of body fluids such as blood serum and cerebro-spinal fluid; and the reading and reporting of the results of the test. Appointees perform other bacteriological or diagnostic tests as specified by the physician in charge. On the basis of the laboratory report the physician may determine the patient's disease and prescribe treatment.

Research: Appointees conduct advanced research upon the bacteria and viruses causing diseases in men and in some cases in animals. This includes the study of cultures isolated from infected humans and animals, and the inoculation and examination of experimental animals. Research is also conducted in the improvement of methods used to standardize biological preparations intended for human use and to design new methods of bacteriological technique. Appointees may also conduct research in the study of diseases, the causative organisms of which have not yet been identified and attempt to isolate the organism. Appointees also conduct research in the

FEDERAL REGISTER

Published daily, except Sundays, Mondays, and days following official Federal holidays, by the Division of the Federal Register, the National Archives, pursuant to the authority contained in the Federal Register Act, approved July 26, 1935 (49 Stat. 500, as amended; 44 U. S. C., ch. 8B), under regulations prescribed by the Administrative Committee, approved by the President. Distribution is made only by the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

The regulatory material appearing herein is keyed to the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published, under 50 titles, pursuant to section 11 of the Federal Register Act, as amended June 19, 1937.

The FEDERAL REGISTER will be furnished by mail to subscribers, free of postage, for $1.50 per month or $15.00 per year, payable in advance. The charge for individual copies (minimum 15¢) varies in proportion to the size of the issue. Remit check or money order, made payable to the Superintendent of Documents, directly to the Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

There are no restrictions on the republication of material appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

preparation of special culture media to promote more accurate and easier identification of pathogenic organisms. The results of this research are reported in publications and professional papers and may influence Federal, state, or city public health programs.

(c) Knowledge and training requisite for performance of duties. Medical bacteriology has advanced markedly during the last two decades. The principles of bacteriology, including understanding of the methods used in the identification of pathogenic organisms, have progressed to such extent that this knowledge can no longer be obtained by experience alone, but must be obtained through intensive courses of study of college level grade. The methods used may be very complicated, such as in sero-diagnostic procedures, which require detailed courses of study of the procedures involved in order to properly combine re-agents and to interpret the resulting reactions. The theories determining combinations and reactions of re-agents must be thoroughly understood in order to make proper combinations or variations of combinations; otherwise, the results will be inaccurate and conclusions drawn as a result of the test may lead to the faulty diagnosis of the disease by the patient's physician. A faulty report from the clinical laboratory of the results of an examination by a bacteriologist who, because of inadequate knowledge and training, has improperly isolated and identified bacteria, may prevent the patient's physician from determining the patient's disease with possible loss of life, crippling after-effects, prolonged unnecessary treatments, or widespreading of a contagious disease.

The field of bacteriology is now so broad and many of the methods used are so technical or complicated that the only source where an individual can learn all phases of bacteriology is in recognized colleges or universities which have been adequately investigated to determine whether their courses include all phases of the work which an individual should know, whether the equipment is adequate, and the instructing staff is of caliber sufficient to give the individual a well balanced knowledge of bacteriology.

(d) Method of obtaining basic knowledge and training. The technical knowledge required for the performance of these duties can be obtained only by attending and completing the full four-year course of study in a recognized college or university leading to a bachelor's degree, with at least twenty semester hours' credit in bacteriology.

The Veterans' Administration has adopted these education qualifications as a basic requirement for bacteriologist in that Administration. Variations between the grades will be determined by appropriate experience in addition to the special education. Since positions of bacteriologist in other Federal departments and agencies are similar in scope and difficulty to those of the Veterans' Administration, the same basic requirements should apply uniformly to all positions as bacteriologist in the Federal Government.

§ 24.49 Medical serologist, P–1 through P–8—(a) Educational requirement. Applicants for all grades must have successfully completed four years of study leading to a bachelor's degree in a recognized college or university, with at least twenty semester hours in serology or in general or medical bacteriology.

(b) Duties. Appointees perform serological and related bacteriological work in two chief fields: Clinical laboratory diagnosis and research. This work involves a detailed knowledge of the fundamental principles of serology and bacteriology and the related sciences; and the ability to apply them to laboratory methods.

Examples of the work: Clinical laboratroy diagnosis: Appointees, through the use of sero-diagnostic tests, such as Widal tests, precipitin tests, and complement fixation tests, aid in the identification of disease production organisms in men and anmials. On the basis of the laboratory report the patient's physician determines the patient's disease and prescribes treatment accordingly.

Research: In the field of research, serological procedures are originated or modified; the results are interpreted; new methods of identification of disease by means of sera may be devised. As results of these tests prophylactic sera may be prepared and/or modification made of the methods of preparing sera.

(c) Knowledge and training requisite for performance of duties. Serology includes the study of the various sera of the human and animal body in health and disease and the diagnosis of disease from the application of these studies to clinical laboratory procedures in the hospital or physician's laboratory. Serological methods and prophylactic sera have constantly been changed or modified during the last two decades. New sera have been developed and research is constantly being conducted in methods of employing present sera and to obtain sera for diseases for which no special treatment has previously been devised. Proper application of laboratory methods is dependent upon the theories leading to the development of specific procedures. Procedures for diagnosis must be varied to specific conditions and for specific disease producing organisms. The methods may be very complicated and the results are dependent upon variable factors in the procedures.

In a clinical laboratory a faulty understanding of theories may lead to improper procedures with resultant faulty reports to the physician in charge of the patient. This may materially complicate the diagnosis of a patient's disease and mislead the physician. As an example, a faulty laboratory report may cause the physician to diagnose a condition as syphilis with resultant unnecessary treatment of the patient for a long period.

The field is so broad that the only source where the applicant can adequately learn all phases of serology and all subjects related to serology is in a college or university maintaining adequate specialized laboratory equipment, adequate resources, and well qualified instructors. Serology is included in all courses in general medical bacteriology. However, serology may also be taken as a separate course. Thorough supervised training is necessary in order that the individual may properly apply and interpret procedures in serology, and in order that the individual may not perform mechanically in a laboratory with inability to recognize variable factors leading to faulty interpretation of results.

(d) Method of obtaining basic knowledge and training. The technical knowledge required for the performance of these duties can be obtained only by attending and completing a full four-year course in a recognized college or university leading to a bachelor's degree, with at least twenty semester hours' credit in serology or bacteriology.

The Veterans' Administration has established these qualifications as a basic requirement for positions as serologist in the Veterans' Administration. Variations between grades will be determined by appropriate experience, in addition to this basic education. Since positions of serologist in other departments and agencies of the Federal Government are similar in scope and difficulty to those of the Veterans' Administration, the same basic requirements should apply uniformly to all positions as serologist in the Federal Government.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

[Plum Order 13]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.314 Plum Order 13—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the regulation of shipments of Diamond plums, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 26, 1947, and 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 11, 1947, no shipper shall ship:

(i) Any package or container of Diamond plums containing plums which do not meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade, (as specified for such grade in the United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh), 12 F. R. 2305), with a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage, in addition to the usual tolerances permitted in said United States Standards; or

(ii) Any package or container of Diamond plums containing plums of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack, as specified in the aforesaid United States Standards, in a standard basket, as specified in paragraph numbered 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California. The aforesaid 5 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) As used in this section, the aforesaid 5 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically as follows: (i) At least thirty-five (35) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure not less than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, such diameter, as defined in the aforesaid United States Standards, being the shortest distance measured through the center of the plum at right angles to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end; (ii) at least sixty (60) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, not less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and (iii) no plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, less than $1^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter.

(3) Each shipper, prior to making each shipment of Diamond plums, shall, during the period set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, have the plums included in each such shipment inspected by a duly authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, heretofore designated by the Plum Commodity Committee and hereby approved; and each such shipper shall submit promptly, or cause to be submitted promptly, to the Plum Commodity Committee, Federal-State shipping point inspection certificates stating the grades and sizes of the Diamond plums contained in each such lot or shipment: Provided, however, That in case the following conditions exist in connection with any such shipment:

(i) A request for inspection is made to the Federal-State Inspection Service not later than 5:00 p. m. of the day before the fruit will be available for inspection;

(ii) The fruit is available for inspection between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. of the day specified in the request for such inspection; and

(iii) The Federal-State Inspection Service furnishes the shipper with a signed statement that it is not practicable, under such conditions, for the Federal-State Inspection Service to make the inspection within the necessary time;

the shipper, by submitting, or causing to be submitted, such signed statement to the Plum Commodity Committee, may make the particular shipment without such inspection, but such shipper shall still be held responsible for conforming with all grade and size regulations applicable to such shipment.

(4) The determination in § 936.301 with respect to shipments of plums into, in, or through the San Francisco-Sacramento region and the Los Angeles region shall be applicable to this section.

(5) As used in this section, the terms "shipper," "ship," and "shipment" shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order; and, the term "serious damage" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the aforesaid United States Standards.

(49 Stat. 31, as amended, 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 7 CFR, Cum. Supp. 936.1 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23d day of June 1947.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.315 Plum Order 14—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the regulation of shipments of sugar plums, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agriculutral Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 26, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 11, 1947, no shipper shall ship:

(i) Any package or container of Sugar plums containing plums which do not meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade (as specified for such grade in the United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh), 12 F. R. 2305), with a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage, in addition to the usual tolerances permitted in said United States Standards; or

(ii) Any package or container of Sugar plums containing plums of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 6 standard pack, as specified in the aforesaid United States Standards, in a standard basket, as specified in paragraph numbered 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California. The aforesaid 5 x 6 standard pack is defined more specifically in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph.

(2) During the period set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph:

(i) The total quantity of Sugar plums which a shipper may ship during any day, from any shipping point, shall meet the following additional conditions:

(a) Of said total quantity, at least seventy-five (75) percent, by number of packages, shall be of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack, as specified in the aforesaid United States Standards, in the aforesaid standard basket; and said 5 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically in paragraph (3) of this paragraph; and

(b) The remainder of such total quantity may be of a size that will pack a 5 x 6 standard pack, as aforesaid, or of larger sizes up to, but not including, a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack, as aforesaid.

(ii) If any shipper, during any two (2) consecutive days, ships from any such shipping point less than the maximum allowable portion of such Sugar plums that will pack a 5 x 6 standard pack, and larger sizes, as aforesaid, the amount of such undershipment of such plums may be shipped only during the next succeeding calendar day, in addition to such Sugar plums of such size that the respective shipper could have shipped on such succeeding calendar day if there had been no undershipment during the two (2) preceding days.

(3) As used in this section, the aforesaid 5 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically as follows: (i) At least thirty-five (35) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure not less than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, such diameter, as defined in the aforesaid United States Standards, being the shortest distance measured through the center of the plum at right angles to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end; (ii) at least sixty (60) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, not less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and, (iii) no plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, less than $1^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter.

(4) As used in this section, the aforesaid 5 x 6 standard pack is defined more specifically as follows: (i) at least thirty-five (35) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, not less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, (ii) at least sixty (60) percent, by count, of the total of such plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, not less than $1^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and (iii) no plums contained in any such pack measure, as aforesaid, less than $1^{3}/_{16}$ inches in diameter.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed (i) as preventing a shipper from shipping Sugar plums of a size larger than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack, as aforesaid, if said plums meet the grade requirements hereof, or (ii) as permitting the shipment of Sugar plums of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 6 standard pack, as aforesaid, even if the plums do meet said grade requirements.

(6) Each shipper, prior to making each shipment of Sugar plums shall, during the period set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, have the plums included in each shipment inspected by a duly authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, heretofore designated by the Plum Commodity Committee and hereby approved; and each such shipper shall submit promptly, or cause to be submitted promptly, to the Plum Commodity Committee, Federal-State shipping point inspection certificates stating the grades and sizes of the Sugar plums contained in each such lot or shipment: Provided, however, That in case the following conditions exist in connection with any such shipments:

(i) A request for inspection is made to the Federal-State Inspection Service not later than 5:00 p. m. of the day before the fruit will be available for inspection;

(ii) The fruit is available for inspection between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. of the day specified in the request for such inspection; and

(iii) The Federal-State Inspection Service furnishes the shipper with a signed statement that it is not practicable, under such conditions, for the Federal-State Inspection Service to make the inspection within the necessary time;

the shipper, by submitting, or causing to be submitted, such signed statement to the Plum Commodity Committee, may make the particular shipment without such inspection, but such shipper shall still be held responsible for conforming with all grade and size regulations applicable to such shipment.

(7) The determination in § 936.301 with respect to shipments of plums into, in, or through the San Francisco-Sacramento region and the Los Angeles region shall be applicable to this section.

(8) As used in this section, the terms "shipper," "ship," "shipping," and "shipping point" shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order; and, the term "serious damage" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the aforesaid United States Standards. (48 Stat. 31, as amended, 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.)

PART 110—PRIMARY INSPECTION AND DETENTION

CHANGE IN PORT OF ENTRY CLASSIFICATION OF MORSES LINE, VERMONT

JUNE 5, 1947.

Section 110.1, Designated ports of entry except by aircraft, Chapter I, Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations is amended by deleting "Morses Line, Vt." from the list of Class A ports of entry in District No. 1 and by adding "Morses Line, Vt." at the end of the list of Class B ports of entry in District No. 1.

This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) as to notice of proposed rule making and as to delayed effective date are found unnecessary and impracticable for the reason that the port of Morses Line, Vermont, will continue to be available to local residents by whom it is now used almost exclusively.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VII—Sugar Rationing Administration, Department of Agriculture

[3d Rev. RO 3,[1] Amdt. 56]

PART 707—RATIONING OF SUGAR

SUGAR

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Third Revised Ration Order 3 is amended in the following respects:

1. A new section 8.10 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 8.10 An institutional user may deliver ration evidences for industrial use. (a) An institutional user as defined in this order may transfer ration evidences obtained in accordance with paragraph (b) to any person for making an industrial use of the sugar obtained with such ration evidences, provided the product made from such sugar is delivered to the institutional user, or to another person who will further process it and deliver it to the institutional user, for service in the institutional user's establishment.

(b) The institutional user and the transferee must apply in writing to the Sugar Branch Office for issuance of ration evidences under this section. The application must state the following:

(1) The names and addresses of both parties.

(2) The amount of sugar for which ration evidences are requested.

(3) The kind and quantity of products to be made with the sugar obtained with such ration evidences.

(4) That the products so made will be delivered to the institutional user for service in his establishment.

If the Sugar Branch Office finds that the applicant is an institutional user and that the products to be made from the sugar obtained with the ration evidences will be delivered to him for service in his establishment, it shall authorize the issuance of ration evidences in the amount for which application is made; provided, however, that in no event shall the total amount of evidences issued exceed the amount of the allotment he received as an institutional user during the allotment period for May and June 1947, or if he received no allotment during that period, the allotment received during that period by the most comparable establishment.

(c) An institutional user may transfer a ration evidence obtained pursuant to paragraph (b) by endorsement, but only to the transferee who joined with him in the application for that evidence. The transferee, whether or not he is a registered user, may use sugar obtained with such evidences but only to make products which are to be delivered to the institutional user, or to another person who will further process them and deliver them to the institutional user, for service in the institutional user's establishment. The transferee may also transfer such evidences by endorsement to another person for making a product which will be delivered to the transferee for further processing, providing the product made from such further processing is delivered to the institutional user for service in his establishment.

(d) Ration evidences may not be issued or transferred under this section to make a product for which a provisional allowance may be obtained.

(e) The transferee must keep records of the evidences received pursuant to this section, and of the products he delivers to the institutional user, or to another person for further processing and delivery to the institutional user, for service in the institutional user's establishment, in return for such evidences.

2. Section 25.1 (c) (14) is amended to read as follows:

(14) "Institutional user" means a person who uses sugar in the preparation of food which he serves to consumers, or in the service of food to consumers. However, a person who uses sugar in a household or farm is not an institutional user unless an average of seven or more people a day are served there, not counting those who maintain the household or farm, the members of their family, and their employees and servants. "Institutional user establishment" shall include any place where there is an institutional use of sugar.

This amendment shall become effective June 21, 1947.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 20th day of June 1947.

CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Rationale Accompanying Amendment No. 56 to Third Revised Ration Order 3

This amendment permits an institutional user to apply to the Sugar Branch Office for a check which he may transfer by endorsement to any person for making an industrial use of sugar obtained with such check if the product will be delivered to the institutional user or to another person who will further process it and deliver it to the institutional user for service in the institutional user's establishment. The amount of evidences which may be obtained for such purposes will be limited by the allotment which he received as an institutional user during the May-June, 1947 allotment period or if he received no allotment during that period, the allotment received during that period by a comparable establishment.

The amendment thus will permit an institutional user to arrange to have made for him any product which he serves in his establishment.

Chapter XXIII—War Assets Administration

[Reg. 13]

PART 8313—STANDARD GENERAL PURPOSE AND SPECIAL MACHINERY

War Assets Administration Regulation 13, January 15, 1947, entitled "Standard General Purpose Machinery" (12 F. R. 663), is hereby revised and amended as herein set forth. Order 1, May 19, 1947 (12 F. R. 3320), under this part shall continue in full force and effect.

Sec.
8313.1 Definitions.
8313.2 Purpose and scope.
8313.3 Determination of base price and period of active use for Class I.
8313.4 Determination of sale price.
8313.5 Scrapping and salvage of machinery.
8313.6 Records and reports.
8313.7 Regulations to be reported to the Administrator.

EXHIBIT A—Table of percentages for Class I machines.
EXHIBIT B—Table of fixed prices for machines specifically listed.

AUTHORITY: §§ 8313.1 to 8313.7, inclusive, issued under the Surplus Property Act of 1944, as amended (58 Stat. 765, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1611); Pub. Law 181, 79th Cong., (59 Stat. 533; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1614a, 1614b); and Ex. O. 9689 (11 F. R. 1265).

§ 8313.1 Definitions—(a) Terms defined in act. Terms not defined in paragraph (b) of this section which are defined in the Surplus Property Act of 1944 shall in this part have the meaning given to them in the act.

(b) Other terms. (1) "Commercially unsalable machinery" as used herein is distinguished from property of no commercial value as used in Part 8319[1] and means machinery (i) which by reason of its condition resulting from damage, wear, obsolescence, or otherwise has no reasonable prospect of sale except as scrap or salvage or (ii) with respect to which the estimated cost of care and handling and disposal will exceed the estimated proceeds unless it is promptly sold as scrap or salvage.

(2) "Administrator" means the War Assets Administrator.

(3) "Salvage" means property that is in such a worn, damaged, deteriorated or incomplete condition, or is of such a specialized nature that it has no reasonable prospect of sale as a unit, or is not usable as a unit without major repairs or alterations. Salvage has some value in excess of its basic material content because it may contain serviceable components or may have value to a purchaser who may make major repairs or alterations.

(4) "Scrap" means property that has no reasonable prospect of sale except for its basic material content.

(5) "Standard general purpose machinery" includes new and used machine tools and machines (with the exception of special machinery) divided into the following designated two classes:

CLASS I

Directory of Metalworking Machinery Classification, 1945

Major Group 34:
34 11000 through 34 19900, inclusive.
34 40000 to, but not including, 34 47000.
34 48000 to, but not including, 34 50000.
34 60000 to, but not including, 34 70000.

Standard Commodity Classification, May 1943, Volume I

Major Group 33:
33 6200 through 33 6620, inclusive.
Major Group 33—Continued
33 6800.
33 6910 through 33 6950, inclusive.
33 7210 through 33 7220, inclusive.
33 7260.

CLASS II

Major Group 34:
Fixed price metalworking machinery as specifically listed in Exhibit B of this part.

(6) "Special machinery" includes machines designed for and used exclusively in the production of war material such as but not limited to:

Special gun reaming, rifling and chambering machines.
Gun boring and turning lathes.
Shell turning lathes.
Shell tappers.
Small arms ammunition machines.
Special military tank manufacturing machines.
Special military aircraft manufacturing machines.
Special shipbuilding machines.

(7) "Attachments and tooling" means those accessories to a basic machine, which when applied to the basic machine renders possible an additional operation or process or the functions for which the machine was intended. It includes but is not limited to vertical heads, gear cutting accessories, index heads, feeding accessories, tapering equipment, chucks, jigs, fixtures, gauges, moulds, tool holders, followers, etc.

§ 8313.2 Purpose and scope. The purpose of this part is to provide a fixed price policy for commercially salable new and used standard general purpose machine tools and machines. It also provides for the scrapping and salvaging of all other general purpose machinery and of any special machinery determined hereunder to be commercially unsalable. Prices at decreasing percentages of original costs are specified for Class I above, up to stated limits of active use and maximum prices are provided for sales of machinery in active use beyond such limits. Fixed prices without reference to decreasing percentages of original cost are specified for those machines in Class II above. This part applies to all sales in the continental United States, not including its territories or possessions, made after the effective date hereof by the disposal agency and to all sales by owning agencies of standard general purpose machinery pursuant to Part 8306[2] or otherwise, but is not applicable to any contract of sale of machinery entered into prior to the effective date of this part, or to any sale of machinery which has been delivered to the purchaser or to any carrier for the account of the purchaser prior to the effective date of this part.

§ 8313.3 Determination of base price and period of active use for Class I. (a) The base price of machinery falling within Class I shall be the original price at which the manufacturer sold the machine. The selling agency shall determine the original price (f. o. b. the plant of the machine manufacturer) of the machine including electrical equipment. Standard or special attachments or tooling shall be priced and disposed of pursuant to § 8313.4 (c) of this part. In the case of machine tools and metal forming and shaping machines manufactured prior to March 1, 1941, the March 1, 1941, price of the nearest equivalent machine may be taken as the original price. In the case of standard general purpose machines other than machine tools and metal forming and shaping machines manufactured prior to October 1, 1941, the October 1, 1941, price of the nearest equivalent machine may be taken as the original price.

(b) The selling agency shall determine the period of active use of the machine on the basis of the best information reasonably available. The period of active use shall be considered to run from the estimated date the machine was originally put into use to the date of sale, if the machine is then still in use. If the machine is not in use at the time of sale, the period shall run to the estimated date when the machine last became idle.

§ 8313.4 Determination of sale price—(a) Class I. (1) Exhibit A contains tables of percentages applicable to various periods of active use of machinery to be sold hereunder. The price at which a machine shall be sold shall be computed by applying to the base price determined in accordance with § 8313.3 (a) the percentage appearing in Exhibit A opposite the period of active use of the machine calculated in accordance with § 8313.3 (b). In the case of new machines where no period of active use exists, no greater percentage than that specified for "less than one month" shall be applied.

(2) In determining which of the two columns of percentages shall apply in Exhibit A, those appearing in column b shall be applied where the buyer is the person who is using the machine at the time of sale, or if the machine is then idle, the person who last used it and has possession thereof, and the percentage appearing in column a shall be applied where the sale is to any other buyer. The price computed in accordance herewith shall be the sales price f. o. b. the location of the machine at the time of sale, except that in the case of sales made to a purchaser in possession, it shall be the sales price of the machine at its location.

(b) Class II. Exhibit B contains a table of fixed prices for those machines, including any attachments or tooling, listed thereon and identified by code designation, name of manufacturer, model number, and capacity. A machine shall be considered to come within Class II only when completely identified by, and synonymous with, the description contained in Exhibit B. The prices contained in Exhibit B shall be applied in sales of all Class II machines: Provided, however, That when the buyer is the person who is using the machine at the time of sale, or if the machine is then idle, the person who last used it and has possession thereof, then in such event the sales price to such buyer shall be the fixed price listed in Exhibit B, plus five (5) per cent thereof.

(c) Attachments and tooling. (1) Standard or special attachments or tooling sold in conjunction with a basic machine in Class I, whether or not attached thereto, and which have value to the purchaser other than as scrap, shall be sold at a price to be computed on the same period of active use determined for the basic machine sold in conjunction therewith and separate findings of active use shall not be required for such attachments or tooling.

(2) If such standard or special attachments or tooling are attached to a basic Class I machine, and if the cost of handling and removal would exceed the estimated return to the Government if disposed of as salvage or scrap, then in such event the standard or special attachments or tooling may be included in the sale as scrap at the best price obtainable: Provided, That a scrap warranty is obtained from the purchaser thereof.

§ 8313.5 Scrapping and salvage of machinery. (a) The Administrator has determined that because of the cost of care, handling, and disposition, surplus machinery of any type which was manufactured during the year 1921 or any year prior thereto and was not rebuilt since 1921 is commercially unsalable and all such machinery shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section, upon a determination in writing by the agency in possession that the machinery was manufactured during the year 1921 or any year prior thereto, and was not rebuilt since 1921, forthwith be disposed of as salvage or scrap.

(b) From time to time, the Administrator may determine what additional types or classes of special machinery are commercially unsalable. Upon notice of such determinations, the owning and disposal agencies shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (d), forthwith dispose of any such types or classes of surplus property in their possession as salvage or scrap.

(c) Any machinery which the disposal agency or any owning agency determines in writing to be commercially unsalable shall be disposed of as salvage or scrap or otherwise by the agency in possession pursuant to applicable regulations of the Administrator. In connection with such determinations owning agencies may request the advice and assistance of the disposal agency.

(d) Prior to the sale of a machine which is to be disposed of as salvage or scrap owning and disposal agencies may, insofar as is consistent with the provisions of Part 8319, dispose of such property by donation to such nonprofit institutions and instrumentalities as make application therefor: Provided, That such procedure shall not delay or postpone any such disposal as scrap or salvage for a period in excess of thirty (30) days.

(e) [Deleted October 18, 1946.]

§ 8313.6 Records and reports. Owning and disposal agencies shall prepare and maintain such records as will show full compliance with the provisions of this part and with the applicable provisions of the act. Reports shall be prepared and filed with the Administrator in such manner as may be specified by order issued under this part subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 8313.7 Regulations to be reported to the Administrator. Each owning and disposal agency shall file with the Administrator copies of all regulations, orders, and instructions of general applicability which it may issue in furtherance of the provisions, or any of them, of this part.

This revision of this part shall become effective June 17, 1947.

ROBERT M. LITTLEJOHN,
Administrator.

JUNE 17, 1947.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Subtitle A—Office of the Secretary of the Interior

[Order 2336]

PART 4—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY CONTRACTS

JUNE 19, 1947.

1. Section 4.100 is added to Part 4 to read as follows:

§ 4.100 Contracts. (a) Irrespective of the amount involved, the head of a bureau may enter into contracts for construction, supplies, or services in conformity with applicable regulations and statutory requirements and subject to the availability of appropriations. Secretarial approval is not a condition precedent to the consummation of such a contract unless the Secretary by a written order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER specifically prescribes such a requirement with respect to a particular contract or type of contract, or unless Secretarial approval is specifically required by statute. However, the head of a bureau may request Secretarial approval of any proposed contract.

(b) With respect to any such contract, including a contract approved by the Secretary, the head of a bureau may issue change orders and extra work orders pursuant to the contract, enter into modifications of the contract which are legally permissible, and terminate the contract if such action is legally authorized.

(c) Except in those cases in which he is the contracting officer, the head of a bureau may, with respect to contracts entered into on United States standard forms, act as the authorized representative of the Secretary within the meaning of Articles 3 and 4 of Form No. 23 and Article 2 of Form No. 32, and, for the purpose of extending the time within which a contractor may notify a contracting officer of the causes of delay, Article 9 of Form No. 23, Article 5 of Form No. 32, and Condition 4 of Form No. 33. This paragraph shall not affect the authority to deviate from the standard form contracts granted to the Bureau of Reclamation by the Chairman of the Interdepartmental Board of Contracts and Adjustments, with the approval of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget, in the memorandum dated November 26, 1927.

(d) The head of a bureau may redelegate to subordinate officials and employees of the bureau, or to the Property and Procurement Officer of the Department, or to the Purchasing Officer, Alaska-Seattle Service Office, the authority granted in this section. Each such redelegation shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(e) This section is not intended to affect any requirement that proposed programs be cleared with the Office of the Secretary prior to their inauguration.

(f) The head of a bureau shall make such reports concerning the exercise of the authority granted by this section as the Secretary may require. The bureaus will be guided by such procedures as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe.

(g) Delegations of authority to contract which have been made by the Secretary to subordinate officials or employees of the bureaus, and redelegations of authority to contract which have been made by the heads of bureaus to subordinate officials or employees or to the Purchasing Officer of the Department or to the Purchasing Office of the Alaska-Seattle Service Office, and which are in force on the effective date of this section, shall remain in force until revoked or superseded by redelegations made by the heads of bureaus under this section.

(h) As used in this section, the term "bureau" means The Alaska Railroad, the Alaska Road Commission, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the Bureau of Land Management, the Bureau of Mines, the Bureau of Reclamation, the Fish and Wildlife Service, the Geological Survey, the National Park Service, the Puerto Rico Reconstruction Administration, and the Southwestern Power Administration.

(i) This section has no application to the Bonneville Power Administrator, whose authority to contract is derived from the act of August 20, 1937 (16 U. S. C. 832 et seq.), as amended.

(j) This section supersedes:

43 CFR 4.360 and 4.860 (Order No. 2306; 12 F. R. 2036).
43 CFR 4.530, (c) (Order No. 2327; 12 F. R. 3768).
Paragraph 1, Order No. 341, dated April 2, 1929.
Order No. 1423, dated September 19, 1939.
Solicitor's memorandum, dated April 22, 1942, relating to construction by the Bureau of Mines.
Paragraph 10, Order No. 1721, dated August 10, 1942, in so far as it relates to contracts for supplies.
Subsections (e) and (f), section I, Order No. 1815, dated May 13, 1943.
Order No. 2117, dated October 18, 1945 (10 F. R. 13646).
Order No. 2151, dated December 27, 1945 (11 F. R. 1053).

(R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.)

2. Section 4.101 is added to Part 4 to read as follows:

§ 4.101 Contracts: Office of the Secretary. (a) Irrespective of the amount involved, the Chief Clerk and the Property and Procurement Officer are severally authorized to enter into contracts for supplies or services (1) for the Office of the Secretary, (2) for bureaus and offices from appropriations entitled "Contingent Expenses, Department of the Interior," and (3) for bureaus and offices and Territorial agencies under special arrangements, such actions to be taken in conformity with applicable regulations and statutory requirements and subject to the availability of appropriations. Secretarial approval is not a condition precedent to the consummation of such a contract unless the Secretary by a written order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER specifically prescribes such a requirement with respect to a particular contract or type of contract, or unless Secretarial approval is specifically required by statute.

(b) With respect to any such contract, including a contract approved by the Secretary, the contracting officer may issue change orders and extra work orders pursuant to the contract, enter into modifications of the contract which are legally permissible, and terminate the contract if such action is legally authorized.

(c) Except in those cases in which he is the contracting officer, the Chief Clerk may, with respect to contracts entered into on United States standard forms, act as the authorized representative of the Secretary within the meaning of Article 2 of Form No. 32, and, for the purpose of extending the time within which the contractor may notify a contracting officer of the causes of delay, Article 5 of Form No. 32 and Condition 4 of Form No. 33. (R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.)

J. A. KRUG,
Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter II—United States Maritime Commission

Subchapter I—Philippine Rehabilitation

[General Order 68]

PART 311—CHAPTERS UNDER PHILIPPINE REHABILITATION ACT OF 1946

SUBPART A—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.
311.1 Definitions.
311.2 Certification of financial statements.
311.3 Commission examination of books and accounts.

SUBPART B—APPLICATIONS

311.11 Application form and requirements.

SUBPART C—CHARTER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

311.21 Mandatory provisions in charter.
311.22 Charter form.

AUTHORITY: §§ 311.1 to 311.22, inclusive, issued under sec. 306 (a), Pub. Law 370, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 137.

SUBPART A—GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 311.1 Definitions. For the purpose of this part:

(a) Working capital. "Working capital" means the excess of "total current working assets" over "total current working liabilities" determined in accordance with the instructions and balance sheet embodied in the form of "General Financial Statement" prescribed by the Commission (Budget Bureau Approval No. 62–R010–42[1]: Provided, That (1) in determining the amount of working capital, unpaid tenders of "just compensation" made by the Maritime Commission (or War Shipping Administration) for title to or use (to the extent accrued) of vessels (irrespective of whether or not such tenders have been accepted by the owners) may be included, (2) an amount equivalent to the excess (if any) of 50% of the amount of unterminated Voyage Revenue over the amount of unterminated Voyage Expense reflected in the balance sheet shall be deducted from the amount of working capital determined in accordance with the preceding provisions of this paragraph, and (3) the amount of working capital thus determined shall in no event be in excess of the sum of (i) unrestricted cash and readily marketable securities included in total current working assets and (ii) admitted current receivables against the Maritime Commission and unpaid tenders of "just compensation" made by the Maritime Commission (or War Shipping Administration) for title to or use of vessels, less the amount of all current payables to the Maritime Commission.

(b) Net worth. "Net worth" shall include capital stock, capital surplus, and earned surplus adjusted to exclude capital stock subscribed but not issued, capital stock held in the treasury, appreciation, good will, and other intangibles not actually acquired for cash or for a consideration determined by the Commission to be the equivalent thereof, and such other adjustments as are consistent with sound accounting principles.

(c) Preoperating and operating expenses. "Preoperating and operating expenses" shall include wages, subsistence, stores, supplies, equipment, fuel, maintenance, repairs, insurance, and other vessel expenses as described in the instructions embodied in the "General Financial Statement" prescribed by the Commission (accounts numbered 700.01 to 700.64 inclusive, pages 8 and 9) and overhead expenses, but shall not include agency fees and commissions; wharfage, dockage, and other port expenses; stevedoring and other cargo expenses; brokerage, canal tolls, and other voyage expenses.

Such preoperating and operating expenses for a 30 day period (except prepaid insurance which is for a period of one year) shall be deemed to aggregate:

Vessel type	Insurance (for 1 year)	Other expenses	Total
N3–S–A1 (recip. steam)	$26,600	$17,200	$43,800
C1–M–AV1 (Diesel)	34,900	14,400	49,300
Esther Johnson (schooner)	14,100	13,000	27,100

(d) Related company. The term "related company", used to indicate a relationship with the applicant, shall include any person or concern that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the applicant. The term "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the applicant (or related company), whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

§ 311.2 Certification of financial statements. All financial statements submitted to the Commission shall be certified by a recognized firm of public accountants or by a duly authorized officer or member of applicant. The certification on the balance sheet shall be to the effect that, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person making such certification, such balance sheet fairly presents the financial position of the applicant as of the date thereof. The certification on the profit and loss statement should be to the effect that, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person making the certification, such statement correctly states the operating results of the applicant for the period covered thereby.

§ 311.3 Commission examination of books and accounts. The Commission shall have the right to examine the books, records, and accounts of applicants if and to the extent deemed necessary to verify financial statements submitted to it.

SUBPART B—APPLICATIONS

§ 311.11 Application form and requirements—(a) Application form. The application to charter a vessel under this part shall be substantially in the form of the application to charter a war-built vessel under the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946, as prescribed by § 299.81 of the United States Maritime Commission General Order 60 published in the FEDERAL REGISTER April 23, 1946, 11 F. R. 4459: Provided, That instead of the exhibits required under item G of the form prescribed by § 299.81, the following exhibits shall be furnished:

Exhibit I. A copy of the certificate of incorporation of the applicant or other organization papers, including all amendments thereto presently in effect.

Exhibit II. A copy of the by-laws or other governing instruments of the applicant, including all amendments thereto presently in effect.

Exhibit III. A copy of (1) a balance sheet as of the end of a calendar month (except in instances where the fiscal year of the applicant ends on some other day) within not more than six months and not less than one month (except in instances where the applicant was established more recently) of the date of the filing of the application (or amendment thereto changing the type or number of vessels applied for) with the Commission, (2) a brief statement of the nature of any substantial changes in the financial condition of the applicant, or the results of its operations since the date of the balance sheet required hereunder, and (3) profit and loss statements for each year (or other accounting period) beginning with the fiscal year ended in 1939 and ending with the date of the balance sheet. If during the period covered by such profit and loss statements, the applicant succeeded to the business and assets of another person, the statements furnished should reflect the operations of such predecessor or predecessors for that part of such period preceding the date of acquisition.

(b) Minimum financial requisites to charter vessels. Each application shall include sufficient information to enable the Commission to determine that it possesses the following minimum financial requisites:

(1) Sufficient working capital, as defined in paragraph (a) of § 311.1, to cover the sum of (i) basic charter hire for a period of thirty days, (ii) prepaid insurance for the period of the bareboat charter agreement but not in excess of one year, and (iii) preoperating and operating expenses (other than prepaid insurance), as defined in paragraph (c) of § 311.1, of the vessel for a period of thirty days. In determining the amount of such working capital, the amount of any securities pledged or to be pledged with the Commission in lieu of a surety bond, as prescribed in paragraph (b) of § 311.21, shall be excluded.

(2) Net worth, as defined in paragraph (b) of § 311.1, at least equal to the greater of (i) the basic charter hire for the period of the bareboat charter agreement but not more than one year, payable with respect to the vessel, or (ii) an amount calculated at the rate of ten percent of the unadjusted statutory sales price or floor price (whichever is the higher) in the instance of a war-built vessel (as defined in the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946, or at the rate of ten percent of its value as determined by the Commission in the instance of any other vessel, for the period of the bareboat charter agreement but not more than one year.

Such minimum financial requirements shall be applicable with respect to each vessel applied for. In instances where the applicant is engaged in the operation of other vessels or in activities other than the operation of vessels, the amount of working capital and net worth required for such purposes will be taken into account in addition to such minimum financial requirements in determining whether the applicant possesses the required financial resources.

The Commission, in any instance where it deems it necessary or desirable to do so, may employ bases other than those expressed above in determining financial responsibility.

(c) Philippine Government approval. All such applications shall bear Philippine Government approval prior to being presented for approval by the United States Maritime Commission.

SUBPART C—CHARTER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

§ 311.21 Mandatory provisions in charter. Every charter made by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Philippine Rehabilitation Act of 1946, and pursuant to this part, shall include the following mandatory provisions:

(a) Books and accounts of charterer; Commission examination and audit. That the charterer shall keep its books and accounts relating to the vessel in such form as the Commission may prescribe, shall file such financial statements as the Commission may require, and shall permit the Commission to examine and audit its books, records, and accounts.

(b) Bond of charterer. That for each vessel chartered under the Philippine Rehabilitation Act of 1946, the charterer shall deposit with the Commission a bond, in such amount as the Commission shall require but not less than $25,000, to be approved by the Commission both as to form and sufficiency of the sureties, conditioned upon the true and faithful performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements of the charterer contained in the charter, including, but not limited to, the charterer's obligation to pay charter hire and damages, and indemnity against liens on the chartered vessel. The charterer may, in lieu of furnishing such bond, pledge United States Government securities in the face value of the required amount under an agreement satisfactory in form and substance to the Commission.

(c) Financial limitations. That the charterer agrees that (1) no capital shall be withdrawn, (2) no share capital shall be redeemed or converted into debt, (3) no dividend shall be paid, (4) no loan or advance (except advances to cover current expenses of the charterer) shall be made, either directly or indirectly, to any stockholder, director, officer, or employee of the charterer or to any related company (as defined in paragraph (d) of § 311.1), (5) no investment shall be made in the securities of any related company (as defined in paragraph (d) of § 311.1), (6) no indebtedness to any stockholder, director, officer, or employee of the charterer or to any related company (as defined in paragraph (d) of § 311.1) which was classified as long-term or noncurrent in the balance sheet submitted with the application (or amendment thereto) to charter the vessel, shall be repaid in whole or in part, and (7) no salary at a rate in excess of $12,500.00 per annum shall be paid if, after such transaction, the amount of working capital or the amount of net worth thereby would be reduced below the minima prescribed in § 311.11.

(d) Restricted operations. That the vessel shall be operated only in the interisland commerce in the Philippines.

§ 311.22 Charter form. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, the charter form shall be substantially in the form of the charter of a war-built dry-cargo vessel under the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946, as prescribed by § 299.82 of the Commission's General Order 60, Supplement 5, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 10, 1946, 11 F. R. 9936: Provided, That such charter shall be modified to give effect to the provisions of this part, and there shall be eliminated from such charter all provisions applicable only to the payment of additional charter hire.

By order of the United States Maritime Commission.

R. L. MCDONALD,
Assistant Secretary.

JUNE 20, 1947.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 52]

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF CANNED GREEN BEANS AND CANNED WAX BEANS[1]

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, under the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1947 (Pub. Law 422, 79th Cong., 2d Sess., approved June 22, 1946), and the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (Pub. Law 733, 79th Cong., 2d Sess., approved August 14, 1946), that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance, as hereinafter proposed, of revised United States Standards for Grades of Canned Green Beans and Canned Wax Beans. The aforesaid standards have been in effect since June 1, 1945.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed revised standards shall file the same in quadruplicate with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 0308, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed revised standards are as follows:

§ 52.165 Canned green beans and canned wax beans—(a) Identity. (1) "Canned green beans" means canned green beans as defined in the definitions and standard of identity for canned green beans (21 CFR 51.10; 12 F. R. 1138), issued pursuant to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

(2) "Canned wax beans" means canned wax beans as defined in the definitions and standard of identity for

[1] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

TABLE NO. I—RECOMMENDED DRAINED WEIGHTS, IN OUNCES, OF GREEN BEANS AND WAX BEANS

Container size or designation	Style of canned beans
	Whole	Whole vertical pack or whole asparagus style	Short cuts and cuts 1½ inches and shorter	French style and cuts 1½ inches or longer
No. 1 E	6½	6½
No. 2(vac.)	8½	8½
No. 303	9½	9½
No. 2	11½	11½	12½
No. 2½	16½	16½	17½	15½
No. 10	61	61	65	63

(f) Types of canned beans. The type of canned beans is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product, since the type of canned beans is not a factor of quality for the purpose of these grades. The type of canned beans is dependent upon the type of beans packed in the container and is described as round type or flat type.

(1) "Round type canned green beans" are canned beans consisting of round type green beans having a width not greater than 1½ times the thickness of the bean. "Round type canned wax beans" are canned beans consisting of round type wax beans having a width not greater than 1½ times the thickness of the bean.

(2) "Flat type canned green beans" are canned beans consisting of flat type green beans having a width greater than 1½ times the thickness of the bean. "Flat type canned wax beans" are canned beans consisting of flat type wax beans having a width greater than 1½ times the thickness of the bean.

(g) Sizes of green beans or wax beans in canned beans. The size of green beans or wax beans is not a factor of quality of canned beans for the purpose of these grades. The size of a green bean or wax bean is determined by measuring the diameter of the bean, which is perpendicular to a straight line drawn through the long axis of the pod at its widest portion, and at right angles to the suture. The designation of the various sizes of round type and flat type green beans or wax beans packed as canned beans are shown in Table No. II hereof.

TABLE NO. II—SIZES OF GREEN BEANS AND WAX BEANS IN CANNED BEANS

Size of beans (inches in thickness)	Round type beans in various styles of canned beans		Flat type beans in whole, cut, or short cut beans
	Whole beans		Cut or short cut beans		Word designation

27/64 inch or more in thickness	Size 6	Extra large	Extra large	Size 6	Do.

(h) Ascertaining the grade. (1) The grade of canned beans may be ascertained by considering, in addition to the requirements of the respective grade, the following factors: Clearness of liquor, color, absence of defects, and maturity. The relative importance of each factor is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given each factor is:

	Points
(i) Clearness of liquor	10
(ii) Color	15
(iii) Absence of defects	35
(iv) Maturity	40
Total Score	100

(2) "Normal flavor and normal odor" means that the canned beans are free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined herein.

(3) "U. S. Grade C" or "U. S. Standard" is the quality of canned green beans or canned wax beans that possess similar varietal characteristics; possess a normal flavor and odor; possess a fairly uniform typical color; are nearly mature and fairly tender; possess a fairly good liquor; are fairly free from defects; and score not less than 60 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined herein.

(4) "U. S. Grade D" or "Substandard" is the quality of canned beans that fail to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard.

(5) "U. S. Grade D—Below standard in quality good food—not high grade" or "Substandard—Below standard in quality good food—not high grade" is the quality of canned beans that fail below the standard of quality of canned green beans (21 CFR 51.11; 12 F. R. 1140) or the standard of quality of canned wax beans (21 CFR 51.16; 12 F. R. 1141); as the case may be.

(d) Recommended fill of container. The recommended fill of container is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since fill of container, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purpose of these grades. It is recommended that each container of canned beans be filled with green beans or wax beans, as the case may be, as full as practicable without impairment of quality and that the product and packing medium occupy not less than 90 percent of the total capacity of the container.

(e) Recommended drained weight. The drained weight recommendations in Table No. I hereof are not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since drained weight, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purpose of these grades. The drained weight of green beans or wax beans, as the case may be, is determined by emptying the contents of the container upon a circular sieve of proper diameter containing 8 meshes to the inch (0.097-inch square openings) and allowing to drain for 2 minutes. A sieve 8 inches in diameter is used for No 3 size cans (404 x 414) and smaller, and a sieve 12 inches in diameter is used for containers larger than the No. 3 size can (404 x 414).

canned wax beans (21 CFR 51.15; 12 F.R. 1138), issued pursuant to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

(3) "Canned beans" means canned green beans or canned wax beans.

(4) "Whole green beans" or "whole wax beans" means canned beans consisting of whole pods, or transversely cut pods not less than 2¾ inches in length.

(5) "Unit" means an individual green bean or wax bean, or portion of either, in canned beans.

(b) Styles of canned beans. (1) "Whole" means canned beans that are not arranged in any definite position in the container.

(2) "Whole vertical pack" means canned beans that are packed parallel to the sides of the container.

(3) "Whole asparagus style" means canned beans consisting of pods that are cut at both ends, are of substantially equal length, and are packed parallel to the sides of the container.

(4) "Sliced lengthwise" or "French style" means canned beans consisting of pods that are sliced lengthwise.

(5) "Cut" or "cuts" means canned beans consisting of pods that are cut transversely into pieces less than 2¾ inches, but not less than ¾ inch, in length, and may contain shorter end pieces which result from cutting.

(6) "Short cut" or "short cuts" means canned beans consisting of pieces of pods less than ¾ inch in length.

(c) Grades of canned beans. (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of canned green beans or canned wax beans that possess similar varietal characteristics; possess a normal flavor and odor; are very young and tender; and are of such quality with respect to clearness of liquor, uniformity of color, and absence of defects as to score not less than 90 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined herein.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Extra Standard" is the quality of canned green beans or canned wax beans that possess similar varietal characteristics; possess a normal flavor and odor; possess a reasonably uniform typical color; are young and reasonably tender; are reasonably free from defects; and are of such quality with respect to clearness of liquor as to score not less than 75 points when

(i) Ascertaining the rating of each factor. The essential variations within each factor are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor is inclusive (for example, "32 to 33 points" means 32, 33, 34, or 35 points).

(1) Clearness of liquor. (i) Canned beans that possess a practically clear liquor may be given a score of 9 to 10 points. "Practically clear liquor" means that the liquor may possess a slight tint of yellow-green to green color and that not more than a trace of suspended material and sediment is present.

(ii) If the canned beans possess a reasonably clear liquor, a score of 7 to 8 points may be given. "Reasonably clear liquor" means that the liquor may be cloudy or contain a small quantity of sediment.

(iii) If the canned beans possess a fairly good liquor, a score of 5 to 6 points may be given. "Fairly good liquor" means that the liquor may be dull in color, but not off color; may be cloudy; or may possess a noticeable accumulation of sediment.

(iv) Canned beans that possess a liquor that is definitely off-color for any reason, is excessively cloudy, or contains a seriously objectionable quantity of sediment may be given a score of 0 to 4 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(2) Color. (i) Canned beans that possess a practically uniform bright typical color may be given a score of 14 to 15 points. "Practically uniform bright typical color" means that the canned beans possess a color that is bright and typical of very young and tender green beans or wax beans, as the case may be, of similar varietal characteristics with not more than 5 percent, by count, which vary markedly from this color.

(ii) If the canned beans possess a reasonably uniform typical color, a score of 12 to 13 points may be given. "Reasonably uniform typical color" means that the canned beans possess a color that is typical of young and reasonably tender green beans or wax beans, as the case may be, of similar varietal characteristics with not more than 10 percent, by count, which vary markedly from this color.

(iii) Canned beans that possess a fairly uniform typical color may be given a score of 10 to 11 points. Canned beans that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly uniform typical color" means that the canned beans possess a color that is typical of nearly mature and fairly tender green beans or wax beans, as the case may be, of similar varietal characteristics with not more than 15 percent, by count, which vary markedly from this color.

(iv) Canned beans that are definitely off-color or fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 9 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(3) Absence of defects. (i) The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from extraneous vegetable matter, loose seed and pieces of seed, unstemmed units, ragged-cut units, split units, small pieces of pods, units damaged by mechanical injury, and units blemished by scars, pathological injury, insect injury, or blemished by other means.

(a) "Blemished unit" means any unit in which the aggregate area affected exceeds the area of a circle ⅛ inch in diameter.

(b) "Seriously blemished" means blemished to such an extent that the appearance or eating quality of the unit is seriously affected.

(c) "Extraneous vegetable matter" means leaver, detached stems, and other similar vegetable matter.

(d) "Ragged-cut units" means sections of pods that have very ragged edges, or are partially cut.

(e) "Practically intact" means that not more than 5 percent, by weight, of the units in a container are split into two parts.

(f) "Small pieces of pods" means pieces of pods less than ½ inch in length.

(g) "Damaged by mechanical injury" means damaged to such an extent that the appearance or eating quality of the unit is seriously affected.

(ii) Canned beans that are practically free from defects may be given a score of 32 to 35 points. "Practically free from defects" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles of packs of canned green beans or canned wax beans:

(a) Whole or cut. "Practically free from defects" means that the units are practically intact; the weight of all loose seed and pieces of seed does not exceed 3 percent of the drained weight of the units; the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 10 percent of the drained weight of the units; and that for each 12 ounces, drained weight, of units there may be present:

Not more than 1 piece of extraneous vegetable matter, exclusive of detached stems;

Not more than 4 unstemmed units or 4 detached stems, or any combination of not more than 4 unstemmed units and detached stems;

Not more than 4 blemished units, of which not more than 2 units are seriously blemished;

Not more than 5 ragged-cut units or 5 units damaged by mechanical injury; and

Not more than 40 small pieces of pods in cut style.

(b) Sliced lengthwise or French style. "Practically free from defects" means that the pods are well sliced and the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 10 percent of the drained weight of the units, and that for each 12 ounces, drained weight, of units there may be present:

Not more than 1 piece of extraneous vegetable matter, exclusive of detached stems;

Not more than 4 unstemmed units or 4 detached stems, or any combination of not more than 4 unstemmed units and detached stems; and

Not more than 4 blemished units, of which not more than 2 units are seriously blemished.

(c) Short cuts. "Practically free from defects" means that the units are practically intact; the weight of all loose seed and pieces of seed does not exceed 3 percent of the drained weight of the units; the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 10 percent of the drained weight of the units; and that for each 12 ounces, drained weight, of units there may be present:

Not more than 1 piece of extraneous vegetable matter, exclusive of detached stems;

Not more than 4 unstemmed units or 4 detached stems, or any combination of not more than 4 unstemmed units and detached stems;

Not more than 5 units damaged by mechanical injury; and

Not more than 4 blemished units, of which not more than 2 units are seriously blemished.

(iii) If the canned beans are reasonably free from defects, a score of 27 to 31 points may be given. "Reasonably free from defects" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles of canned beans:

(a) Whole or cut. "Reasonably free from defects" means that the units are practically intact; the weight of all loose seed and pieces of seed does not exceed 4 percent of the drained weight of the units; the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 15 percent of the drained weight of the units; and that for each 12 ounces, drained weight, of units there may be present:

Not more than 2 pieces of extraneous vegetable matter, exclusive of detached stems;

Not more than 4 unstemmed units or 4 detached stems, or any combination of not more than 4 unstemmed units and detached stems;

Not more than 4 blemished units, of which not more than 2 units are seriously blemished.

(c) Short cuts. "Practically free from defects" means that the units are practically intact; the weight of all loose seed and pieces of seed does not exceed 4 percent of the drained weight of the units; the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 15 percent of the drained weight of the units; and that for each 12 ounces, drained weight, of units there may be present:

Not more than 2 pieces of extraneous vegetable matter, exclusive of detached stems;

Not more than 5 unstemmed units or 4 detached stems, or any combination of not more than 4 unstemmed units and detached stems;

Not more than 8 blemished units, of which not more than 4 units are seriously blemished;

Not more than 10 ragged-cut units or 10 units damaged by mechanical injury; and

Not more than 60 small pieces of pods in cut style.

(b) Sliced lengthwise or French style. "Reasonably free from defects" means that the pods are reasonably well sliced and the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 15 percent of the drained weight of the units, and that for each 12 ounces, drained weight, of units there may be present:

Not more than 2 pieces of extraneous vegetable matter, exclusive of detached stems;

Not more than 5 unstemmed units or 5 detached stems, or any combination of not more than 5 unstemmed units and detached stems; and

Not more than 8 blemished units, of which not more than 4 units are seriously blemished.

(c) Short cuts. "Reasonably free from defects" means that the units are practically intact; the weight of all loose seed and pieces of seed does not exceed 4 percent of the drained weight of the units; the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 15 percent of the drained weight of the units; and that for each 12 ounces, drained weight, of units there may be present:

Not more than 2 pieces of extraneous vegetable matter, exclusive of detached stems;

Not more than 5 unstemmed units or 5 detached stems, or any combination of not more than 5 unstemmed units and detached stems;

Not more than 10 units damaged by mechanical injury; and

Not more than 8 blemished units, of which not more than 4 units are seriously blemished.

(iv) If the canned beans are fairly free from defects, a score of 22 to 26 points may be given. Canned beans that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly free from defects" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles of canned beans:

(a) Whole or cut. "Fairly free from defects" means that the units are practically intact: the weight of all loose seed and pieces of seed does not exceed 5 percent of the drained weight of the units;[1] the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 20 percent of the drained weight of the units, and that:

The combined weight of all extraneous vegetable matter does not exceed 0.6 ounce per 60 ounces, drained weight, of the units;[2]

There are not more than 6 unstemmed units per 12 ounces, drained weight, of units;[2]

There are not more than 12 blemished units per 12 ounces, drained weight, of units[2] of which not more than 6 units are seriously blemished; and

There are not more than 60 units per 12 ounces, drained weight, of units which are less than ½ inch long in cut style.[2]

(b) Sliced lengthwise or French style. "Fairly free from defects" means that the pods are fairly well sliced and the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 20 percent, drained weight, of the units and that:

The combined weight of all extraneous vegetable matter does not exceed 0.6 ounce per 60 ounces, drained weight of the units;[2]

There are not more than 6 unstemmed units per 12 ounces, drained weight, of the units;[2] and

There are not more than 12 blemished units per 12 ounces, drained weight, of the units[2] of which not more than 6 units are seriously blemished.

(c) Short cuts. "Fairly free from defects" means that the units are practically intact; the weight of all loose seed and pieces of seed does not exceed 5 percent, drained weight, of the units;[1] the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 20 percent, drained weight, of the units and that:

The combined weight of all extraneous vegetable matter does not exceed 0.6 ounce per 60 ounces, drained weight, of the units;[2]

There are not more than 6 unstemmed units per 12 ounces, drained weight, of the units;[2] and

There are not more than 12 blemished units per 12 ounces, drained weight, of the units[2] of which not more than 6 units are seriously blemished.

(v) Canned beans that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 21 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(vi) Canned beans that fall below the standard of quality of canned green beans (21 CFR 51.11; 12 F. R. 1140) or the standard of quality of canned wax beans (21 CFR 51.16; 12 F. R. 1141), as the case may be, shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D—Below standard in quality good food—not high grade, or Substandard—Below standard in quality good food—not high grade, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(4) Maturity. (i) The factor of maturity refers to the degree of development of pods and seeds and the tenderness of the pods.

(a) "Trimmed pod" means any pod from which there has been trimmed off as far as the end of the space formerly occupied by seed, any portion of the pod from which seed have become separated.

(b) "Tough strings" means strings or pieces of string at least ½ inch in length which will support a ½ pound weight for not less than 5 seconds.

(c) "Fibrous material" means the properly prepared, dried cellulose material obtained from deseeded pods.

(ii) Canned beans that are very young and tender may be given a score of 35 to 40 points. "Very young and tender" means that the units are full-fleshed for the variety, tender and not fibrous; the seeds are in the early stages of maturity; and not more than 2 percent, by count, of the units possess tough strings.

(iii) If the canned beans are young and reasonably tender a score of 29 to 34 points may be given. Canned green beans or canned wax beans that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Young and reasonably tender" means that the units may, to some extent, have lost their fleshy structure; the seeds may have passed the early stages of maturity and have not reached the late stages of maturity; are not fibrous; and not more than 5 percent by count of the units may possess tough strings.

(iv) If the canned beans are nearly mature and fairly tender a score of 23 to 28 points may be given. Canned green beans or canned wax beans that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Nearly mature and fairly tender" means that the pods may have lost, to a considerable extent, their fleshy structure, and that:

The trimmed pods contain not more than 15 percent, by weight, of seed and pieces of seed;[1]

The deseeded pods contain not more than 0.15 percent, by weight, of fibrous material;[1] and

Not more than 10 percent, by count, of the units may possess tough strings except that in case there are present units at least $\frac{25}{64}$ inch in diameter, there are not more than 12 strings or pieces of strings in 12 ounces, drained weight, which will support a ½ pound weight for not less than 5 seconds.[1]

(v) Canned beans that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 22 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(vi) Canned beans that fall below the standard of quality of canned green beans (21 CFR 51.11; 12 F. R. 1140) or the standard of quality of canned wax beans (21 CFR 51.16; 12 F. R. 1141), as the case may be, shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D—Below standard in quality good food—not high grade, or Substandard—Below standard in quality good food—not high grade, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(j) Tolerance for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of canned green beans or canned wax beans, the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total score of all containers, if:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of the containers comprising the sample fails to meet all the requirements of the grade indicated by the average of such total scores, and with respect to such containers which fail to meet the requirements of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all containers in the sample for the factor, subject to such limiting rule, must be within the range for the grade indicated;

(ii) None of the containers comprising the sample falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores; and

(iii) All containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification.

[1] Determined as outlined in the standards of quality of canned green beans (21 CFR 51.11) and canned wax beans (21 CFR 51.16), promulgated under the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

NOTICES

WAR DEPARTMENT

COPPER BASE ALLOY SCRAP

SALE BY WAR DEPARTMENT OF CERTAIN TYPES

(a) Sale of certain types of copper base alloy scrap. The War Department has available for sale to the public, limited quantities of the types of copper base alloy scrap referred to in paragraph (b) below. These types of copper base alloy scrap are termed "strategic and critical materials" and are available to meet the current requirements of industry under the provisions of the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act, Public Law 520—79th Congress.

(b) Types of copper base alloy scrap covered by this notice. This notice is applicable only to copper base alloy scrap of the following types:

Cartridge brass ingots, slabs, discs, bars, partly or completely manufactured ammunition cases (new or demilitarized), fired cases or remelt ingot;
Guilding metal mill forms or remelt ingot.

(c) Recommendations to the War Department by the Office of Materials Distribution, Department of Commerce, as to the sale of these materials. In making sales to the public of the types of copper base alloy scrap described in paragraph (b) above, the War Department will, in compliance with Amendment 2 to Regulation 17 of the War Assets Administration, be guided by the recommendations made to it by the Office of Materials Distribution of the Department of Commerce, as to the buyers and quantities.

(d) How to make application to purchase copper base alloy scrap. Any person wishing to purchase any copper base alloy scrap of the types listed in paragraph (b) above, and who believes that he meets the criteria set forth in paragraph (e) below, may apply directly to the Office of Materials Distribution, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C. Applications should be in writing, and should contain sufficient information with respect to the criteria set forth in (e) below as to enable the Office of Materials Distribution to make recommendations.

(e) Criteria for recommendations to the War Department by the Office of Materials Distribution. In order to make the most effective use of these materials to help meet industrial deficiencies, the Office of Materials Distribution will consider applications and make recommendations to the War Department on the basis of the following criteria:

(1) In general, recommendations will be made to sell only to brass mills, wire mills, smelters and refiners who require the material for their own use in order to maintain their smelting or reprocessing operations at a minimum operating rate:

(2) Recommendations will not be made to sell to any person to obtain more material than the quantity which he will require to meet his current or scheduled operations during the ensuing 30 days, less the amount he has on hand or expects to receive from other sources during that period.

(f) Exceptions. The restrictions of paragraph (e) above, do not apply to the following types of sales:

(1) Sales of any lot or lots of copper base alloy scrap of the types described in paragraph (b) where the gross weight of all the lots available at any one location at any one time does not exceed 10,000 pounds, except in the case of small arms ammunition cases where the limit does not exceed 50,000 pounds. Lots may not be subdivided for the purpose of making sales under this exception.

(2) Sales of scrap located outside the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(3) Sales by Reconstruction Finance Corporation for and on behalf of the owning agencies of any lots of scrap which, under War Assets Administration Regulation 17, the owning agencies are required to report to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation as strategic materials.

(4) Sales of contractor inventory if the owning agency has not taken possession of such inventory.

[P. & S. Docket No. 402]

MARKET AGENCIES AT UNION STOCK YARDS, CHICAGO, ILL.

NOTICE OF PETITION FOR EXTENSION OF TEMPORARY RATES

Pursuant to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), the Judicial Officer issued an order on August 1, 1946 (5 A. D. 592), effective August 2, 1946, providing for certain temporary rates and charges for the respondent market agencies for a period ending August 2, 1947. Subsequently, on October 11, 1946 (5 A. D. 748), another supplemental order was issued by the Judicial Officer granting permission to the respondents to file an amendment to their tariff.

By petitions dated May 29, 1947, the respondents have requested that the temporary rates and charges be further extended.

It appears that public notice should be given of the filing of such petition in order that all interested persons may have an opportunity to be heard in the matter.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given to the public and to all interested persons of the filing of such petition for an extension of temporary rates and charges.

All interested persons who desire to be heard upon the matter requested in said petition shall notify the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days from the date of publication of this notice.

Copies hereof shall be served upon the respondents by registered mail or in person.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of June 1947.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-909]

PENNSYLVANIA GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JUNE 19, 1947.

Notice is hereby given that on June 12, 1947, Pennsylvania Gas Company (applicant), a Pennsylvania corporation having its principal place of business in the Borough of Warren, Pennsylvania, filed an application with the Federal Power Commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize applicant to construct and operate certain natural gas facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, described as follows:

Approximately 15 miles of 10" diameter welded pipe line which will parallel Applicant's two existing 10" pipe lines extending from the Elk County Field in Highland Township to its Roystone Compressor Station in Sheffield Township, Warren County, Pennsylvania.

Applicant represents that the purposes of the proposed facilities are to provide additional capacity during winter peak load periods because the present facilities are not sufficient to meet the present requirements. It further states that the proposed construction will permit it to increase production from the Elk County Field by permitting applicant to lower the line pressure on existing lines and enable applicant to take any new supplies of southwest gas which may be contracted for or otherwise made available to it by allocation. There are no main line industrial customers and none are contemplated.

The estimated total over-all capital cost of the proposed construction is $300,000. The cost of the construction is to be paid for without recourse to financing outside applicant's own resources.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provision of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint, or concurrent hearing, together with the reasons for such request.

The application of Pennsylvania Gas Company is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than fifteen days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of the rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946), and shall set out clearly and concisely the facts from which the nature of the petitioner or protestant's alleged right or interest can be determined. Petitions for intervention shall state fully and completely the grounds of the proposed intervention and the contentions of the petitioner in the proceeding, so as to advise the parties and the Commission as to the issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted, by admitting, denying, or explaining specifically and in detail, each material allegation of fact or law asserted with respect to the application.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

JOHN DOE AND CO.

ORDER SETTING HEARING ON PETITION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the 19th day of June 1947.

In the matter of application of National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. on behalf of John Doe and Company for approval of continuance in membership in the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. with A. R. Miller employed as a registered representative.

Notice having been issued on March 14, 1947 that the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., a registered securities association (hereinafter referred to as the Association) had filed with this Commission, on behalf of John Doe and Company, an application for approval of the continuance of the membership of John Doe and Company in the Association with A. R. Miller employed as a registered representative, pursuant to the provisions of section 15A (b) (4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and

Members of its staff having reported to the Commission information obtained as a result of an investigation which tends to show that:

A. During the period from approximately November 14, 1945 to approximately November 15, 1946, A. R. Miller sold to various persons certain securities, namely, shares of the common stock of the par value of 50 cents of Automatic Dialing Corporation, no registration statement ever having been in effect under the Securities Act of 1933;

B. On or about November 15, 1946, A. R. Miller induced a customer to purchase 100 shares of the common stock of the Automatic Dialing Corporation at $4.50 per share and falsely represented to such customer that such price was less than the market value of said security; and

C. A. R. Miller made use of the means and instruments of transportation and communication in interstate commerce and of the mails to sell the securities hereinabove described in Paragraph B hereof; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate that a hearing be held in this matter at which A. R. Miller, the Association and all other interested persons be given an opportunity to be heard on the question whether it is appropriate in the public interest to issue the said order approving the continuance of membership in the Association of John Doe and Company with A. R. Miller employed as a registered representative.

It is hereby ordered, That a hearing for the purpose of taking evidence on the questions set forth above be held at 10:00 a. m. on July 15, 1947, at the Baltimore Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, located at O'Sullivan Building, Baltimore 2, Md., before Willis E. Monty, Hearing Officer. Upon the completion of the taking of evidence in this matter, the hearing officer shall prepare a recommended decision pursuant to Rule IX (b) of the rules of practice, unless such decision is waived.

In the absence of an appropriate waiver, no officer or employee of the Commission engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions in this or any factually related proceeding will be permitted to participate or advise in the decision upon this matter except as witness or counsel in proceedings held pursuant to notice. Since this proceeding is not "rule making" within the meaning of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, it is not deemed to be subject to the provisions of that section delaying the effective date of any final Commission action.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served on A. R. Miller and the Association not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the time of hearing, and that this order and notice be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER in the manner prescribed by the Federal Register Act not later than fifteen (15) days prior to the time of the hearing.

By the Commission.

MARKET STREET RAILWAY CO. ET AL.

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 19th day of June 1947.

In the matter of Market Street Railway Co., and Standard Gas and Electric Co. and certain of its subsidiary companies, File No. 4-63. Russell M. Van Kirk, Bloomfield Hulick, Edmund T. Willetts, Committee for the Market Street Railway Company prior preference capital stock, File No. 68-84.

The Commission having on May 20, 1947, pursuant to sections 11 (a), 18 (a) and 18 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), issued an order (Holding Company Act Release No. 7425) ordering, among other things, that a public investigation be held in the above entitled matter and that a public hearing therein be held on June 24, 1947, as more full set forth in said order; and

Standard Gas and Electric Company having requested that the hearing in such matter be postponed until July 23, 1947; and the Commission having considered said request and deeming it appropriate that the request for postponement be granted;

It is ordered, That the hearing in this matter previously scheduled for June 24, 1947, be, and the same hereby is, postponed to July 23, 1947, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing shall be held.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve a copy of this notice and order by registered mail on Standard Gas and Electric Company; Market Street Railway Company; Public Utility Engineering and Service Corporation; Russell M. Van Kirk, Bloomfield Hulick, Edmund T. Willetts, as a Committee for the Market Street Railway Company Prior Preference Capital Stock, Milton Paulson, as attorney for Lea Rosen, 295 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y.; and that notice of this proceeding shall be given to all other persons by a general release of the Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under said act, and by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

CITIES SERVICE CO. AND TOLEDO EDISON CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING AND PERMITTING JURISDICTION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 17th day of June A. D. 1947.

Cities Service Company ("Cities"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, The Toledo Edison Company ("Toledo"), having filed applications and declarations and amendments thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, with respect to, among other things, the issue and sale by Toledo, pursuant to the competitive bidding provisions of Rule U-50, of $32,000,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds, --% Series, due 1977 and 160,000 shares of $100 par value --% cumulative preferred stock; and

The Commission having, by order dated June 5, 1947, granted the applications, as amended, and permitted the declarations, as amended, to become effective, subject to the condition, among others, that the proposed issue and the sale of said securities shall not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 shall have been made a matter of record in these proceedings and a further order shall have been entered by the Commission in the light of the record so completed, which order may contain such further terms and conditions as may then be deemed appropriate, jurisdiction being reserved for this purpose; and

Applicants-declarants having filed a further amendment herein stating that the first mortgage bonds and cumulative preferred stock of Toledo have been offered for sale pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 and that the following bids have been received:

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

Bidding group headed by—	Interest rate	Price to company (percent of principal amount)[1]	Cost to company
	Percent		Percent
The First Boston Corp.	2¾	102.589	2.7474
Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc.	2¾	102.3599	2.7883
Blyth & Co., Inc.	2¾	102.19	2.7670

PREFERRED STOCK

Bidding group headed by—	Dividend rate	Price per share to company[2]	Cost to company
	Percent		Percent
Blyth & Co., Inc.	4¼	$101.19	4.2
The First Boston Corp.	4¼	100.279	4.238

[1] Plus accrued interest.
[2] Plus accrued dividends.

Said amendment having further stated that Toledo has accepted the bid of The First Boston Corporation for the first mortgage bonds as set out above, and that the said bonds will be offered for sale to the public at a price of 103.1647% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest, resulting in an underwriting spread equal to 0.5757% of the principal amount of the bonds; and that with respect to the preferred stock, Toledo has accepted the bid of Blyth & Company, Inc., as set out above, and that the said preferred stock will be offered for sale to the public at $103.625 per share plus accrued dividends, resulting in an underwriting spread of $2.435 per share; and

The Commission having examined said amendment and having considered the record herein and finding no basis for imposing terms and conditions with respect to the price to be paid for said bonds and preferred stock, or the respective underwriting spreads:

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the results of competitive bidding be, and the same hereby is, released and that said applications and declarations, as further amended, be, and the same hereby are, granted and permitted to become effective, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

ELECTRIC POWER & LIGHT CORP. AND LOUISIANA POWER & LIGHT CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 17th day of June A. D. 1947.

Electric Power & Light Corporation ("Electric"), a registered holding company and its electric utility subsidiary, Louisiana Power & Light Company ("Louisiana"), having filed a joint application-declaration and an amendment thereto pursuant to sections 6 (a), 7, 9 (a), 10 and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-43 promulgated thereunder with respect to the following transactions:

Electric is the owner of all the outstanding common stock of Louisiana consisting of 1,200,000 shares, without par value, having a stated value of $6,000,000. Louisiana proposes to issue and sell, and Electric proposes to acquire, an additional 1,100,000 shares of common stock of Louisiana for a cash consideration of $4,500,000. Upon completion of this sale, Louisiana proposes to transfer $1,000,000 from earned surplus to common capital stock account. In connection with these transactions, Louisiana also proposes to amend its certificate of incorporation so as to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock from 1,500,000 shares to 5,000,000 shares.

Upon completition of such transactions, Louisiana will have issued and outstanding 2,300,000 shares of common stock having a stated value of $11,500,000.

The cash to be received by Louisiana will be employed for the construction of new facilities and for the extension and improvement of present facilities and for other necessary corporate purposes.

Said application-declaration having been filed on April 24, 1947 and an amendment thereto having been filed on May 29, 1947, and notice of said filing, as amended, having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application-declaration as amended within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

Applicants-declarants having requested that the Commission's order become effective upon the issuance thereof in order that the company may consummate the proposed transactions without delay; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application-declaration, as amended, that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application-declaration, as amended, be granted and permitted to become effective and further deeming it appropriate to grant applicants-declarants' request that the Commission's order herein become effective immediately upon the issuance thereof:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that said application-declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted, and permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

CAPITAL TRANSPORTATION CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 17th day of June A. D. 1947.

Capital Transportation Company ("Capital"), a non-utility subsidiary of Arkansas Power & Light Company, which in turn is a subsidiary of Electric Power & Light Corporation, a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 with respect to the following transactions:

Capital, a transportation company, located principally in the Cities of Little Rock and North Little Rock, Arkansas, proposes to borrow from banks amounts aggregating $700,000 which will be used for the purchase of 15 motor omnibuses and 29 trolley omnibuses. The loans are to be evidenced by notes dated not later than July 1, 1947, payable in 24 equal quarterly installments and bearing interest at the rate of 3½% per annum. Such notes are to be secured by a chattel mortgage which will be a lien upon 20 motor omnibuses now owned by the company, upon the 15 motor omnibuses to be acquired by the company during May 1947, and, as supplemented by one or more supplemental indentures, upon the 29 trolley omnibuses to be delivered in July 1947.

The indenture of chattel mortgage will be executed and delivered subsequent to the date of receipt of the 15 motor omnibuses but prior to the date of receipt of the 29 trolley omnibuses. Concurrently with the execution and delivery of the indenture of chattel mortgage approximately 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the loans will be made available to the company. The balance of 65% of the principal amount of the loans will be made available to the company as the 29 trolley omnibuses are acquired and subjected to the lien of the chattel mortgage by supplemental indenture.

The indenture of chattel mortgage provides, among other things, that the company will not, without the prior written consent of the holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the notes outstanding, create any mortgage or other encumbrance upon its property, or declare or pay any dividends except out of earned surplus subsequent to December 31, 1946. The notes may be prepaid in whole or in part at any time without the payment of any premium.

The proposed transactions have been approved by the Arkansas Public Service Commission.

Said application having been filed on May 23, 1947 and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

Applicants having requested that the Commission's order become effective immediately upon the issuance thereof in order that the proposed transactions may be consummated without delay; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application be granted and further deeming it appropriate to grant the applicant's request that the Commission's order herein become effective immediately:

It is ordered, Effective forthwith, pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 that said application be, and the same hereby is, granted.

By the Commission.

SOUTHERN UTAH POWER CO.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 19th day of June 1947.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Southern Utah Power Company ("Southern Utah"), an electric utility company and a subsidiary of Nathan A. Smyth and Leo Loeb as Trustees in Reorganization under Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act of Washington Gas and Electric Company, Debtor, a public utility and a registered holding company, said trustees being also a registered holding company. The applicant has designated section 6 (b) of the act as applicable to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than June 30, 1947 at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be given on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, such application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to said act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania.

Southern Utah proposes to issue privately its notes, each maturing not more than nine months after the date of issue, up to an aggregate amount of $175,000, inclusive of presently outstanding notes, consisting of two six-months notes, issued to a bank and aggregating $65,000. The issuance of additional notes is for the stated purpose of temporarily financing part of the company's construction requirements.

The application states that the principal amount and par value of the outstanding securities of Southern Utah together with the fair market value, as of the date of issue, of its outstanding securities without par value, aggregate $1,615,975. The amount of $175,000 will constitute approximately 10.8% of said $1,615,975. The company requests authorization, pursuant to the first sentence of section 6 (b) of the act, to issue its notes as above-stated. It is represented by the applicant that no State Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

The applicant requests that the Commission's order granting said application be issued as soon as possible and that it become effective immediately upon issuance.

By the Commission.

BUFFALO NIAGARA ELECTRIC CORP. AND NIAGARA FALLS POWER CO.

ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 18th day of June 1947.

Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation ("Buffalo"), a subsidiary of Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, in turn, a subsidiary of The United Corporation, a registered holding company, and The Niagara Falls Power Company ("Niagara"), a subsidiary of Buffalo, having filed a joint declaration, pursuant to Rule U-44 promulgated under the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, regarding the sale by Buffalo to Niagara of certain water rights consisting of the right to take 262.6 cubic feet per second of water from the Hydraulic Basin of Niagara in The City of Niagara Falls; and the Commission by order dated February 28, 1947, having permitted said joint declaration to become effective subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24; and

Buffalo and Niagara having requested that the time within which the transactions proposed in said joint declaration may be consummated be extended to July 30, 1947; and

The Commission having considered such request and deeming it appropriate that an extension of time be granted:

It is ordered, That the conditions contained in said order dated February 28, 1947, be, and hereby are, modified to extend to July 30, 1947 the time within which the transactions proposed in said joint declaration are to be consummated.

HENRY MEYER

In re: Estate of Henry Meyer, deceased. File D-28-10490; E. T. sec. 14903.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, Executive Order 9193, as amended, and Executive Order 9788, and pursuant to law, after investigation, Vesting Order 7767 dated September 30, 1946, as affirmed by § 500.41, as amended, of the rules, Office of Alien Property, Department of Justice (11 F. R. 14155), is hereby amended to read as follows:

It is hereby found:

1. That Friedrich Meyer, Maria Ahlers, Doris Wendt and Grete Footkamp, whose last known address is Germany, are residents of Germany and nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. That the brother, name unknown, of Henry Meyer, deceased, and the sister, name unknown, of Henry Meyer, deceased, who there is reasonable cause to believe are residents of Germany, are nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

3. That all right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Friedrich Meyer, Maria Ahlers, Doris Wendt, Grete Footkamp, the brother, name unknown, of Henry Meyer, deceased, and the sister, name unknown, of Henry Meyer, deceased, and each of them, in and to the Estate of Henry Meyer, deceased, is property payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, the aforesaid nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

4. That such property is in the process of administration by Herman Tietge, as Administrator, acting under the judicial supervision of the Superior Court of the State of Washington, for the County of Grays Harbor; and it is hereby determined:

5. That to the extent that the persons named in subparagraph 1 hereof and the brother, name unknown, of Henry Meyer, deceased, and the sister, name unknown, of Henry Meyer, deceased, are not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany).

ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE

Know all men by these presents that I, Tsune Nosaka, wife of Magoichi Nosaka, of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, for and in consideration of the sum of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00), lawful money of the United States of America, to me now in hand paid by M. Miyai, the wife of Kumakichi Miyai, of said Honolulu, the receipt whereof being hereby acknowledged, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and alien unto the said M. Miyai, her heirs, assigns, and legal representatives all of my right, title and interest in, to and about that certain Instrument, being an Assignment of Lease, has made, executed and delivered to me, said Tsune Nosaka, by Eh Fah Chung, of said Honolulu, as of date October 13th, 1930, and as of record in Liber 1085, pages 256–257, Hawaiian Registry of Conveyances, and to which said Instrument reference is hereby specifically made and incorporated; the property included in the recitations hereinabove being described as follows:

"All of these certain pieces or parcels of land situate at Kapahulu, Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, known and designated as Lot Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14), Fifteen (15) and Sixteen (16) in Block Number Two, Lot Number One, of the Kapahulu Tract, being the same premises conveyed to the Lessor, by deed of Mary Ann Lee (widow) dated October 9, 1906, and duly recorded in the Office of Registrar of Conveyances in said Honolulu, in Liber 286, pages 36–38."

And as more fully and specifically described in a certain Instrument of Lease, made and executed by Fannie Collins to Magoichi Nosaka, as of date July 8, 1926, and as of record in Liber 839, pages 418–422, in said Registry of Conveyances.

And being further described in a certain instrument of record in Liber 1085, pages 251–254 in said Registry of Conveyances and being executed by the City Mill Company, Limited, a Hawaiian Corporation, as of date October 13, 1930, and by the terms of which the aforesaid En Fah Chung became the owner of the said lease and of the property mentioned and included therein.

The said property and premises being occupied, as to the tenancy thereof, by the following named persons, to-wit: Naruto; Toraichi Yokonuma; Matsutaro Osaki; Ma Duck; Saiki; G. Okino; S. Katashima Store; Haraguichi and Nakagawa, and others.

To have and to hold the said land and premises together with all and sundry the improvements in and thereupon and the rents, issues and profits thereof, unto the said M. Miyai, her heirs, assigns and legal representatives for and during the whole of the remainder of the term of the aforementioned original lease of Fannie Collins to Magoichi Nosaka, subject, however to the rents, conditions, covenants and provisions of the said last mentioned original lease, and subject to such mortgage, or mortgage indebtedness as may be presently laid and existing in and upon said property and premises and duly recorded.

In witness whereof the said Tsune Nosaka has hereunto set her hand and seal this 13th day of October, 1930.

[SEAL] (Signed) Tsune Nosaka.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9868

APPOINTMENT OF MEMBERS OF A MILITARY TRIBUNAL ESTABLISHED FOR THE TRIAL AND PUNISHMENT OF MAJOR WAR CRIMINALS IN GERMANY

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes, and as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, it is ordered as follows:

1. I hereby designate Edward Francis Carter, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Nebraska, and Curtis Grover Shake, former Judge of the Supreme Court of the State of Indiana, as members of one of the several military tribunals established by the Military Governor for the United States Zone of Occupation within Germany pursuant to the quadripartite agreement of the Control Council for Germany, enacted December 20, 1945, as Control Council Law No. 10, and pursuant to Articles 10 and 11 of the Charter of the International Military Tribunal, which tribunal was established by the Government of the United States of America, the Provisional Government of the French Republic, the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, for the trial and punishment of major war criminals of the European Axis. Such members may, at the direction of the Military Governor of the United States Zone of Occupation, serve on any of the several military tribunals above mentioned, which tribunals are a component part of the military occupational forces of the United States, and upon which the members designated herein shall perform active service during the period of their designation.

2. The members herein designated shall receive such compensation and allowances for expenses as may be determined by the Secretary of War and as may be payable from appropriations or funds available to the War Department for such purposes.

3. The Secretary of State, the Secretary of War, the Attorney General, and the Secretary of the Navy are authorized to provide appropriate assistance to the members herein designated in the performance of their duties and may assign or detail such personnel under their respective jurisdictions, including members of the armed forces, as may be requested for the purpose. Personnel so assigned or detailed shall receive such compensation and allowances for expenses as may be determined by the Secretary of War and as may be payable from appropriations or funds available to the War Department for such purposes, except that personnel assigned or detailed from the Navy Department shall receive such compensation and allowances for expenses to which they may be entitled by reason of their military grade and service and as may be payable from appropriations or funds available to the Navy Department for such purposes.

Sec.
910.100 General.
910.101 Definitions.
910.107 Exemption certificates.

AUTHORITY: §§ 910.100, 910.101 and 910.107, issued under 48 Stat. 31, 670, 675; 49 Stat. 750; 50 Stat. 246; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 7 CFR, Cum. Supp. 910.1 et seq.

§ 910.100 General. Unless otherwise provided in the marketing agreement and the order or by specific direction of the Administrative Committee, all reports, applications, submittals, requests, and communications in connection with the agreement and order shall be addressed to Administrative Committee, Alamosa, Colorado.

§ 910.101 Definitions. Marketing agreement means Marketing Agreement No. 67, as amended, and order means Order No. 10, as amended, regulating the handling of fresh peas and cauliflower grown in the counties of Alamosa, Rio Grande, Conejos, Costilla, and Saguache in the State of Colorado. Terms defined in the marketing agreement and the order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as set forth in the marketing agreement and the order.

§ 910.107 Exemption certificates—(a) Application. Any producer applying for exemption from any grade or size regulations issued under the marketing agreement and order shall make application for such exemption on forms to be furnished by the Administrative Committee. Such application shall state:

(1) Name and address of the producer;

(2) Location of the field with respect to which exemption is requested;

(3) Amount, if any, of peas or cauliflower harvested from such field during the then current season; and

(4) Producer's estimate of the quantity of the particular crop remaining to be harvested.

(b) Federal-State Inspector report. Each request filed with the Administrative Committee shall be accompanied by a report of a Federal-State Inspector which shall contain the following: (1) A statement of the inspector that he personally visited the field with respect to which exemption is requested and that a representative sample of such crop was taken by him; (2) a statement of the percentage of such crop which meets the required grade and size regulations then in effect; and (3) a statement of the defects or damage causing such crop to fail to meet such grade and size requirements. In the event a Federal-State Inspector submits the statements required by subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph with respect to a field of peas and percentage of the crop meeting the grade and size regulations and the defects or damage specified shall not include peas which are immature or overripe. The Manager for the Administrative Committee may make such investigation as he deems necessary to determine whether the exemption requested should be granted.

(c) Issuance of certificate. Whenever the Administrative Committee finds and determines from proof satisfactory to the committee that the applicant is entitled to an exemption certificate, the committee shall issue, or authorize the issuance of, an exemption certificate which shall permit the applicant to ship or cause to be shipped that quantity of the regulated grades and sizes of peas or cauliflower as will enable him to ship or cause to be shipped as large a percentage of his peas or cauliflower as the average percentage for all producers, as determined by the committee. If the committee determines that the applicant is not entitled to an exemption certificate it shall so advise the applicant in writing, and give the reasons therefor. Each certificate of exemption issued by the committee shall contain the producer's name and address; the location of the field with respect to which the exemption is granted; the particular grade and size regulations from which exempted; the amount of the commodity which may be shipped by virtue of such exemption; and such other information as may be necessary to evidence the rights of the producer to ship peas or cauliflower which do not meet the requirements of particular grade and size regulations. Each certificate of exemption shall be transferable, in whole or in part, with the commodity in accordance with the amount of the commodity transferred.

(d) Records. All forms, reports, correspondence, and documents used pursuant to these rules and regulations shall be kept on file in the Administrative Committee's office; and a record shall be maintained by the manager of such committee, together with a record of all shipments made under exemption certificates. A record of all exemption certificates issued shall be furnished weekly by the manager to the representative of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

In Federal Register Document 47-5852, appearing at page 4019 of the issue for Saturday, June 21, 1947, the third line of § 708.4 (a) should read: "tion or when the decoration is to be awarded".

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 249—FORMS PRESCRIBED UNDER THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION OF SECURITIES FOR CORPORATIONS

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 12 and 23 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, and necessary for the execution of the functions vested in it by the said act, hereby amends the Instruction Book for Form 10 (17 CFR 249.210) for Corporations by amending the instructions to Item 3G to read as set forth below.

Inasmuch as the amendment merely deletes obsolete provisions and involves no substantial change in the requirements of the form and instructions, and in view of the desirability of having the instructions clarified immediately, the Commission finds that the giving of notice and the public rule-making procedures specified in sections 4 (a) and (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act are unnecessary and declares the amendment effective immediately pursuant to section 4 (c) of the act.

Item 36. Financial statements. A registrant shall furnish the following financial statements:

(a) Its balance sheet and its profit and loss statement: Provided, however, That in lieu of the profit and loss statement required by this subparagraph there may be submitted a profit and loss statement consolidating the accounts of the registrant and one or more of its subsidiaries, if all the following conditions are met:

(1) The registrant is primarily an operating company;

(2) Other than directors' qualifying shares, all classes of outstanding securities of the subsidiaries whose accounts are included in such statement are owned in their entirety directly by the registrant;

(3) Such subsidiaries owe no long-term or funded debt to persons other than the registrant;

(4) Such subsidiaries are in practical effect, operating divisions of the registrant; and

(5) There is submitted, in addition to the balance sheets required in this paragraph and by subparagraph (b) below, a balance sheet consolidating the assets and liabilities of the registrant and such subsidiaries only.

(b) A consolidated balance sheet and a consolidated profit and loss statement (or income statement), prepared in accordance with the rules of consolidation given below.

(c) For subsidiaries not consolidated in the consolidated balance sheet, in which the registrant owns directly or indirectly securities representing more than 50 percent of the voting power other than as affected by events of default, submit either (i) separate sets of statements in which all such subsidiaries are consolidated or combined in one or several groups, or (ii) individual statements for each such subsidiary not included in (i) above. These statements need not be furnished when the aggregate investments not consolidated are not significant in respect of (1) the assets they represent, and (2) the sales or operating revenues of such nonconsolidated subsidiaries.

The financial statements required above shall be as follows:

1. The balance sheets required shall be as of the close of the registrant's (or, in the case of an unconsolidated subsidiary, of such subsidiary's) most recent fiscal year, unless such fiscal year has expired within 90 days prior to the date of filing of the application with the exchange, in which case, at the option of the registrant, they may be as of the close of the preceding fiscal year; and

2. The profit and loss statements required shall be those for the fiscal years as of the close of which the respective balance sheets are furnished, and for the 2 preceding fiscal years, or, if the registrant (or unconsolidated subsidiary) has been in business less than 3 years, then for such period as it has been in business up to the date of its respective balance sheet.

The financial statements required shall be accompanied by a certificate of an independent public or independent certified public accountant or accountants.

In case both of the following conditions exist:

(a) The business of the registrant, either directly or through subsidiaries, is primarily that of a common carrier by rail; and

(b) The registrant, directly or indirectly, operates the properties of subsidiaries the accounts of which are not consolidated; no separate financial statements for such subsidiaries need be furnished: Provided,

(i) The operations of the properties of such subsidiaries are included with the operations of the registrant in the latter's profit and loss statements;

(ii) The investment of the registrant in such subsidiaries is detailed in a schedule referred to in the balance sheet of the registrant; and the additions and betterments made by the registrant in respect of such subsidiaries are shown separately on the balance sheet of the registrant;

(iii) A footnote is added to the balance sheet of the registrant briefly setting forth by totals the securities of such subsidiaries held by persons other than the registrant, and the obligations of such subsidiaries owing to persons other than the registrant; and

(iv) Schedules are filed setting forth in reasonable detail the securities and obligations described in subparagraph (iii).

NOTE: Regulation S-X (17 CFR 210) governs the certification, form and content of the balance sheets and profit and loss statements required, including the basis of consolidation and prescribes the statements of surplus and the schedules to be filed in support thereof.

(Secs. 12, 23 (a), 48 Stat. 892, 901; 15 U. S. C. 781, 78w)

The foregoing amendment shall become effective June 19, 1947.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

TITLE 25—INDIANS

Chapter I—Office of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior

Subchapter L—Irrigation Projects: Operation and Maintenance

PART 130—OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

SAN CARLOS INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, ARIZONA

On April 15 there was published in the daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (12 F. R. 2439) a notice of intention to amend §§ 130.63 and 130.110 (1) by increasing the estimated cost of operating and maintaining the Joint Works of the Sun Carlos Indian Irrigation Project to $80,000 annually, and (2) by increasing the rate of assessments against the Indian lands of the project to $2.50 per acre per annum for the delivery of not more than two acre feet of water per acre, effective for the calendar year 1948 and thereafter until further notice. Interested parties were given opportunity to participate in preparing amendments by submitting data or written arguments within thirty days from date of publication of the notice.

Objections to the proposed increase in the estimate of assessments against Joint Works land were received from the San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District. Among other things the District pointed out that in order for it to comply with required procedure for the levying of assessments against non-Indian land owners it would be necessary that any change in the amount of the assessment be made prior to March 1 of the calendar year preceding the year the change would become effective. The objection has been duly considered and the date of March 1, 1947 having passed it appears that to make the new rate effective for 1948 customary procedure for reflecting the increase on the County tax rolls of non-Indian lands could not be followed. It is accordingly determined that the proposed increase should be made to become effective in 1949. By virtue, therefore, of Authority delegated to me by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs (25 CFR 02.8) the said sections are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 130.63 Assessments, joint works. Pursuant to the act of Congress approved June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 476) and supplementary Acts, and the repayment contracts of June 8, 1931, as amended, between the United States and the San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District, and in accordance with applicable provisions of the Order of the Secretary of the Interior of June 15, 1938 (25 CFR 130.69a–130.69m), the cost of the operation and maintenance of the Joint Works of the San Carlos Indian Irrigation Project for the fiscal year 1949 is estimated to be $80,000 and the rate of assessment for the said fiscal year and subsequent years until further order is hereby fixed at 80 cents for each acre of land.

This per acre rate shall be assessed against the entire 100,000 acres of project lands under constructed works and shall include the cost of the administration of the Gila River Decree, but shall be exclusive of the costs of operating and maintaining the electric power generating plant at Coolidge Dam, the diesel plant at Coolidge, and the power transmission and distribution systems, which costs are payable from power revenues.

The assessment against the lands of the San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District, for the fiscal year 1949 and subsequent years until further order, is payable on March 1 in advance of each fiscal year, as provided in §§ 130.69a to 130.69m, inclusive. Payment of the assessment against the 50,000 acres of Indian land will be as provided in §§ 130.110 to 130.116, inclusive.

§ 130.110 Basic charge. Pursuant to the provisions of section 10 of the act of March 3, 1905 (33 Stat. 1081), as amended and supplemented by the acts of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 522), August 1, 1914 (38 Stat. 583, Title 25, U. S. C. 385), section 5 of the act of June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 476), March 7, 1928 (45 Stat. 210, Title 25, U. S. C. 387), and the act of August 9, 1937 (50 Stat. 577), as amended by the act of May 9, 1938 (52 Stat. 291–305), and in accordance with the public notice issued on December 1, 1932, operation and maintenance charges are assessable against the 50,000 acres of tribal lands and trust patent Indian lands of the San Carlos irrigation project within the boundaries of the Pima Indian Reservation, Arizona, and the basic rate assessed for the calendar year 1949 and subsequent years unless changed by further order, is hereby fixed at $2.50 per acre. Such rate shall entitle each acre of land to have delivered for use thereon two (2) acre-feet of water per acre or its proportionate share of the available water supply annually.

(33 Stat. 1081, secs. 1, 3, 36 Stat. 270, as amended, 37 Stat. 522, 38 Stat. 583, 43 Stat. 476, 45 Stat. 210, as amended, 50 Stat. 577, 52 Stat. 304; 25 U. S. C. 385, 387)

WM. H. ZEH,
District Director.

PART 130—TAXES ON SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES AND ON CERTAIN TRANSPORTATION AND COMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

PART 143—TAX WITH RESPECT TO THE TRANSPORTATION OF PROPERTY

EXEMPTION FROM TAXES

JUNE 20, 1947.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 307 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Public Law 235, Seventy-eighth Congress), as amended by section 303 of the Revenue Act of 1945 (Public Law 214, Seventy-ninth Congress), exemption is hereby authorized: (1) from the taxes imposed by section 3465 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C. 3465) as to any payment for telephone, telegraph, cable, radio, or leased wire services or facilities furnished directly to the United States and for which payment is made directly by the United States: Provided, That nothing in this authorization shall be construed to authorize any exemption as to payments for services or facilities furnished to a contractor, or other person, operating under a contract to perform work on behalf of, or to furnish articles or materials to, the United States Government or any agency thereof; (2) from the tax imposed by section 3469 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C. 3469) as to any payment for transportation of persons furnished to the United States upon a United States Government transportation request; (3) from the tax imposed by section 3475 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C. 3475) as to any payment for transportation of property to or from the Government of the United States shipped on a United States Government bill of lading.

NOTE: The text set forth above affects the notes following 26 CFR, 1944 Supp., 130.44, 130.61, and the note preceding 26 CFR, 1944 Supp., 143.20.

TITLE 39—POSTAL SERVICE

Chapter I—Post Office Department

Subchapter C—Procedures and Forms

PART 51—PROCEDURES BEFORE THE SOLICITOR

RULES OF PRACTICE IN CASES ARISING UNDER POSTAL FRAUD, LOTTERY AND FICTITIOUS STATUTES

1. Amend § 51.9 (11 F. R. 12796) to read as follows:

§ 51.9 Failure to answer or appear. If the respondent fails to file an answer to the charges or to appear at the hearing either in person or by counsel, he shall be deemed to have waived the right to be heard.

2. Amend the second sentence of § 51.15 (11 F. R. 12796) to read as follows: "Trial examiners shall rule upon procedural motions and requests and similar matters; hold conferences for the settlement of simplification of the issues by consent of the parties; rule upon offers of proof and receive oral or documentary evidence; regulate the course of the hearing and the conduct of attorneys and witnesses; require, when they deem necessary, oral argument upon any question raised in the course of the hearing or at the close thereof, and limit such argument as to time and subject matter."

3. Amend § 51.22 (11 F. R. 12796) to read as follows:

§ 51.22 Transcript. (a) In all cases in which the respondent files answer and appears at the hearing either in person or by counsel, the record and transcript of the proceedings before the trial examiner shall be made by the recording and transcription system of the Office of the Solicitor. The transcript, together with all documents and pleadings filed in the case, shall constitute the official record thereof.

(b) In all cases in which the respondent fails to make answer to the charges or, having made answer, fails to appear at the hearing and avail himself of opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses presented by the Government, the trial examiner shall make and certify the record of the hearing in the following manner:

(1) The trial examiner shall prepare and certify a summary of the testimony of all witnesses appearing for the Government, identifying therein all documentary evidence submitted.

(2) The pleadings, the summary of the proceedings, the exhibits, and the respondent's brief, if any, shall constitute the official record upon which final determination of the issues in such case will be based.

4. Amend § 51.23 (11 F. R. 177A-146. 12796) to read as follows:

§ 51.23 Oral argument and briefs. The trial examiner shall determine whether he desires to hear oral argument, which, if permitted by him, shall be made at the conclusion of the hearing and shall be limited as to time and subject matter as directed by him. The trial examiner may permit the filing of briefs in any case where answer has been filed, and he shall give notice of such permission to each party from whom he desires a brief, fixing the time in said notice within which briefs must be filed; and he may indicate in such notice what issues of law or fact he desires to be argued in such briefs. If the trial examiner permits the filing of briefs, he shall direct that the respondent be loaned a copy of the transcript or the summary of the testimony for use in the preparation thereof. The copy of the transcript or the summary of the testimony so loaned shall be returned with the respondent's brief.

TOBACCO STOCKS AND STANDARDS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ESTABLISH TYPE 31–V UNDER CLASS 3, AIR-CURED TOBACCO

Consideration is being given to an amendment to the description of Class 3, Air-cured types and groups (7 CFR 30.5) of the standards for tobacco established pursuant to section 2 of the Tobacco Stocks and Standards Act, as amended (45 Stat. 1079; 47 Stat. 662; 49 Stat. 893; 7 U. S. C. 501 et seq.), which amendment is designed to establish a type of tobacco to be known as Type 31–V, under Class 3, Air-cured tobacco.

The proposed amendment under consideration is as follows:

Insert in § 30.5, Class 3: Air-cured types and groups, between the descriptions of Type 31 and Type 32, a new paragraph providing as follows:

Type 31–V. Notwithstanding the definition of "Type" and "Type 31," any tobacco having the general visual characteristics of quality, color, and length of Class 3, Type 31, Air-cured tobacco, but which is a low-nicotine strain or variety, produced and to be marketed under such restrictions or controls as shall be specified by the Director of the Tobacco Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, and which in its cured state is found by an authorized representative of the Department to have a nicotine content of not more than eight-tenths of one per centum (8/10 of 1%), oven dry weight, shall not be classified as Type 31 but shall be classified and designated upon certification by the Department as Type 31–V. No groups are applicable to Type 31–V.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments in connection with the aforesaid proposed amendment shall file the same with the Director of the Tobacco Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 15th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. All documents should be filed in quadruplicate.

HANDLING OF MILK IN TRI-STATE MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), a public hearing was held at Gallipolis, Ohio, on March 7–8, 1947, pursuant to the notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 27, 1947 (12 F. R. 1400), upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Tri-State marketing area.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on May 29, 1947, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of the filing of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, June 5, 1947 (12 F. R. 3673).

The material issues presented on the record of the hearing were:

(1) Revising the Class I milk price differential over the basic formula price to provide a seasonal price pattern and increase the annual average level of the differential.

(2) Revising the Class II milk price differential over the basic formula price to provide a seasonal price pattern and increase the annual average level of the differential.

(3) Reviewing the provisions of the order relating to handler location adjustment deductions on producer milk for the purpose of modifying or deleting such provisions.

Findings and conclusions. The proposed findings and conclusions with respect to the issues presented at the hearing, together with the reasons therefor, are as follows:

(1) The Class I milk price differential over the basic formula price should be revised to provide a seasonal price pattern (including "floor prices") and an increase in the annual average level of the differential.

There has been a maladjustment in the supply of regular producer milk in relation to the market demand for Class I milk and Class II milk in the Tri-State area. The utilization of Class I milk and Class II milk has been relatively uniform throughout the year, whereas the receipt of milk from producers varies greatly between the seasons of the year. The variation in the receipts of producer milk between the flush production season and the short production season has become progressively wider for several years. Production varies seasonally to such an extent that in 1946 it was nearly twice as great in June as in December. The cost of producing milk is considerably higher during the fall and winter months than May and June. A price plan to induce an increase in milk production during the fall and winter seasons is urgent for the Tri-State market. A Class I price differential employing absolute floor prices in the seasonal pattern is required to assure a substantially higher price in the fall and winter months compared to the spring months and thus develop a more level annual pattern of production.

Producers need definite assurance of substantially higher prices during the fall and winter months if they are to produce more milk during these seasons. Absolute floor prices for the 1947 and 1948 season will give this assurance. If the basic formula produces a higher price for these fall and winter months it should prevail as a further guarantee that the Class I price will be more in line with the then current marketing conditions.

The record supports the adoption of a seasonal Class I price differential which compared to May and June, months of flush production, would be 10 cents higher for the 4 months of March, April, July, and August, and 25 cents higher for the 6 months of September through February. Normally the basic formula price will be from 20 to 40 cents higher during the short production months than for May and June. Also normally the percentage utilization of producers' milk for fluid purposes is higher during the fall and winter months, resulting in about 10 cents higher blend price compared to May and June. Adding these three factors together it is estimated that the blend price for the short production months will exceed the May and June prices from 55 to 75 cents. Recent price plans employed in the Tri-State area have not provided as much seasonal variation in producer prices as was customary prior to the maximum price regulations during the war emergency. For this period of time farmers were induced to produce all the milk possible with little regard to the season or to the requirements of the local market. Under these conditions maximum milk production shifted to the spring months when production costs are at their lowest level. To halt and reverse this trend, especially at a time when general milk market conditions are unsettled, will require definite assurance that for this fall and winter the prices will be substantially higher than for May and June. An absolute floor price for Class I milk will give farmers this assurance. Furthermore, the level of production of regular producer milk has been insufficient to meet the needs of Class I milk and Class II milk in the Tri-State area. During the 18 months period (August 1945–January 1947) under the order the receipts of milk from regular producers was only 88 percent of the total milk utilized in Class I and Class II. It has been necessary for handlers to supplement producer milk in Class I and II with milk from other sources, usually not meeting the quality standard of regular producer milk.

Handlers objected to the recommended decision in connection with the seasonal price differentials by contending that there was no basis in the notice of hearing and hearing record for the inclusion of floor prices in the seasonal price pattern. Although floor prices were not referred to as such in connection with the seasonal price proposals, floor prices are only an adjunct to insure a minimum degree of seasonality, sought by handlers themselves, in the price pattern during the next few months of postwar abnormal market conditions. The weight of the evidence in connection with the pricing proposals disclosed the extreme urgency of leveling out milk production as soon as possible. To accomplish the needed increase in production during the short production months of 1947–48 season in this deficit milk supply area, definite assurance of adequate price seasonality must be given to producers at this time. The establishment of floor prices for the next few months as a part of the seasonal price pattern is simply a means of guaranteeing a definite amount of seasonality in the seasonal pricing plan proposed by producers and supported by both producers and handlers at the public hearing. It is concluded that such a price pattern will afford an incentive to shift milk production from spring to fall and winter months.

General economic conditions and business activity indicate a continued good demand for milk and milk products.

The price of livestock and grains have advanced sharply in 1947 and, compared to decreasing milk prices, offer returns from alternative farm enterprises which will tend to discourage milk production if this relationship continues over an extended period of time.

Tri-State handlers compete with milk buyers in other areas for milk supplies to be used for fluid milk purposes. Milk dealers operating in Charleston, West Virginia, procure milk from farmers residing in the Tri-State milkshed. Some of these farmers were formerly producers for Tri-State handlers. Condenseries receiving both graded and ungraded milk in the Tri-State milkshed supply milk to fluid users in Charleston, West Virginia, and eastern cities. The Charleston, West Virginia, market is located in a deficit milk production area and is a constant competitive outlet for milk supplies of the Tri-State market area. Charleston, West Virginia, buyers of milk are soliciting producers in the Tri-State area and were offering $5.60 per hundredweight during February, 1947, compared to $4.76 paid by Tri-State handlers in the other than Huntington. The Waterford Creamery, Athens, Ohio, quoted a price of $5.60 for the last half of January, 1947. The Crowley Dairy of Jackson, Ohio, quoted $5.40 during February, 1947. Both of these quotations were for 4 percent butterfat Grade "A" milk to be shipped to eastern markets including Charleston, West Virginia. One Tri-State handler in Marietta, Ohio, is engaged in supplying milk procured in excess of his own fluid requirements to the Charleston, West Virginia, market.

The Class I differential over the basic formula price (18 midwest condenseries) was established November 1, 1946, when the basic formula price was relatively high compared to the prices paid by Southern Ohio condenseries and Charleston, West Virginia, handlers. Since that time the basic formula price and the resulting Class I price have decreased relatively lower than the prices paid by Ohio condenseries and Charleston handlers. The basic formula price declined 68 cents from November, 1946, to January, 1947. The Southern Ohio condensery average price declined 47 cents and the Charleston price remained approximately constant for the same period. Thus for January, the Class I price was at a 21-cent lower level compared to competing Ohio condenseries and 68-cent lower level compared to Charleston prices than when the present differential was established. This relative difference in prices makes the Tri-State milk supply more vulnerable to competing markets.

The trend of the costs of feeds, labor, and supplies incurred by producers in the production of milk has been upward during 1946 and 1947. The price of 16 percent dairy ration, a representative dairy feed, has increased substantially for the first 3 months of 1947 as compared to the same period of 1946. The price of this feed decreased somewhat from July, 1946 (the peak reached when ceiling prices were removed) until February, 1947. During February, and March, 1947, the price of mixed dairy feeds advanced sharply and established a new upward trend. Attempting to find an index that will reflect many milk price making factors the order provides a basic formula price which is the price paid for manufacturing milk by a selected group of midwest condenseries. The basic price formula does not, however, reflect fully all the factors necessary at arriving at a price for Class I milk. The order therefor provides a differential that is added to the basic formula price to arrive at the Class I price. This differential is utilized to reflect various price making factors not fully covered by the basic formula and to balance the relative weights of such factors under current local economic conditions so that the Class I price will be at a level which will reflect, in addition to the price and availability of feeds, other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area and will insure an adequate supply of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest. The basic formula price has decreased 68 cents from November, 1946 to January, 1947, the last month reported in the hearing record. Farmers producing milk for fluid purposes must use feed, labor and supplies more extensively to maintain production at a more uniform and higher level than is required of manufacturing milk producers. Consequently, the increases in the prices which have taken place in those commodities affect the fluid milk producers more than the producers of milk for condenseries.

Handlers contend that since the present Class I differential was established, producer prices have advanced and some feed prices have declined, and for these reasons they urge that no change be made in the annual average level of the Class I differential. The present Class I differential of 95 cents and 75 cents for the Huntington and other than Huntington areas over the basic formula price was made effective November 1, 1946. The Huntington district Class I price for February, the latest price quoted in the record, was 99 cents less than the price for November. To continue the differential at the present level because some feed prices may have declined slightly since the differential was established would lose sight of the fact that whatever decline may have occurred in some feed prices has been accompanied by a considerably greater decline in milk prices and would ignore the other heretofore mentioned price-making factors and is therefore unwarranted. Handlers also minimize the competition between the Tri-State area and the Charleston, West Virginia, market and the local condenseries and assert that the "local condensery threat" is a fiction and that the Charleston threat is similar to that which has existed over a long period of time. However, the record shows that these competitive markets do have a substantial effect on the supply of milk in the Tri-State area and therefore must be considered in determining a Class I differential which will tend to procure and maintain an adequate supply of milk for the Tri-State market.

It is concluded that the proper weighing of the above mentioned price-making factors, a shortage of producer milk in relation to fluid sales, a good demand for fluid milk, the increasing disparity between the prices of fluid milk and the prices of competing farm enterprises, the competition of other areas at higher prices for the Tri-State milk supply, and the disparity between local condenseries and basic formula prices, indicate the need for revising the level of the Class I price differential upward approximately 30 cents per hundredweight on an annual average. It is further concluded that the milk producers of the Tri-State area need at this time, when they are planning their fall and winter production program, more definite assurance as to the level of milk prices than is afforded by the basic formula. In order to obviate uncertainty inherent in the basic formula during abnormal postwar marketing conditions a "floor price" for Class I milk is established below which the price will not be permitted to go. The level of floor prices for the fall and winter months should be substantially higher than the prices prevailing during May and June to emphasize the seasonal factor of milk pricing and assure farmers of higher prices during the seasons when an increase in milk production is most needed by the market. A Class I floor price for the other than Huntington district beginning July 1, 1947 of $4.42 and increasing to $4.86 beginning September 1, 1947 (44 cents below November 1946) will recognize this seasonality and result in prices well above the current level of May and June prices. Following a seasonal pattern, any decreases in the Class I prices which may be predicated on the basic formula price should be limited so that the maximum decline from December 1947 to January 1948 will be $0.44, and similarly, that the maximum decline from January 1948 to February 1948 also will be $0.44. These limitations will prevent any precipitous price drops immediately following the period for which greater production is to be encouraged.

Handlers objected to the recommended decision in regard to the higher level of class price differentials. However, it is concluded that the price differentials set forth below are necessary to reflect competitive conditions and the price of feeds, the available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk or its products in the marketing area, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

These changes are accomplished by revising the present year-round Class I price differentials of $0.95 and $0.75 for the Huntington and other than Huntington districts, respectively, above the basic formula price, to the following seasonal pattern:

Month	Huntington district	Other than Huntington district
May and June	$1.10	$0.90
March, April, July and August	1.20	1.00
Other 6 months	1.35	1.15
Average	1.25	1.05

Provided, That for the months of July and August, 1947, the prices for Class I milk shall not be less than $4.62 and $4.42 for the Huntington and other than Huntington district, respectively, and for the months of September, October, November and December, 1947, such prices shall not be less than $5.06 and $4.86, respectively: And provided further, That the Class I prices for January 1948 shall not be less than the December 1947 Class I prices minus $0.44 and that the February 1948 Class I prices shall not be less than the January 1948 Class I prices minus $0.44.

(2) The Class II milk price differential over the basic formula price should be revised to provide a seasonal price pattern (including "floor prices") and an increase in the annual average level of the differential. The relationship between the present Class I and Class II differentials should be maintained month by month in the revised seasonal price pattern and in the floor prices.

The material facts with reference to revising the Class II price differential over the basic formula price to a seasonal pattern and a higher annual average level and the floor prices are the same as those set forth with respect to Class I.

(3) The provisions of the order relating to handler location adjustment deductions on producer milk should be deleted.

Handlers do not receive milk from producers except at a "fluid milk plant" as defined in § 972.1 (h) (1) of the order. Producers retain title to milk until it is received by a handler at a fluid milk plant as defined in § 972.1 (h) (1) of the order. No handler operates or has operated a fluid milk plant as defined in § 972.1 (h) (2) of the order and there is no evidence that such a plant will be operated. Location adjustments pursuant to § 972.8 (g) have not been made because producer milk was not received by a handler under such circumstances. Therefore § 972.1 (h) (2) and § 972.8 (g) are superfluous and should be deleted. These provisions of the order may be deleted without revising other provisions of the order.

The recommended decision contained rulings on the proposed findings and conclusions submitted by interested parties in this proceeding. Such rulings are confirmed except as modified by the findings and conclusions set forth herein. Exceptions were filed on behalf of certain handlers subject to Order No. 72 with respect to certain of the findings and conclusions contained in the recommended decision. With regard to the exceptions filed by handlers to certain findings and conclusions of the recommended decision, this decision contains a ruling thereon in the discussion of the material issue to which the specific exception refers.

(4) General. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The proposed marketing agreement and order, as amended and as hereby proposed to be further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which the hearing has been held; and

(c) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

Marketing agreement and order. Made a part hereof are two documents entitled "Marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Tri-State marketing area" and "Order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Tri-State marketing area," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and as further amended by the attached order amending the order, as amended, which will be published with the decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] N. E. DODD,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

Order,[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Tri-State Marketing Area

§ 972.0 Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure covering the formulation of marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Tri-State marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(a) The said order as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

Order Relative to Handling

It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Tri-State marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Delete § 972.1 (h) and substitute therefor the following:

(h) "Fluid milk plant" means a plant out of which a route is operated wholly or partially within the marketing area: Provided, That a "fluid milk plant" shall not mean such portions of a building or facilities used for receiving or processing such milk, or milk product, as is required by the appropriate health authority to be kept physically separate from the receiving or processing of Class I milk for the community(s) served.

2. Delete § 972.5 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) Class I milk prices. Subject to the provisions of (e), (f), (g) and (h) of this section, the minimum prices per hundredweight on a 3.5 percent butterfat content basis to be paid by each handler for producer milk classified as Class I milk, shall be the basic formula price determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section plus the following amounts for the delivery periods indicated:

Delivery period	Huntington district plants	Other plants
May and June	$1.10	$0.90
March, April, July, and August	1.20	1.00
September, October, November, December, January, and February	1.35	1.15

Provided, That for the months of July and August, 1947, the prices for Class I milk shall not be less than $4.62 and $4.42 for the Huntington and other than Huntington district, respectively, and for the months of September, October, November and December, 1947, such prices shall not be less than $5.06 and $4.86: And provided further, That the Class I prices for January 1948 shall not be less than the December 1947 Class I prices minus $0.44 and that the February 1948 Class I prices shall not be less than the January 1948 Class I prices minus $0.44.

3. Delete § 972.5 (c) and substitute therefor the following:

(c) Class II milk prices. Subject to the provisions of (e), (f), (g) and (h) of this section, the minimum prices per hundredweight on a 3.5 percent butterfat content basis to be paid by each handler for producer milk classified as Class II milk, shall be the basic formula price determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section plus the following amounts for the delivery periods indicated:

Delivery period	Huntington district plants	Other plants
May and June	$0.80	$0.60
March, April, July, and August	.90	.70
September, October, November, December, January, and February	1.05	.85

Provided, That for the months of July and August, 1947, the price for Class II milk shall not be less than $4.32 and $4.12 for the Huntington and other than Huntington district, respectively, and for the months of September, October, November and December, 1947, such prices shall not be less than $4.76 and $4.56: And provided further, That the Class II prices for January 1948 shall not be less than the December 1947 Class II prices minus $0.44 and that the February 1948 Class II prices shall not be less than the January 1948 Class II prices minus $0.44.

4. Delete § 972.8 (g).

[F. R. Doc. 47-6008; Filed, June 25, 1947; 8:49 a. m.]

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

HANDLING OF MILK IN COLUMBUS, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), a public hearing was held at Columbus, Ohio, on March 10–14, 1947, pursuant to the notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on Feb. 27, 1947 (12 F. R. 1400), upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on May 21, 1947, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of the filing of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER May 24, 1947 (12 F. R. 3352).

The material issues presented on the record of the hearing were:

(1) The clarification of the definition of a "fluid milk plant" by the inclusion in the order of a definition covering a "route."

(2) Introduction of a "producer-handler" definition with three conforming changes in the order.

(3) The inclusion of a definition of a "market pool handler" together with conforming changes including a provision for payment to producers by handlers other than market pool handlers on an individual-handler pool basis.

(4) Reports by the market administrator to the cooperative association covering the utilization of producer milk by each handler.

(5) A change in the classification of milk used to produce cottage cheese from Class II milk to Class III milk.

(6) A change in the classification of inventory from Class I milk to Class IV milk.

(7) Revision of the shrinkage provision to permit a cumulative basis for determining shrinkage classification in Class IV milk and a change in the method of allowing shrinkage on milk diverted to the plant of a handler.

(8) The substitution of sworn statements for audits to verify the utilization of milk or cream transferred by handlers to nonhandlers.

(9) Revision of the provisions covering the allocation of milk.

(10) Revision in the method of determining basic price formulas.

(11) A change in the level and seasonal pattern of class prices and in the emergency price provisions.

(12) The determination and announcement of the uniform price to producers on a 3.5 percent butterfat basis replacing the present 4 percent basis.

(13) Replacement of the current market-wide pool by an individual-handler pool.

(14) The inclusion in the order of conversion factors covering certain dairy products.

(15) The elimination of payments into the pool by handlers on receipts from producer-handlers.

(16) Revision of the section providing for administrative assessments.

(17) Revision of the section providing for marketing services.

(18) General.

Findings and conclusions. The recommended decision contained rulings on the proposed findings and conclusions submitted by interested parties in this proceeding. Such rulings are confirmed except as they are modified by the findings and conclusions set forth herein.

Exceptions were filed on behalf of the Central Ohio Cooperative Milk Producers, Inc. and all handlers subject to Order No. 74 with respect to certain of the findings and conclusions contained in the recommended decision. The handlers excepted generally to the failure of the recommended decision to recommend the adoption of certain amendments to the order proposed by them, but such exception does not indicate in what respects the findings and conclusions, referred to in such general exception, are contrary to the evidence. The implied request to make different findings and conclusions on the issues covered by the general exception is denied.

No specific exceptions were filed with regard to the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision on issues (1), (2), (4), (5), (6), (13), (14), (15), (16), and (17). The findings and conclusions hereinafter set forth on these issues are substantially the same as those contained in the recommended decision. With regard to the specific exceptions to certain findings and conclusions of the recommended decision, filed by either producers or handlers, this decision contains a ruling thereon in the discussion of the material issue to which the specific exception refers.

The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based upon the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof:

(1) The term "route" should be defined and the term "fluid milk plant" should be revised in conformance with the new language added by the definition of "route".

There has arisen a question concerning the status as a fluid milk plant, of any plant located outside the marketing area from which Class I milk may be disposed of directly to a state or municipal institution located in the marketing area. The revision will clarify the meaning of "wholesale or retail routes" now contained in the definition of "fluid milk plant" and eliminate any such question.

(2) The inclusion in the order of a definition of "producer-handler" is not necessary at this time.

The inclusion of such a definition would not change the meaning of the present order, but merely shorten the language in several provisions. It is concluded that this revision be deferred until such time as the entire order is rewritten. The three other proposals providing for conforming changes with respect to the producer-handler definition are likewise deferred until such times as an appropriate definition is included in the order.

(3) A definition of a "market pool handler" should not be included in the order.

This definition was intended to distinguish between handlers who sold 25 percent or more of the receipts of their milk from producers and other handlers as Class I milk during the delivery period. Producers furnishing milk to handlers in the former group would receive a uniform price for their milk on the basis of the combined utilization of milk by all handlers in such group while producers supplying the latter handlers would receive a price on the basis of the individual handler's utilization of milk.

There are no handlers marketing less than 25 percent of their producer receipts as Class I milk at the present time. Hence, there is no handler to whom the proposal would apply. There is no substantial evidence to support the percentage proposed or any other specific percentage. Moreover, there is no justification for providing a means whereby the prices received by some producers should be less than the price received by other producers. A similar proposal was considered at the promulgation hearing, but was not adopted and no evidence was presented to show changed conditions in this respect. For the foregoing reasons, it is concluded also that the four other conforming proposals relative to the proposed pooling arrangements should not be adopted. The exceptions filed by handlers do not present any compelling reasons for findings and conclusions on this issue different from those contained in the recommended decision.

(4) The proposal by the Central Ohio Cooperative Milk Producers Association, Inc., that the market administrator should furnish to each cooperative association a monthly report with respect to each handler of "the percent of utilization in each class of milk of producers as qualified in accordance with § 974.9 (b)" should not be adopted at this time.

The health requirements applicable to milk for Class II and Class III uses are the same as those for Class I uses. The price levels decided upon for the several classes take this fact into account. There was no evidence to indicate that producer milk is being used in Class III in excessive quantities during the periods when such milk might be used in Class I. In view of this, it does not appear that the adoption of the proposal at this time is necessary to effectuate the market-wide pool provisions of the order or to establish producer prices at the proper level. Likewise the same conclusion and supporting findings are applicable to the alternative proposals offered in this connection.

(5) The proposal with respect to classifying skim milk and butterfat used in cottage cheese as Class III milk rather than as Class II milk should not be adopted.

Cottage cheese is a year-round product which must be made from fresh, inspected milk and cream. There is no evidence to indicate that cottage cheese is utilized merely as an outlet for the "seasonal surplus" milk of the Columbus market, although during the past year larger quantities of cottage cheese were made in May and June than in October and November. The classification of this product in a lower-priced class would tend to encourage the use of milk in cottage cheese when milk is needed for use in the higher-priced classes.

(6) A proposal to classify inventory variation in Class IV milk rather than in Class I milk should not be adopted. The bulk of inventory variation is in the form of whole milk. Its ultimate use has not been determined at the time handlers are required to make reports to the market administrator. Most of inventory variation is ultimately used in and classified as Class I milk. There is no difference in final cost to handlers or in returns to producers resulting from either method of classification.

The reasons given for proposing this change in inventory classification were that the present method results in distorted statistics for the market. The evidence failed to show, however, that the suggested change would lessen this distortion even if inventory were classified in Class IV milk.

(7) (a) The proposal for the accounting for shrinkage in Class IV milk on a cumulative basis from January 1 of each year through the current delivery period should not be adopted.

The proposal has the effect of changing the definition of "delivery period" with respect to the classifying of shrinkage. The great bulk of milk must be utilized within the month during which it is received. The competitive position of handlers relative to milk supplies varies widely from month to month and seasonally. In view of these variations it would appear that the greatest equity would result from the computation of handlers' costs on as current a basis as is practical. The accounting for shrinkage on a cumulative basis would be administratively burdensome because audits would not be closed until the end of the calendar year. Producers recommend that shrinkage classified in Class IV milk should be limited to 1 percent on butterfat and 2 percent on skim milk. The record does not contain sufficient evidence to justify a decrease in the maximum percentage allowance for shrinkage. In view of these facts there appears to be no substantial reason for changing the present shrinkage allowance at this time. Accordingly, no modification of the findings and conclusions contained in the recommended decision on this issue should be made as a result of the producer exceptions.

(b) The shrinkage allowance on milk diverted by a handler to the plant of another handler should be allowed to the latter handler. This would permit the second handler the shrinkage allowance on all milk for which he is the first receiver. This change in shrinkage accounting will not change substantially the total shrinkage of handlers or returns to producers and will provide greater convenience to handlers in settling for interhandler transfers.

(a) The substitution of "sworn statements" for "audits" in the provision covering the transfer of milk and cream by handlers to nonhandlers should not be adopted.

There was no evidence that nonhandlers had refused to buy milk from handlers because of the auditing requirements. Moreover, the evidence indicated that the only practical method of verifying the claimed utilization of milk is by audit whether the claimed utilization is by a handler or a nonhandler.

With regard to the exceptions of handlers to the findings and conclusions contained in the recommended decision on this issue, the record does not indicate it will be impractical for the market administrator to verify the reported utilization of producer milk transferred by a handler to a nonhandler.

(9) (a) The proposal to allocate all or a portion of "other source milk" to Class I milk during the period when producers fail to deliver milk in an amount equal to 115% of the handler's Class I milk sales should not be adopted.

A portion of the "other source milk" received in the market does not meet the health requirements applicable to milk for Class I uses. Such milk should not be given preferential treatment over producer milk, or allocated to a class in which its utilization is not permissible. The only "other source milk" which may be used properly as Class I milk is controlled by one handler. Under these conditions, any preference given to such milk would tend to give an undue advantage to the handler controlling it.

The alleged purpose of the proposal was to encourage producers to supply a quantity of milk sufficient to meet the Class I needs of the market at all times. In support of their proposal, handlers contend, in their exceptions, that the order as now written, "rewards producers for under-production, for, through under-production more of their milk is allocated to Class I." This contention is contrary to the commonly accepted principle that higher prices will tend to stimulate production. The Columbus market is available to all dairy farmers who can meet the health requirements and is not limited to the producers now supplying the market. The total milk supply is dependent upon the supply responses of all producers now qualified under prevailing health requirements, or who may become so qualified. The proper pricing of milk should do more to bring forth an adequate supply of milk by stimulating an increase in the production of present producers and by providing an incentive for new producers to come on to the market, than would the handlers' proposal here considered. The seasonal pattern of prices decided upon should encourage the needed production of milk not only for Class I use, but also for all uses requiring qualified milk at all seasons of the year.

(b) The sequence in the allocation provision should not be changed. The current method of allocation is necessary for the proper protection of the classification of producer milk. A change in the sequence would be inconsistent with the classification of producer milk in the higher priced classes. The evidence does not warrant the adoption of the proposed change. The handlers' exceptions do not warrant any modification of the Assistant Administrator's findings and conclusions on this issue.

(10) (a) The method of determining the basic formula price for milk should not be changed.

The Columbus basic formula price is based upon the price paid by 18 midwestern condenseries or on a butterfat-nonfat dry milk solids formula price, whichever is the higher. The present basic formula price has reflected very closely the prevailing price for manufacturing milk in the vicinity of the Columbus market. Competitive manufacturing outlets for milk in the Columbus milkshed include condenseries and butter and powder plants some of which also produce certain specialty milk products. There is little or no direct competition by cheese factories for milk produced in this area. In view of these facts the higher of the condensery pay price or the price resulting from the butter and nonfat dry milk solids formula is currently more representative of competitive manufacturing prices than any combination of formula prices as proposed for the determination of the basis formula price. Moreover, the evidence indicates that Columbus prices must be placed in better alignment with prices in other regulated markets in Ohio in order that Columbus handlers may compete for supplies of milk on an equitable competitive basis. At the present time the class prices in these competitive Federal order markets are based on a formula similar to that contained in the present Columbus order.

(b) The make allowance on butter in the basic formula price should be increased from 3 cents to 3.5 cents per pound, but the present 4 cent make allowance on nonfat dry milk solids should not be changed.

The record indicates the cost of making butter to be slightly above 3 cents per pound and the cost of making nonfat dry milk solids to be approximately 4 cents per pound. The make allowance on butter and nonfat dry milk solids of 3.5 cents and 4 cents per pound, respectively, is therefore reasonable. The evidence relied upon by the handlers in excepting to the allowance for the cost of making nonfat dry milk solids was outweighed by other testimony on this point.

Except with respect to the make allowance for butter there should be no change in substance of the butter and nonfat dry milk solids formula. However, the language in the current order describing this formula may be simplified and clarified. Since it is decided that the pricing provisions of the order be revised in the manner hereinafter set forth, it is concluded that, as a part of such revision, the butter-nonfat dry milk solids formula should be rewritten for brevity and to identify more clearly the price quotations for butter and dry-milk solids used therein. The latter revision will not change the quotations used or the method of computation.

(c) The respective basic formula prices for skim milk and butterfat should be expressed as direct ratios to the basic price per hundredweight of milk.

Under the pricing provisions of the current order the value of butterfat for each class in each bracket varies from slightly less than 70 percent to slightly more than 74 percent of the price of 3.5 percent milk in the lowest bracket as compared to the highest bracket reached during the first full year in which the order was in operation. For the same period, the average of the percentage relationships of the value of butterfat to the respective class prices of 3.5 percent milk for each month was 72.8 percent. The average basic formula price, as pointed out in the fluid milk handlers' exceptions, would fall within the range of the $3.50 to the $3.75 bracket. In this bracket the average relationship of the value of butterfat to the value of 3.5 percent milk in Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk was 73.07. It is concluded that the use of 73 percent for determining the value of butterfat for each class will maintain the approximate relationship that has existed during the past year. This will result in a skim milk price in each class equal to 27 percent of the class price of 3.5 percent milk. Therefore, the per hundredweight price of skim milk in each class is equal to .2798 times the respective per hundredweight class price and the per hundredweight price of butterfat is equal to 20.86 times the per hundredweight class price. The price plan adopted this relationship of skim milk and butterfat prices in the basic formula price. Thus, the basic formula price per hundredweight of skim milk is expressed as .2798 times the basic formula price of milk and the basic formula price per hundredweight of butterfat is expressed as 20.86 times the basic formula price of milk. To these values will be added the appropriate differentials to obtain the class price which has been found necessary to effectuate the declared policy of the act.[1]

(11) (a) The "bracket" system of establishing Class I, Class II, and Class III prices should be eliminated.

The milk shed for the Columbus marketing area overlaps the milk sheds of other Ohio marketing areas operating under orders issued pursuant to the act and of other alternative outlets for market milk. Price changes resulting from the bracket system have disturbed the balance between the Columbus market price and the prices of such alternative outlets.

Moreover, the bracket system has promoted uncertainty with respect to class prices when the basic formula price has fluctuated at a level near the outer limits of a particular bracket.

(b) Class prices for skim milk and butterfat should be established by stated differentials over the basic price for skim milk and butterfat at levels which will result in increased uniform prices to producers.

Practically all costs incurred by producers in the production and marketing of milk, such as feeds, supplies, equipment, and hauling, have increased during the past year and particularly during February and March of this year.

The Columbus market has been short of producer milk in nearly every month of the past year. Substantial quantities of other source milk have been received as supplementary supplies.

Other fluid milk markets and alternative outlets for milk, such as, the Cleveland market, the Dayton-Springfield market, Nestle Milk Products, Inc., and the M & R Dietetics Laboratories, Inc., are in competition with the Columbus market for much of the supply of producer milk. The prices paid farmers for all milk at these outlets ranged from 12 cents to 80 cents per hundredweight over the Columbus order minimum uniform price during the period October, 1946, through February, 1947. Also, at times handlers have paid higher prices for inspected "other source" milk than the minimum uniform price for producer milk.

Columbus handlers paid premiums over the minimum prices to protect supplies during the short production season of 1946.

Economic conditions and business activity in the Columbus market indicate continued strong demand for milk and milk products in the Columbus market. Consumption of fluid milk in the Columbus marketing area during February, 1947, was 3.93 percent higher than during February, 1946.

A better alignment is needed between class prices in the Columbus market and other Ohio markets under regulation.

Class differentials above the basic manufacturing value of milk, in addition to meeting the cost of stricter sanitary requirements of inspected milk (its principal justification according to the handlers' exceptions), should reflect also any relative change in the cost of producing inspected milk as compared to the cost of producing manufacturing milk and the competitive and other economic conditions affecting the supply of and demand for milk in the Columbus market. The Class I, Class II, and Class III milk price differentials over the basic formula price, as set forth below, together with the modified Class IV prices, will result in such prices as will reflect the price of feeds, the available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk or its products in the marketing area, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

The Class I, Class II, and Class III price differentials over the basic formula price on a 3.5 percent butterfat content milk basis should be as follows:

	August through March	April through July
Class I	$1.00	$0.75
Class II	.75	.50
Class III	.60	.35

Provided, That Class I prices are not less than $4.20 per hundredweight during August, 1947, $4.64 per hundredweight during September through December, 1947, that Class II prices are not less than such Class I prices minus 25 cents, respectively, that Class I and Class II prices for January, 1948, are not less than such prices for December, 1947, minus 44 cents, and that such prices for February, 1948, are not less than such prices for January, 1948, minus 44 cents.

Under basic formula price level conditions which prevailed during the first 12 months under the Federal Order (averaging about $3.60 per hundredweight) it is estimated that these stated differentials would have increased the average spread of class prices over the basic formula price between 45 and 50 cents per hundredweight. Under a lower level of basic formula prices (i. e., a price level in the neighborhood of $3) this increase would have averaged between 35 and 40 cents per hundredweight. The greater amount of increase at higher levels of basic prices, as pointed out by handlers' exceptions, is the result of establishing class prices by direct differentials over the basic price as compared with the bracket system under the provisions of the current order.

The price of Class IV milk should be changed only to provide that butterfat used in the manufacture of butter should be given a make allowance of $4.20 per hundredweight butterfat so used in conformity with our finding for a 3½ cent per pound make allowance for butter in the basic formula.

The conversion of the class differentials stated above to a skim milk and butterfat price basis (in the same manner as these prices are determined from the basic formula price of milk) results in the following differentials for skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk:

	Skim milk		Butterfat
	August through March	April through July	August through March	April through July
Class I milk	$0.2798	$0.2688	$20.86	$15.64
Class II milk	.2088	.1399	15.64	10.43
Class III milk	.1679	.0979	12.52	7.30

(c) The Class I, Class II, and Class III price differentials should be higher during the short production season than during the flush production season.

The 4 months of relatively high production are April through July. Producers excepted to the inclusion of July as a "flush month," however, the level of production per farm in July is substantially the same as in April. The spread between the high and low production periods in the Columbus market has increased in recent years. There is an extreme shortage of milk in the fall and winter months. The producers' association and the handlers have advised producers of the need and benefits of more even production. Other competing markets, such as Cleveland, provide for seasonal pricing of milk. This places the Columbus market in an unfavorable competitive position particularly during the fall and winter months. Handlers of the Columbus market paid premiums during the fall of 1946 to protect their supply. Producers should be given a price incentive to even out production during the year.

Under the conditions of maximum milk production during the war, production shifted to the spring months when production costs are at their lowest level. To halt and reverse this trend requires definite assurance that fall and winter prices will be substantially higher than during the flush season. Shifting to increased fall milk production involves substantial additional costs. These costs include breeding difficulties, additional feeding and the cost of purchasing additional fall freshening cows. It is too late to adjust breeding programs for increased milk production this fall. Extra feeding and special care of spring freshened cows will be necessary, therefore, to increase the supply of milk during the coming fall. Over a period of time the seasonal class price differentials over basic prices should provide the necessary higher prices during the short production season as compared with the flush season. However, this year under present abnormal postwar market conditions producers are in need of more assurance as to the extent of the seasonal swing in milk prices than is afforded by the pricing formula alone in order that they may now plan for this year's fall and winter production. This will be accomplished by establishing "floor prices" during the fall of 1947 and the early months of 1948. The level of "floor prices" for the fall and winter months should be substantially higher than the prices prevailing during May and June to emphasize the seasonal factor of milk pricing and to assure farmers of higher prices during the season when an increase in milk production is most needed by the market.

A Class I floor price beginning August 1, 1947, of $4.20 and increasing to $4.64 (approximately 1 cent per quart below November 1946) for the period September through December, 1947, will assure prices to producers well above the May and June level of prices and should result in increased production for this fall and winter. The relationship of the Class II price to the Class I price should be maintained substantially the same as under the current order. Following a seasonal pattern, the drop from December, 1947, to January, 1948, should not exceed 44 cents per hundredweight (approximately 1 cent per quart) and any further drop which might be indicated by the formula for February should be limited to not more than 44 cents. The limitation of any price decrease from December to January and January to February will prevent any precipitous price drop immediately following the period for which greater production is to be encouraged.

The floor price for Class I milk for August, expressed in terms of skim milk and butterfat, is equal to a per hundredweight price of $1.175 and $87.61, respectively, and the Class II price $1.105 and $82.40, respectively. During the period September through December, 1947, the per hundredweight Class I price for skim milk is $1.298 and for butterfat $96.79 and the Class II prices $1.228 and $91.58, respectively. The 44 cent decrease in floor prices provided for in January and February, respectively, is equivalent to $0.123 and $9.18 per hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat, respectively.

Handlers proposed an even-production incentive plan through a "take-out and pay-back" system of establishing uniform prices on a seasonal basis (sometimes known as "Louisville plan"). Producers objected strenuously to this plan. The successful operation of such a plan necessitates wide-spread producer approval and cooperation. For this reason this plan is not feasible for the Columbus market at this time. Many of the objectives of the plan outlined by handlers should be accomplished by the establishment of class prices on a seasonal basis.

(d) The emergency price provision, § 974.5 (g) (2), should be revised to cover Class III milk.

This section provides for the suspension of Class I and Class II milk prices by the Secretary under certain conditions. Under the present wording it would be possible for the Class III milk price to exceed the Class I or Class II price. Such a result would be inconsistent with the classified pricing plan of the order.

The Class IV price should not be included in the emergency price provision. The Class IV price is based upon open market prices of products not requiring inspected milk. No useful purpose could be served by including the Class IV price under this provision.

No change should be made in § 974.5 (g) (1), the general emergency price provision. This provision has not created any problem in the Columbus market.

(12) Uniform prices for milk to producers should be announced on the basis of 3.5 percent butterfat content rather than on a 4 percent basis as in the current order.

This change will not affect the handlers' cost of milk. Because of this the butterfat test upon which the producers' price is announced becomes a matter primarily of concern to the producer. The evidence indicates that producers would prefer to receive payment based on an announced price reflecting a lower butterfat content. Producers' satisfaction with the method of announcing the basis of their payments for milk tends to produce more orderly marketing conditions and should be adopted, particularly when the change in such method of payment does not change in any way the handlers' cost for milk. Moreover, the producer prices are announced on the proposed basis in most other Ohio markets as well as in many other markets throughout the country. Statistical comparisons of producer prices on the Columbus market and other markets would be facilitated if prices were announced on a 3.5 percent basis.

The Columbus order requires a handler to pay for skim milk and butterfat at class prices. Therefore, handlers' costs of milk are dependent solely on the class prices of skim milk and butterfat, whereas the uniform prices to producers is merely a method of distributing this money to producers. The effects attributable to the adoption of the proposal by the handlers' exceptions are highly speculative, and if they occur, their primary cause will be some factor other than the change in the basis for announcing prices to producers.

(13) A proposal under which payments to producers would be computed on the basis of an individual-handler pool should not be adopted.

Under the current market-wide pool all producers receive a uniform price computed on the basis of the combined classification of milk received by all handlers. An individual-handler pool would establish as many different prices as there are handlers. It was indicated this would tend to breed dissatisfaction among Columbus producers. The facilities for handling "surplus" milk are limited to a few plants. Evidence in the hearing record failed to establish any new facts which would change the original conclusions providing for a "market-wide pool" when the original order was promulgated.

(14) A new provision requiring, in connection with the computation of product weights, the use of the "standard of weights" of the Bureau of Dairy Industry, United States Department of Agriculture, should not be included.

The Bureau of Dairy Industry, United States Department of Agriculture, has not issued any official standards of weights for dairy products. The problems indicated in connection with the ascertaining of proper weights by the market administrator are not peculiar to the Columbus market. Weight factors are necessary in the computation of class volumes of milk under any classified price plan. The provisions of several orders under joint administration with Columbus are very similar, and appropriate weight factors may better result from rule-making procedure by the market administrator. This will permit a more flexible arrangement for the employment of weight factors to be used under similar order provisions.

(15) The requirement that payments be made into the pool on milk transferred from a producer-handler to a handler should be eliminated.

Producer-handlers transfer an insignificant amount of milk to regular handlers. Most transfers are in the flush season and such milk is used in the lower-priced uses. The milk of producer-handlers is eliminated from the pool in a manner similar to other source milk—in series from the lowest-priced uses. This treatment of producer-handler milk protects adequately the proper classification of producer milk.

(16) The section providing for an assessment covering administrative expense should be revised to provide for (i) changes in the administrative assessment rate below the maximum fixed in such section to be determined by the Secretary rather than by the market administrator (subject to review by the Secretary), and (ii) elimination of the announcement by the market administrator on or before the 10th day after the end of the delivery period of the applicable rate of assessment for the delivery period.

Procedure for making changes in such rates will be less complicated if such rate-making is made a direct function of the Secretary rather than a review function. Since the rate will remain unchanged for each delivery period until altered by a published rule, it will be unnecessary to require monthly public announcements by the market administrator. This revision will simplify the establishment of appropriate rates of assessment any time that the assessment rate must be changed.

(17) The section providing for marketing service deductions should be revised to (i) authorize the Secretary to fix the assessment rate below the maximum prescribed in such section and (ii) eliminate the application of the marketing service deductions to milk of a handler's own production.

The fixing of the rate of marketing service deductions by the Secretary (who must now review the rate established by the market administrator) will simplify the procedure for establishing such rates of assessment below the maximum prescribed in the order.

Marketing service payments are designed primarily to cover the cost of verifying the weights and tests of producer milk. Producers who are not members of a cooperative association usually are not in a position to govern the disposition of milk and it is not practicable for them to verify the weights and tests of deliveries of their own milk. In the case of milk of a handler's own production such service is not necessary as a protection since the handler has full control of the handling of such milk from the farm to its disposition from his plant.

(18) General. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The proposed marketing agreement and order, as amended and as hereby proposed to be further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which the hearing has been held; and

(c) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled "Marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area" and "Order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of this chapter of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order amending the order, as amended, which will be published with the decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] N. E. DODD,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

Order,[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Columbus, Ohio, Marketing Area

§ 974.0 Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "Act"), and the rules of practice and procedure covering the formulation of marketing agreements and orders (7 C. F. R., Supps. 900.1 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that

(a) The said order as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

Order Relative to Handling

It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Delete § 974.1 (e) and substitute therefor the following:

(e) "Fluid milk plant" means the premises and portions of the building and facilities used in the receipt and processing or packaging of milk all or a portion of which is disposed of from such plant during the delivery period on a route(s), wholly or partially within the marketing area, but not including any portion of such buildings or facilities used for receiving or processing milk or any milk product required by the appropriate health authorities in the marketing area to be kept physically separate from the receiving and processing or packaging of milk for disposition as Class I milk in the marketing area.

2. Add at the end of § 974.1 the following paragraph:

(l) "Route" means a delivery (including a sale from a plant store) of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, or flavored milk drink in fluid form to a wholesale or retail stop(s), including a State or municipal institution, other than to a fluid milk plant(s) or to a plant(s) manufacturing milk products.

3. At the end of § 974.4 (b) (4) change the period to a colon and add thereafter the following: "Provided, That producer milk transferred by a handler to any plant of another handler without first having been received for purposes of weighing and testing in the transferring handler's fluid milk plant shall be included in the receipts at the plant of the second handler for the purpose of computing his plant shrinkage and shall be excluded from the receipts at his fluid milk plant of the transferring handler in computing his plant shrinkage."

4. Delete § 974.5 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 974.5 Minimum prices—(a) Basic formula prices for skim milk and butterfat. The basic formula prices of skim milk and butterfat respectively shall be computed by the market administrator for each delivery period in the following manner:

(1) Compute the arithmetical average of the basic (or field) prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid, or to be paid, for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the delivery period at the following places for which prices are reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture by the companies listed below:

COMPANIES AND LOCATIONS

Borden Co., Black Creek, Wis.
Borden Co., Greenville, Wis.
Borden Co., Mt. Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co., Berlin, Wis.
Carnation Co., Jefferson, Wis.
Carnation Co., Chilton, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.

Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(2) Compute the price per hundredweight by adding together the amounts resulting under subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph:

(i) From the arithmetical average of the daily wholesale prices per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period in which such milk was received, subtract 3.5 cents, add 20 percent, and then multiply the resulting amount by 3.5, and

(ii) From the arithmetical average of the carlot prices per pound of nonfat dry milk solids (not including that specifically designated animal feed), roller and spray process, f. o. b. Chicago area manufacturing plants, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, deduct 4 cents, multiply by 8.5, and multiply by 0.965.

(3) Multiply the higher of the prices resulting from subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph by 0.2798 (which amount shall be known as the basic formula price per hundredweight of skim milk); and

(4) Multiply the higher of the prices resulting from subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph by 20.86 (which amount shall be known as the basic formula price per hundredweight of butterfat).

(b) Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk prices. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section, the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received at his fluid milk plant and classified as Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk, respectively, shall be determined by adding the appropriate amounts set forth in the following schedule to the basic formula prices per hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, for the delivery period:

	Skim milk		Butterfat
	August through March	April through July	August through March	April through July
Class I milk	$0.2798	$0.2958	$20.86	$15.64
Class II milk	.2668	.1389	18.64	10.4
Class III milk	.1679	.0979	12.52	7.30

Provided, That in no event shall the price of skim milk or butterfat in any such class be lower, respectively, than the skim milk and the higher butterfat prices, in Class IV milk: And provided further, That for the month of August, 1947, the prices per hundredweight for skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk shall not be less than $1.175 and $87.61, respectively, and in Class II milk not less than $1.105 and $82.40, respectively; and for the months of September, October, November, and December, 1947, such prices for skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk shall not be less than $1.298 and $96.79, respectively, and in Class II milk not less than $1.228 and $91.58, respectively: And provided also, That the prices per hundredweight for skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk for January, 1948, shall not be less than the December, 1947, prices of skim milk and butterfat in such classes minus $0.123 and $9.18, respectively, and such prices for February, 1948, shall not be less than such prices for January, 1948, minus $0.123 and $9.18, respectively.

(c) Class IV milk prices. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section the minimum prices to be paid by each handler for that portion of skim milk or butterfat in producer milk received at his fluid milk plant and classified as Class IV milk shall be determined as follows:

(1) The price per hundredweight of such skim milk shall be the prices determined pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) (ii) of this section, divided by 0.965; and

(2) The price per hundredweight of such butterfat shall be the arithmetical average of the daily wholesale prices per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, multiplied by 120: Provided, That the price per hundredweight of butterfat made in butter shall be such price per hundredweight less $4.20.

(d) Prices of Class I milk and Class II milk disposed of outside the marketing area. The price to be paid by a handler for Class I milk or Class II milk disposed of outside the marketing area shall be the same as the price applicable within the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area: Provided, That Class I milk or Class II milk disposed of in another marketing area covered by a Federal milk marketing agreement or order, issued pursuant to the act, shall be the price applicable within the Columbus, Ohio, marketing area, pursuant to this section, or the price applicable for milk of similar use or disposition in the other marketing area, whichever is higher.

(e) Emergency price provisions. (1) Whenever the provisions hereof require the market administrator to use a specific price (or prices) for milk or any milk product for the purpose of determining minimum class prices or for any other purpose, the market administrator shall add to the specified price the amount of any subsidy, or other similar payment, being made by any Federal agency in connection with the milk, or product, associated with the price specified: Provided, That if for any reason the price specified is not reported or published as indicated, the market administrator shall use the applicable maximum uniform price established by regulations of any Federal agency plus the amount of any such subsidy or other similar payment: Provided further, That if the specified price is not reported or published and there is no applicable maximum uniform price, or if the specified price is not reported or published and the Secretary determines that the market price is below the applicable maximum uniform price, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the price specified.

(2) Whenever the Secretary finds and announces that the price of Class I milk, Class II milk, or Class III milk computed for any delivery period pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section is above a level which is in the public interest, the price of Class I milk, Class II milk, or Class III milk for such delivery period shall be the same as the corresponding price for Class I milk, Class II milk, or Class III milk for the delivery period immediately preceding.

5. Delete from § 974.6 (a) the following proviso: "Provided, That if such handler received milk, skim milk, or cream from a handler who received no producer milk other than that of his own production and disposed of the skim milk or butterfat contained therein as other than in the lowest-priced use of the receiving handler, there shall be added an amount equal to the difference between (1) the value of such skim milk or butterfat at the price of such lowest-priced use and (2) the value computed in accordance with its class use."

6. Delete from § 974.6 (c) (3) the term "4 percent" wherever it appears and substitute therefor the term "3.5 percent."

7. Delete from § 974.6 (c) (5) the term "4.0 percent" and substitute the term "3.5 percent."

8. Delete from § 974.7 (f) the section reference "§ 974.5 (c) (2)" and substitute therefor the section reference "§ 974.5 (c) (2)."

9. Delete the provisions of § 974.8 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 974.8 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense incurred pursuant to § 974.2 (c) (3) each handler shall pay the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period 2 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to all receipts of skim milk and butterfat (except receipts from other handlers) in (a) producer milk and (b) other source milk at a fluid milk plant.

10. Delete the provisions of § 974.9 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

§ 974.9 Marketing services—(a) Deductions. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section each handler shall deduct from his payments, pursuant to § 974.7 (a), 4 cents per hundredweight of milk, or such lesser deduction as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to all producer milk (except such handler's own production) received during each delivery period, and shall pay such deduction to the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to check weights, samples, and tests of such producer milk and to provide producers with market information, such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

[F. R. Doc. 47-6039; Filed, June 25, 1947; 8:49 a. m.]

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

[Docket No. AO-179-A1]

HANDLING OF MILK IN CLEVELAND, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVELY APPROVED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure (7 CFR, Cum. Supps. 901 et seq., 11 F. R. 7737, 12 F. R. 1159), as amended, notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held at the Carter Hotel, 1012 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, beginning at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., June 30, 1947, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area (11 F. R. 8207). These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture:

The following amendments have been proposed:

In § 975.1 Definitions:

By the Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration:

1. Amend § 975.1 (g) (2) (ii) by substituting the numeral "50" for the numeral "10".

2. Delete § 975.1 (o) and substitute therefor the following:

(o) "Route" means a delivery (including a sale from a plant store) of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk or flavored milk drink in fluid form to a wholesale or retail stop(s), including any eating place where such items are disposed of for consumption on or off the premises other than a pool plant(s) or a nonpool plant(s).

In § 975.3 Pool plant:

By Milk Producers Federation of Cleveland:

3. Amend § 975.3 (a) (2) (i) by adding to list of pool plants the following: "Cleveland, Ohio ------ Milk Producers Federation of Cleveland."

By Milk Market Survey Committee:

4. Amend § 975.3 (a) by adding after the word "except" the following phrase "an ice cream plant operated either by a pool handler or a non-pool handler, and."

In § 975.4 Reports, records, and facilities:

By the Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration:

5. Delete § 975.4 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) Delivery period reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 8th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator with respect to milk received from producers, other source milk received at a pool plant, skim milk and butterfat received in any form at a pool plant or at a non-pool plant from a pool plant, skim milk and butterfat received in any form at a non-pool plant which is wholly or partially owned or controlled by such handler and is located within the marketing area, and all skim milk and butterfat received in any form from all sources at a non-pool plant referred to in § 975.1 (g) (2), in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(1) The quantities of butterfat and quantities of skim milk contained in (or used in the production of) such receipts and their sources;

(2) The utilization of such receipts; and

(3) Such other information with respect to such receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

In § 975.5 Classification:

By the Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration:

6. Amend § 975.5 (a) by inserting between the words "plant(s)" and "shall" the following "and his nonpool plant(s) located within the marketing area referred to in § 975.4 (a),"

By Milk Producers Federation of Cleveland:

7. Amend § 975.5 (b) (1) (ii) by striking out the numeral "100" and inserting the numeral "160."

8. Amend § 975.5 (g) (2) (i) by adding after the word "producers" the words "and pool plants" and by adding after the word "section" the parenthetical phrase, "(exclusive of reconstituted skim milk)".

By Milk Market Survey Committee:

9. In § 975.5 (b) (1) (i) delete the words "sweet or sour cream" in the third line.

10. In § 975.5 (b) (1) (ii) delete words "except cream" in third line and substitute "150 miles" for "100 miles" in the fourth line.

11. Delete § 975.5 (b) (1) (iii).

12. Delete § 975.5 (b) (1) (iv).

13. Delete § 975.5 (b) (2) and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

(2) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat disposed of in fluid form as sweet or sour cream (except sweet or sour cream sold for Class III purposes).

14. Delete § 975.5 (b) (3) and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

(3) Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat: (i) Used for any purpose other than Class I or Class II above, including but not limited to skim milk and butterfat used to produce ice cream, imitation ice cream, and other frozen desserts and mixes for similar products (liquid or powdered); or storage cream (cream placed in a licensed cold storage warehouse to remain for a period of not less than 30 days, and which is subject at all times, while in such warehouse to inspection by the market administrator to determine the physical presence of such cream); butter, butter oil; cheese (including cottage cheese); bulk condensed skim milk or whole milk (sweetened or unsweetened); evaporated or condensed milk (or skim milk) in hermetically sealed cans, casein; nonfat dry milk solids; dry whole milk; condensed or dry buttermilk; whey; powdered malted milk; lactose; and skim milk or buttermilk disposed or for livestock feed; and

(ii) Actual shrinkage on milk received from producers and on other source milk.

15. In § 975.5 (c) substitute in lieu of the first sentence, the following: "The market administrator shall determine the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in milk received from producers and in inter-handler transactions where producer milk of one handler is delivered directly to another handler's plant and in other source milk received in the following manner:"

16. In § 975.5 (c) (2) substitute in lieu of present language, the following: "Any skim milk or butterfat classified (except that classified pursuant to (b) (1) (ii) of this section) in one class shall not be reclassified when used or reused by such handler or by another handler in another class."

17. Amend § 975.5 (g) (2) (i) by changing "105 percent" to "115 percent."

In § 975.6 Minimum prices:

By Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration:

18. Delete § 975.6 (d) (1) and substitute therefor the following:

(1) The price per hundredweight of butterfat shall be the average price per pound of 92 score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period, multiplied by 120; Provided, That the price per hundredweight of butterfat used to produce butter or contained in plant shrinkage, pursuant to § 975.5 (b) (3) (ii) shall be such price less $3.60.

By Milk Producers Federation of Cleveland:

19. In § 975.6 (a) delete the words "the delivery period" wherever they appear and substitute therefor the words "the immediately preceding delivery period."

20. Amend § 975.6 (b) (1) by striking out the words "October, November and December" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "September, October, November, December, January and February" and by adding the following: "Provided, That Class I prices for the following indicated delivery periods shall not be less than:

$4.84 for July, August and September 1947.
$5.30 for October, November and December 1947.
$4.84 for January, February, and March 1948, and not less than $4.36 for any delivery period thereafter.

21. Amend § 975.6 (c) (1) by striking out the words "October, November and December" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "September, October, November, December, January and February."

22. Delete the period at the end of § 975.6 (c) (2), substitute a colon therefor, and add the following: "Provided, That the price of butterfat shall during no delivery period be less than the price of butterfat computed pursuant to (d) (1) of this section, prior to the application of the proviso therein."

23. Amend § 975.6 (c) (3) by inserting between the words "paragraph" and "by" the words "prior to the application of the proviso,".

24. Amend § 975.6 (d) (3) by striking out (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(i) From the higher of the prices computed pursuant to (a) (1) or (a) (2) of this section deduct 5 cents;

(ii) Multiply the result by 7;

(iii) Subtract such result from the figure obtained in (i) of this paragraph; and

(iv) Divide the result by 0.965 and round off to the nearest full cent.

By Orville Milk Condensing Company:

25. Delete § 975.6 (d) (3).

By Milk Market Survey Committee:

26. Delete § 975. (d) (3).

In § 975.7 Determination of uniform price to producers:

By the Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration:

27. Amend § 975.7 (c) (2) by substituting the numeral "50" for the numeral "10."

By Elm Farm Dairy, Medina, Ohio and Wooster Farm Dairies, Wooster, Ohio:

28. Delete § 975.7 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) Location adjustment to handlers. (1) With respect to the actual weight of milk, cream or any other item named in Class I milk and Class II milk which is classified as Class I milk or as Class II milk or as cottage cheese and which is received from producers at a handler's pool plant located more than 30 miles from the public square in Cleveland, Ohio, by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, there shall be deducted in the computation of the handler's pool value, the following amount per hundredweight thereof, applicable pursuant to the following:

(Miles plant is distant from the public square in Cleveland, Ohio)

Mileage zone	Cents per hundredweight
Not more than 30 miles	0
More than 30 miles but not more than 45 miles	15
More than 45 miles but not more than 60 miles	17
More than 60 miles but not more than 75 miles	19
More than 75 miles but not more than 90 miles	21
Within each 15 mile zone thereafter (an additional)	1

(2) With respect to milk received from producers at a handlers' pool plant located more than 30 miles from the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, there shall be deducted in the computation of the handlers' pool obligation, for each hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat contained therein which was classified as Class III and which was moved as milk, skim milk or cream from the plant where received from producers to a manufacturing plant an amount equal to 1¢ per hundredweight for each mile that the plants are distant from each other: Provided, That such allowance shall not exceed that applicable to the same plant pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

By Milk Market Survey Committee:

29. Delete § 975.7 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) With respect to the actual weight of milk, cream, or any other item which is moved directly from a pool plant, there shall be deducted, in the computation of the handler's pool value, the following amount per hundredweight thereof applicable for the location of such plant by shortest highway distance from the shipping plant to the receiving plant, such distance to be determined by the market administrator.

Mileage zone	Cents per hundredweight
Not more than 30 miles	0
More than 30 miles but not more than 45 miles	15
More than 45 miles but not more than 60 miles	17
More than 60 miles but not more than 75 miles	19
More than 75 miles but not more than 90 miles	21
Within each 15 mile zone thereafter (an additional)	1

Provided, That such an adjustment shall be limited to an amount of milk, cream, or other item so moved which could be derived from the milk received from producers at such plant.

In § 975.9 Expense of administration:

By Milk Market Survey Committee:

30. Add after "pool plants" the phrase "except skim milk, milk products and butterfat used in the manufacture of ice cream,"

General proposals:

By the Guernsey Producers Association, Inc.:

31. That milk sold as a special milk including Golden Guernsey, Jersey Creamline, or similar milks on which a special premium for quality is paid over and above the pool price by the handler, shall be set aside in a separate pool calculated and administered by the market administrator. The handler of such milk shall report monthly his total receipts and sales of special milk and certify to the market administrator the premium paid each month, which price paid to each producer shall not be less than the average blended pool price.

32. In a market wide pool calculation, those handlers paying a premium to producers of special milk shall be charged the same price per pound of butterfat that he is permitted to pay the producer through the regular producer butterfat differential (Class III). This difference could then be recovered through a special premium to that extent to the producer of special premium milk only.

33. If the above revision is not legally sound then the same results can be obtained by the following amendment: "The handler paying a premium to producers of special quality milk shall pay his special producers the same butterfat differential that he is charged for Class I butterfat in the pool and be so credited." This amendment will permit any distributor to handle special milks of any kind, the determining factor qualifying him for this special consideration being that he must pay some premium to his producers.

34. Butterfat differentials. For each month the market administrator shall compute a butterfat differential to be paid to producers which shall be the average weighted butterfat differential paid by the handlers in the pool for producers milk.

35. That an individual handler pool be substituted for a market wide pool and all necessary changes to effectuate and establish an individual handler pool be made in the order.

By the Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration:

36. Make such other changes as may be required to make the entire tentatively approved marketing agreement and the marketing order conform with any amendments thereto which may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the tentatively approved marketing agreement and the marketing order, now in effect, may be procured from the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 0306, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: June 20, 1947.

[SEAL] E. A. MEYER,
Assistant Administrator.

SPECIAL INDUSTRY COMMITTEE NO. 5 FOR PUERTO RICO

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO RECEIVE EVIDENCE FOR CONSIDERATION IN RECOMMENDING MINIMUM WAGE RATES FOR EMPLOYEES IN VARIOUS INDUSTRIES

Correction

In Federal Register Document 47-5811, appearing at page 4003 of the issue for Friday, June 20, 1947, the reference to "Special Industry Committee No. 6" in the first line of the second paragraph should read: "Special Industry Committee No. 5".

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR, Parts 208, 238]

TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND LIMITATIONS OF CERTIFICATES AUTHORIZING INTERSTATE OR OVERSEAS AIR TRANSPORTATION

NOTICE OF PROPOSED REVISION OF REGULATIONS

The Civil Aeronautics Board has under consideration a proposed revision of §§ 238.3, 238.5, and 208.2 (g) of the Economic Regulations, dealing with terms, conditions and limitations of certificates authorizing interstate or overseas transportation, issued under section 401 of the act. The proposed revision is particularly concerned with authorization for nonstop service and for use of airports. The revision is proposed under the authority of sections 205 (a), 401, and 405 (c) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 984, 988, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425, 481).

The Board has authorized the circulation of the proposed revision to interested persons. Comments should be submitted in writing to the Secretary, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D. C., on or before July 26, 1947.

The text of the proposed revision is attached hereto. The material features of the proposed revision are as follows:

I. Nonstop service—A. Present regulation. At present, under the nonstop provisions of § 238.3, if a certificated air carrier desires to institute nonstop service in interstate or overseas air transportation, it must file with the Board a "Notice of Nonstop Service." The carrier may not institute nonstop service less than 20 days after filing notice, unless the Board expressly authorizes it. The carrier may begin nonstop service after expiration of the 20-day period if the Board does not notify the carrier that the service involves a substantial departure from the certificated route; but if the Board gives such notification, institution of the service will depend upon the result of a hearing had on application of the carrier.

B. Proposed revision. Under paragraph (b) of the proposed revision, an air carrier could institute nonstop service merely by complying with the procedure governing revision of schedule—just as would be required in the case of instituting any other additional service permissible under its certificate. The carrier would not be required to procure any permission from the Board, nor would it be necessary to file any "Notice." The proposed revision would eliminate the provisions as to nonstop service presently contained in paragraph (a) of § 238.3, and would eliminate so much of § 238.5 as relates to service of "Notice of Nonstop Service" (all of paragraph (a) and a part of paragraph (c)). This revision would not affect certificated foreign air transportation which is covered by §§ 238.4 and 238.7.

II. Airport authorization. Under the existing regulation (paragraph (b) of § 238.3), when the Board disapproves an airport notice, it must do so by show cause order which institutes a formal proceeding.

The proposed regulation would allow greater flexibility in that it would provide merely for a notice of the Board's disapproval of the airport notice, and if a carrier thereafter desired to proceed further it would be required to make formal application to the Board for approval.

III. Changes in form and text of regulations. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 238.5 (relating to service of "Airport Notice") would become paragraph (c) (2) of § 238.3. Paragraph (a) of § 238.5 (relating to service of "Notice of Nonstop Service") would be eliminated. The result would be to end the independent identity of § 238.5.

The proposed amendment of § 208.2 (g) is merely technical, in order to avoid possible inconsistency with proposed § 238.3 (b).

Minor changes in the text of the regulations have also been made for purposes of clarification, but are not believed to effect substantive changes.

Proposed amendment of Part 238 of the Economic Regulations (revising § 238.3 and incorporating § 238.5 therein):

§ 238.3 Terms, conditions, and limitations of certificates authorizing interstate and overseas air transportation—(a) Applicability. Unless a certificate or the order authorizing the issuance of such certificate shall otherwise provide, there shall be attached to the exercise of the privileges granted by each certificate authorizing an air carrier to engage in interstate or overseas air transportation pursuant to section 401 of the act, such terms, conditions, and limitations as are set forth in this section, and as may from time to time be prescribed by the Board.

(b) Nonstop authorization. The holder of a certificate may inaugurate scheduled nonstop service between any two points not consecutively named in its certificate (and between which service is authorized by such certificate) upon the effective date of a schedule or a new or revised schedule page showing such nonstop service, filed with the Board in accordance with § 208.2 of this chapter.

(c) Airport authorization—(1) Airport notice. If the holder of a certificate desires to serve regularly a point named in such certificate through the use of any airport not then regularly used by such holder, such holder shall file with the Board written notice of its intention so to do. Such notice shall be filed at least 30 days prior to inaugurating the use of such airport. Such notice shall be conspicuously entitled "Airport Notice", shall clearly describe such airport and its location, and shall state the reasons the holder deems the use of such airport to be desirable. The use of such airport may be inaugurated 30 days after the filing of such notice, unless the Board notifies the holder within said 30-day period that it appears to the Board that such use may adversely affect the public interest, in which event such use shall not thereafter be inaugurated (except as may be expressly permitted by such notification) unless and until the Board finds, upon application filed by the holder, that the public interest would not be adversely affected by such use. The Board may permit the use of an airport at any time after the filing of the "Airport Notice" whenever the circumstances warrant such action. In no event shall the holder use the provisions of this paragraph as authority to receive passengers at one airport and discharge such passengers at any other airport serving the same point.

(2) Filing and serving notice. An original and nine copies of each "Airport Notice" shall be filed with the Board, each setting forth the names and addresses of the persons required to be served and stating that service has been had on all such persons, by personal service or by registered mail. In the case of registered mail, the date of mailing shall be considered the date of service. Each copy of notice served shall be accompanied by a letter of transmittal stating that such service is made pursuant to this section. A copy of each "Airport Notice" shall be served upon such persons as the Board may designate in a particular case, and shall be served upon the following persons in all cases:

(i) The Postmaster General, marked for the attention of the Second Assistant Postmaster General;

(ii) Each scheduled air carrier which regularly renders service to or from the point intended to be served through the proposed airport;

(iii) The chief executives of the city (or other political subdivision) and of the state, in which are located the currently used airport, the proposed airport, and the point to be served, respectively.

(If there be a state commission or agency having jurisdiction of air transportation, notice shall be served on such commission or agency rather than the chief executive of the state.)

(d) Provisions as to scheduled stops. (1) A scheduled stop at a point within the continental United States shall not be scheduled to exceed 45 minutes on any flight if the origination or termination of such flight at such point is prohibited by any restriction in the certificate.

(2) A certificate containing a condition or restriction which has the effect of permitting the origination of a flight only at a certain point or points shall not be deemed to permit an increase in passenger- or property-carrying capacity (by change of gauge, substitution of equipment, addition of extra sections, or, otherwise) on any such flight at any point other than a point at which the origination of such flight is authorized. A certificate containing a condition or restriction which has the effect of permitting the termination of a flight only at a certain point or points shall not be deemed to permit a decrease in passenger- or property-carrying capacity on any such flight at any point other than a point at which the termination of such flight is authorized. With respect to a particular flight, a point shall not be deemed to be beyond another specified point within the meaning of such condition or restriction unless the holder serves such other specified point on such flight or omits service thereto pursuant to regulation or other specific authorization (such as authority to render nonstop service, or to suspend service to such point) of the Board.

(e) Failure to comply. It shall be a condition upon the holding of the certificate that any intentional contravention in fact by the holder of the provisions of Title IV of the act or of the orders, rules, or regulations issued thereunder, or of the terms, conditions, and limitations attached to the exercise of the privileges granted by the certificate, even though occurring without the territorial limits of the United States shall (except to the extent that such contravention in fact shall be necessitated by an obligation, duty, or liability imposed by a foreign country) be a failure to comply with the terms, conditions, and limitations of the certificate within the meaning of section 401 (h) of the act. (52 Stat. 984, 988, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425, 481)

Proposed amendment of § 208.2 (g) of the Economic Regulations:

§ 208.2 Filing of schedules and changes therein by air carriers under § 405 (c) of the act. * * *

(g) Effect of filing. The fact that a schedule, or a new or revised schedule page, has been filed with the Civil Aeronautics Board does not operate to relieve an air carrier of any requirements as to the filing of schedules, which may be made by any other governmental instrumentality. (52 Stat. 984, 995, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425, 485)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR, Part 270]

EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

NOTICE OF PROPOSALS WITH RESPECT TO ADOPTION AND AMENDMENT OF RULES

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration the following proposals with respect to the adoption and amendment of rules pursuant to the Investment Company Act of 1940, particularly sections 6 (c), 17 (a), 17 (b), and 38 (a) thereof:

1. The adoption of a rule exempting from section 17 (a) of the act transactions pursuant to a contract where at the time the contract was made and for a period of six months prior thereto no affiliation or other relationship existed which would bring the transaction within the purview of section 17 (a). The purpose of the rule is to provide an automatic exemption for such transactions since they are effected pursuant to a contract presumably entered into upon the basis of arms-length negotiation. The text of the proposed rule is as follows:

§ 270.17a–4 Exemption of transactions pursuant to certain contracts. Transactions pursuant to a contract shall be exempt from section 17 (a) of the act if at the time of the making of the contract and for a period of at least six months prior thereto no affiliation or other relationship existed which would operate to make such contract or the subsequent performance thereof subject to the provisions of said section 17 (a). [Rule N–17A–4]

2. The amendment of the Commission's existing § 270.17a–2 (Rule N–17A–2) which exempts from section 17 (a) of the act certain purchase, sale or borrowing transactions. The purchase of the amendment of this rule is to expand the exemption provided thereby so that it will apply to certain transactions between banks. At present the exemption is limited to transactions between a bank and a person engaged principally in the business of instalment financing.

§ 270.17a–2 Exemption of certain purchase, sale or borrowing transactions. Purchase, sale or borrowing transactions occurring in the usual course of business between affiliated persons of registered investment companies shall be exempt from section 17 (a) of the act provided (a) the transactions involve notes, drafts, time payment contracts, bills of exchange, acceptances or other property of a commercial character rather than an investment character; (b) the buyer or lender is a bank; and (c) the seller or borrower is a bank or is engaged principally in the business of instalment financing. [Rule N–17A–2]

All interested persons are invited to submit data, views and comments in writing to the Securities and Exchange Commission at its main office, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania, on or before July 10, 1947.

By the Commission.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 11th day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of WHB Broadcasting Company for modification of its construction permit for operation on 710 kc (File No. BP-2873, Docket No. 6022) so as to increase daytime power to 10 kw and to make changes in the daytime directional antenna;

It appearing, that the Commission on April 30, 1947, designated for hearing in a separate proceeding the application of KFEQ, Inc., requesting a construction permit to increase the daytime power of Station KFEQ, operating on 680 kc at St. Joseph, Missouri, to 10 kw, to operate with a nondirectional antenna daytime, and to install a new transmitter;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled application of WHB Broadcasting Company be, and it is hereby designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding with the above-entitled application of KFEQ, Inc. at a time and place to be designated by subsequent order of the Commission, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the technical, financial, and other qualifications of the applicant corporations, their officers, directors and stockholders to construct and operate stations KFEQ and WHB as proposed.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operations and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program services proposed to be rendered and whether they would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the proposed operations would involve objectionable interference with any other existing broadcast stations and particularly whether the operation of Station KFEQ as proposed would involve objectionable interference with stations KOWH, Omaha, Nebraska, WMAQ Chicago, Illinois, or KGGF, Coffeyville, Kansas, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the proposed operations would involve objectionable interference each with the other or with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities and particularly whether the operation of Station KFEQ as proposed would involve objectionable interference with the services proposed in the pending application of Hugh J. Powell (KGGF), and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether t . proposed installations and operations would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which, if either of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

It is further ordered, That, World Publishing Company, licensee of Station KOWH, Omaha, Nebraska; National Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of Station WMAQ, Chicago, Illinois; and Hugh J. Powell, licensee of station KGGF, Coffeyville, Kansas, be, and they are hereby, made parties to this proceeding.

By the Commission.

FLINT BROADCASTING CO., FLINT, MICH.

NOTICE CONCERNING PROPOSED TRANSFER OF CONTROL [1]

The Commission hereby gives notice that on June 16, 1947 there was received an application (BTC-554) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act (47 U. S. C. A.) to the proposed transfer of control of the Flint Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station WFDF, Flint, Michigan, from Howard M. and Frederick S. Leob to the Trebit Corporation, a Michigan Corporation.

The proposed transfer is based on an agreement dated May 12, 1947 pursuant to which Howard M. and Frederick S. Leob have agreed to sell their shares of capital stock of Flint Broadcasting Company to the Trebit Corporation for the sum of $600,000 plus an amount equal to the "net current assets" of the Flint Broadcasting Company as of June 1, 1947. The total purchase price is payable within 30 days after the date upon which the formal order of the Commission consenting to the transfer of control of the Flint Broadcasting Company is entered. Full information concerning the transaction may be obtained from the application which is on file in the office of the Commission, Washington, D. C.

On July 25, 1946 the Commission adopted Rule 1.388 (the terms and provisions of which are embodied in § 1.321 Part I of the Commission's rules and regulations, effective September 11, 1946) providing for publication of the filing of such applications to be given in a newspaper of general circulation in the community in which the station is located. The Commission was advised with the filing of the application (June 16, 1947) that notice would be inserted in a daily newspaper of general circulation in Flint, Michigan, beginning June 17, 1947. No action will be had upon the application for a period of 60 days from said June 17, 1947 within which time other parties desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions set forth in the above described contract.

NOTICE CONCERNING PROPOSED ASSIGNMENT OF LICENSE [1]

The Commission hereby gives notice that on June 13, 1947 there was filed with it an application (BAL-614) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act to the proposed assignment of license of KIUL from Frank D. Conard, trading as Radio Station KIUL to the Telegram Publishing Company, Garden City, Kansas. The proposal to assign the license arises out of a contract of May 13, 1947, pursuant to which the station and all its facilities and properties are to be sold to the proposed assignee for a total purchase price of $42,000. Of this amount $5,000 has been paid in cash and the remaining $37,000 is payable in cash on approval. Further information as to the arrangements may be found with the application and associated papers which are on file at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

On June 13, 1947 the Commission was advised that public notice concerning the application would be inserted in a newspaper of general circulation at Garden City, Kansas, beginning June 17, 1947, in conformity with § 1.321.

In accordance with the procedure set out in said rule, no action will be had upon the application for a period of 60 days from June 17, 1947 within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above described contract.

[S. O. 396, Special Permit 219]

RECONSIGNMENT OF CAR AT ST. LOUIS, MO.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by paragraph (f) of the first ordering paragraph of Service Order No. 396 (10 F. R. 15008), permission is granted for any common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act:

To disregard entirely the provisions of Service Order No. 396 insofar as it applies to the reconsignment at St. Louis, Mo., June 17, 1947, by National Produce Company, of car MDT 7143, now on the Wabash to Chicago, Ill. (Wab).

The waybill shall show reference to this special permit.

A copy of this special permit has been served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and notice of this permit shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 17th day of June 1947.

UNLOADING OF MACHINERY AT AMERICUS, GA.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of June A. D. 1947.

It appearing, that 2 cars containing tractors, plows and cultivators at Americus, Ga., on the Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company, have been on hand for an unreasonable length of time, and that the delay in unloading said cars is impeding their use; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action. It is ordered, that:

(a) Machinery at Americus, Ga., be unloaded. The Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company, its agents or employees, shall unload immediately cars PRR 61316 and ACL 55835, loaded with farm implements, now on hand refused at Americus, Ga., consigned Order Ellinwood Industries Notify Sheffield Company.

(b) Demurrage. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall charge or demand or collect or receive any demurrage or storage charges, for the detention under load of any car specified in paragraph (a) of this order, for the detention period commencing at 7:00 a. m., June 23, 1947, and continuing until the actual unloading of said car is completed.

(c) Provisions suspended. The operation of any or all rules, regulations, or practices, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order, is hereby suspended.

(d) Notice and expiration. Said carrier shall notify V. C. Clinger, Director, Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., when it has completed the unloading required by paragraph (a) hereof, and such notice shall specify when, where, and by whom such unloading was performed. Upon receipt of that notice this order shall expire.

It is further ordered, that this order shall become effective immediately; that a copy of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

FEDERAL WATER AND GAS CORP. AND SCRANTON-SPRING BROOK WATER SERVICE CO.

ORDER EXTENDING TIME FOR CONSUMMATION OF SALE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 18th day of June A. D. 1947.

The Commission on April 9, 1947, having permitted to become effective a declaration regarding the sale by Federal Water and Gas Corporation to Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company of 975 shares of common stock, par value $50 per share, of the Winton Water Company for a cash consideration of $75,000, subject, however, to the condition that said sale be consummated within sixty days after said date; Federal Water and Gas Corporation and Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company having requested that the time within which to consummate the sale be extended for sixty days for the reason that the required application to the Public Utility Commission of the State of Pennsylvania has not as yet been filed; and it appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate to grant said request;

It is hereby ordered, That said request be, and the same hereby is, granted.

AMERICAN WATER WORKS AND ELECTRIC CO., INC.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 18th day of June A. D. 1947.

American Water Works and Electric Company, Incorporated, ("American"), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration, with an amendment thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and certain rules and regulations promulgated thereunder regarding the following transaction:

American proposes to make a capital contribution of $125,000 in cash to its direct subsidiary, Joplin Water Works Company ("Joplin"). This capital contribution is to be added by American to its investment in the common stock of Joplin (10,000 shares, no par value, the total issue outstanding), and is to be credited by Joplin to its capital surplus. It is represented that Joplin is to use this cash, together with other corporate funds of Joplin, to carry out a construction program. It is stated that no expenses are to be incurred in connection with the proposed transaction.

The declaration was filed on May 15, 1947, and the amendment thereto on May 20, 1947. Notice of this filing was duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to the act, and the Commission has not received a request for a hearing with respect thereto, within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and has not ordered a hearing thereon.

The Commission finding with respect to this declaration that there is no basis for any adverse findings under he applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder, deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said declaration be permitted to become effective, and further deeming it appropriate to grant the request of declarant that this order be effective upon issuance;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to said Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that this declaration be, nd the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith,

By the Commission.

§ 251.105 Eligible wheat. Eligible wheat shall be wheat which meets the following requirements:

(a) Such wheat must be produced in 1947 by an eligible producer, or wheat represented by a "Certificate of Indemnity" (Form FCI–574, Revised), issued by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation to an eligible producer.

(b) The beneficial interest in the wheat must be in the person tendering the wheat for a loan or purchase and must always have been in him, or must have been in him and a former producer whom he succeeded before the wheat was harvested.

(c) Such wheat must be (1) wheat of any class grading No. 3 or better; or (2) wheat of any class grading No. 4 or 5 solely on the factor of test weight but otherwise grading No. 3 or better. (If the wheat is warehouse stored, the quality of the wheat must be evidenced by a statement of the warehouseman on the warehouse receipt, the inspection certificate, or the warehouseman's supplemental certificate substantially as follows: "This wheat grades No. -- solely because of test weight."); or (3) wheat of the class mixed wheat, consisting only of mixtures of grades of wheat which are eligible for loans as stated in (1) or (2) of this paragraph provided such mixtures are the natural products of the field.

(d) If such wheat is of the class hard red spring, durum, or red durum, it shall contain not more than 14½ percent moisture, and if it is of any other class it shall contain not more than 14 percent moisture.

(e) In order to be eligible for a loan, wheat stored on the farm must have been stored in the granary at least 30 days prior to its inspection for measurement, sampling, and sealing, unless otherwise approved by field offices of PMA.

§ 251.106 Eligible storage. Eligible storage for wheat shall meet the following requirements:

(a) Under the loan program eligible farm storage shall consist of farm bins and granaries which, as determined by the county committee, are of such substantial and permanent construction as to afford safe storage of the wheat for a period of 2 years, permit effective fumigation for the destruction of insects, and afford protection against rodents, other animals, thieves, and weather.

(b) Under the loan and purchase agreement program, eligible warehouse storage shall consist of (1) public grain warehouses for which a Uniform Grain Storage Agreement (CCC Form H, revised June 1, 1946) has been executed (Warehousemen desiring approval may communicate with the Grain Branch office serving the area in which the warehouse is located.); or (2) warehouses of eastern common carriers operating under tariffs approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission. A list of approved warehouses will be furnished State offices and county committees.

(c) Under the purchase agreement program, wheat stored in other than eligible warehouse storage will be purchased on a delivered basis.

§ 251.107 Approved forms. The approved forms constitute the loan and purchase agreement documents which, together with the provisions of §§ 251.101 to 251.125, inclusive, govern the rights and responsibilities of the producer, and should be read carefully. Any fraudulent representation made by a producer in obtaining a loan or purchase agreement, or in executing any of the loan or purchase agreement documents, will render him subject to prosecution under the United States Criminal Code.

Notes and chattel mortgages, and note and loan agreements, must be dated prior to January 1, 1948, and must be executed in accordance with §§ 251.101 to 251.125, inclusive, with State and documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto where required by law. Purchase agreements must be dated prior to January 1, 1948. Notes and chattel mortgages, note and loan agreements, and purchase agreements executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee will be acceptable only where legally valid.

(a) Farm storage loans. Approved forms shall consist of producers' notes on CCC Commodity Form A, secured by chattel mortgages on CCC Commodity Form AA.

(b) Warehouse storage loans. Approved forms shall consist of note and loan agreements on CCC Commodity Form B, secured by negotiable warehouse receipts representing the wheat stored in approved warehouses. All wheat pledged as security for a loan on a single CCC Commodity Form B must be stored in the same warehouse.

(c) Purchase agreement program. Approved forms shall consist of the Purchase Agreement (CCC Purchase Form 1) signed by the producer and approved by the county committee, negotiable warehouse receipts, and such other forms as may be prescribed by the Director, Grain Branch, PMA.

(d) Warehouse receipts. Wheat in eligible warehouse storage under the loan and purchase agreement program must be represented by warehouse receipts which satisfy the following requirements:

(1) Warehouse receipts must be issued in the name of the producer, must be properly endorsed in blank so as to vest title in the holder, and must be issued by an approved warehouseman.

(2) Each warehouse receipt should set forth in its written terms that the wheat is insured for not less than market value against the hazards of fire, lightning, inherent explosion, windstorm, cyclone, and tornado, or, in lieu of this statement, it must have stamped or printed thereon the word "Insured."

(3) The wheat represented by each warehouse receipt must be free of all liens for charges prior to unloading in or delivery to the warehouse. Liens for warehouse charges will be recognized by CCC only from May 15, 1947, or the date of the warehouse receipt, whichever is later.

(4) Warehouse receipts must set forth in the written or printed terms the gross weight or bushels, grade, and subclass, and such other information as is required by the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act.

(5) Each warehouse receipt, or the warehouseman's supplemental certificate (in duplicate) properly identified with the warehouse receipt, must show the test weight, protein content (if determined by protein analysis), degree or percentage of smut, garlic and dockage, and must also show the moisture content except in the States of California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming. (In those areas where moisture content is required, but it is not customary for country warehousemen to determine the exact moisture percentage, a warehouse receipt representing wheat stored in a country warehouse will be accepted if the moisture content is not shown, provided the grade of wheat does not show the word "tough." In such cases the warehouseman will be responsible for delivering wheat which does not grade "tough" or "sample" due to moisture content.)

(6) In the case of warehouse receipts issued for wheat delivered by rail or barge, CCC will accept inbound weight and inspection certificates and protein certificates properly identified with the wheat covered thereby in lieu of the information required by subparagraph (5) of this paragraph. In the States of California, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Washington, and in other areas where licensed inspectors are not available at terminal and subterminal warehouses, CCC will accept inspection certificates based on representative samples which have been forwarded to and graded by licensed grain inspectors. The official inbound weight and inspection certificates must represent wheat unloaded in the warehouse issuing said receipt.

(7) In the case of warehouse receipts issued for wheat delivered by rail or barge, the protein content, as determined by a recognized protein testing laboratory, must be shown on each warehouse receipt (or supplemental certificate accompanying the warehouse receipt) representing wheat of the subclasses of hard red spring and hard red winter and of the subclass hard white wheat, except that protein content need not be shown for the subclasses hard winter and yellow hard winter produced in States or areas tributary to markets where a showing of protein content is not customarily required.

§ 251.108 Determination of quantity. Loans and purchases will be made at values expressed in cents per bushel. A bushel will be 60 pounds of wheat free of dockage, when determined by weight, or 1.25 cubic feet of wheat testing 60 pounds per bushel when determined by measurement. A deduction of $\frac{3}{4}$ of a pound for each sack will be made in determining the net quantity of the wheat when stored as sacked grain. In determining the quantity of wheat in farm storage by measurement, fractional pounds of the test weight per bushel will be disregarded, and the quantity determined as above will be the following percentages of the quantity determined for 60-pound wheat:

For wheat testing—	Percent
65 pounds or over	108
64 pounds or over, but less than 65 pounds	107
63 pounds or over, but less than 64 pounds	105
62 pounds or over, but less than 63 pounds	103
61 pounds or over, but less than 62 pounds	102
60 pounds or over, but less than 61 pounds	100
59 pounds or over, but less than 60 pounds	98
58 pounds or over, but less than 59 pounds	97
57 pounds or over, but less than 58 pounds	95
56 pounds or over, but less than 57 pounds	93
55 pounds or over, but less than 56 pounds	92
54 pounds or over, but less than 55 pounds	90
53 pounds or over, but less than 54 pounds	88
52 pounds or over, but less than 53 pounds	87
51 pounds or over, but less than 52 pounds	85
50 pounds or over, but less than 51 pounds	83

§ 251.109 Determination of dockage, smut, and garlic. The percentage of dockage shall be determined in accordance with the Official Grain Standards of the United States and the weight of said dockage shall be deducted from the gross weight of the wheat in determining the net quantity available for loan or purchase.

In the States of California, Idaho, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Washington, the quantity of smut shall be stated in percentage in accordance with the method set out in paragraph (a) under "smutty wheat" in the current handbook of the Official Grain Standards of the United States, and shall be stated in terms of half percent, whole percent, or whole and half percent, and the quantity of smut so determined in pounds shall be deducted from the weight of the wheat after deduction of dockage. Elsewhere the smut condition of the wheat shall be determined on a degree basis in accordance with paragraph (b) under "smutty wheat," Official Grain Standards of the United States. Where applicable, the words "light smutty" or "smutty" shall be added to, and made a part of, the grade designation.

The garlic condition of the wheat shall be determined in accordance with the Official Grain Standards of the United States, and such condition shall be made a part of the grade designation by addition of the words "light garlicky" or the word "garlicky" as determined under such standards.

§ 251.110 Liens. The wheat must be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, or if liens or encumbrances exist on the wheat, proper waivers must be obtained.

§ 251.111 Service fees—(a) Loans. Where the wheat under loan is farm-stored, the producer shall pay a service fee of 1 cent per bushel, and where the wheat under loan is warehouse-stored, the producer shall pay a service fee of $\frac{1}{2}$ cent per bushel.

(b) Purchase agreement. At the time the producer applies for a purchase agreement he shall pay a preliminary minimum service fee of $1.50. In addition, where delivery of wheat is made under the purchase agreement, the producer shall pay a service fee of $\frac{1}{2}$ cent per bushel on each bushel of wheat delivered in excess of 300 bushels.

§ 251.112 Set-offs. A producer who is listed on the county debt register as indebted to any agency or corporation of the United States Department of Agriculture shall designate the agency or corporation to which he is indebted as the payee of the proceeds of the loan or purchase agreement to the extent of such indebtedness, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of the service fees and amounts due prior lien holders. Indebtedness owing to CCC shall be given first consideration after claims of prior lien holders.

§ 251.113 Loan rates and purchase price—(a) Loan rates. Loan rates and settlement values for the designated grades and subclasses will be set out in 1947 CCC Wheat Bulletin 1, Supplements 1 and 2.

(b) Purchase price. The price paid for wheat delivered under a purchase agreement shall be the applicable loan value established for the wheat at the approved point of delivery.

§ 251.114 Interest rate. Loans shall bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum, and interest shall accrue from the date of disbursement of the loan, notwithstanding the printed provisions of the note.

§ 251.115 Transfer of producer's equity. The right of the producer to transfer either his right to redeem the wheat under loan or his remaining interest may be restricted by CCC.

§ 251.116 Safeguarding of the wheat. The producer who places the wheat under loan is obligated to maintain the farm storage structures in good repair, and to keep the wheat in good condition.

§ 251.117 Insurance. CCC will not require the producer to insure the wheat placed under farm storage loan; however, if the producer does insure such wheat, such insurance shall inure to the benefit of CCC to the extent of its interest, after first satisfying the producer's equity in the wheat involved in the loss.

§ 251.118 Loss or damage to the wheat. The producer is responsible for any loss in quantity or quality to the wheat placed under farm storage loan, except that uninsured physical loss or damage occurring without fault, negligence, or conversion on the part of the producer, and resulting solely from an external cause other than insect infestation or vermin, will be assumed by CCC, provided the producer has given the county committee immediate notice in writing of such loss or damage, and provided there has been no fraudulent representation made by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan.

§ 251.119 Personal liability. The making of any fraudulent representation by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan, or the conversion or unlawful disposition of any portion of the wheat by him, shall render the producer personally liable for the amount of the loan and for any resulting expense incurred by any holder of the note.

§ 251.120 Maturity and satisfaction—(a) Loans. Loans mature on demand but not later than April 30, 1948. In the case of farm storage loans, the producer is required to pay off his loan on or before maturity date, or to deliver the mortgaged wheat within 60 days after maturity date. Credit will be given for the total quantity of wheat delivered, provided it was stored in the bins in which the wheat under loan was stored, at the applicable settlement value, according to grade and/or quality. If the settlement value of the wheat delivered exceeds the amount due on the loan, the amount of the excess shall be paid to the producer. If the settlement value of the wheat is less than the amount due on the loan, the amount of the deficiency, plus interest, shall be paid by the producer to CCC, or may be set off against any payment which would otherwise be made to the producer under any agricultural programs administered by the Secretary of Agriculture, or any other payments which are due or may become due to the producer from CCC or any other agency of the United States. In the event the farm is sold or there is a change of tenancy, the wheat may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan upon prior approval by the county committee. In the case of warehouse-storage loans, if the producer does not repay his loan by maturity, CCC shall have the right to sell or pool the wheat in satisfaction of the loan in accordance with the provisions of the note and loan agreement and § 251.121.

(b) Purchase agreements. The producer who signs a Purchase Agreement (CCC Purchase Form 1) shall not be obligated to deliver any specified quantity of wheat to CCC. If the producer who signs a purchase agreement wishes to sell wheat to CCC, he shall, within 30 days from the maturity date shown on the loan notes, or such earlier date as demand for payment of loan notes may be made, submit eligible warehouse receipts representing wheat stored in eligible warehouse storage to the county committee for the quantity of such wheat he elects to sell to CCC, or, in the case of wheat stored in other than eligible warehouse storage, he shall notify the county committee of his intention to sell and request delivery instructions. The producer must then complete delivery within a 15-day period immediately following the date the county committee issues delivery instructions, unless the county committee determines more time is needed for delivery. Delivery shall be made to an approved warehouse, or as otherwise directed by the Administrator of PMA, or his designee. When delivery is completed, payment shall be made as prescribed by the Administrator of PMA. The producer shall direct to whom payment of the purchase price will be made.

In the case of wheat stored in eligible warehouse storage, purchases will be made on the basis of the weight, grade, protein content, and other quality factors shown on the warehouse receipts and accompanying documents. Wheat delivered from other than eligible warehouse storage will be purchased on the basis of official weight, grade, protein content, and other quality factors at destination, or on the basis of official weight at destination and official grade, protein content, and other quality factors at the inspection point shown on the shipping order furnished the producer, which unless otherwise agreed shall be the customary location, on the route of shipment, of an inspector licensed under the United States Grain Standards Act; or, if such wheat is delivered to a local CCC bin site, on the basis of the weight, grade, protein content, and other quality factors determined by the county committee (in accordance with instructions for the determination of such factors under the loan program) and approved by the producer at the time of delivery.

§ 251.121 Removal of the wheat under loan. If the loan is not satisfied upon maturity by payment or delivery, the holder of the note may remove the wheat and sell it, either by separate contract or after pooling it with other lots of the same wheat similarly held. The producer has no right of redemption after the wheat is pooled, but shall share ratably in any overplus remaining upon liquidation of the pool. CCC shall have the right to treat the pooled wheat as a reserve supply to be marketed under such sales policies as CCC determines will promote orderly marketing, protect the interests of producers and consumers, and not unduly impair the market for the current crop of the wheat even though part or all of such pooled wheat is disposed of under such policies at prices less than the current domestic price for such wheat. Any sum due the producer as a result of the sale of the wheat or of insurance proceeds thereon, or any ratable share resulting from the liquidation of a pool, shall be payable only to the producer without right to assignment by him.

§ 251.122 Release of the wheat under loan. A producer may at any time obtain release of the wheat under loan by paying to the holder of the note, or note and loan agreement, the principal amount thereof, plus interest. If the note is held by an out-of-town lending agency or by CCC, the producer may request that the note be forwarded to a local bank for collection. In such case, where CCC is the holder of the note, the local bank will be instructed to return the note if payment is not effected within 15 days. All charges in connection with the collection of the note shall be paid by the producer. Upon payment of a farm storage loan, the county committee should be requested to release the mortgage by filing an instrument of release or by a marginal release on the county records. Partial releases of the wheat may be arranged with the county committee by paying to the holder of the note the amount of the loan plus charges and accrued interest, represented by the quantity of the wheat to be released. In case of warehouse storage loans, each partial release must cover all the wheat under one warehouse receipt number.

§ 251.123 Storage allowance—(a) Warehouse-stored loans. Under the loan program, CCC will assume accrued warehouse charges on wheat in eligible warehouse storage.

(b) Farm-stored loans. A farm storage payment of 7 cents per bushel will be paid to the producer (1) on wheat delivered to CCC on or after April 30, 1948, or (2) on wheat delivered to CCC prior to April 30, 1948, pursuant to demand by CCC for repayment of the loan. If delivery is made prior to April 30, 1948, upon request by the producer and with the approval of CCC, the storage payment will be 6 cents per bushel if the wheat is delivered during the month of April 1948; 5 cents per bushel if the wheat is delivered during the month of March 1948; 4 cents per bushel if the wheat is delivered during the month of February 1948; 3 cents per bushel if the wheat is delivered during the month of January 1948; and 2 cents per bushel if the wheat is delivered prior to January 1, 1948. Earned storage shall be computed after delivery has been completed.

No storage payment will be made on wheat delivered to CCC prior to April 30, 1948, pursuant to demand by CCC for the repayment of a loan if such demand for repayment was due to any fraudulent representation on the part of the producer or the fact that the wheat was damaged, threatened with damage, abandoned, or otherwise impaired.

In the case of losses assumed by CCC under the loan program, CCC will pay the producer the full storage payment of 7 cents per bushel for the wheat lost.

(c) Purchase agreements. Under the purchase agreement program, CCC will assume accrued warehouse charges on wheat in eligible warehouse storage, or make a payment of 7 cents per bushel to the producer on wheat in such storage if it is shown that all warehouse charges other than receiving charges have been paid by the producer up to the time he submits the warehouse receipt to the county committee. A payment of 7 cents per bushel will be made to the producer on wheat delivered from other than eligible warehouse storage pursuant to delivery instructions issued by the county committee.

(d) Track-loaded wheat. Under the loan and purchase agreement program a payment of 2 cents per bushel will be made to the producer by CCC on wheat delivered on track at a country point.

§ 251.124. Purchase of notes. CCC will purchase, from approved lending agencies, notes evidencing approved loans which are secured by chattel mortgages or negotiable warehouse receipts. The purchase price to be paid by CCC will be the principal sums remaining due on such notes, plus accrued interest from the date of disbursement to the date of purchase at the rate of $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent per annum. Lending agencies are required to submit a weekly report to CCC and to the county committees on 1940 CCC Form F, or such other form as CCC may prescribe, of all payments received on producers' notes held by them, and they are required to remit promptly to CCC an amount equivalent to $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent interest per annum on the amount of the principal collected from the date of disbursement to the date of payment. Lending agencies should submit notes and reports to the Grain Branch office serving the area.

PART 904—MILK IN GREATER BOSTON, MASS., MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (7 U. S. C., 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area, hereinafter referred to as the "order", it is hereby found and determined that:

(1) Subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of subparagraph (1) of § 904.6 (a) of the order and the entire table contained in subdivision (iv) of said subparagraph, with the exception of the words "Class I Price (dollars per cwt.)" and the figure or price "4.77", do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to all milk subject to the provisions of the order during the month of July 1947; and

(2) It is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to comply with the specific notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Public Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237) in that the time intervening between the date when the conditions necessitating the foregoing finding became apparent and July 1, 1947, is insufficient to permit compliance with such specific notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements, and in that any delay in the effective date of this action beyond July 1, 1947, will seriously jeopardize the orderly marketing of milk produced for the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, milk marketing area.

It is therefore ordered, That subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of subparagraph (1) of § 904.6 (a) of the order and the entire table contained in subdivision (iv) of said subparagraph, with the exception of the words "Class I Price (dollars per cwt.)" and the figure or price "4.77", be and they hereby are suspended with respect to all milk subject to the provisions of the order during the month of July 1947.

PART 934—MILK IN THE LOWELL-LAWRENCE, MASS., MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (7 U. S. C., 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, milk marketing area, hereinafter referred to as the "order", it is hereby found and determined that:

(1) Subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of subparagraph (1) of § 934.6 (a) of the order and the entire table contained in subdivision (iv) of said subparagraph, with the exception of the words "Class I Price (dollars per cwt.)" and the figure or price "5.21", do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to all milk subject to the provisions of the order during the month of July 1947, and

(2) It is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to comply with the specific notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Public Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237), in that the time intervening between the date when the conditions necessitating the foregoing finding became apparent and July 1, 1947, is insufficient to permit compliance with such specific notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements, and in that any delay in the effective date of this action beyond July 1, 1947, will seriously jeopardize the orderly marketing of milk produced for the Lowell-Lawrence, Massachusetts, milk marketing area.

It is therefore ordered, That subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of subparagraph (1) of § 934.6 (a) of the order and the entire table contained in subdivision (iv) of said subparagraph, with the exception of the words "Class I Price (dollars per cwt.)" and the figure or price "5.21", be and they hereby are suspended with respect to all milk subject to the provisions of the order during the month of July 1947.

PART 947—MILK IN THE FALL RIVER, MASS., MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (7 U. S. C., 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and of the order, as amended regulating the handling of milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, milk marketing area, hereinafter referred to as the "order", it is hereby found and determined that:

(1) Subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of paragraph (a) of § 947.4 of the order and the entire table contained in subparagraph (4) of said paragraph, with the exception of the words "Class I price (dollars per cwt.)" and the figure or price "5.52", do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to all milk subject to the provisions of the order during the month of July 1947; and

(2) It is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to comply with the specific notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Public Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237) in that the time intervening between the date when the conditions necessitating the foregoing finding became apparent and July 1, 1947, is insufficient to permit compliance with such specific notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements, and in that any delay in the effective date of this section beyond July 1, 1947, will seriously jeopardize the orderly marketing of milk produced for the Fall River, Massachusetts, milk marketing area.

It is therefore ordered, That subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of paragraph (a) of § 947.4 of the order and the entire table contained in subparagraph (4) of said paragraph with the exception of the words "Class I price (dollars per cwt.)" and the figure or price "5.52", be and they hereby are suspended with respect to all milk subject to the provisions of the order during the month of July 1947.

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Subtitle A—Organization, Functions, and Procedures

PART 2—ORGANIZATION, FUNCTIONS AND PROCEDURES OF AGENCIES DEALING WITH THE PUBLIC

JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT

Part 2, Subtitle A, Title 10 CFR (11 F. R. 177A-779), is hereby amended by inserting the following sections:

§ 2.81a Courts-martial. Rules of procedure (including modes of proof) and practice in cases before Army courts-martial and certain military commissions (See Articles of War (10 U. S. C. 1472-1593)) are contained in a volume known as "A Manual for Courts-Martial, U. S. Army, 1928 (Corrected to April 20, 1943)." This manual, published by direction of the President under authority contained in Article of War 38 (10 U. S. C. 1509) and Executive Order No. 4773, November 29, 1927, is available for inspection in the Office of The Judge Advocate General, Pentagon Building, Washington 25, D. C., to any interested person upon application, and may be obtained upon payment of reasonable fees from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

§ 2.88 Availability of records, opinions and orders—(a) Official records. Save as otherwise required by law, all matters of official record under the administrative supervision of the Office of The Judge Advocate General, other than information specifically held confidential (for good cause found), shall be available to persons properly and directly concerned therewith upon application to the Office of The Judge Advocate General, Pentagon Building, Washington 25, D. C.

(b) Final opinions or orders. Opinions which the Boards of Review render, unless held confidential for good cause found, are collected and bound in volumes known as "J. A. G. D. Board of Review Opinions." These bound opinions are available in the Office of The Judge Advocate General to any interested person upon application properly identifying the opinion desired to be inspected.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 51703]

PART 6—AIR COMMERCE REGULATIONS

REDESIGNATION OF HAVRE-HILL COUNTY AIRPORT, HAVRE, MONT.; JOHN G. HINDE AIRPORT, SANDUSKY, OHIO; AND WATERTOWN MUNICIPAL AIRPORT, WATERTOWN, N. Y.; AS AIRPORTS OF ENTRY WITHOUT TIME LIMIT

JUNE 20, 1947.

The Havre-Hill County Airport, Havre, Montana; the John G. Hinde Airport, Sandusky, Ohio; and the Watertown Municipal Airport, Watertown, New York, are hereby redesignated as airports of entry for civil aircraft and merchandise carried thereon arriving from places outside the United States, as defined in section 9 (b) of the Air Commerce Act of 1926 (U. S. C. title 49, sec. 179 (b)), effective June 1, 1947, without time limit.

The list of airports of entry in § 6.12, Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR, Cum. Supp., 6.12) as amended, is hereby further amended to include the locations and names of these airports. The list of temporary airports of entry in § 6.13, Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR, Cum. Supp., 6.13) as amended, is hereby further amended by deleting the locations, names, and dates and periods of designations of these airports.

Notice of the proposed redesignations of these airports as airports of entry without time limit was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 17, 1947 (12 F. R. 3229), pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative procedure Act (Public Law 404, 79th Congress). The redesignations of these airports shall be effective on June 1, 1947, the delayed effective date requirements of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act being dispensed with because of the expiration of the previous designations prior to the expiration of 30 days after the publication hereof. The redesignations of these airports are based on a determination that a sufficient need exists to justify such redesignations and the redesignations are made for the purpose of providing for convenient compliance with customs requirements.

PART 6—AIR COMMERCE REGULATIONS

DINNER KEY SEAPLANE BASE, MIAMI, FLA.; REVOCATION OF DESIGNATION AS AIRPORT OF ENTRY

JUNE 20, 1947.

The designation of the Dinner Key Seaplane Base, Miami, Florida, as an airport of entry for civil aircraft and merchandise carried thereon arriving from places outside the United States, as defined in section 9 (b) of the Air Commerce Act of 1926 (U. S. C. Title 49, sec. 179 (b)), is hereby revoked effective August 1, 1947.

The list of airports of entry in § 6.12, Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR, Cum. Supp., 6.12) as amended, is hereby further amended by deleting therefrom the location and name of said airport.

Notice of the proposed revocation of the designation of this airport as an airport of entry was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 17, 1947 (12 F. R. 3230), pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (Public Law 404, 79th Congress). The revocation is made for the reason that the site embracing the seaplane base is no longer available for the use of the owners and operators of seaplanes.

TITLE 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter I—Department of State

[Departmental Reg. DR-OR 5]

PART 1—FUNCTIONS AND ORGANIZATION

ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR FOREIGN SERVICE INSTITUTE

Under authority contained in R. S. 161 (5 U. S. C. 22), and pursuant to section 3 of the Administrative Procedure Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 238), Part 1 of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended by the addition of the following section:

§ 1.2511 Advisory Committee for the Foreign Service Institute. The Advisory Committee for the Foreign Service Institute is established by authority of Departmental Regulation 108.42 of March 7, 1947 (12 F. R. 1545).

(a) Purpose. To serve the Foreign Service Institute in an advisory capacity with respect to the programs, operations, and activities of the Institute.

(b) Major functions. The Committee performs the following functions:

(1) Advises the Director of the Institute as to the general character and scope of the training programs of the Institute.

(2) Reviews, not less than once each year, the operations of the Institute and makes recommendations as to its future operations.

(3) Gives such other advice and renders such services as may be requested by the Director General of the Foreign Service.

(c) Organization. The Committee is composed of the following members:

(1) The Director General of the Foreign Service (chairman).

(2) Two members of the United States Senate as may be appointed by the Vice President or the President pro tempore of the Senate.

(3) Two members of the United States House of Representatives as may be appointed by the Speaker of the House.

(4) Six members designated by the Secretary of State as follows:

(i) One official of the Department of State.

(ii) Two former ambassadors, Foreign Service officers, or Department of State officers.

(iii) Three private citizens distinguished in such fields as education, philanthropy, journalism, publishing, industry, banking, commerce, agriculture, or labor.

(d) Procedures. The Committee will be governed by the following procedures:

(1) The Director General of the Foreign Service will serve as permanent chairman of the Committee.

(2) Members of the Committee will serve without compensation, and members not officers of the Government of the United States or members of the United States Senate or of the House of Representatives will be designated as WOC consultants to the Department.

(3) Members attending meetings will receive traveling expenses in accordance with existing laws and regulations.

(4) The Committee will be called into session in Washington from time to time as determined by the Director General, or by decision of the Committee, but in no case will it meet less than once each year.

(5) The Director of the Foreign Service Institute, through the Director General, will keep members of the Committee currently informed of significant developments in the planning and operation of the Institute.

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

Chapter VIII—Office of Housing Expediter

[Housing Expediter Premium Payments Reg. 9, Amdt. 4]

PART 805—PREMIUM PAYMENTS REGULATIONS UNDER VETERANS' HOUSING ACT OF 1946

MERCHANT PIG IRON

Section 805.9 (Housing Expediter Premium Payments Regulation No. 9) is amended in the following respects:

1. In the Purpose and Findings, the third and fourth sentences are amended to read as follows: "The payment of a uniform rate of premium for the additional production of all plants in this industry is not feasible. For this reason one uniform rate is provided for operating and reopened plants and another uniform rate for closed plants."

2. Paragraphs (a) (3) to (a) (15), inclusive, are renumbered (a) (4) to (a) (16), inclusive, and a new paragraph (a) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) "Housing type items" means any item listed below, or any other item which in the judgment of the Expediter is needed in, or in connection with, the construction of house accommodations:

Cast iron soil pipe and fittings.
Cast iron pressure pipe and fittings.
Cast iron radiation.
Warm air furnaces, and floor and wall furnaces.
Bathtubs.
Lavatories.
Kitchen sinks, and sink and tray combinations.
Low pressure boilers for residential heating use.
Screwed pipe fittings.
Builders' hardware.
Electrical wiring devices.

3. Paragraph (a) (6) is amended to read as follows:

(6) "Reopened plant" means a plant which is not an operating plant but which produced merchant pig iron at any time during the period September 1, 1946 to June 30, 1947, inclusive.

4. Paragraphs (a) (7) to (a) (16), inclusive, are renumbered (a) (8) to (a) (17), inclusive, and a new paragraph (a) (7) is added to read as follows:

(7) "Closed plant" means a plant which is neither an operating plant nor a reopened plant.

5. Paragraphs (b) (1) to (b) (3), inclusive, are amended to read as follows:

(b) Establishment of quota. A separate quota shall be established for each plant and for each month during which this section remains in effect: Provided, however, That in the case of a producer with two or more plants, if the Expediter finds an application by the producer on Form NHA 14-98 that it is the producer's normal operating practice to shift a substantial portion of his production and/or shipments among any of his plants, the Expediter may establish a combined quota for such plants. Quotas shall be established as follows:

(1) For a closed plant, and, for an operating plant which produced no merchant pig iron in the period January 1, 1946 to August 31, 1946, inclusive, the quota for each month shall be zero.

(2) For a reopened plant, the quota for each month shall be determined by the Expediter on application.

(3) For an operating plant which produced merchant pig iron at any time during the period January 1, 1946 to August 31, 1946, inclusive, the quota for any month shall be determined in the following manner:

(i) Determine the month of highest production of merchant pig iron in the period January 1, 1946 to August 31, 1946, inclusive, compute 80% of the plant's production of merchant pig iron during that month and divide this figure by the total number of calendar days in that month.

(ii) If a plant produced merchant pig iron in at least three months during the period January 1, 1946 to August 31, 1946, inclusive, determine the plant's total production of merchant pig iron in the three months of highest production during that period and divide this figure by the total number of calendar days in those three months. If a plant produced merchant pig iron in only one or two months during the period January 1, 1946 to August 31, 1946, inclusive, determine the total production of merchant pig iron in such month or months and divide by the total number of calendar days therein.

(iii) The quota for any month is arrived at by multiplying the daily average as computed in subdivision (i) or (ii), whichever is lower, by the number of calendar days in that month.

6. Paragraphs (d) (1) to (d) (3), inclusive, are renumbered (d) (2) to (d) (4), inclusive, and a new paragraph (d) (1) is added to read as follows:

(d) Rate and computation of premium payments. (1) Premiums shall be payable with respect to shipments in excess of a plant's established quota: Provided, however, The Expediter may from time to time notify any plant that all or part of such over-quota shipments shall be made to designated producers of housing type items within a specified period of time, and in the event of such notification by the Expediter premiums shall be payable with respect to the over-quota shipments covered by such notification only to the extent that they have been made in accordance with the terms of such notification.

7. Paragraph (d) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) For shipments by an operating plant or by a reopened plant, a premium at the rate of $8 per gross ton shall be paid on all shipments of merchant pig iron during a month covered by a claim, which are in excess of the plant's established quota for that month.

8. Paragraph (j) is amended to read as follows:

(j) Termination. This section shall terminate on December 31, 1947. The Expediter may make any amendments which he finds necessary, but no substantive amendments will be made until after adequate notice to and discussion with the producers who have filed acceptances with the Expediter pursuant to paragraph (k) of this section: Provided, however, That no amendment shall be made which would terminate this section prior to December 31, 1947, except by reason of change in facts or conditions which, in the judgment of the Expediter, make the use of premium payments for the stimulation of additional production and shipments of merchant pig iron no longer necessary, and any termination on such basis shall not be effective until the end of at least one full calendar month following notice of the proposed termination to the producers who have filed acceptances with the Expediter pursuant to paragraph (k) of this section.

Termination of this section shall not preclude the filing of claims for payment during the month following such termination on account of shipments during the immediately preceding month; such claims shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this section in the same manner as if it had not been terminated.

9. Paragraph (k) is renumbered (l) and a new paragraph (k) is added to read as follows:

(k) Acceptance of premium payments plan. Any producer may signify his acceptance of the premium payments plan embodied in this section by filing with the Housing Expediter, Washington, D. C., an executed acceptance in substantially the following form:

In consideration of paragraph (j) of EPPR-9, amended June 26, 1947, and pursuant to paragraph (k) thereof, the undersigned hereby accepts the provisions of said regulation and agrees to use his best efforts, up to and including December 31, 1947, to make maximum over-quota shipments of merchant pig iron in accordance with said regulation.

Signature of producer

Date

10. Paragraph (l), formerly (k), is amended to read as follows:

(l) Effective date. This section as amended shall become effective June 26, 1947, but shall not be applicable to claims based upon shipments made prior to July 1, 1947.

(60 Stat. 207; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1821)

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter D—Employment Taxes

[T. D. 5566]

PART 402—EMPLOYEES' TAX AND EMPLOYERS' TAX UNDER THE FEDERAL INSURANCE CONTRIBUTIONS ACT

PART 403—EXCISE TAX ON EMPLOYERS UNDER THE FEDERAL UNEMPLOYMENT TAX ACT

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

On March 21, 1947, notice of proposed rule making, regarding the employment tax provisions of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946 (Pub. Law 719, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 978), approved August 10, 1946, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (12 F. R. 1892). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the proposal, the following amendments are hereby adopted. Such amendments are necessary in order to conform Regulations 106 (26 CFR Part 402), relating to the employees' tax and the employers' tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Subchapter A, Chapter 9, Internal Revenue Code), to sections 101, 102, 412 (a), and 413 of such Social Security Act Amendments of 1946, and Regulations 107 (26 CFR Part 403), relating to the excise tax on employers under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (Subchapter C, Chapter 9, Internal Revenue Code), to sections 302 to 305, inclusive, 412 (b), and 416 (b) of such Social Security Act Amendments of 1946, and are as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Immediately preceding the caption "Section 3797 (a) and (b) of the Internal Revenue Code" as set forth preceding § 402.201, the following is inserted:

SECTION 412 (a) OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Section 1426 (a) (1) of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1426 (a) (1)) is amended to read as follows:

(1) That part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 has been paid to an individual by an employer with respect to employment during any calendar year, is paid, prior to January 1, 1947, to such individual by such employer with respect to employment during such calendar year; or that part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 with respect to employment after 1936 has been paid to an individual by an employer during any calendar year after 1946, is paid to such individual by such employer during such calendar year;

PAR. 2. Section 402.201 is amended by inserting after paragraph (o) the following new paragraph:

(p) Social Security Act Amendments of 1946 means the act approved August 10, 1946 (Pub. Law 719, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 978).

PAR. 3. Immediately preceding § 402.227 the following is inserted:

SECTION 412 (a) OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Section 1426 (a) (1) of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1426 (a) (1)) is amended to read as follows:

(1) That part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 has been paid to an individual by an employer with respect to employment during any calendar year, is paid, prior to January 1, 1947, to such individual by such employer with respect to employment during such calendar year; or that part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 with respect to employment after 1936 has been paid to an individual by an employer during any calendar year after 1946, is paid to such individual by such employer during such calendar year;

PAR. 4. Section 402.227 (a) is amended by striking out the period at the end of the first sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "and as further amended by section 412 (a) of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946."

PAR. 5. Section 402.228 (a) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the first three sentences of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 402.228 Exclusions from wages—(a) $3,000 limitation—(1) In general. Section 1426 (a) (1) of the act provides an annual $3,000 limitation on the amount of remuneration that may constitute wages, by excepting from the term "wages" remuneration paid after $3,000 has been paid. Under such section as amended by section 412 (a) of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946, the amount first to be included in wages, after which the exception operates, is measured in two ways, depending on whether the remuneration is paid before 1947 or is paid after 1946. In the case of remuneration paid before 1947, the amount first to be included in wages is remuneration paid up to and including $3,000 for employment performed by an employee for his employer during each calendar year regardless of when paid (before 1947); and additional amounts for employment performed in such calendar year by such employee for such employer are excluded regardless of when paid (before 1947). In the case of remuneration paid after 1946, the amount first to be included in wages in each calendar year is remuneration up to and including $3,000 paid in the calendar year by an employer to an employee for employment performed at any time after December 31, 1936; and additional amounts paid in such calendar year by such employer to such employee are excluded regardless of when earned. In general, the change is from an "earned within the calendar year basis" to a "paid within the calendar year basis." For a more complete explanation of the limitation, see subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph.

(2) Remuneration paid before 1947. This subparagraph (2) (ending with Example 3) applies only with respect to remuneration paid before January 1, 1947.

The term "wages" does not include that part of the remuneration paid before January 1, 1947, by an employer to an employee for employment performed for him during any calendar year which exceeds the first $3,000 paid by such employer to such employee for employment performed during such calendar year.

In the case of remuneration paid before 1947, the $3,000 limitation applies only if the remuneration received by an employee from the same employer for employment during any one calendar year exceeds $3,000. The limitation in such case relates to remuneration for employment during any one calendar year and not to the amount of remuneration (irrespective of the year of employment) which is paid or received in any one calendar year.

(B) By inserting in the parenthetical matter in the third sentence of Example 1, immediately after the word "received" the following: "before January 1, 1947,".

(C) By striking out the clause, immediately following Example 1, "If the employee has more than one employer during a calendar year," and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "In the case of remuneration paid before 1947, if the employee has more than one employer during a calendar year,".

(D) By inserting at the beginning of the first and fifth sentences of Example 2 the following: "During 1940."

(E) By inserting immediately following the word "and" where it last appears in the first sentence of Example 3, the following: "during such year."

(F) By inserting immediately following Example 3 the following new subparagraph:

(3) Remuneration paid after 1946. This subparagraph (3) applies only with respect to remuneration paid after December 31, 1946.

The term "wages" does not include that part of the remuneration paid within any calendar year beginning after December 31, 1946, by an employer to an employee which exceeds the first $3,000 paid within such calendar year by such employer to such employee for employment performed for him at any time after December 31, 1936.

In the case of remuneration paid after 1946, the $3,000 limitation applies only if the remuneration received during any one calendar year by an employee from the same employer for employment performed after 1936 exceeds $3,000. The limitation in such case relates to the amount of remuneration received during any one calendar year for employment after 1936 and not to the amount of remuneration for employment performed in any one calendar year.

Example 1. Employee G, in 1947, receives $2,500 from employer H on account of $3,000 due him for employment performed in 1947. In 1948 G receives from employer H the balance of $500 due him for employment performed in the prior year (1947), and thereafter in 1948 also receives $3,000 for employment performed in 1948 for employer H. The $2,500 received in 1947 is subject to tax in 1947. The balance of $500 received in 1948 for employment during 1947 is subject to tax in 1948, as is also the first $2,500 paid of the $3,000 for employment during 1948 (this $500 for 1947 employment added to the first $2,500 paid for 1948 employment constitutes the maximum wages which could be received by G in 1948 from any one employer). The final $500 received by G from H in 1948 is not included as wages and is not subject to the tax.

Example 2. Employee I, in 1946, receives $3,000 from employer J on account of $6,000 due him for employment performed in 1946. In 1947, before receiving any remuneration for employment performed in 1947, employee I receives the balance of $3,000 due him from J on account of employment performed in 1946. The $3,000 received in 1946 constitutes wages in 1946 and is subject to the tax, in accordance with the provisions set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. The balance of $3,000 received in 1947 on account of employment in 1946 constitutes wages and is subject to the tax in 1947, in accordance with the provisions set forth in this subparagraph (3). The $3,000 received in 1947 for 1946 employment constitutes the maximum wages which could be received by I from J in 1947. Any further remuneration received in 1947 by employee I for services performed for J is not included as wages and is not subject to the tax, whether for services performed before, during, or after 1947. (Assuming the same amounts of remuneration and times of payment, the same result would be reached if employee I had left the employ of J and performed no further services for J after 1946.)

If during a calendar year (after 1946) the employee receives remuneration from more than one employer, the limitation of wages to the first $3,000 of remuneration received applies, not to the aggregate remuneration received from all employers with respect to employment performed after 1936, but instead to the remuneration received during such calendar year from each employer with respect to employment performed after 1936. In such case the first $3,000 received during the calendar year from each employer constitutes wages and is subject to the tax, even though, under section 1401 (d) of the act, the employee may be entitled to a refund of any amount of employees' tax deducted from his wages which exceeds the employees' tax with respect to the first $3,000 of wages received during the calendar year from all employers. (In this connection and in connection with the two examples immediately following, see § 402.705, relating to special refunds of employees' tax on wages over $3,000.)

Example 3. During 1947 employee K receives from employer L a salary of $600 a month for employment performed for L during the first seven months of 1947, or total remuneration of $4,200. At the end of the fifth month K has received $3,000 from employer L, and only that part of his total remuneration from L constitutes wages subject to the tax. The $600 received by employee K from employer L in the sixth month, and the like amount received in the seventh month, are not included as wages and are not subject to the tax. At the end of the seventh month K leaves the employ of L and enters the employ of M. K receives remuneration of $600 a month from employer M in each of the remaining five months of 1947, or total remuneration of $3,000 from employer M. The entire $3,000 received by K from employer M constitutes wages and is subject to the tax. Thus, the first $3,000 received from employer L and the entire $3,000 received from employer M constitute wages.

Example 4. During the calendar year 1947 N is simultaneously an officer (an employee) of the O Corporation, the P Corporation, and the Q Corporation and during such year receives a salary of $3,000 from each corporation. Each $3,000 received by N from each of the corporations O, P, and Q (whether or not such corporations are related) constitutes wages and is subject to the tax.

PAR. 6. Immediately preceding § 402.301, the following is inserted:

SECTION 101 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Clauses (1) and (2) of section 1400 of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1400), as amended, are amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to wages received during the calendar years 1939 to 1947, both inclusive, the rate shall be 1 per centum.

(2) With respect to wages received during the calendar year 1948, the rate shall be 2½ per centum.

PAR. 7. Section 402.302, as amended by Treasury Decision 5487, approved December 27, 1945, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 402.302 Rates and computation of employees' tax. The rates of employees' tax applicable for the respective calendar years are as follows:

	Percent
For the calendar years 1940 to 1947, both inclusive	1
For the calendar year 1948	2½
For the calendar year 1949 and subsequent calendar years	3

The employees' tax is computed by applying to the wages received by the employee the rate in effect at the time such wages are received.

Example. During 1947 A is an employee of B and is engaged in the performance of services which constitute employment (see § 402.203). In the following year, 1948, A receives from B $1,000 as remuneration for services performed by A in the preceding year. The tax is payable at the 2½ percent rate in effect for the calendar year 1948 (the year in which the wages are received) and not at the 1 percent rate which is in effect for the calendar year 1947 (the year in which the services were performed).

PAR. 8. Immediately preceding § 402.401 the following is inserted:

SECTION 102 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Clauses (1) and (2) of section 1410 of such act (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1410), as amended, are amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to wages paid during the calendar years 1939 to 1947, both inclusive, the rate shall be 1 per centum.

(2) With respect to wages paid during the calendar year 1948, the rate shall be 2½ per centum.

PAR. 9. Section 402.402, as amended by Treasury Decision 5487, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 402.402 Rates and computation of employers' tax. The rates of employers' tax applicable for the respective calendar years are as follows:

	Percent
For the calendar years 1940 to 1947, both inclusive	1
For the calendar year 1948	2½
For the calendar year 1949 and subsequent calendar years	3

The employers' tax is computed by applying to the wages paid by the employer the rate in effect at the time such wages are paid.

PAR. 10. Immediately preceding § 402.-705 the following is inserted:

SECTION 413 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Section 1401 (d) of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1401 (d)) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Special Refunds—(1) Wages received before 1947. If by reason of an employee rendering service for more than one employer during any calendar year after the calendar year 1939, the wages of the employee with respect to employment during such year exceed $3,000, the employee shall be entitled to a refund of any amount of tax, with respect to such wages, imposed by section 1400, deducted from such wages and paid to the collector, which exceeds the tax with respect to the first $3,000 of such wages received. Refund under this section may be made in accordance with the provisions of law applicable in the case of erroneous or illegal collection of the tax; except that no such refund shall be made unless (A) the employee makes a claim, establishing his right thereto, after the calendar year in which the employment was performed with respect to which refund of tax is claimed, and (B) such claim is made within two years after the calendar year in which the wages are received with respect to which refund of tax is claimed. No interest shall be allowed or paid with respect to any such refund. No refund shall be made under this paragraph with respect to wages received after December 31, 1946.

(2) Wages received after 1946. If by reason of an employee receiving wages from more than one employer during any calendar year after the calendar year 1946, the wages received by him during such year exceed $3,000, the employee shall be entitled to a refund of any amount of tax, with respect to such wages, imposed by section 1400 and deducted from the employee's wages (whether or not paid to the collector), which exceeds the tax with respect to the first $3,000 of such wages received. Refund under this section may be made in accordance with the provisions of law applicable in the case of erroneous or illegal collection of the tax; except that no such refund shall be made unless (A) the employee makes a claim, establishing his right thereto, after the calendar year in which the wages were received with respect to which refund of tax is claimed, and (B) such claim is made within two years after the calendar year in which such wages were received. No interest shall be allowed or paid with respect to any such refund.

PAR. 11. Section 402.705, as amended by Treasury Decision 5487, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the first sentence of the first paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 402.705 Special refunds on employees' tax on wages over $3,000—(a) In general. If an employee receives wages from more than one employer, his aggregate wages from all employers may exceed the annual $3,000 limitation on wages from a single employer provided by section 1426 (a) (1) of the act. (See § 402.228 (a), relating to the $3,000 limitation.) Section 1401 (d) of the act provides in certain cases for refund to an employee of a portion of the employees' tax in event of such an excess. By reason of the amendment of such section by section 413 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946, the conditions and limitations upon the refunds differ in certain respects, depending upon whether the tax, refund of which is claimed, is imposed with respect to wages received before 1947 or with respect to wages received after 1946.

(b) Wages received before 1947. This paragraph relates only to refunds, under section 1401 (d) (1) of the act, of employees' tax with respect to wages received before January 1, 1947. If, prior to 1947, an employee receives wages in excess of $3,000 from two or more employers for services performed during the calendar year 1940 or any subsequent calendar year, the employee may file a claim for refund of the amount, if any, by which the employees' tax deducted and paid to a collector with respect to such wages exceeds the employees' tax with respect to the first $3,000 of such wages.

(B) By striking out the words "Each claim" at the beginning of the third sentence of the first paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof "Each such claim".

(C) By inserting in the clause numbered (4) in the fourth sentence of the first paragraph, immediately after the word "year" where it first appears, the words "prior to 1947".

(D) By striking the word "section" wherever appearing therein from the last two sentences of the first paragraph, and inserting in lieu thereof "paragraph".

(E) By striking out the last paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Example 1. Employee A in the calendar year 1946 receives taxable wages in the amount of $2,000 from each of his employers, B, C, and D, for services performed during such year, or a total of $6,000. Employees' tax is deducted from A's wages and paid to the collector, in the amount of $20 by B and $20 by C, or a total of $40. Employer D pays employees' tax in the amount of $20 to the collector without deducting such tax from A's wages. The employees' tax with respect to the first $3,000 of such wages is $30. A may file a claim for refund of $10.

Example 2. Employee E in the calendar year 1946 performs employment for employers F and G, for which E is entitled to remuneration of $3,000 from each employer, or a total of $6,000. On account of such employment E in 1946 receives wages in the amount of $3,000 from F, and $2,000 from G; and on January 1, 1947, E receives the remaining $1,000 of wages from G. Employees' tax was deducted and paid to the collector as follows: in 1946, by employer F, $30, and by employer G, $20; and in 1947, by employer G, $10. Thus E, prior to January 1, 1947, received $5,000 in wages for services performed during the calendar year 1946, with respect to which wages $50 of employees' tax was deducted and paid to the collector. The amount of employees' tax with respect to the first $3,000 of such wages is $30. E may file a claim for refund of $20. (The $1,000 of wages received on January 1, 1947, and $10 of employees' tax with respect thereto, have no bearing on this claim because the wages were received after December 31, 1946; but if in 1947 E receives wages from one or more employers in addition to employer G, and the total wages received in such year from all employers exceeds $3,000, E may be entitled to another special refund of employees' tax. The determination in such case would include consideration of the $1,000 wages received on January 1, 1947, and the $10 of employees' tax with respect thereto, and such determination would be made under section 1401 (d) (2) of the act, which is dealt with in paragraph (c) of this section.)

(c) Wages received after 1946. This paragraph relates only to refunds, under section 1401 (d) (2) of the act, of employees' tax with respect to wages received after December 31, 1946. If, during any calendar year beginning after December 31, 1946, an employee receives wages in excess of $3,000 from two or more employers, the employee may file a claim for refund of the amount, if any, by which the employees' tax imposed with respect to such wages and deducted therefrom exceeds the employees' tax with respect to the first $3,000 of such wages. (See §§ 402.227 and 402.228, relating to wages.) Each such claim shall be made with respect to wages received within one calendar year (regardless of the year or years after 1936 during which the services are performed for which such wages are received). The employee shall submit with the claim, as a part thereof, a statement setting forth the following information, with respect to each employer from whom he received wages during the calendar year: (1) The name and address of such employer, (2) the account number of the employee and the employee's name as reported by the employer on his returns, (3) the amount of wages received during the calendar year to which the claim relates, (4) the amount of employees' tax, if any, deducted from such wages, and (5) the amount of such tax, if any, which has been refunded or otherwise returned to the employee. Other information may be required, but should be submitted only upon the receipt of a specific request therefor. The employee's claim shall be made on Form 843, in accordance with the regulations of this part and the instructions relating to such form, and shall be filed with the collector for the district in which the employee resides. No interest will be allowed or paid by the Government on the amount of any refund to which this paragraph relates.

No refund to which this paragraph relates will be made unless (1) the employee files a claim, establishing his right thereto, after the calendar year in which the wages are received with respect to which refund of tax is claimed, and (2) such claim is filed within two years after the calendar year in which such wages are received.

Example 1. Employee H in the calendar year 1947 receives taxable wages in the amount of $2,000 from each of his employers I, J, and K, for services performed during such year (or at any time after December 31, 1936), or a total of $6,000. Employees' tax is deducted from H's wages, in the amount of $20 by I and $20 by J, or a total of $40. Employer K pays employees' tax in the amount of $20 to the collector without deducting such tax from H's wages. The employees' tax with respect to the first $3,000 of such wages is $30. H may file a claim for refund of $10.

Example 2. Employee L in the calendar year 1947 performs employment for employers M and N, for which L is entitled to remuneration of $3,000 from each employer, or a total of $6,000. On account of such employment L in 1946 received an advance payment of $1,000 in wages from M; and in 1947 receives wages in the amount of $2,000 from M, and $3,000 from N. Employees' tax was deducted as follows: In 1946, $10 by employer M; and in 1947, $20 by employer M, and $30 by employer N. Thus L in the calendar year 1947 received $5,000 in wages, from which $50 of employees' tax was deducted. The amount of employees' tax with respect to the first $3,000 of such wages received in 1947 is $30. L may file a claim for refund of $20. (The $1,000 advance of wages received in 1946 from M, and $10 of employees' tax with respect thereto, have no bearing on this claim, because the wages were not received in 1947; and such amounts could not form the basis for a refund unless L prior to 1947 received from M and at least one more employer advance wages totalling more than $3,000 for employment to be performed during 1947, in which case L's right to refund would be determined under section 1401 (d) (1) of the act, which is dealt with in paragraph (b) of this section.)

PAR. 12. Immediately preceding the caption "Section 3797 (a) and (b) of the Internal Revenue Code" as set forth preceding § 403.201, the following is inserted:

SECTION 412 (b) OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Section 1607 (b) (1) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1607 (b) (1)) is amended to read as follows:

(1) That part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 has been paid to an individual by an employer with respect to employment during any calendar year, is paid after December 31, 1939, and prior to January 1, 1947, to such individual by such employer with respect to employment during such calendar year; or that part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 with respect to employment after 1938 has been paid to an individual by an employer during any calendar year after 1946, is paid to such individual by such employer during such calendar year;

SECTION 302 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

That part of section 1607 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, which reads as follows:

(c) Employment. The term "employment" means any service performed prior to January 1, 1940, which was employment as defined in this section prior to such date, and any service, of whatever nature, performed after December 31, 1939, within the United States by an employee for the person employing him, irrespective of the citizenship or residence of either, except—

is amended, effective July 1, 1946, to read as follows:

(c) Employment. The term "employment" means any service performed prior to July 1, 1946, which was employment as defined in this section as in effect at the time the service was performed; and any service, of whatever nature, performed after June 30, 1946, by an employee for the person employing him, irrespective of the citizenship or residence of either, (A) within the United States, or (B) on or in connection with an American vessel under a contract of service which is entered into within the United States or during the performance of which the vessel touches at a port in the United States, if the employee is employed on and in connection with such vessel when outside the United States, except—.

SECTION 303 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Section 1607 (c) (4) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, is amended, effective July 1, 1946, to read as follows:

(4) Service performed on or in connection with a vessel not an American vessel by an employee, if the employee is employed on and in connection with such vessel when outside the United States;

SECTION 304 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

(a) Section 1607 (c) (15) of such Code is amended by striking out "or" at the end thereof.

(b) Section 1607 (c) (16) of such Code is amended by striking out the period and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "; or".

(c) Section 1607 (c) of such Code is further amended by adding after paragraph (16) a new paragraph to read as follows:

(17) Service performed by an individual in (or as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel while it is engaged in) the catching, taking, harvesting, cultivating, or farming of any kind of fish, shellfish, crustacea, sponges, seaweeds, or other aquatic forms of animal and vegetable life (including service performed by any such individual as an ordinary incident to any such activity), except (A) service performed in connection with the catching or taking of salmon or halibut, for commercial purposes, and (B) service performed on or in connection with a vessel of more than ten net tons (determined in the manner provided for determining the register tonnage of merchant vessels under the laws of the United States).

(d) The amendments made by this section shall take effect July 1, 1946.

SECTION 305 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Section 1607 of such Code, as amended, is further amended, effective July 1, 1946, by adding after subsection (m) a new subsection to read as follows:

(n) American vessel. The term "American vessel" means any vessel documented or numbered under the laws of the United States; and includes any vessel which is neither documented or numbered under the laws of the United States nor documented under the laws of any foreign country, if its crew is employed solely by one or more citizens or residents of the United States or corporations organized under the laws of the United States or of any State.

SECTION 416 (b) OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

The last sentence of subsection (f) of section 1607 of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, as amended, is amended by striking out the period at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following: ": Provided, That an amount equal to the amount of employee payments into the unemployment fund of a State may be used in the payment of cash benefits to individuals with respect to their disability, exclusive of expenses of administration."

PAR. 13. Section 403.201 (26 CFR 403.201) is amended by inserting after paragraph (m) the following new paragraph:

(n) Social Security Act Amendments of 1946 means the act approved August 10, 1946 (Pub. Law 719, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 978).

PAR. 14. Immediately preceding the caption "Section 1607 (c) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, as enacted February 10, 1939" as set forth preceding § 403.202, the following is inserted:

SECTION 302 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

That part of section 1607 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, which reads as follows:

(c) Employment. The term "employment" means any service performed prior to January 1, 1940, which was employment as defined in this section prior to such date * * *

is amended, effective July 1, 1946, to read as follows:

(c) Employment. The term "employment" means any service performed prior to July 1, 1946, which was employment as defined in this section as in effect at the time the service was performed * * *

PAR. 15. Section 403.202, as amended by Treasury Decision 5519, approved June 14, 1946, is amended by striking out the first three sentences thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 403.202 Employment prior to January 1, 1940. Under the provisions of section 1607 (c) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, as amended, effective July 1, 1946, by section 302 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946, services performed prior to July 1, 1946, constitute employment if they were employment as defined in section 1607 (c) as in effect at the time the service was performed. The provision in effect prior to January 1, 1940, and therefore applicable to services performed prior to such date, is section 1607 (c) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act as originally enacted February 10, 1939, as modified by section 13 (a) of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act. Thus, services performed prior to January 1, 1940, within the United States by an employee for the person employing him, constitute employment within the meaning of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act in force on and after January 1, 1940, unless the services are excepted by section 1607 (c) as originally enacted, as modified by such section 13 (a).

PAR. 16. Immediately preceding § 403.-203 the following is inserted:

SECTION 302 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

That part of section 1607 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, which reads as follows:

(c) Employment. The term "employment" means * * * any service, of whatever nature, performed after December 31, 1939, within the United States by an employee for the person employing him, irrespective of the citizenship or residence of either, except—

is amended, effective July 1, 1946, to read as follows:

(c) Employment. The term "employment" means any service performed prior to July 1, 1946, which was employment as defined in this section as in effect at the time the service was performed; and any service, of whatever nature, performed after June 30, 1946, by an employee for the person employing him, irrespective of the citizenship or residence of either, (A) within the United States, or (B) on or in connection with an American vessel under a contract of service which is entered into within the United States or during the performance of which the vessel touches at a port in the United States, if the employee is employed on and in connection with such vessel when outside the United States, except—.

SECTION 305 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Section 1607 of such Code, as amended, is further amended, effective July 1, 1946, by adding after subsection (m) a new subsection to read as follows:

(n) American vessel. The term "American vessel" means any vessel documented or numbered under the laws of the United States; and includes any vessel which is neither documented or numbered under the laws of the United States nor documented under the laws of any foreign country, if its crew is employed solely by one or more citizens or residents of the United States or corporations organized under the laws of the United States or of any State.

PAR. 17. Section 403.203, as amended by Treasury Decision 5519, is amended to read as follows:

§ 403.203 Employment after December 31, 1939—(a) In general. Whether services performed on or after January 1, 1940, constitute employment is determined under section 1607 (c) of the act, that is, section 1607 (c), as amended, effective January 1, 1940, by section 614 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1939, and as amended, effective January 1, 1946, by section 4 (d) of the International Organizations Immunities Act, and as further amended, effective July 1, 1946, by sections 302, 303, and 304 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946. This section, and all sections of this Subpart B which follow (except §§ 403.227 and 403.228, relating to wages), apply with respect only to services performed after December 31, 1939. Such sections apply with respect to services performed at any time after such date, except those provisions thereof in which a different period of application is expressly stated. (For provisions relating to the circumstances under which services which do not constitute employment are nevertheless deemed to be employment, and relating to the circumstances under which services which constitute employment are nevertheless deemed not to be employment, see § 403.207. For provisions relating to the circumstances under which certain services with respect to which the collection of tax is prohibited are deemed not to be included within the term "employment" as used in the regulations in this part, see § 403.206. For provisions relating to services performed prior to January 1, 1940, see § 403.202.

(b) Services performed within the United States. Services performed on or after January 1, 1940, within the United States, that is, within any of the several States, the District of Columbia, or the Territory of Alaska or Hawaii, by an employee for the person employing him, unless specifically excepted by section 1607 (c) of the act, constitute employment within the meaning of the act. Services performed outside the United States, that is, outside the several States, the District of Columbia, and the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii (except certain services performed after June 30, 1946, on or in connection with an American vessel—see paragraph (c) of this section), do not constitute employment.

With respect to services performed within the United States, the place where the contract of service is entered into and the citizenship or residence of the employee or of the person employing him are immaterial. Thus, the employee and the person employing him may be citizens and residents of a foreign country and the contract of service may be entered into in a foreign country, and yet, if the employee under such contract actually performs services within the United States, there may be to that extent employment within the meaning of the act.

(c) Services performed outside the United States. Services performed on or after July 1, 1946, by an employee for the person employing him "on or in connection with" an American vessel outside the United States constitute employment: Provided:

(1) The employee is also employed "on and in connection with" such vessel when outside the United States; and

(2) The services are performed under a contract of service, between the employee and the person employing him, which is entered into within the United States, or during the performance of which the vessel touches at a port within the United States; and

(3) The services are not excepted under section 1607 (c) of the act. (See particularly § 403.226b, relating to fishing.)

An employee performs services on and in connection with the vessel if he performs services on the vessel which are also in connection with the vessel. Services performed on the vessel as officers or members of the crew, or as employees of concessionaires, of the vessel, for example, are performed under such circumstances, since such services are also connected with the vessel. Services may be performed on the vessel, however, which have no connection with it, as in the case of services performed by an employee while on the vessel merely as a passenger in the general sense. For example, the services of a buyer in the employ of a department store while he is a passenger on a vessel are not in connection with the vessel.

If services are performed by an employee "on and in connection with" an American vessel when outside the United States and conditions in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph are met, then the services of that employee performed on or in connection with the vessel constitute employment. The expression "on or in connection with" refers not only to services performed on the vessel but also to services connected with the vessel which are not actually performed on it (for example, shore services performed as officers or members of the crew, or as employees of concessionaires, of the vessel).

Services performed by a member of the crew or other employee whose contract of service is not entered into within the United States, and during the performance of which the vessel does not touch at a port within the United States, do not constitute employment, notwithstanding similar services performed by others on or in connection with the vessel may constitute employment.

The word "vessel" includes every description of watercraft, or other contrivance, used as a means of transportation on water. It does not include any type of aircraft.

The term "American vessel" means any vessel which is documented (that is, registered, enrolled, or licensed) or numbered in conformity with the laws of the United States. It also includes any vessel which is neither documented nor numbered under the laws of the United States, nor documented under the laws of any foreign country, if the crew of such vessel is employed solely by one or more citizens or residents of the United States or corporations organized under the laws of the United States or of any State (including the District of Columbia or the Territory of Alaska or Hawaii).

With respect to services performed outside the United States, the citizenship or residence of the employee is immaterial, and the citizenship or residence of the person employing him is material only in case it has a bearing in determining whether a vessel is an American vessel.

(d) Services performed for Bonneville Power Administrator. Notwithstanding any other provision of the regulations in this part, such services as constitute employment under section 1607 (m) of the act shall constitute employment within the meaning of the act and of these regulations (including § 403.205 relating to who are employers). Section 1607 (m) of the act relates to services performed after December 31, 1945, by a laborer, mechanic, or workman, in connection with construction work or the operation and maintenance of electrical facilities, as an employee of the United States employed through the Bonneville Power Administrator.

PAR. 18. Immediately preceding the caption "Section 5 (b) of the International Organizations Immunities Act", as inserted by Treasury Decision 5519 preceding § 403.206, the following is inserted:

SECTION 302 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

That part of section 1607 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, which reads as follows:

(c) Employment. The term "employment" means • • • any service, of whatever nature, performed after December 31, 1939, within the United States by an employee for the person employing him • • • except—

is amended, effective July 1, 1946, to read as follows:

(c) Employment. The term "employment" means any service performed prior to July 1, 1946, which was employment as defined in this section as in effect at the time the service was performed; and any service, of whatever nature, performed after June 30, 1946, by an employee for the person employing him • • • except—.

PAR. 19. Section 403.206, as amended by Treasury Decision 5519, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the period at the end of the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "and as further amended, effective July 1, 1946, by sections 302, 303, and 304 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946."

(B) By striking out the following sentences where they appear: "This section, § 403.207 (relating to included and excluded services), and §§ 403.208 to 403.226, inclusive (relating to certain classes of excepted services), apply with respect only to services performed on or after January 1, 1940. Section 403.226a, relating to an additional class of excepted services, applies with respect only to services performed on or after January 1, 1946." and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "This section, and the sections which follow it relating to included and excluded services and the several classes of excepted services, apply with respect to services performed at any time after December 31, 1939, except where a different period of application is expressly stated."

PAR. 20. In those provisions of law which read as follows:

The term "employment" means • • • any service, of whatever nature, performed after December 31, 1939, within the United States by an employee for the person employing him • • • except—where they appear preceding each section from § 403.208 to § 403.226a, both inclusive, the phrase "after December 31, 1939, within the United States" is stricken, and "• • •" is inserted in lieu thereof, so that such provisions of law read as follows:

The term "employment" means • • • any service, of whatever nature, performed • • • by an employee for the person employing him • • • except—

PAR. 21. Immediately preceding § 403.211 the following is inserted:

SECTION 303 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Section 1607 (c) (4) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, is amended, effective July 1, 1946, to read as follows:

(4) Service performed on or in connection with a vessel not an American vessel by an employee, if the employee is employed on and in connection with such vessel when outside the United States;

PAR. 22. Section 403.211 is amended to read as follows:

§ 403.211 Maritime services—(a) In general. Section 1607 (c) (4) of the act, as amended, effective January 1, 1940, by section 614 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1939, excepts service performed within the United States as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel on the navigable waters of the United States. Such exception, which is dealt with in paragraph (b), of this section, applies only with respect to services performed before July 1, 1946. Section 1607 (c) (4) of the act, as amended, effective July 1, 1946, by section 303 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946, excepts service performed within the United States on or in connection with a vessel not an American vessel by an employee, if the employee is employed on and in connection with such vessel when outside the United States. Such exception, which is dealt with in paragraph (c), of this section, applies only with respect to services performed on or after July 1, 1946. (For definitions of "vessel" and "American vessel," see § 403.203 (c).)

(b) Services performed prior to July 1, 1946. The expression "navigable waters of the United States" means such waters as are navigable in fact and which by themselves or their connection with other waters form a continuous channel for commerce with foreign countries or among the States.

The expression "officer or member of the crew" includes the master or officer in charge of the vessel, however designated, and every individual, subject to his authority, serving on board and contributing in any way to the operation and welfare of the vessel. The exception extends, for example, to services rendered by the master, mates, pilots, pursers, surgeons, stewards, engineers, firemen, cooks, clerks, carpenters, deck hands, porters, and chambermaids, and by seal hunters and fishermen on sealing and fishing vessels.

(c) Services performed after June 30, 1946. In order for services performed after June 30, 1946, within the United States "on or in connection with" a vessel not an American vessel to be excepted, the services must be performed by an employee who is also employed "on and in connection with" the vessel when outside the United States.

An employee performs services on and in connection with the vessel if he performs services on the vessel when outside the United States which are also in connection with the vessel. Services performed on the vessel outside the United States as officers or members of the crew, or as employees of concessionaires, of the vessel, for example, are performed under such circumstances, since such services are also connected with the vessel. Services may be performed on the vessel, however, which have no connection with it, as in the case of services performed by an employee while on the vessel merely as a passenger in the general sense. For example, the services of a buyer in the employ of a department store while he is a passenger on a vessel are not in connection with the vessel.

The expression "on or in connection with" refers not only to services performed on the vessel but also to services connected with the vessel which are not actually performed on it (for example, shore services performed as officers or members of the crew, or as employees of concessionaires, of the vessel).

The citizenship or residence of the employee and the place where the contract of service is entered into are immaterial for purposes of this exception, and the citizenship or residence of the person employing him is material only in case it has a bearing in determining whether the vessel is an American vessel.

Since the only services performed outside the United States which constitute employment are those described in § 403.203 (c) (relating to services performed outside the United States on or in connection with an American vessel), services performed outside the United States on or in connection with a vessel not an American vessel in any event do not constitute employment.

PAR. 23. The first sentence of § 403.213, as amended by Treasury Decision 5502, approved March 18, 1946, is amended by striking out "403.203 (b)" and inserting in lieu thereof "403.203 (d)".

PAR. 24. Immediately after § 403.226a, as added by Treasury Decision 5519, the following is inserted:

SECTION 1607 (c) (17) OF THE ACT

The term "employment" means • • • any service, of whatever nature, performed • • • by an employee for the person employing him • • • except—

(17) Service performed by an individual in (or as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel while it is engaged in) the catching, taking, harvesting, cultivating, or farming of any kind of fish, shellfish, crustacea, sponges, seaweeds, or other aquatic forms of animal and vegetable life (including service performed by any such individual as an ordinary incident to any such activity), except (A) service performed in connection with the catching or taking of salmon or halibut, for commercial purposes, and (B) service performed on or in connection with a vessel of more than ten net tons (determined in the manner provided for determining the register tonnage of merchant vessels under the laws of the United States). (Sec. 1607 (c) (17), I. R. C., as added, effective July 1, 1946, by sec. 304 (c), Social Security Act Amendments of 1946.)

§ 403.226b Fishing—(a) In general. Subject to the limitations prescribed in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the services performed on or after July 1, 1946, as described in this paragraph are excepted. Services performed by an individual in the catching, taking, harvesting, cultivating, or farming of any kind of fish, shellfish (for example, oysters, clams, and mussels), crustacea (for example, lobsters, crabs, and shrimps), sponges, seaweeds, or other aquatic forms of animal and vegetable life are excepted. The exception extends to services performed as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel while the vessel is engaged in any such activity whether or not the officer or member of the crew is himself so engaged. In the case of an individual who is engaged in any such activity in the employ of any person, the services performed, by such individual in the employ of such person, as an ordinary incident to any such activity are also excepted. Similarly, for example, the shore services of an officer or member of the crew of a vessel engaged in any such activity are excepted if such services are an ordinary incident to any such activity. Services performed as an ordinary incident to any such activity may include, for example, services performed in such cleaning, icing, and packing of fish as are necessary for the immediate preservation of the catch.

(b) Salmon and halibut fishing. Services performed in connection with the catching or taking of salmon or halibut, for commercial purposes, are not within the exception. Thus, neither the services of an officer or member of the crew of a vessel (irrespective of its tonnage) which is engaged in the catching or taking of salmon or halibut, for commercial purposes, nor the services of any other individual in connection with such activity, are within the exception.

(c) Vessels of more than 10 net tons. Services described in paragraph (a) of this section performed on or in connection with a vessel of more than 10 net tons are not within the exception. For purposes of the exception, the tonnage of the vessel shall be determined in the manner provided for determining the register tonnage of merchant vessels under the laws of the United States.

PAR. 25. Immediately preceding § 403.227, the following is inserted:

SECTION 412 (b) OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

Section 1607 (b) (1) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1607 (b) (1)) is amended to read as follows:

(1) That part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 has been paid to an individual by an employer with respect to employment during any calendar year, is paid after December 31, 1939, and prior to January 1, 1947, to such individual by such employer with respect to employment during such calendar year; or that part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 with respect to employment after 1938 has been paid to an individual by an employer during any calendar year after 1946, is paid to such individual by such employer during such calendar year;

PAR. 26. Section 403.227 (a) is amended by striking out the period at the end of the first sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "and as further amended by section 412 (b) of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946."

PAR. 27. Section 403.228 (a) is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the first three sentences of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 403.228 Exclusions from wages—(a) $3,000 limitation—(1) In general. Section 1607 (b) (1) of the act provides an annual $3,000 limitation on the amount of remuneration that may constitute wages, by excepting from the term "wages" remuneration paid after $3,000 has been paid. Under such section as amended by section 412 (b) of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946, the amount first to be included in wages, after which the exception operates, is measured in two ways, depending on whether the remuneration is paid before 1947 or is paid after 1946. In the case of remuneration paid before 1947, the amount first to be included in wages is remuneration paid up to and including $3,000 for employment performed by an employee for his employer during each calendar year regardless of when paid (before 1947); and additional amounts for employment performed in such calendar year by such employee for such employer are excluded regardless of when paid (before 1947). In the case of remuneration paid after 1946, the amount first to be included in wages in each calendar year is remuneration up to and including $3,000 paid in the calendar year by an employer to an employee for employment performed at any time after December 31, 1938; and additional amounts paid in such calendar year by such employer to such employee are excluded regardless of when earned. In general, the change is from an "earned within the calendar year basis" to a "paid within the calendar year basis." For a more complete explanation of the limitation, see subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph.

(2) Remuneration paid before 1947. This subparagraph (2) (ending with Example 3) applies only with respect to remuneration paid before January 1, 1947.

The term "wages" does not include that part of the remuneration paid before January 1, 1947, by an employer to an employee for employment performed for him during any calendar year which exceeds the first $3,000 paid by such employer to such employee for employment performed during such calendar year.

In the case of remuneration paid before 1947, the $3,000 limitation applies only if the remuneration paid to an employee by the same employer for employment during any one calendar year exceeds $3,000. The limitation in such case relates to remuneration for employment during any one calendar year and not to the amount of remuneration (irrespective of the year of employment) which is paid in any one calendar year.

(B) By inserting in the parenthetical matter in the third sentence of Example 1, immediately after the word "paid" where it last appears therein, the following: "before January 1, 1947,".

(C) By striking out the clause, immediately following Example 1, "If an employee has more than one employer during a calendar year," and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "In the case of remuneration paid before 1947, if an employee has more than one employer during a calendar year,".

(D) By inserting at the beginning of the first and fifth sentences of Example 2 the following: "During 1940".

(E) By inserting at the beginning of the second sentence of Example 3, the following: "During such year".

(F) By inserting immediately following Example 3 the following new subparagraph:

(3) Remuneration paid after 1946. This subparagraph applies only with respect to remuneration paid after December 31, 1946.

The term "wages" does not include that part of the remuneration paid within any calendar year beginning after December 31, 1946, by an employer to an employee which exceeds the first $3,000 paid within such calendar year by such employer to such employee for employment performed for him at any time after December 31, 1938.

In the case of remuneration paid after 1946, the $3,000 limitation applies only if the remuneration paid during any one calendar year by an employer to the same employee for employment performed after 1938 exceeds $3,000. The limitation in such case relates to the amount of remuneration paid during any one calendar year for employment after 1938 and not to the amount of remuneration for employment performed in any one calendar year.

Example 1. Employer H, in 1947, pays employee G $2,500 on account of $3,000 due him for employment performed in 1947. In 1948 employer H pays employee G the balance of $500 due him for employment performed in the prior year (1947), and thereafter in 1948 also pays G $3,000 for employment performed in 1948. The $2,500 paid in 1947 is subject to tax in 1947. The balance of $500 paid in 1948 for employment during 1947 is subject to tax in 1948, as is also the first $2,500 paid of the $3,000 for employment during 1948 (this $500 for 1947 employment added to the first $2,500 paid for 1948 employment constitutes the maximum wages which could be paid in 1948 by H to G). The final $500 paid by H to G in 1948 is not included as wages and is not subject to the tax.

Example 2. Employer J, in 1946, pays $3,000 to employee I on account of $6,000 due him for employment performed in 1946. In 1947 before paying any remuneration for employment performed in 1947 employer J pays to I the balance of $3,000 due employee I on account of employment performed in 1946. The $3,000 paid in 1946 constitutes wages in 1946 and is subject to the tax, in accordance with the provisions set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. The balance of $3,000 paid in 1947 on account of employment in 1946 constitutes wages and is subject to the tax in 1947 in accordance with the provisions set forth in this subparagraph (3). The $3,000 paid in 1947 for 1946 employment constitutes the maximum wages which could be paid by J to I in 1947. Any further remuneration paid in 1947 to employee I for services performed for J is not included as wages and is not subject to the tax, whether for services performed before, during, or after 1947. (Assuming the same amounts of remuneration and times of payment, the same result would be reached if employee I had left the employ of J and performed no further services for J after 1946.)

If during a calendar year (after 1946) an employee is paid remuneration by more than one employer, the limitation of wages to the first $3,000 of remuneration paid applies, not to the aggregate remuneration paid by all employers with respect to employment performed after 1938, but instead to the remuneration paid during such calendar year by each employer with respect to employment performed after 1938. In such case the first $3,000 paid during the calendar year by each employer constitutes wages and is subject to the tax.

Example 3. During 1947 employer L pays to employee K a salary of $600 a month for employment performed for L during the first seven months of 1947, or total remuneration of $4,200. At the end of the fifth month K has been paid $3,000 by employer L, and only that part of his total remuneration from L constitutes wages subject to the tax. The $600 paid to employee K by employer L in the sixth month, and the like amount paid in the seventh month, are not included as wages and are not subject to the tax. At the end of the seventh month K leaves the employ of L and enters the employ of M. Employer M pays to K remuneration of $600 a month in each of the remaining five months of 1947, or total remuneration of $3,000. The entire $3,000 paid by M to employee K constitutes wages and is subject to the tax. Thus, the first $3,000 paid by employer L and the entire $3,000 paid by employer M constitute wages.

Example 4. During the calendar year 1947 N is simultaneously an officer (an employee) of the O Corporation, the P Corporation, and the Q Corporation, each such corporation being an employer for such year. During such year N is paid a salary of $3,000 by each corporation. Each $3,000 paid to N by each of the corporations O, P, and Q (whether or not such corporations are related) constitutes wages and is subject to the tax.

PAR. 28. Immediately preceding § 403.401, the following is inserted:

SECTION 416 (b) OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1946

The last sentence of subsection (f) of section 1607 of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, as amended, is amended by striking out the period at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following: ": Provided, That an amount equal to the amount of employee payments into the unemployment fund of a State may be used in the payment of cash benefits to individuals with respect to their disability, exclusive of expenses of administration."

PAR. 29. This Treasury decision shall be effective on the 31st day after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 1429, 1609, 53 Stat. 178, 188, secs. 101, 102, 302-305, 412, 413, 416 (b), Pub. Law 719, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 978; 26 U. S. C. 1429, 1609)

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter II—Corps of Engineers, War Department

PART 203—BRIDGE REGULATIONS

PENNSYLVANIA-READING SEASHORE LINES RAILROAD BRIDGE, ACROSS OLDMANS CREEK NEAR PEDRICKTOWN, N. J.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894, (28 Stat. 362; 33 U. S. C. 499), the following § 203.222 is hereby prescribed to govern the operation of the Pennsylvania-Reading Seashore Lines railroad bridge across Oldmans Creek near Pedricktown, New Jersey:

§ 203.222 Oldmans Creek, N. J.; Pennsylvania-Reading Seashore Lines railroad bridge near Pedricktown. (a) The owner of or agency controlling this bridge will not be required to keep a draw tender in constant attendance.

(b) Whenever a vessel unable to pass under the closed bridge desires to pass through the draw, at least 24 hours' advance notice of the time the opening is required shall be given to the authorized representative of the owner or agency controlling the bridge.

(c) Upon receipt of such advance notice, the authorized representative shall, in compliance therewith, arrange for the prompt opening of the draw at the time specified in the notice for the passage of the vessel.

(d) The owner of or agency controlling the bridge shall keep conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides thereof, in such manner that it can easily be read at any time, a copy of these regulations together with a notice stating exactly how the representative specified in paragraph (b) of this section may be reached.

(e) The operating machinery of the draw shall be maintained in a serviceable condition, and the draw shall be opened and closed at intervals frequent enough to make certain that the machinery is in proper order for satisfactory operation. TITLE 42—PUBLIC HEALTH

Chapter I—Public Health Service, Federal Security Agency

PART 26—FELLOWSHIPS

Part 26, Fellowships, is superseded and a new Part 26 is hereby issued. The regulations heretofore constituting Part 26 related to followships established to carry out the act entitled "An act to authorize the President to render closer and more effective the relationship between the American Republics", approved August 9, 1939 (53 Stat. 1290). In accordance with provisions in appropriation acts (e. g., 59 Stat. 180) these Latin-American followships are now administered under regulations of the Department of State.

Sec.
26.1 Applicability.
26.2 Purpose of fellowships.
26.3 Establishment.
26.4 Types of fellowships.
26.5 Qualifications.
26.6 Applications for fellowships.
26.7 Review of applications for fellowships.
26.8 Appointments.
26.9 Benefits.
26.10 Tuition and other fees.
26.11 Allowances for special equipment.
26.12 Duration of fellowships.

AUTHORITY: §§ 26.1 to 26.12, inclusive, issued under secs. 208 (d), 301 (c), 402 (d), 58 Stat. 686, 692, 707; 42 U. S. C., Supp. 209 (d), 241 (c), 282 (d).

§ 26.1 Applicability. The regulations in this part apply to the establishment and award of all fellowships in the Public Health Service, except those financed under programs of the Department of State.[1]

§ 26.2 Purpose of fellowships. Fellowships in the Public Health Service are for the purpose of encouraging and promoting studies or investigations relating to the physical and mental diseases and impairments of man. Fellowships may be established (a) to provide assistance to individuals for advanced training in research, or for carrying out independent research, or (f) to obtain the assistance and services of individuals for research work of the Public Health Service where the nature of the work or the character of the individual's services render customary employment relationships impracticable or less effective.

§ 26.3 Establishment. All fellowships in the Public Health Service shall be established by the Surgeon General. In establishing a fellowship or series of fellowships, the Surgeon General shall in writing prescribe the conditions, in addition to those provided in the regulations in this part, under which the fellowships shall be awarded and held.

§ 26.4 Types of fellowships. Fellowships shall be of two general types: (a) Fellowships, hereafter referred to in this part as "regular fellowships", which do not require the performance of services for the Public Health Service and (b) fellowships, hereafter referred to in this part as "service fellowships", which require the performance of services, either full or part time, for the Public Health Service. At the time a fellowship, or series of fellowships, is established, the Surgeon General shall specify whether the fellowship requires the performance of services.

§ 26.5 Qualifications. Scholastic and other qualifications shall be prescribed by the Surgeon General for each fellowship, or series of fellowships. Each individual selected for appointment to a fellowship shall (a) possess the qualifications prescribed therefor; (b) be free from any disease or disability that would interfere with his carrying out the purposes of the fellowship; and (c) present satisfactory evidence of general suitability, including professional and personal fitness.

§ 26.6 Applications for fellowships. Candidates for fellowships shall make application therefor on forms prescribed by the Surgeon General for such purpose. In addition to the information supplied by a candidate in his application, such additional information may be required as may be necessary to determine his qualifications and fitness.

§ 26.7 Review of applications for fellowships. The Surgeon General shall appoint one or more Fellowship Boards to examine the qualifications of applicants for fellowships. A Fellowship Board shall report to the Surgeon General each candidate who it finds meets required qualifications, and shall include in such report its recommendations concerning his appointment.

§ 26.8 Appointments. Appointments to fellowships shall be made by the Surgeon General. Individuals designated to receive service fellowships shall be appointed as, and shall have the status of, employees of the Public Health Service.

§ 26.9 Benefits. Individuals awarded fellowships shall be entitled to:

(a) A stipend as fixed by the Surgeon General for the fellowship.

(b) Vacation and other leave as follows:

(1) Individuals appointed to service fellowships shall be entitled to leave as provided by law and regulations for other civilian employees of the Public Health Service.

(2) Individuals appointed to regular fellowships may be granted customary vacations as authorized by the school or other institution to which they are assigned, or, if they are located at a laboratory or other facility of the Federal Government, as authorized by the Surgeon General or by such other officers as the Surgeon General may designate.

(c) Traveling expenses as follows:

(1) Individuals appointed to service fellowships shall be entitled to transportation and subsistence expenses while traveling on official business on the same basis as other civilian employees of the Public Health Service.

(2) Individuals appointed to regular fellowships shall be entitled to transportation and subsistence expenses, not exceeding those authorized by the Standardized Government Travel Regulations, for travel required in carrying out the purposes of the fellowship when authorized by the Public Health Service.

§ 26.10 Tuition and other fees. Separate allowances will not be made for tuition fees, laboratory fees, textbook costs and similar fees or costs.

§ 26.11 Allowances for special equipment. Allowances may be made in individual cases for special equipment necessary in carrying out the purposes of a fellowship as recommended by a Fellowship Board and approved by the Surgeon General.

§ 26.12 Duration of fellowships. Appointments to fellowships shall be for varying periods, such as for a school year, but shall not exceed twelve months. Upon the recommendations of a Fellowship Board, the Surgeon General (a) may extend or renew an appointment; and (b) may terminate an appointment before its expiration date because of unsatisfactory performance or unfitness in carrying out the purposes of the fellowship.

[SEAL] THOMAS PARRAN,
Surgeon General.

[CGFR 47-35]

PART 146—TRANSPORTATION OR STORAGE OF EXPLOSIVES OR OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES OR SUBSTANCES AND COMBUSTIBLE LIQUIDS ON BOARD VESSELS

PART 147—USE OF DANGEROUS ARTICLES AS SHIPS' STORES AND SUPPLIES ON BOARD VESSELS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 101 of the Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946 (11 F. R. 7875), the following editorial amendments to the regulations are prescribed:

1. Sections 146.01-2, 146.01-5, 146.01-6 (first and second sentences), 146.02-22 (b), 146.05-11 (b) and (c), 146.06-17, 146.08-4 (c) (6), and 146.20-6 are amended by changing the term "Secretary of Commerce" to "Commandant of the Coast Guard."

2. Sections 146.02-14 (c) and (d), 146.02-15 (a) and (b), 146.02-16 (a) and (b), 146.20-25, 146.24-14 (a) and 146.27-100 (Table K: tank cars, empty; tank trucks, empty) are amended by changing the term "board of local inspectors" or the term "Local inspectors" to "Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection."

3. Sections 146.02-17, 146.05-2 (a), 146.05-6, and the center heading immediately preceding § 146.09-1 are amended by changing the word "Bureau" or term "Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation" to "U. S. Coast Guard."

4. Sections 146.01-1, 146.03-24, and 146.20-42 are amended by deleting the phrase "and the Philippine Islands" or the phrase "or the Philippine Islands."

5. Sections 146.20-25 and 146.24-14 (b) are amended by changing the reference "46 CFR 1.38, 136.3, and 137.3" to "46 CFR Part 136, and §§ 35.2-9, 62.16, 78.16, 96.16, or 115.16."

6. Sections 146.09-1 (b) and (c), 146.20-100 (Table A: nitroglycerin, liquid, fourth column), and § 146.23-13 (b), (f) (6), and (j) are amended by changing the word "Bureau" or the term "Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation" to "Commandant of the Coast Guard."

7. Section 146.20-100 (Table B: smokeless powder for small arms, fifth column) and § 146.24-100 (Table G: chlorine, fifth, sixth, and seventh columns) are amended by changing the phrase "Director, Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation" and the word "Director" to "Commandant of the Coast Guard" and "Commandant," respectively.

8. Section 146.02-6 is amended to read as follows:

§ 146.02-6 Enforcement. (a) The provisions of R. S. 4472, as amended, and the regulations in this subchapter shall be enforced by the U. S. Coast Guard of the Department of the Treasury. Enforcement officers may at any time and at any place within the jurisdiction of the United States board any vessel for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of the regulations in this subchapter.

(b) Any collector of customs may, when possessing knowledge that a vessel is violating any provisions of the statute or regulations established thereunder, by written order served on the master, person in charge of such vessel, or the owner or charterer thereof, or the agent of the owner or charterer, detain such vessel until such time as the provisions of the statute and the regulations in this subchapter have been complied with. The master, person in charge or owner or charterer or the agent of the owner or charterer of a vessel so detained may, within five days, appeal to the Commandant of the Coast Guard who may, after investigation, affirm, set aside, or modify the order of the collector.

9. Section 146.03-1 Board of local inspectors is deleted.

10. Section 146.03-2 Board of supervising inspectors is deleted.

11. Section 146.03-4 Bureau is deleted.

12. Section 146.03-9 Director is deleted.

13. Section 146.06-13 Form of manifest or list is amended by changing the word "Commerce" to "customs" and by deleting the phrase "or upon the vessel's statement (Commerce Form 1374a)."

14. Section 146.06-17 Produce manifest or list upon demand is amended by deleting the phrase "Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation, Department of Commerce;".

15. Sections 147.01-2, 147.03-1, 147.03-3, 147.03-5, 147.03-6, 147.03-8, 147.03-9, 147.03-11, and 147.05-100 (Table 3: compounds, second column) are amended by changing the phrase "Director of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation" or the word "Bureau" to "Commandant of the Coast Guard."

16. Section 147.01-5 Existing rulings re explosives and other dangerous articles or substances by true name is amended by deleting the phrase "which rulings from time to time have been promulgated by the Office of the Director of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation."

17. Section 147.03-6 Certification identification is amended by changing the phrase "U. S. Department of Commerce Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation" to "U. S. Coast Guard."

18. Section 147.03-9 Renewal of certification is amended by changing the phrase "Bureau's bulletin" to "U. S. Coast Guard's Proceedings of the Merchant Marine Council'."

19. Section 147.03-11 Non-certified articles on board vessels is amended by deleting the phrase "or the Philippine Islands."

20. Section 147.05-100 (Table 3, items entitled "Fuel for heating, cooking, lighting: liquefied or nonliquefied gas" and "water lights") is amended by changing the phrase "Board of supervising inspectors" to "Commandant of the Coast Guard."

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter Q—Alaska Commercial Fisheries

PART 205—ALASKA PENINSULA AREA FISHERIES

WEEKLY CLOSED PERIOD, SALMON FISHING

Section 205.2 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 205.2 Weekly closed period, salmon fishing. The 36-hour weekly closed period prescribed by section 5 of the act of June 6, 1924, is hereby extended to include the period from 6 o'clock postmeridian Friday of each week until 6 o'clock antemeridian of the Monday following, except that in the Port Moller district there shall be, in addition to the statutory 36-hour weekly closed period, a closed period from 6 o'clock postmeridian Wednesday to 6 o'clock postmeridian Thursday of each week, making a total weekly closed period of 60 hours.

The open season for fishing in the Port Moller district during 1947 extends only from June 20 to July 31, therefore, if this amendment is to be effective during the 1947 season it must become operative at once. In these circumstances it has been determined that the amendment shall be effective July 1, 1947. (Sec. 5, 34 Stat. 264, as amended; 48 U. S. C. 247)

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

WHHM, MEMPHIS, TENN.

NOTICE CONCERNING THE PROPOSED ASSIGNMENT OF LICENSE[1]

The Commission gives notice that on June 16, 1947 there was filed with it an application (BAL-615) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act (47 USCA 310 (b)) for the assignment of the license of Station WHHM, Memphis, Tennessee, from Herbert Herff, trading as WHHM Broadcasting Company, Memphis, Tennessee, to Mid-South Broadcasting Corporation.

The proposed assignment is based on an agreement dated June 6, 1947 pursuant to which Herbert Herff proposes to assign and sell to Mid-South Broadcasting Corporation the license and all the assets used in connection with the operation of station WHHM, excluding cash and accounts receivable as of May 31, 1947, for the sum of $300,000 of which $87,500 is to be paid in cash subject to an escrow agreement, $12,500 to be paid January 15, 1948, and the balance represented by ten $20,000 promissory notes bearing interest at the rate of 3%, the notes to become payable at six months intervals after Commission approval of the sale is granted. If upon Commission approval of the proposed assignment the purchaser fails or refuses to carry out the terms of the contract the $85,000 deposited in escrow is to go to the assignor as liquidated damages. The details as to the arrangements concerning the application may be found upon an inspection of the papers which are on file at the office of the Commission, Washington, D. C.

Section 1.321 of Part I of the Commission's rules and regulations provide for the publication of notice of the filing of such applications in a newspaper of general circulation in the community in which the station is located. The Commission is advised that notice of this proposed assignment is being published in the Memphis Commercial Appeal commencing June 16, 1947. No action will be taken on the application for a period of 60 days from said June 16, 1947 within which time other parties desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above described contract.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 7-990]

BARBER ASPHALT CORP. (DEL.)

ORDER DETERMINING STOCK TO BE EQUIVALENT

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of June A. D. 1947.

The Boston Stock Exchange has made application under Rule X-12F-2 (b) for a determination that the Capital Stock, $10 Par Value, of Barber Asphalt Corporation, a Delaware corporation, is substantially equivalent to the Capital Stock, $10 Par Value of Barber Asphalt Corporation, a New Jersey corporation, which has heretofore been admitted to unlisted trading privileges on the applicant exchange.

The Commission having duly considered the matter, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, Pursuant to sections 12 (f) and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12F-2 (b) thereunder, that the Capital Stock, $10 Par Value, of Barber Asphalt Corporation, a Delaware corporation, is hereby determined to be substantially equivalent to the Capital Stock, $10 Par Value, of Barber Asphalt Corporation, a New Jersey corporation, heretofore admitted to unlisted trading privileges on the applicant exchange.

MIDDLE WEST CORP.

ORDER MODIFYING PREVIOUS ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 20th day of June A. D. 1947.

The Commission, on June 16, 1947, having issued its order permitting to become effective a declaration filed pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by The Middle West Corporation ("Middle West"), a registered holding company, regarding the proposed sale by Middle West of 22,458⅗ shares of Common Stock, par value $10 per share, of Indiana Gas & Water Company, Inc., an indirect subsidiary of Middle West; and

Middle West having filed a Supplemental Application herein requesting that said order of June 16, 1947, be modified to conform to the requirements of section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended; and

The Commission having heretofore instituted proceedings pursuant to section 11 (b) with respect to Middle West and its subsidiary companies; and

The Commission finding that the proposed sale by Middle West of shares of Common Stock of Indiana Gas & Water Company, Inc. is an appropriate step toward the integration and simplification of the holding company system of Middle West and deeming it appropriate to grant the request of Middle West:

It is ordered, That said order of June 16, 1947, be, and hereby is, modified by adding thereto the following paragraph:

It is further ordered and recited, That the sale and transfer by The Middle West Corporation of 22,458⅗ shares of Common Stock, par value $10 per share, of Indiana Gas & Water Company, Inc., are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

By the Commission.

REPUBLIC LIGHT, HEAT AND POWER CO., INC.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 19th day of June A. D. 1947.

Republic Light, Heat and Power Company, Inc. ("Republic"), a subsidiary of Cities Service Company ("Cities"), a registered holding company, having filed a declaration pursuant to sections 6 (a) and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), with respect to proposed transactions as follows:

Republic proposes to borrow from Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company of Buffalo, New York, during the twelve months period beginning July 1, 1947, a maximum of $800,000 of which $200,000 will be borrowed on July 1, 1947 and $600,000 thereafter when needed during said twelve months period. The loans will be evidenced by unsecured notes bearing interest at the rate of 2% per annum, maturing on or before twelve months from date of issue, and prepayable at any time without premium. Republic covenants that until said notes are paid it will not pledge, mortgage or hypothecate any of its assets or borrow any other money without provision for the payment of said notes out of the proceeds of such other loans, and to pay quarterly a commitment fee of ¼ of 1% per annum on the unused portion of said $800,000.

Republic states that the proposed bank loan is for the purpose of financing its present construction needs until complete plans as to the construction requirements and a long-term financing program may be formulated, and that the proposed transaction is not subject to the jurisdiction of any commission other than this Commission; and

The declaration having been filed May 20, 1947, and notice of filing thereof having been given in the manner and form prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing within the time specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing with respect to said declaration; and

Applicant having requested that the Commission's order with respect to said declaration become effective upon its issuance and the Commission deeming it appropriate to grant such request; and

The Commission finding with respect to said declaration, as amended, that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder are satisfied, that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said declaration, as amended, be permitted to become effective forthwith;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act that said declaration, as amended, be, and it hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

NORTHERN PENNSYLVANIA POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 19th day of June 1947.

Notice is hereby given that an application, as amended, has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Northern Pennsylvania Power Company, a subsidiary of General Public Utilities Corporation, a registered holding company. Applicant has designated section 6 (b) of the act as applicable to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 7, 1947, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. At any time after July 7, 1947, said amended application, as filed or as further amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application, as amended, which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized as follows:

Applicant proposes to issue and sell for cash at principal amount to Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company $600,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, 2¾% Series, due 1975. The cash proceeds of the sale of the bonds are to be used for the purchase or construction of new facilities and betterment of existing facilities.

Applicant states that the transaction is subject to the jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission and a copy of the securities certificate of that Commission has been filed as an amendment to the application.

Applicant requests that this Commission enter its order at the earliest date practicable.

By the Commission.

COMMONWEALTH & SOUTHERN CORP. (DEL.) AND ALABAMA POWER CO.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 20th day of June 1947.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation ("Commonwealth"), a registered holding company and Alabama Power Company ("Alabama Power"), a public utility company and a subsidiary of Commonwealth.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 7, 1947, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be given on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said declaration proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, such declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective or may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to said act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration which is on file in the office of the Commission, for a statement of the transaction therein proposed which is summarized below:

Alabama Power proposes to sell to Phenix Natural Gas Company, the assignee of a contract between Alabama Power and George H. Stubbs, Jr., an investment banker of Birmingham, Alabama, all of Alabama Power's gas properties, comprising the natural gas distribution system serving the City of Phenix City, Alabama, and adjacent territory, exclusive of automotive equipment, office furniture or equipment, warehouse or warehouse equipment, and materials and suppplies, for a base cash consideration of $271,156 plus the cost per books of all additions between December 31, 1946 and the date of transfer, subject to closing adjustments.

The declaration indicates that the executive officer of Alabama Power in charge of the proposed sale requested sealed bids from all persons known by him to be familiar with the properties and to have taken an active interest in obtaining statistical data and other information relative to the same. As a result of such request four sealed bids were received, of which the bid of George H. Stubbs, Jr., was the highest.

The declaration indicates that as of April 30, 1947 the original cost of the properties to be sold as shown on the books of Alabama Power ($302,126) less the balance in the reserve for depreciation applicable to such properties ($72,940) was $229,186.

Alabama Power has estimated that the net operating income for the 12 months ended April 30, 1947 applicable to the gas utility properties to be sold amounted to $34,897.

The declaration states that the Alabama Public Service Commission has approved the proposed sale and conveyance by order dated May 13, 1947.

The declarants request that the Commission's order be issued as soon as practicable and become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

MARYVILLE ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER CO. AND CONTINENTAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 20th day of June A. D. 1947.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration has been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by Continental Gas & Electric Corporation ("Continental"), a registered holding company, and its public-utility subsidiary, Maryville Electric Light and Power Company ("Maryville"), designating sections 6 (b), 9, 10 and 12 of the act and Rules U-43 and U-50 (a) (3) promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 2, 1947, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issue of fact or law raised by said joint application-declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon; that such request should be addressed: Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania; and that at any time after July 2, 1947, said joint application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100, of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

All interested persons are referred to said joint application-declaration, which is on file in the offices of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Maryville proposes to issue and sell to Continental, its sole stockholder, and Continental proposes to purchase 13,712 shares of Common Stock, $100 par value, at the par value thereof. To make possible the issuance and sale of said 13,712 shares of common stock, Maryville proposes to amend its Articles of Incorporation to increase the number of its authorized common shares from 5,000 to 20,000. Maryville also proposes to pay to Continental the sum of $88.80 on account of open account indebtedness. Continental proposes to pay for said 13,712 shares of common stock by surrendering for cancellation a demand note of Maryville in the principal amount of $328,719.84, acknowledging full settlement of the balance of Maryville's open account indebtedness in the amount of $542,480.16 and by payment to Maryville of $500,000 in cash, an aggregate consideration of $1,371,200.

The application - declaration states that the cash proceeds from the sale of said common stock will be used to pay the cost of construction of additional electric facilities needed in the operation of Maryville's business.

It is also stated that Maryville is organized under the laws of, and doing business solely in, the State of Missouri, that the proposed transactions are subject to the approval of the Public Service Commission of Missouri, and that the approval of that Commission will be obtained and made a part of the record by amendment to the application-declaration.

Applicants-declarants request that the Commission enter an order with respect to the proposed transactions, to become effective forthwith and not later than July 2, 1947.

By the Commission.

PART 25—FEDERAL LAND BANK OF NEW ORLEANS

APPRAISAL, RELEASE AND PREPAYMENT FEES

1. Section 25.1 of Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations, is amended to read as follows:

§ 25.1 Appraisal fees. (a) A fee of $5 will be collected with each application for a new loan of $1000 or less, and a fee of $10 will be collected in such case where more than $1000 is applied for. Should the application be withdrawn or declined before an appraisal is made, the fee will be returned to the applicant. A further fee of $1 per $1000, or fraction thereof, will be charged and deducted from the loan proceeds at the time a loan is closed on any amount loaned by the land bank, the Land Bank Commissioner, or both, in excess of $5000.

(b) A fee of $5 will be collected with each application for an increased or refunding loan where the amount applied for is $1000 or less, and a fee of $10 will be collected in such case where more than $1000 is applied for: Provided, That only a fee of $5 will be collected with each of two or more applications filed to refinance an existing loan (land bank, Land Bank Commissioner, or joint land bank and Commissioner loans) covering any part of the property offered as security. Should the application be withdrawn or declined before an appraisal is made, the fee will be returned to the applicant. A further fee of $1 per $1000, or fraction thereof, will be charged and deducted from the loan proceeds at the time the loan is closed, on any amount of new money loaned by the land bank, the Land Bank Commissioner, or both, whether in one or in more than one refunding loan refinancing an existing loan, in excess of $5000, which fee, in the case of several such refunding loans will be prorated among the several applicants.

(c) A fee of $5 will be collected with each application for division of an existing loan (land bank, Land Bank Commissioner, or joint land bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans). The fee will be returned if the application is withdrawn or declined before an appraisal is made.

(d) A supplemental fee equal to the fee collected with the application will be charged in any type of case for each reappraisal made because of delay on the part of an applicant or made at the applicant's request. If the reappraisal results in a more favorable commitment, the fee will be refunded. (Secs. 7, 13 "Ninth," 39 Stat. 365, 372, as amended, Secs. 26, 32, 33, 48 Stat. 48, 49, as

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

[Orange Reg. 124]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.350 Orange Regulation 124—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 933.1 et seq.; 11 F. R. 9471), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) (2) of this section:

(1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., June 30, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., July 31, 1947, no handler shall ship any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which grade U. S. No. 3 or lower than U. S. No. 3 grade, as such grades are defined in the United States standards for citrus fruits, as amended (11 F. R. 13239; 12 F. R. 1).

(2) During the period specified in paragraph (b) (1) of this section, any handler may ship any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, that grade U. S. No. 3, as such grade is defined in the aforesaid amended United States standards, if not more than 10 (ten) percent, by count, of the oranges in the container are oranges which are not free from serious damage due to dryness or mushy condition.

(3) As used in this section, "handler" and "ship" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the terms "serious damage" and "dryness or mushy condition" shall have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in the aforesaid amended United States standards. (48 Stat. 31, 670, 675, 49 Stat. 750, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington D. C., this 25th day of June 1947.

[Elberta Peach Order 1]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.316 Elberta Peach Order 1—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Elberta Peach Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of Elberta peaches, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 29, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., September 1, 1947, no shipper shall ship:

(i) Any package or container of Elberta peaches containing peaches which do not meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade, as specified for such grade in the United States Standards for Peaches (12 F. R. 3798): Provided, That (a) with respect to ripe Elberta peaches of the size known commercially as size 80, and of larger sizes, such peaches may be shipped if they are free from serious damage by bruises and if said peaches otherwise meet the requirements of the aforesaid grade; and (b) with respect to Elberta peaches of the size known commercially as size 55, and of larger sizes, such peaches may be shipped if they meet the requirements of the aforesaid grade with a tolerance of five (5) percent for defects not considered "serious damage", in addition to the usual tolerances provided in said United States Standards; and the aforesaid sizes known commercially as size 55 and size 80 are defined more specifically in subparagraphs (2) and (3), respectively, of this paragraph; or

(ii) Any package or container of Elberta peaches containing peaches of a size smaller than the aforesaid size 80 that will pack a standard fruit box numbered 15, 16, 17, 18, or 18a, as specified in section 828.25 of the Agricultural Code of California, packed in accordance with the specifications of a standard pack, as specified in the aforesaid United States Standards, except that ripe Elberta peaches shall be packed fairly tightly in said boxes rather than tightly packed as provided in the aforesaid United States Standards.

(2) As used in this section, the size of Elberta peaches known commercially as size 55 is defined more specifically as being the size that will pack a standard fruit box numbered 15, 16, 17, 18, or 18a, as defined in section 828.25 of the Agricultural Code of California, with two tiers of two rows of five peaches each, and three rows of six peaches each per tier, packed in accordance with the specifications of a standard pack, as specified in said United States Standards, and with no peach small enough to pass through, without using pressure, a rigid ring of inside diameter of 2¾ inches.

(3) As used in this section, the size of Elberta peaches known commercially as size 80 is defined more specifically as being the size that will pack a standard fruit box numbered 15, 16, 17, 18, or 18a, as defined in section 828.25 of the Agricultural Code of California, with two tiers of six rows each per tier and seven peaches in each row packed in accordance with the specifications of a standard pack, as specified in said United States Standards, and with no peach small enough to pass through, without using pressure, a rigid ring of inside diameter of 2¼ inches.

(4) Each shipper, prior to making each shipment of Elberta peaches, shall, during the period set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, have the peaches included in each such shipment inspected by a duly authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, heretofore designated by the Elberta Peach Commodity Committee and hereby approved; and each such shipper shall submit promptly, or cause to be submitted promptly, to the Elberta Peach Commodity Committee, Federal-State shipping point inspection certificates stating the grades and sizes of the Elberta peaches contained in each such lot or shipment: Provided, however, That, in case the following conditions exist in connection with any such shipment:

(i) A request for inspection is made to the Federal-State Inspection Service not later than 5:00 p. m. of the day before the fruit will be available for inspection;

(ii) The fruit is available for inspection between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. of the day specified in the request for such inspection; and

(iii) The Federal-State Inspection Service furnishes the shipper with a signed statement that it is not practicable, under such conditons, for the Federal-State Inspection Service to make the inspection within the necessary time;

the shipper, by submitting or causing to be submitted such signed statement to the Elberta Peach Commodity Committee, may make the particular shipment without such inspection, but such shipper shall still be held responsible for conforming with all grade and size regulations applicable to such shipment.

(5) As used in this section, the terms "shipper," "ship," "shipping point," and "shipment" shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order, and the terms "serious damage" and "tightly packed" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the aforesaid United States Standards. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of June 1947.

[Lemon Reg. 228]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.335 Lemon Regulation 228—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 53 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 953.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 2d Sess.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which the section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 29, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 6, 1947, is hereby fixed at 700 carloads, or an equivalent quantity.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached to Lemon Regulation 227 (12 F. R. 4016) and made a part hereof by this reference. The Lemon Administrative Committee, in accordance with the provisions of the said marketing agreement and order, shall calculate the quantity of lemons which may be handled by each such handler during the period specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in the said marketing agreement and order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of June 1947.

[Orange Reg. 184]

PART 966—ORANGES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 966.330 Orange Regulation 184—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of Order No. 66 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 966.1 et seq.) regulating the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such oranges which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that compliance with the notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 2d Sess.; 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient for such compliance.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 29, 1947, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 6, 1947, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate District No. 1, unlimited movement; (b) Prorate District No. 2, 1200 carloads; and (c) Prorate District No. 3, unlimited movement.

(ii) Oranges other than Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate Districts Nos. 1, 2, and 3, no movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference. The Orange Administrative Committee, in accordance with the provisions of the said order, shall calculate the quantity of oranges which may be handled by each such handler during the period specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in the said order; and "Prorate District No. 1," "Prorate District No. 2," and "Prorate District No. 3" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in § 966.107 of the rules and regulations (11 F. R. 10258) issued pursuant to said order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of June 1947.

[SEAL] S. R. SMITH,
Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.

DISCHARGE FROM INACTIVE STATUS

Rescind paragraph (b) of § 604.9 and substitute the following in lieu thereof.

§ 604.9 Separation from service. * * *

(b) Discharge from inactive status. (1) Except for enlisted men of the Regular Army transferred to the Enlisted Reserve Corps and retired under the provisions of AR 615-395 (Army regulations relative to retirement) and subsequently discharged upon completion of 30 years' service, members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps when on an inactive status may be discharged as follows:

(i) By direction of the President or order of the Secretary of War.

(ii) By direction of the Commanding General of the Army Air Forces, an army (ZI), a department, or such officer, or officers, as may be designated by them for that purpose.

(a) Upon expiration of term of enlistment.

(b) On account of physical disability. If an enlisted reservist on inactive status becomes physically disqualified for limited service (MR 1-9), he will be discharged.

(c) If drawing a pension, disability allowance, disability compensation, or retirement pay from the Government of the United States.

(d) Upon acceptance of a commission in the armed forces, appointment to the U. S Military, Naval, or Coast Guard Academy, upon receipt of notice of enlistment in the Regular Army or National Guard, or upon receipt of notice of enlistment in the Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard.

(e) Upon presentation of conclusive evidence in accordance with the provisions of AR 615-362 (Army regulations relative to discharge) that his membership in the Enlistment Reserve Corps in an inactive status has a material deterrent effect on his earning a livelihood.

(f) Because of inaptness or failure to possess the required degree of adaptability for military service.

(g) Because of evidence of habits or traits of character which render retention in the service undesirable.

(h) Upon conviction by a civil court.

(2) No enlisted reservist will be called to active duty for the purpose of affecting his discharge.

(3) Discharge certificates will be furnished enlisted reservists discharged from inactive status. [AR 150-5, Feb. 13, 1946 as amended by WD Cir. 151, June 12, 1947.]

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Administrator of Civil Aeronautics, Department of Commerce

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF CIVIL AIRWAYS

Part 600 of the regulations of the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics was last revised in its entirety on February 6, 1942. Since that time this part has been amended a great many times, and experience has disclosed the necessity for revising it again. The purpose of this revision is: (a) To simplify and clarify the language used in this part and (b) to effect a compilation of the basic part and all the amendments thereto made effective between the dates of February 6, 1942 and May 13, 1947.

It appearing that the revision of this part does not involve any changes in substance but contains changes of only a minor nature which will not impose any burden upon interested persons; the persons affected by this part will be greatly benefited by this revision and by its being made effective without delay; in view of the foregoing, sufficient notice and public procedure have been afforded to interested persons, and further notice for public procedure would serve no purpose other than to delay the issuance of the revision of this part of the regulations of the Administrator which it is in the public interest and benefit to adopt at this time.

And finding that: For the foregoing reasons further notice and public procedure provided for in section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary with respect to the revision of this part; and that good cause exists to declare this part (as herein revised) effective immediately pursuant to section 4 (c) of that act.

Now, therefore, acting pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 302 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, I hereby revise Part 600 of the Regulations of the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics to read as follows:

Sec.
600.1 Definition.
600.2 Scope.
600.3 Basis and purpose.
600.4 Designation of civil airways.

AUTHORITY: §§ 600.1 to 600.4, inclusive, issued under sec. 302, 52 Stat. 985, 54 Stat. 1233, 1235, 1236; 49 U. S. C. 452.

§ 600.1 Definition. As used in this part, "civil airway" means a path through the navigable air space of the United States suitable for interstate, overseas, or foreign air commerce.

§ 600.2 Scope. (a) Each civil airway, except as hereinafter provided, shall include the navigable air space of the United States above all that area on the surface of the earth lying within five miles of the center of the center line prescribed for each such airway, but shall not include any of the air space of an air-space reservation, as provided for in section 4 of the Air Commerce Act of 1926.

(b) The center line of each civil airway shall be a line extended in the manner hereinafter prescribed through the center of the points or intersections specified for such airway.

§ 600.3 Basis and purpose. The basis of this part is found in section 302 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 985, 54 Stat. 1233, 1235, 1236; 49 U. S. C. 452). From the intersection of the northwest course of the Tallahassee, Fla., radio range and the southeast course of the Dothan, Ala., radio range via the Dothan, Ala., radio range station; Gunter Field, Montgomery, Ala.; the intersection of the west course of the Maxwell Field, Ala., radio range and the south course of the Birmingham, Ala., radio range to the Birmingham, Ala., radio range station. From the Muscle Shoals, Ala., radio range station to the intersection of the northeast course of the Muscle Shoals, Ala., radio range and the southwest course of the Nashville, Tenn., radio range. From the Nashville, Tenn., radio range station via the intersection of the northwest course of the Nashville, Tenn., radio range and the south course of the Evansville, Ind., radio range; the Evansville, Ind., radio range station to the Terre Haute, Ind., radio range station.

(4) Blue civil airway No. 4 (Boston, Mass., to United States-Canadian Border). From the Boston, Mass., radio range station, via the intersection of the northeast course of the Boston, Mass., radio range and the southeast course of the Concord, N. H., radio range; Concord, N. H., radio range station and the Burlington, Vt., radio range station; to the intersection of the northwest course of the Burlington, Vt., radio range and the United States-Canadian Border.

(7) Blue civil airway No. 7 (Fresno, Calif., to Hamilton Field, Calif.). From the intersection of the southeast course of the San Francisco, Calif., radio range and the southeast course of the Oakland, Calif., radio range to the San Francisco, Calif., radio range station. From the Oakland, Calif., radio range station to a point at 38°02'45'' north latitude and 122°31'40'' west longitude.

(8) Blue civil airway No. 8 (Fargo, N. Dak., to United States-Canadian Border). From the Fargo, N. Dak., radio range station, via the Grand Forks, N. Dak., radio range station and the Pembina, N. Dak., radio range station to the intersection of the north course of the Pembina, N. Dak., radio range and the United States-Canadian Border.

(9) Blue civil airway No. 9 (Columbia, Mo., to United States-Canadian Border). From the Columbia, Mo., radio range station via the Kirksville, Mo., radio range station; the intersection of the northwest course of the Kirksville, Mo., radio range and the south course of the Des Moines, Iowa, radio range; Des Moines, Iowa, radio range station; the intersection of the north course of the Des Moines, Iowa, radio range and the southwest course of the La Crosse, Wis., radio range; the intersection of the southwest course of the La Crosse, Wis., radio range and the south course of the Rochester, Minn., radio range and the Rochester, Minn., radio range station to the intersection of the north course of the Rochester, Minn., radio range and the southeast course of the Minneapolis, Minn., radio range. From the Minneapolis, Minn., radio range station via the Duluth, Minn., radio range station and the Two Harbors, Minn., radio range station to the intersection of the northeast course of the Two Harbors, Minn., radio range and the United States-Canadian Border.

(13) Blue civil airway No. 13 (Houston, Tex., to Kansas City, Mo.). From the Houston, Tex., radio range station via the Shreveport, La., radio range station to the intersection of the northwest course of the Shreveport, La., radio range and the southwest course of the Texarkana, Ark., radio range. From the Texarkana, Ark., radio range station via the Fort Smith, Ark., Airport; the Joplin, Mo., radio range station and the intersection of the north course of the Joplin, Mo., radio range and the southeast course of the Kansas City, Mo., radio range to the Kansas City, Mo., radio range station.

(14) Blue civil airway No. 14 (El Centro, Calif., to Bakersfield, Calif.). From the Mt. Laguna, Calif., nondirectional radio marker beacon to the Oceanside, Calif., nondirectional radio marker beacon. From the Riverside, Calif., radio range station via the intersection of the northwest course of the Riverside, Calif., radio range and the southeast course of the Palmdale, Calif., radio range and the Palmdale, Calif., radio range station to the intersection of the northwest course of the Palmdale, Calif., radio range and the south course of the Bakersfield, Calif., radio range.

(15) Blue civil airway No. 15 (Columbus, Ohio, to Erie, Pa.). From the intersection of the east course of the Columbus, Ohio, radio range and the southwest course of the Akron, Ohio, radio range, via the Akron, Ohio, radio range station; to the intersection of the northeast course of the Akron, Ohio, radio range and the southwest course of the Erie, Pa., radio range.

(16) Blue civil airway No. 16 (Dillon, Mont., to Helena, Mont.). From the Dillon, Mont., radio range station via the Butte, Mont., radio range station to the intersection of the north course of the Butte, Mont., radio range and the east course of the Drummond, Mont., radio range.

(17) Blue civil airway No. 17 (Millinocket, Maine, to Presque Isle, Maine). From the intersection of the northeast course of the Millinocket, Maine, radio range and the northwest course of the Houlton, Maine, radio range, via the Houlton, Maine, radio range station and the intersection of the north course of the Houlton, Maine, radio range and the southeast course of the Presque Isle, Maine, radio range to the Presque Isle, Maine, radio range station.

(18) Blue civil airway No. 18 (Philadelphia, Pa., to Burlington, Vt.). From the intersection of the northeast course of the Philadelphia, Pa., radio range and the southwest course of the New York, N. Y. (La Guardia), radio range via the intersection of the northeast course of the Philadelphia, Pa., radio range and the southwest course of the Idlewild N. Y., radio range; the Idlewild, N. Y., radio range station to the intersection of the northeast course of the Idlewild, N. Y., radio range and the east course of the New York, N. Y. (La Guardia), radio range. From the intersection of the northwest course of the New York, N. Y. (La Guardia), radio range and the southwest course of the New Hackensack, N. Y., radio range via the New Hackensack, N. Y., radio range station, excluding that portion which lies more than two miles west of the southwest course of the New Hacksensack, N. Y., radio range between a point 25 miles northeast from the intersection of the northwest course of the New York, N. Y. (La Guardia), radio range and the southwest course of the New Hackensack, N. Y., radio range and a point 10 miles south of the New Hackensack, N. Y., radio range; the Albany, N. Y., radio range station to the Burlington, Vt., radio range station.

(19) Blue civil airway No. 19 (Melbourne, Fla., to Orlando, Fla.). From the Melbourne, Fla., radio range station via the intersection of the northwest course of the Melbourne, Fla., radio range and the southeast course of the Orlando, Fla., radio range to the Orlando, Fla., radio range station.

(20) Blue civil airway No. 20 (Millville, N. J., to Allentown, Pa.). From the Millville, N. J., radio range station via the intersection of the northwest course of the Millville, N. J., radio range and the southwest course of the Philadelphia, Pa., radio range; the Philadelphia, Pa., radio range station to the Allentown, Pa., radio range station.

(21) Blue civil airway No. 21 (Pittsburgh, Pa., to Erie, Pa.). From the intersection of the west course of the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range and the south course of the Youngstown, Ohio, radio range, via the Youngstown, Ohio, radio range station; to the intersection of the north course of the Youngstown, Ohio, radio range; and the southwest course of the Erie, Pa., radio range.

(23) Blue civil airway No. 23 (Detroit, Mich., to Flint, Mich.). From the Romulus, Mich., radio range station to the Bishop Airport, Flint, Mich.

(24) [Unassigned.]

(25) Blue civil airway No. 25 (Cordova, Alaska, to Big Delta, Alaska). From the Cordova (Hinchinbrook Island), Alaska, radio range station via the intersection of the northeast course of the Cordova (Hinchinbrook Island), Alaska, radio range and the south course of the Gulkana, Alaska, radio range; Gulkana, Alaska, radio range station and the intersection of the north course of the Gulkana, Alaska, radio range and the south course of the Big Delta, Alaska, radio range to the Big Delta, Alaska, radio range station.

(28) Blue civil airway No. 28 (Columbia, S. C., to Charleston, S. C.). From the Columbia, S. C., radio range station, via the intersection of the southeast course of the Columbia, S. C., radio range and the northwest course of the Charleston, S. C., radio range to the Charleston, S. C., radio range station.

(29) [Unassigned.]

(30) Blue civil airway No. 30 (San Antonio, Tex., to Big Spring, Tex.). From the San Antonio, Tex. (Alamo), radio range station via the intersection of the west course of the San Antonio, Tex. (Alamo), radio range and the northwest course of the San Antonio, Tex. (Kelly), radio range; the intersection of the northwest course of the San Antonio, Tex. (Kelly), radio range and the southeast course of the Big Spring, Tex., radio range to the Big Spring, Tex., radio range station.

(31) Blue civil airway No. 31 (Burlington, Iowa, to Moline, Ill.). From the intersection of the northeast course of the Burlington, Iowa, radio range and the south course of the Moline, Ill., radio range to the Moline, Ill., radio range station.

(32) Blue civil airway No. 32 (Seattle, Wash., to Fairbanks, Alaska). From the Seattle, Wash., radio range station via the intersection of the northwest course of the Seattle, Wash., radio range and the south course of the Patricia Bay, British Columbia, radio range; the south course of the Patricia Bay, British Columbia, radio range to the United States-Canadian Border. From the Skwentna, Alaska, radio range station to the Summit, Alaska, radio range station.

(33) Blue civil airway No. 33 (Fort Wayne, Ind., to Toledo, Ohio). From the Fort Wayne, Ind., radio range station to the intersection of the northeast course of the Fort Wayne, Ind., radio range and the east course of the Goshen, Ind., radio range.

(34) Blue civil airway No. 34 (Little Rock, Ark., to Tulsa, Okla.). From a point located at 35°27' north latitude and 94°00' west longitude via the Fort Smith, Ark., Airport and a point located at 35°32' north latitude and 95°16' west longitude to the Tulsa, Okla., radio range station.

(35) Blue civil airway No. 35 (Kansas City, Mo., to Des Moines, Iowa). From the intersection of the northeast course of the Kansas City, Mo., radio range and the south course of the Des Moines, Iowa, radio range to the intersection of the northwest course of the Kirksville, Mo., radio range and the south course of the Des Moines, Iowa, radio range.

(36) Blue civil airway No. 36 (Akron, Colo., to North Platte, Nebr.). From the Akron, Colo., radio range station to the North Platte, Nebr., radio range station.

(37) Blue civil airway No. 37 (Casper, Wyo., to Rapid City, S. Dak.). From the Casper, Wyo., radio range station to the intersection of the southeast course of the Sheridan, Wyo., radio range and the west course of the Rapid City, S. Dak., radio range.

(38) Blue civil airway No. 38 (Annette Island, Alaska, to United States-Canadian Border). From the Annette Island, Alaska, radio range station via the Gustavus, Alaska, radio range station and the Haines, Alaska, radio range station to the intersection of the northeast course of the Haines, Alaska, radio range and the United States-Canadian Border.

(39) Blue civil airway No. 39 (Knoxville, Tenn., to Syracuse, N. Y.). From the Tri-City, Tenn., radio range station via a point located at latitude 37°20' and longitude 81°52'40'' to the Charleston, W. Va., radio range station. From the intersection of the west course of the Elkins, W. Va., radio range and the southwest course of the Morgantown, W. Va., radio range via the Morgantown, W. Va., radio range station to the intersection of the northeast course of the Morgantown, W. Va., radio range and the east course of the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range. From the intersection of the northeast course of the Altoona, Pa., radio range and the northeast course of the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range via the intersection of the northeast course of the Altoona, Pa., radio range and the southwest course of the Elmira, N. Y., radio range; the Elmira, N. Y., radio range station to the intersection of the northeast course of the Elmira, N. Y., radio range and the south course of the Syracuse, N. Y., radio range.

(40) Blue civil airway No. 40 (Concord, N. H., to Burlington, Vt.). From the Concord, N. H., radio range station via a point at 43°38' north latitude and 72°20' west longitude and a point at 44°12' north latitude and 72°34' west longitude to the Burlington, Vt., radio range station.

(41) Blue civil airway No. 41 (New York, N. Y., to United States-Canadian Border). From the intersection of the northeast course of the Newark, N. J., radio range and the southeast course of the Stewart Field, N. Y., radio range via the New Haven, Conn., Municipal Airport; the Hartford, Conn., radio range station; the intersection of the northwest course of the Hartford, Conn., radio range and the south course of the Westfield, Mass., radio range to the Westfield, Mass., radio range station. From the Concord, N. H., radio range station to the Portland, Maine, radio range station. From the Bangor, Maine, radio range station to the intersection of the northeast course of the Bangor, Maine, radio range and the United States-Canadian Border.

(42) Blue civil airway No. 42 (South Bend, Ind., to Battle Creek, Mich.). From the intersection of the east course of the South Bend, Ind., radio range and the south course of the Battle Creek, Mich., radio range to the Battle Creek, Mich., radio range station.

(43) Blue civil airway No. 43 (Birmingham, Ala., to Nashville, Tenn.). From the intersection of the north course of the Birmingham, Ala., radio range and the southwest course of the Chattanooga, Tenn., radio range to a point located at 35°50' north latitude and 86°19' west longitude.

(44) Blue civil airway No. 44 (Memphis, Tenn., to Fort Wayne, Ind.): From the Advance, Mo., radio range station via the Paducah (McCracken County), Ky., Airport to the Evansville, Ind., radio range station. From the Indianapolis, Ind., radio range station to the Fort Wayne, Ind., radio range station.

(45) Blue civil airway No. 45 (Lake Charles, La., to Baton Rouge, La.). From a point located at 30°07'25'' north latitude and 91°43' west longitude to a point located at 30°34'18'' north latitude and 91°11'51'' west longitude.

(46) Blue civil airway No. 46 (Los Angeles, Calif., to Oakland, Calif.). From a point located at 34°52' north latitude and 118°44'30'' west longitude to a point located at 37°00''30'' north latitude and 121°17'15'' west longitude.

(47) Blue civil airway No. 47 (Martinsburg, W. Va., to Philipsburg, Pa.). From the intersection of the southeast course of the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range and the south course of the Altoona, Pa., radio range via the Altoona, Pa., radio range station to the intersection of the northeast course of the Altoona, Pa., radio range and the northeast course of the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range.

(e) Other civil airways—(1) DuBois, Idaho, to West Yellowstone, Mont., civil airway. From the DuBois, Idaho, Intermediate Field of the Civil Aeronautics Administration to the Municipal Airport, West Yellowstone, Mont.

(2) Norfolk, Va., to Washington, D. C., civil airway. From the Municipal Airport, Norfolk, Va., to the National Airport, Washington, D. C.

(3) Rapid City, S. Dak., to Spearfish, S. Dak., civil airway. From the Municipal Airport, Rapid City, S. Dak., to the Municipal Airport, Spearfish, S. Dak.

(4) St. Louis, Mo., to Des Moines, Iowa, civil airway. From the Municipal Airport, St. Louis, Mo., via the Municipal Airport, Quincy, Ill., and the Municipal Airport, Ottumwa, Iowa, to the Municipal Airport, Des Moines, Iowa.

(5) Winslow, Ariz., to Las Vegas, Nev., civil airway. From the Winslow Municipal Airport, Winslow, Ariz., via the South Rim Airport, Grand Canyon, Ariz., and the Boulder City Airport, Boulder City Nev., to the McCarran Field, Las Vegas, Nev.

This part, as herein revised, shall become effective July 1, 1947.

[SEAL] T. P. WRIGHT,
Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

[F. R. Doc. 47-6111; Filed, June 27, 1947; 8:49 a. m.]

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF AIRWAY TRAFFIC CONTROL AREAS, AIRPORT APPROACH ZONES, AIRPORT TRAFFIC ZONES AND RADIO FIXES

Part 601 of the regulations of the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics was last revised in its entirety on January 14, 1942. Since that time this part has been amended a great many times, and experience has disclosed the necessity for revising it again. The purpose of this revision is (a) to simplify and clarify the language used in this part and (b) to effect a compilation of the basic part and all the amendments thereto made effective between the dates of January 14, 1942 and May 13, 1947.

It appearing that:

The revision of this part does not involve any changes in substance but contains changes of only a minor nature which will not impose any burden upon interested persons; the persons affected by this part will be greatly benefited by this revision and by its being made effective without delay; in view of the foregoing, sufficient notice and public procedure have been afforded to interested persons, and further notice for public procedure would serve no purpose other than to delay the issuance of the revision of this part of the regulations of the Administrator which it is in the public interest and benefit to adopt at this time.

And finding that:

For the foregoing reasons further notice and public procedure provided for in section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary with respect to the revision of this part; and that good cause exists to declare this part (as herein revised) effective immediately pursuant to section 4 (c) of that act.

Now, therefore, acting pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 308 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended and Special Regulation No. 197 of the Civil Aeronautics Board (6 F. R. 6348), I hereby revise Part 601 of the regulations of the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics to read as follows:

Sec.
601.1 Basis and purpose.
601.2 Definitions.
601.3 Extent of airway traffic control areas.
601.4 Designation of airway traffic control areas.
601.5 Scope of airport approach zones.
601.6 Designation of airport approach zones.
601.7 Scope of airport traffic zones.
601.8 Designation of airport traffic zones.
601.9 Designation of radio fixes.

AUTHORITY: §§ 601.1 to 601.9, inclusive, issued under sec. 308, 52 Stat. 986, 54 Stat. 1233, 1235, 1236; 49 U. S. C. 458; Special Regulation of the Civil Aeronautics Board (6 F. R. 6348).

§ 601.1 Basis and purpose. The basis of this part is found in section 308 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 986, 54 Stat. 1233, 1235, 1236; 49 U. S. C. 458), and in Special Regulation No. 197 of the Civil Aeronautics Board (6 F. R. 6348). The purpose of this part is to designate airway traffic control areas, airport approach zones, airport traffic zones and radio fixes in order to provide for the safety of aircraft operating in interstate, overseas, and foreign air commerce.

§ 601.2 Definitions. As used in this part: (a) "Airway traffic control area" means an air space of specified dimensions within which air traffic control is exercised to permit the safe, orderly, and expeditious flow of air traffic.

(b) "Airport approach zone" means the air space above that area on the surface of the earth within a specified radius of an airport where adequate radio facilities are provided for instrument approach procedures.

(c) "Airport traffic zone" means an area of specified dimensions within which rules, additional to those governing flight in control areas, apply for the protection of air traffic against collision.

(d) "Radio fix" means a geographical location over which the position of an aircraft can be determined by radio.

§ 601.3 Extent of airway traffic control areas. Whenever a point prescribed for the purpose of the designation of an airway traffic control area coincides with a point specified in designating the centerline of an airway, except as hereinafter provided, such airway traffic control area shall include all of the airway within a ten mile radius of such point.

§ 601.4 Designation of airway traffic control areas. The following portions of the Civil Airways are designated as airway traffic control areas:

(a) Green civil airways—(1) Green civil airway No. 1 airway traffic control areas (United States-Canadian Border to Forest City, Maine). All of Green civil airway No. 1.

(2) Green civil airway No. 2 airway traffic control areas (Seattle, Wash., to Boston, Mass.). All of Green civil airway No. 2.

(3) Green civil airway No. 3 airway traffic control areas (San Francisco, Calif., to New York, N. Y.). All of Green civil airway No. 3.

(4) Green civil airway No. 4 airway traffic control areas (Los Angeles, Calif., to Philadelphia, Pa.). All of Green civil airway No. 4.

(5) Green civil airway No. 5 airway traffic control areas (Los Angeles, Calif., to Boston, Mass.). All of Green civil airway No. 5.

(6) Green civil airway No. 6 airway traffic control areas (Alice, Tex., to Norfolk, Va.). All of Green civil airway No. 6.

(b) Amber civil airways—(1) Amber civil airway No. 1 airway traffic control areas (United States-Mexican Border to Nome, Alaska). Those portions of Amber civil airway No. 1 within the limits of the continental United States; from the Alaskan Canadian Border to a line extended at right angles across such airway through a point 50 miles west of the Annette Island, Alaska, radio range station and from a line extended at right angles across such airway through a point 25 miles southeast of the Cordova, Alaska, radio range station to a line extended at right angles across such airway through a point 25 miles northwest of the Skwentna, Alaska, radio range station.

(2) Amber civil airway No. 2 airway traffic control areas (Long Beach, Calif., to Fairbanks, Alaska). Those portions of Amber civil airway No. 2 within the limits of the continental United States; from the Alaska Canadian Border to the Fairbanks, Alaska, radio range station.

(3) Amber civil airway No. 3 airway traffic control areas (El Paso, Tex., to Great Falls, Mont.). All of Amber civil airway No. 3.

(4) Amber civil airway No. 4 airway traffic control areas (Brownsville, Tex., to Minot, N. Dak.). All of Amber civil airway No. 4.

(5) Amber civil airway No. 5 airway traffic control areas (New Orleans, La., to Milwaukee, Wis.). All of Amber civil airway No. 5.

(6) Amber civil airway No. 6 airway traffic control areas (Jacksonville, Fla., to United States-Canadian Border). All of Amber civil airway No. 6.

(7) Amber civil airway No. 7 airway traffic control areas (Key West, Fla., to Caribou, Maine). All of Amber civil airway No. 7.

(8) Amber civil airway No. 8 airway traffic control areas (Los Angeles, Calif., to The Dalles, Oreg.). All of Amber civil airway No. 8 from the Los Angeles, Calif., radio range station to a line extended at right angles across such airway through a point 25 miles northwest of the Santa Barbara, Calif., radio range station and from the Red Bluff, Calif., radio range station to The Dalles, Oreg., radio range station.

(c) Red civil airways—(1) Red civil airway No. 1 airway traffic control areas (Portland, Oreg., to Kansas City, Mo.). All of Red civil airway No. 1 from Portland, Oreg., radio range station to the intersection of the southeast course of the Laramie, Wyo., radio range and the north course of the Denver, Colo., radio range. From the Akron, Colo., radio range station to a line extended at right angles across such airway through a point 25 miles southeast of the Akron, Colo., radio range station; from such line and between the altitudes of 6,500 feet above mean sea levels and 8,500 feet above mean sea level to a line extended at right angles across such airway through a point 25 miles west of the Kansas City, Mo., radio range station; from such line to the Kansas City, Mo., radio range station.

(2) Red civil airway No. 2 airway traffic control areas (Butte, Mont., to Rapid City, S. Dak.). All of Red civil airway No. 2.

(3) Red civil airway No. 3 airway traffic control areas (Philipsburg, Pa., to Hartford, Conn.). All of Red civil airway No. 3.

(4) Red civil airway No. 4 airway traffic control areas (Ott), N. Mex., to Las Vegas, N. Mex.). All of Red civil airway No. 4.

(5) Red civil airway No. 5 airway traffic control areas (Sioux Falls, S. Dak., to St. Paul, Minn.). All of Red civil airway No. 5.

(6) Red civil airway No. 6 airway traffic control areas (Las Vegas, Nev., to Omaha, Nebr.). All of Red civil airway No. 6 from 25 miles west of Grand Junction, Colo., to Omaha, Nebr.

(7) Red civil airway No. 7 airway traffic control areas (Atlanta, Ga., to Greensboro, N. C.). All of Red civil airway No. 7.

(8) Red civil airway No. 8 airway traffic control areas (Altoona, Pa., to Wilkes-Barre, Pa.). All of Red civil airway No. 8.

(9) Red civil airway No. 9 airway traffic control areas (San Diego, Calif., to Winslow, Ariz.). All of Red civil airway No. 9.

(10) Red civil airway No. 10 airway traffic control areas (Trinidad, Colo., to Charleston, S. C.). All of Red civil airway No. 10.

(11) Red civil airway No. 11 airway traffic control areas (Tulsa, Okla., to Boston, Mass.). All of Red civil airway No. 11.

(12) Red civil airway No. 12 airway traffic control areas (Kansas City, Mo., to Detroit, Mich.). All of Red civil airway No. 12.

(13) Red civil airway No. 13 airway traffic control areas (Sunbury, Pa., to Boston, Mass.). All of Red civil airway No. 13.

(14) Red civil airway No. 14 airway traffic control areas (Lone Rock, Wis., to Louisville, Ky.). All of Red civil airway No. 14.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[File No. 21-403]

PART 173—DOLL AND STUFFED TOY INDUSTRY

PROMULGATION OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of June 1947.

Due proceedings having been held under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission:

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules of Group I and Group II, as hereinafter set forth, which have been approved and received, respectively, by the Commission in this proceeding, be promulgated as of June 28, 1947.

Statement by the Commission. Trade practice rules for the Doll and Stuffed Toy Industry, as hereinafter set forth, are promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission under the trade practice conference procedure.

The rules are designed to prevent various unfair trade practices and to maintain fair competitive conditions in the industry, in the interest of the industry and the public, and in harmony wth the requirements of law.

Members of the industry are the persons, firms, corporations, and organizations engaged in the business of manufacturing, distributing, or selling dolls or stuffed toys, or parts and accessories for such articles. Aggregate sales of such products during 1946 approximated $56,000,000 at retail value.

Proceedings for establishment of the rules were instituted upon application from members of the industry. During the course of such proceedings, a general industry conference was held by the Commission in New York City on March 24, 1947, at which rules were proposed and considered by the industry. Thereafter, a draft of proposed rules in appropriate form was published by the Commission and made available to all interested or affected parties upon public notice whereby they were afforded opportunity to present their views, including such pertinent information, suggestions, or objections as they might desire to offer, and to be heard in the premises. Pursuant to the notice, such hearing was held on June 19, 1947, in Washington, D. C., and all matters presented, or otherwise received in the proceeding, were duly considered.

Thereupon, and after full consideration of the entire matter, final action was taken by the Commission whereby it approved and received, respectively, the trade practice rules hereinafter appearing in Group I and Group II. Such rules become operative thirty (30) days after date of promulgation.

Being directed to the maintenance of fair competition, the rules do not permit of any agreement, understanding, combination, conspiracy, or concert of action between two or more members of the industry, or with one or more other persons, to unlawfully fix, maintain, or enhance prices, suppress competition, or restrain trade. Such rules likewise do not supplant, or relieve any member of the industry or other party of the necessity of complying with, whatever other provisions of regulations or law, Federal or State, may be applicable to the products or business of this industry.

NOTE: The term "dolls or stuffed toys," as used in these rules, shall be understood to include not only dolls and stuffed toys, but also parts and accessories therefor.

GROUP II

173.100 General statement.
173.101 Return of merchandise.
173.102 Arbitration.

AUTHORITY: §§ 173.1 to 173.102, inclusive, issued under 38 Stat. 717, as amended, 15 U. S. C. 41, et seq.

GROUP I

§ 173.0 General statement. The unfair trade practices embraced in § 173.0 to 173.16, inclusive, are considered to be unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, or other illegal practices, prohibited under laws administered by the Federal Trade Commission; and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use, by any person, partnership, corporation, or other organization subject to its jurisdiction, of such unlawful practices in commerce.

§ 173.1 Imitation or simulation of trade-marks, trade names, etc. The imitation or simulation of the trade-marks, trade names, brands, or labels of competitors, with the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 1]

§ 173.2 Defamation of competitors or disparagement of their products. The defamation of competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable business conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the grade, quality, or manufacture of the products of competitors, or of their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies, or services, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 2]

§ 173.3 Discrimination—(a) Prohibited discriminatory prices, or rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc., which effect unlawful price discrimination. In the marketing in commerce[1] of dolls or stuffed toys of like grade and quality for use, consumption, or resale within the jurisdiction of the United States, and subject to subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, it is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged therein to discriminate in price between different purchasers where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with such industry member or with any person who knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with their customers.

(1) The inhibitions against such discrimination in price shall be applicable irrespective of whether the discrimination in the price itself is effected in the form, or through the means, of rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, allowances, or other form of price differential, and whether such discounts, refunds, or other form of price differential, are given for early buying or are accomplished through false dating of deliveries or by any other means or in any other manner.

(i) However, nothing contained in this section shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which dolls or stuffed toys are sold or delivered to said purchasers.

(ii) Nor shall anything contained in this section prevent persons engaged in selling such products in commerce[1] from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade.

(iii) Nor shall anything contained in this section prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting either (a) the market for the products concerned, or (b) the marketability of the products, such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the products concerned.

(b) Prohibited brokerage or commissions. In the selling of dolls or stuffed toys in commerce,[1] it is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged therein to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, any commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of such products, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, resident buyer, or other intermediary therein, where such agent, representative, resident buyer, or other intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc. In the selling of dolls or stuffed toys in commerce[1] by any member of the industry, and in the course thereof, it is an unfair trade practice for such member to pay or contract for the payment of any advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of his customer as compensation or in consideration for certain services or facilities furnished by or through such customer, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers of such member competing in the distribution of such products.

(1) As used in this paragraph, the certain services or facilities referred to are such as are furnished by or through the customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale, of such industry member's products.

(d) Prohibited discrimination in services or facilities. In the sale of dolls or stuffed toys bought for resale, with or without processing, it is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser by furnishing certain services or facilities upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(1) The services or facilities referred to in this paragraph are such as are connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale, of the products purchased, and the term "furnishing" as used in this paragraph shall be construed as including contracting to furnish, and contributing to the furnishing of, the services or facilities.

(e) Inducing or receiving an illegal discrimination in price. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, in the course of commerce[1] in which he is engaged, knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by the foregoing provisions of this section.

(f) Exemptions. The inhibitions of this section shall not apply to purchases of their supplies for their own use by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit. [Rule 3]

§ 173.4 Unfair threats of infringement suits. The circulation of threats of suit for infringement of patents or trade-marks among customers or prospective customers of competitors, not made in good faith but for the purpose or with the effect of thereby harassing or intimidating such customers or prospective customers, or of unduly hampering, injuring, or prejudicing competitors in their business, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 4]

§ 173.5 Commercial bribery. It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry to give, or offer to give, or permit or cause to be given, directly or indirectly, money or anything of value to agents, employees, or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees, or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase dolls or stuffed toys manufactured or sold by such industry member or the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors or from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors. [Rule 5]

§ 173.6 Selling below cost. The practice of selling dolls or stuffed toys below the seller's cost, when pursued with wrongful intent of thereby injuring a competitor and where the effect of such practice is to unreasonably restrain trade, tend to create a monopoly, or substantially lessen competition, is an unfair trade practice.

This section is not to be construed as prohibiting all sales below cost, but only such selling below the seller's cost as is resorted to and pursued as a monopolistic practice with the wrongful intent referred to and coupled with the effect of unreasonably restraining trade, tending to create a monopoly, or substantially lessening competition.

The costs referred to in this section are actual costs of the respective seller and not some other figure or average costs in the industry determined by an industry cost survey or otherwise. [Rule 6]

§ 173.7 Consignment distribution. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to employ the practice of shipping dolls or stuffed toys on consignment or pretended consignment for the purpose and with the effect of artificially clogging or closing trade outlets and unduly restricting competitors' use of said trade outlets in getting their products to consumers through regular channels of distribution, and with the effect of thereby injurying, destroying, or preventing competition, or tending to create a monopoly or to unreasonably restrain trade. However, nothing in this section shall be construed as restricting or preventing consignment shipping or marketing of dolls or stuffed toys in good faith where suppression of competition, restraint of trade, or undue interference with competitors' use of the usual channels of distribution, is not effected. [Rule 7]

§ 173.8 Enticing away employees of competitors. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry wilfully to entice away employees of competitors with the intent and effect of thereby unduly hampering or injuring competitors in their business and destroying or substantially lessening competition: Provided, That nothing in this rule shall be construed as prohibiting employees or agents from seeking or obtaining more favorable employment. [Rule 8]

§ 173.9 Use of lottery schemes. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to sell, distribute, or promote the sale or distribution of dolls or stuffed toys by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme. [Rule 9]

§ 173.10 Combination or coercion to fix prices, suppress competition, or restrain trade. It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry, or any other person:

(a) To use, directly or indirectly, any form of threat, intimidation, or coercion against any member of the industry or other person to unlawfully fix, maintain, or enhance prices, suppress competition, or restrain trade; or

(b) To enter into or take part in, directly or indirectly, any agreement, understanding, combination, conspiracy, or concerted action with one or more members of the industry, or with one or more other persons, to unlawfully fix, maintain, or enhance prices, suppress competition, or restrain trade. [Rule 10]

§ 173.11 Tie-in sales. The practice of coercing or requiring the purchase of one or more products as a prerequisite or condition to the purchase of one or more other products, where the effect may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or to unreasonably restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 11]

§ 173.12 Deception in general. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to use, or cause or promote the use of, any trade promotional literature, advertising matter, guarantee, warranty, mark, brand, label, designation, or representation, however disseminated or published, which has the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public:

(a) With respect to the grade, quality, quantity, weight, size, type, kind, brand, color, design, characteristics, workmanship, construction, composition, material, finish, washability, sanitary properties, performance, durability, or origin of any doll or stuffed toy; or

(b) With respect to the price, value, or terms or conditions of sale, of any doll or stuffed toy; or

(c) With respect to the manufacture, distribution, or marketing of any such product; or

(d) In any other material respect. [Rule 12]

§ 173.13 Deception as to used material or merchandise. (a) It is an unfair trade practice to sell, offer for sale, advertise, or otherwise represent, directly or indirectly, any doll or stuffed toy as being new when such product is not in fact new or is not composed wholly of new parts and materials.

(b) In the marketing of dolls or stuffed toys containing used or secondhand parts, materials or accessories, it is an unfair trade practice to fail or refuse to make full and nondeceptive disclosure, by tag or label attached to the merchandise and in all advertising and trade promotional literature, of the fact that such dolls or stuffed toys, or parts or materials or accessories, are not new but are used or secondhand, such failure or refusal to disclose having the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as permitting the sale or distribution of dolls or stuffed toys which contain any unsanitary materials. [Rule 13]

§ 173.14 Deception as to status of distributor. The practice by a member of the industry of selling or marketing dolls or stuffed toys through a pretended independent distributor, in such manner or under such circumstances as to lead purchasers or prospective purchasers to believe that such distributor is independent of such industry member when such is not the fact, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 14]

§ 173.15 Discriminatory returns. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] to discriminate in favor of one customer-purchaser against another customer-purchaser of dolls or stuffed toys, bought from such member for resale, by contracting to furnish, or furnishing in connection therewith, upon terms not accorded to all customer-purchasers on proportionally equal terms, the service or facility whereby such favored purchaser is accorded the privilege of returning products so purchased and receiving therefor credit or refund of purchase price.

However, nothing in §§ 173.1 to 173.16, inclusive, shall be construed as prohibiting the return of merchandise by purchasers for credit or refund of purchase price because such merchandise is defective in material, workmanship, or in any other respect, contrary to guarantee, warranty, or purchase contract. [Rule 15]

§ 173.16 False invoicing. Withholding from or inserting in an invoice, billing, or statement any material information by reason of which omission or insertion a false record is made, wholly or in part, of the transaction which such invoice, billing, or statement purports to represent, with the effect of thereby misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 16]

GROUP II

§ 173.100 General statement. Compliance with trade practice provisions embraced in §§ 173.101 and 173.102 is considered to be conducive to sound business methods and is to be encouraged and promoted individually or through voluntary cooperation exercised in accordance with existing law. Nonobservance of such rules does not per se constitute violation of law. Where, however, the practice of not complying with § 173.101 or § 173.102 is followed in such manner as to result in unfair methods of competition, or unfair or deceptive acts or practices, corrective proceedings may be instituted by the Commission as in the case of violation of §§ 173.1 to 173.16, inclusive.

§ 173.101 Return of merchandise. The practice, by members of the industry, of selling any doll or stuffed toy and later permitting the purchaser to return it for credit or refund of purchase price,

[1] As here used, the word "commerce" means "trade or commerce among the several States and with foreign nations, or between the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States and any State, Territory, or foreign nation, or between any insular possessions or other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or between any such possession or place and any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia or any foreign nation, or within the District of Columbia or any Territory or any insular possession or other place under the jurisdiction of the United States".

[1] See footnote on p. 4226.

without just cause, creates waste and loss, increases the cost of doing business to the detriment of both the industry and the public, and is condemned by the industry, subject, however, to the requirements and limitations set forth in the provisions of §§ 173.3 and 173.15.

§ 173.102 Arbitration. The industry approves the practice of handling business disputes between members of the industry and their customers in a fair and reasonable manner, coupled with a spirit of moderation and good will, and every effort should be made by the disputants themselves to compose their differences. If unable to do so they should, if possible, submit these disputes to arbitration.

PART 4—OPERATIONS OF THE BANKS

DEPOSITS FROM MEMBERS

JUNE 25, 1947.

Notice having been duly given pursuant to 24 C. F. R. 8.3 (c), of the proposed amendment of 24 C. F. R. 4.1 (f), said amendment is hereby adopted effective June 28, 1947, as follows:

§ 4.1 General powers. • • •

(f) Deposits from members. (1) Banks may accept demand deposits from members, but no interest shall be paid thereon. At least 25% of such funds on deposit shall be reserved in the form of cash and/or U. S. Treasury Bills. The remaining 75% of such funds on deposit shall be invested within the provisions of section 11 (g) of the act. The Governor may, in his discretion, upon the application of a Bank, waive all or a part of these reserve requirements, subject to the provisions of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, as now or hereafter amended. Immediate withdrawal may be permitted in the form of the check of the Bank or as otherwise authorized from time to time by order of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration.

(2) Banks may accept time deposits from members but shall reserve the right to require, in writing, thirty days' notice of intention to withdraw such deposits or any part thereof. At least 25% of such funds on deposit shall be reserved in the form of cash and/or U. S. Treasury Bills. The remaining 75% of such funds on deposit shall be invested within the provisions of section 11 (g) of the act. The Governor may, in his discretion, upon the application of a Bank, waive all or a part of these reserve requirements, subject to the provisions of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, as now or hereafter amended. The rates of interest to be paid on such deposits as remain unwithdrawn for periods of thirty days or more may be established by the board of directors of each Bank, within the ranges established by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration. Withdrawals of such deposits shall be in the form of the check of the Bank, or in such other manner as may from time to time be authorized by order of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration.

(3) As used in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, the word "cash" shall not include deposits in any other Bank.

PART 802—GENERAL LICENSES

SHIPMENTS OF LIMITED VALUE

Section 802.10 Shipments of limited value "GLV" is amended to read as follows:

§ 802.10 Shipments of limited value "GLV"—(a) Purpose and symbol. The general license for shipments of limited value "GLV" authorizes the exportation from the United States without a validated export license of shipments falling within certain specified value limits. In making shipments under this general license the exporter must note the symbol GLV on the Shipper's Export Declaration to certify that his shipment conforms to the provisions of this general license.

(b) Definitions and interpretations. The following definitions and interpretations are applicable to this general license:

(1) "Single shipment" means the shipment of all commodities which move at the same time from one exporter to one importer on the same exporting carrier.

(2) "Net value" means the actual selling price less shipping charges or the current market price to the same type of purchaser in the United States, whichever is the larger.

(3) "One importer" is interpreted as follows: For exportation under the provisions of general license GLV, not more than the amount authorized under this general license may be exported in a single shipment from a designated exporter to a designated consignee or to an intermediate consignee even though such shipment is to be forwarded to one or more ultimate consignees.

(c) General provisions. (1) Subject to the special provisions for Mexico set forth in paragraph (d) of this section, all commodities included in the list of commodities set forth in § 801.2 of this chapter which have a dollar value specified may be exported to Group K destinations, or to Group E destinations where, in a single shipment, the net value of the commodities classified in a single entry in the Positive List does not exceed the specified dollar value limit in the columns headed "GLV Dollar Value Limits Country Group K" or "GLV Dollar Value Limits Country Group E," whichever is applicable.

(2) Commodities not included in the list of commodities set forth in § 801.2 of this chapter may be exported to Group K destinations without value limit under the general license set forth in § 802.7. Such commodities may be exported under general license GLV to Group E destinations where, in a single shipment, the net value of all the commodities classified under a single Schedule B number does not exceed $25.

(3) Commodities licensed by other government agencies and commodities included in the list of commodities set forth in § 801.2 of this chapter with the word "none" in the country group under the column headed "GLV Dollar Value Limits" may not be exported under this general license.

(4) Where an asterisk precedes the dollar value limit for any commodity in the list of commodities set forth in § 801.2 of this chapter, all forms, conversions and derivatives of such commodity, even though not covered by the Schedule B number for the entry, are included in the value specified.

(d) Special provisions for Mexico. (1) Exportations to Mexico under the provisions of general license "GLV" are permitted only when such shipments are made in conformity with one of the following two conditions:

(i) The shipment is a "single shipment" as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, provided that such shipment is transported by a common carrier or is a mail shipment; or

(ii) If the shipment is not a mail shipment or is transported otherwise than by a common carrier not more than one such shipment may be made by or on behalf of the same exporter to or for the account of the same ultimate consignee during the same calendar week.

(2) Any person making an exportation to Mexico under this general license which is not a mail shipment and which is to be transported otherwise than by common carrier shall enter on his Shipper's Export Declaration covering such shipment a certification in the following form:

The undersigned certifies to the Department of Commerce that the merchandise above described is the only shipment of the commodity(ies) classified under the Schedule B number(s) set forth herein to be exported under the provisions of general license "GLV" by the undersigned exporter to the consignee named herein during the current calendar week.

Signed

(3) Collectors of Customs are authorized to limit or prevent altogether the exportation of any commodity to Mexico under this general license whenever they shall have cause to suspect that such exportation is being made for the purpose or with the intent of evading any of the regulations of the Department of Commerce.

(4) In any case where the Collector of Customs determines that the limitations in subdivision (ii) of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph would create an unnecessary hardship or that an emergency exists in a particular case, he is authorized to permit more than one such shipment in a calendar week under this general license: Provided, That the value of each such shipment does not exceed the value limitation provided for the commodities included in such shipment under this general license.

(Sec. 6, 54 Stat. 714, 55 Stat. 206, 56 Stat. 463, 58 Stat. 671, 59 Stat. 270, 60 Stat. 215; 50 U. S. C. App. & Sup. 701, 702; E. O. 9630, Sept. 27, 1945, 10 F. R. 12245)

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 8184]

PART 1—ORGANIZATION, PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

PART 43—REPORTS (RULES GOVERNING THE FILING OF INFORMATION, CONTRACTS, PERIODIC REPORTS, ETC.)

REPORTS OF CHANGES IN DEPRECIATION RATES OF COMMUNICATION COMMON CARRIERS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the matter of rules and regulations concerning reports of changes in depreciation rates of communication common carriers;

It appearing, that on May 8, 1947, the Commission adopted a notice of proposed rule making which was distributed among interested parties and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 24, 1947 (12 F. R. 3360), setting forth the proposed addition of a new section, § 43.43, to Part 43 (Reports) of the Commission's rules and regulations, as described in that notice, and the proposed rescission of Commission Order No. 100 (7 F. R. 4277) and § 1.551, and providing for comment upon such proposal by any interested person;

It further appearing, that the period in which interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit comment expired on June 15, 1947, and the Commission has not received any comments in opposition to the said proposal;

It further appearing, that since many carriers make changes in depreciation rates on July 1, and since representatives of the carriers participated in the formulation of the proposed rule and no carrier has expressed any opposition thereto, the Commission finds that both the public interest and the interest of the carriers will best be served by making this order effective less than thirty days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER as required by section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act.

It is ordered, That § 43.43 is added to Part 43 (Reports) of the Commission's rules and regulations, as follows:

§ 43.43 Reports of changes in depreciation rates. (a) Each communication common carrier subject to the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, having annual operating revenues in excess of $250,000 shall, with respect to any proposed change in its depreciation rates, and at least sixty (60) days prior to the last day of the month in the accounts for which the effect of such change is first recorded, file with the Commission, in triplicate, the following information with respect to each depreciation rate proposed to be changed on or after the effective date of this section:

(1) A statement showing the class or subclass of plant to which applicable, the effective date of the proposed change, the rate in effect immediately before and after such change, and the corresponding service-life and net-salvage estimates;

(2) A general statement describing the method or methods employed in the development of the service-life and the net-salvage estimates, and the reasons for the proposed change in the rate.

(b) When the proposed change in rate applicable to any class or subclass of plant (1) amounts to twenty percent (20%) or more of the rate currently applied thereto, or (2) would have changed by one percent (1%) or more the aggregate annual depreciation charges for all depreciable plant if the new rate applicable to such class or subclass had been in effect during the preceding calendar year, the statements required in paragraph (a) of this section shall be supplemented by copies of supporting data, calculations, and charts underlying the service-life and net-salvage estimates. (If compliance with this requirement involves submittal of a large volume of data of a repetitive nature, an illustrative portion may be filed.)

(c) The foregoing statements shall be accompanied by a statement, likewise in triplicate, showing the expected net change in the annual depreciation charges resulting from the revised depreciation rates and indicating the basis of determining the expected net change.

It is further ordered, That Commission Order No. 100 is rescinded, and that § 1.551 of the Commission's rules and regulations is revised so as to make proper cross-reference to § 43.43, as follows:

§ 1.551 Reports of changes in depreciation rates. Carriers having annual operating revenues in excess of $250,000 shall file reports relating to changes in depreciation rates as required by § 43.43 of this chapter.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective July 1, 1947.

PART 18—INDUSTRIAL, SCIENTIFIC AND MEDICAL SERVICE

UNLICENSED OPERATION OF INDUSTRIAL HEATING EQUIPMENT

In the matter of amendment of §§ 18.21 and 18.22 of Part 18 of the Commission's rules and regulations.

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 25th day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the revision of Part 18 of its rules and regulations which permits the unlicensed operation of industrial heating equipment manufactured and assembled on or after July 1, 1947, only if such equipment is covered by a certification of the manufacturer or a competent engineer, containing certain data with respect to the operation of such equipment; and

It appearing, that the Commission having determined from available information that the public interest would be served by permitting the temporary certification on a tentative basis of industrial heating equipment manufactured during the period July 1, 1947 through December 31, 1947; and

It further appearing, that the proposed amendments to the Commission's rules and regulations are designed to relax certain requirements contained therein, which requirements will be effective on June 30, 1947, and that compliance with the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to public interest, convenience and necessity;

It is ordered, effective June 30, 1947, that the following proviso be added to §§ 18.21 and 18.22 of Part 18 of the Commission's rules and regulations: "Provided, That the certification required by this section may, for equipment manufactured and assembled during the period July 1, 1947 to December 31, 1947, be tentative in nature stating that tests sufficient to make the full certification required above have not been completed but that certain tests have been completed upon the basis of which it is believed that the equipment meets requirements of these rules and regulations. No such tentative certification shall be valid for a period in excess of six months from the date of tentative certification or beyond March 31, 1948. Any such tentative certification, to be valid, shall also contain a guarantee of the certifier to give the full certification required by this section, within the period during which the tentative certification is valid, and to make such changes and modifications in the equipment covered as may be necessary for the equipment to be entitled to such full certification."

[Docket No. 8401]

PART 31—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR CLASS A AND CLASS B TELEPHONE COMPANIES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of June 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the matter of an amendment of Part 31 (Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Telephone Companies) of the Commission's rules and regulations;

It appearing that on May 28, 1947, the Commission adopted a notice of proposed rule making which was distributed among interested parties and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 5, 1947 (12 F. R. 3676), setting forth a proposed amendment of Part 31 of the Commission's rules and regulations, as described in that notice, and providing for comment upon such proposal by any interested person;

It further appearing that the period in which interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit comment expired on June 16, 1947, and that the Commission has not received any comments in opposition to the said proposal;

It further appearing that under section 220 (g) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, notice of alterations by the Commission in the required manner or form of keeping accounts shall be given by the Commission at least six months before the same are to take effect;

It is ordered, That effective January 1, 1948, Part 31 (Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Telephone Companies) of the Commission's rules and regulations, is amended as set forth below.

Amendment of Part 31 (Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Telephone Companies) of the Commission's rules and regulations as revised to August 1, 1946.[1]

1. Following § 31.01–9, insert the following new instruction:

§ 31.01–9a Sequence of accounts. The order in which the accounts are presented in this system of accounts is not to be considered as necessarily indicative of the order in which they will be scheduled at all times in reports to the Commission.

2. Amend § 31.1–13 (b) to read as follows:

(b) The necessary adjustments for the difference between (1) the face amount of bonds and other evidences of debt that have been reacquired and (2) the amounts actually paid for them plus the amounts of expenses incurred in connection with their reacquisition shall be included, when a debit, in account 413, "Miscellaneous debits to earned surplus," and when a credit, in account 402, "Miscellaneous credits to earned surplus." In the case of refinancing, amounts that ordinarily would thus be charged or credited to earned surplus may be made subject to amortization upon approval by the Commission in the specific instance.

3. Following § 31.1–13, paragraph (b), add new paragraphs as follows:

(c) The necessary adjustments for the difference between (1) the face amount of bonds and other evidences of debt that previously have been reacquired and are resold and (2) the amounts actually received for them less the amounts of expense incurred in connection with their resale shall be included when a debit in account 413, "Miscellaneous debits to earned surplus," and, when a credit, in account 402, "Miscellaneous credits to earned surplus."

(d) The necessary adjustments for the difference between (1) the book amount of capital stock that has been reacquired and (2) the amount actually paid for it plus the amounts of expense incurred in connection with its reacquisition shall be included in account 179, "Other capital surplus," except that the excess of a debit adjustment over the balance in account 179, applicable to capital stock of the same class, shall be charged to earned surplus: And, provided further, That a credit adjustment shall be included in earned surplus to the extent that any previous charges to earned surplus on account of transactions in the same class of stock have not been offset by previous credits to earned surplus on account of such transactions.

(e) The necessary adjustments for the difference between (1) the book amount of capital stock that previously has been reacquired and is resold, and (2) the amount actually received for it less the amounts of expense incurred in connection with its resale shall be included in account 179, "Other capital surplus," except that the excess of a debit adjustment over the balance in account 179, applicable to capital stock of the same class, shall be charged to earned surplus: And provided further, That a credit adjustment shall be credited to earned surplus to the extent that any previous charges to earned surplus on account of transactions in capital stock of the same class have not been offset by previous credits to earned surplus on account of such transactions.

(f) The company's records shall be so maintained that in reports to the Commission there may be shown the extent to which the surplus accounts have been charged and credited in connection with transactions in each class of capital stock.

4. Amend paragraph (e) of § 31.1–14 to read as follows:

(e) When capital stock which has been actually issued or assumed by the company is reacquired the proportion (based upon the relation of the amount of stock reacquired to the total amount of that particular class or series of stock outstanding before its reacquirement) of the balance in the discount and premium account with respect to the stock reacquired shall be cleared to account 179, "Other capital surplus," except that any excess of a debit amount over the balance in account 179, applicable to capital stock of the same class, shall be charged to earned surplus: And, provided further, That a credit amount shall be credited to earned surplus to the extent that any previous charges to earned surplus on account of transactions in capital stock of the same class have not been offset by previous credits to earned surplus on account of such transactions.

5. Following § 31.1–17, insert a new section as follows:

§ 31.1–18 Surplus. (a) The accounts designated as capital surplus accounts are designed to show (1) paid-in surplus (i. e., proprietary contributions in excess of the stated capital included in the capital-stock accounts), (2) donated surplus (including (i) surplus created by donations of stock or assets by proprietary interests, and (ii) contributions of assets or forgiveness of debt by others) when the intent of the donor or bondholder is to increase the company's invested capital, (3) surplus arising from reacquisition or resale of, or otherwise trading in, the company's own capital stock, and (4) surplus arising from the reduction of the stated value of capital stock due to such occasions as retirement, reorganization, or recapitalization.

(b) The balance-sheet accounts designated as earned-surplus accounts are designed to show the accumulated undistributed surplus derived from the normal operations of the company and from all sources (including sales of fixed assets) other than those sources referred to in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Not later than April 1, 1948 (except as provided in note hereto), the company shall submit to the Commission a transcript of its capital-surplus account or accounts covering the entire period from inception to January 1, 1948, showing in detail the nature and amounts of charges and credits, respectively, and the balance that was or, if it had always been maintained, would have been in the account at the close of each year. The transcript shall be accompanied by a summary statement in which the charges and credits for the entire period covered by the transcript have been classified according to their nature and summarized to show the aggregate amount of each such classification as well as the aggregate amount of charges and credits, respectively, for the period and the resulting balance in the account or accounts at January 1, 1948.

NOTE: Where a segregation corresponding to account 179, "Other capital surplus," has not been maintained in the past and any credits which would have been made to that account are obviously exceeded by the charges which would have been made thereto, the company may file a certified statement, in lieu of the foregoing transcript and summary, specifying that as of December 31, 1947, the balance in account 181, "Unappropriated earned surplus," contained no capital surplus. For the purpose of this determination write downs or write offs of valid intangible assets shall be considered to have been a charge against other capital surplus, except where conclusive evidence indicates that such action was intended to be made against earnings.

6. Following § 31.100:4, insert a new section as follows:

§ 31.100:7 Telephone plant adjustment. (a) This account shall include the difference between the original cost (note instruction 31.01–3 (x)), estimated if not known, and the book cost of telephone plant, as at December 31, 1947, to the extent that such difference is not properly includible in account 100:4, "Telephone plant acquisition adjustment," and for which disposition has not previously been made.

(b) The amounts included in this account shall be so classified as to show the nature of each amount and shall be disposed of as the Commission may approve or direct.

NOTE: The provisions of this account shall not be construed as approving or authorizing the recording of appreciation of plant.

7. Amend paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 31.134:2 to read as follows:

(b) When any issue of capital stock, or a portion thereof, is reacquired, there shall be credited to this account and charged to account 179, "Other capital surplus," the amount herein with respect to such stock, except that any excess of such amount over the balance in account 179 applicable to capital stock of the same class, shall be charged to earned surplus.

(c) The company may amortize or write off the balance carried in this account by credits hereto and concurrent charges to account 179, "Other capital surplus," or to earned surplus in case the amount exceeds the balance in account 179 applicable to the same class of stock.

8. Following § 31.174, insert a new section as follows:

§ 31.179 Other capital surplus. Among the amounts includible in this account are credits arising from the reacquisition and resale, from the retirement and cancellation, from a reduction of a stated value, and from the donation by stockholders of the company's capital stock; surplus arising from the forgiveness of debt of the company; surplus recorded upon the reorganization or recapitalization of the company; and amounts that become the property of the company as a result of a forfeiture by others of deposits on subscriptions to capital stock and of installments paid on capital stock.

NOTE: When the circumstances under which debt is forgiven indicate that its forgiveness is an adjustment of earned surplus, it may be treated as such upon the approval by this Commission in the specific instance.

9. Change the center caption "Surplus" to read "Earned Surplus" and amend § 31.180, "Surplus reserved," to read as follows:

§ 31.180 Earned surplus reserved. (a) This account shall include the amount of earned surplus reserved or otherwise set aside for any purpose not provided for elsewhere. (Note § 31.3–31.)

(b) Separate subaccounts shall be maintained under such titles as will designate the purpose for which each reserve recorded hereunder was created.

10. Amend § 31.181, "Unappropriated surplus," to read as follows:

§ 31.181 Unappropriated earned surplus. An account under this title shall be maintained in the general books of the company. It shall include the balance of all earned surplus accounts (400 to 416, inclusive).

11. Amend § 31.402 to read as follows:

§ 31.402 Miscellaneous credits to earned surplus. This account shall include amounts creditable to earned surplus not provided for elsewhere. Among the items which shall be credited to this account are (Note § 31.01–8):

Amount of adjustments arising from transactions in the company's own capital stock which are not includible in account 179. (Note § 31.1–13 (d), (e), (f).)

Amounts of the credit balance at the time of its reacquirement in the discount, premium, and debt expense account relating to long-term debt reacquired. (Note § 31.1–15.)

Amounts received for abrogation of contracts.

Credits for amounts previously written off through charges to earned surplus.

Credits from adjustments in connection with the reacquisition of bonds and other evidences of debt. (Note also § 31.1–13 (b).)

Delayed credits to income, operating revenue, and operating expense accounts as provided in § 31.01–5.

Forfeitures of amounts deposited with the company under options for the sale or lease of property.

Profits arising from foreign exchange. (Note § 31.01–7.)

Profits derived from the resale of company securities owned other than capital stock.

Profits derived from the sale of securities of other companies.

Profits derived from the sale of unexpired leases.

Profits from the sale of land carried in account 103 and of depreciable property in account 103 not previously used in telephone service. (Note also account 174.)

Unclaimed dividends.

Unclaimed wages and vouchered accounts written off.

12. Amend § 31.413 to read as follows:

§ 31.413 Miscellaneous debits to earned surplus. This account shall include amounts chargeable to earned surplus not provided for elsewhere. Among the items which shall be charged to this account are (Note § 31.01–8):

Amortization, at the company's option, of the balance in account 201.

Amortization not provided for elsewhere.

Amount of adjustments arising from transactions in the company's own capital stock which are not includible in account 179. (Note § 31.1–13 (d), (e), (f).)

Amounts charged to earned surplus to cover past accrued depreciation not provided for. (Note also account 171.)

Amounts charged to earned surplus to extinguish, at the company's option, all or any part of the debit balance remaining in any particular discount, premium, and debt expense account for long-term debt actually outstanding. (Note § 31.1–15.)

Amounts charged to earned surplus in recognition of the decline in value of current assets and securities owned. (Note §§ 31.1–11, 31.1–12.)

Amounts of capital-stock expense written off which are not includible in account 179. (Note account 134:2.)

Amounts of the debit balance at the time of its reacquirement in the discount, premium, and debt expense account relating to long-term debt reacquired. (Note § 31.1–15.)

Amounts paid for abrogation of contracts.

Appropriations to nonpar stock accounts. (Note § 31.1–16:1.)

Debits resulting from adjustments required in connection with the reacquisition of bonds and other evidences of debt. (Note § 31.1–13.)

Delayed debits to income, operating revenue, and operating expense accounts as provided in § 31.01–5.

Forfeiture of amounts deposited by the company under options for the purchase or lease of property.

Inventory, appraisal, and other costs incident to the contemplated acquisition, sale or lease of property when the projects are abandoned.

Losses arising from foreign exchange. (Note § 31.01-7.)

Losses of funds due to bank failures.

Losses resulting from the resale of company securities owned other than capital stock.

Losses resulting from the sale of land carried in account 103 and losses resulting from the sale, destruction, or retirement of depreciable property carried in account 103 not previously used in telephone service. (Note account 174.)

Losses resulting from the sale of securities of other companies.

Payments of amounts previously written off through credits to earned surplus.

Penalties and fines paid on account of violations of statutes pertaining to regulation.

Uncollectible receivables, or provisions therefor, not chargeable to other accounts.

13. Make the following changes in the table of contents and other points of reference:

(a) Make the following additions to the table of contents:

(1) Following § 31.01-9 insert: "31.01-9A Sequence of accounts."

(2) Following § 31.1-17 insert: "31.1-18 Surplus."

(3) Following § 31.100:4 insert: "31.100:7 Telephone plant adjustment."

(4) Following § 31.174 insert: "31.179 Other capital surplus."

(5) Following § 31.174 insert: "Earned" to precede the word "Surplus."

(6) Change § 31.180 as follows: "31.180 Earned surplus reserved."

(7) Change § 31.181 as follows: "31.181 Unappropriated earned surplus."

(8) Following § 31.343 insert: "Earned" to precede the word "Surplus" in the heading.

(9) Change § 31.4-40 as follows: "31.4-40 Purpose of earned surplus accounts."

(10) Following § 31.4-40 insert: "Earned" to precede the word "Surplus" in heading.

(11) Change § 31.402 as follows: "31.402 Miscellaneous credits to earned surplus."

(12) Change § 31.413 as follows: "31.413 Miscellaneous debits to earned surplus."

(13) Change § 31.414 as follows: "31.414 Contractual reservations of earned surplus."

(14) Change § 31.415 as follows: "31.415 Miscellaneous reservations of earned surplus."

(b) Change cross reference to § 31.1-13 (b) to read § 31.1-13 (d-f) at the following points:

Section	Paragraph	Line (of paragraph)
31.01-3	(ee)	12
31.134:2	(a)	6
31.150	(b)	5

(c) Insert the word "earned" to precede the word "surplus" at the following points:

SUBPART A—REGULATIONS

§ 34.1 Coverage. (a) The regulations in this part shall be applicable to persons appointed under section 11 of the Administrative Procedure Act for proceedings pursuant to sections 7 and 8 of that act, and to hearing examiner positions.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the regulations in this part, the rules and regulations applicable to positions in the competitive service shall apply to hearing examiner positions.

§ 34.2 Definitions—(a) In general. The definitions in § 4.301 of this chapter shall apply to terms used in the regulations in this part except as such terms are otherwise defined herein.

(b) Hearing examiner position. A hearing examiner position is one in which any portion of the duties includes those prescribed by the Administrative Procedure Act for presiding officers appointed under section 11 thereof. Decision within the Commission as to whether or not a particular position is a hearing examiner position when presented for allocation shall be made by the Commission's Personnel Classification Division.

(c) Agency. Agency means an agency subject to the Administrative Procedure Act as defined in that act.

(d) Removal. As used in the regulations in this part, removal means any involuntary change in the status of a hearing examiner, including demotion, promotion, reassignment, removal and suspension as defined in § 4.301 of this chapter.

§ 34.3 Board of examiners. All examinations held under authority of the Administrative Procedure Act shall be conducted by a board appointed by the Commission, to be known as the Board of Examiners for Hearing Examiner Positions. The Board shall consist of three members, not more than one of whom shall be selected from among officers or employees of the Commission. The Board shall function as a section of the Examining and Placement Division.

§ 34.4 Appointment of incumbents—(a) Incumbents with competitive status. Persons who were serving in positions that became hearing examiner positions on June 11, 1947, and who have competitive status may be given permanent appointments as hearing examiners, with the prior approval of the Commission. The Commission's approval will be given only after the qualifications of the person concerned have been passed upon and his character and suitability for Federal employment have been established by investigation. An oral interview may also be required. Persons proposed for permanent appointment under this paragraph who were conditionally appointed on June 11, 1947, may be continued under such conditional appointment pending receipt of the Commission's approval or disapproval of a permanent appointment.

(b) Incumbents without competitive status—(1) Temporary or war service appointees. Persons who were serving under a temporary or war service appointment in positions that became hearing examiner positions on June 11, 1947, must compete in the open competitive examination in order to qualify for a permanent appointment as a hearing examiner. Until such time as a register is established, persons formerly serving under a temporary or war service appointment who were given a conditional appointment on June 11, 1947, may continue to serve under such conditional appointment with the prior approval of the Commission. The Commission's approval will be given only after the qualifications of the person concerned have been passed upon and his character and suitability for Federal employment have been established by investigation. An oral interview may also be required. The conditional appointment that was given on June 11, 1947, may be continued pending receipt of the Commission's approval or disapproval.

(2) Excepted appointees. (i) Persons who were serving under an excepted appointment in positions that became hearing examiner positions on June 11, 1947, and who were appointed to such positions prior to December 11, 1946, may acquire a competitive status in accordance with Civil Service Rule III and the Commission's regulations thereunder (Part 3 of this chapter). The Commission's approval of persons proposed for status under this subdivision will be given only after the qualifications of the person concerned have been passed upon and his character and suitability for Federal employment have been established by investigation. An oral interview may also be required. Persons proposed for status under this subdivision who were given a conditional appointment on June 11, 1947, may be continued under such conditional appointment pending receipt of the Commission's approval or disapproval of the granting of status.

(ii) Persons who were serving under an excepted appointment in positions that became hearing examiner positions on June 11, 1947, and who were appointed to such positions subsequent to December 11, 1946, must compete in the open competitive examination in order to qualify for a permanent appointment as a hearing examiner. Until such time as a register is established, persons of this class who were given a conditional appointment on June 11, 1947, may continue to serve under such conditional appointment with the prior approval of the Commission. The Commission's approval will be given only after the qualifications of the person concerned have been passed upon and his character and suitability for Federal employment have been established by investigation. An oral interview may also be required. Pending receipt of the Commission's approval or disapproval, the conditional appointment that was given on June 11, 1947, may be continued.

§ 34.5 Method of filling vacancies. (a) Vacancies in hearing examiner positions shall be filled either:

(1) By selection from the open competitive eligible register, upon requisition to and certification by the Commission, in accordance with § 34.6 and Part 2 of this chapter.

(2) By promotion, reassignment, or transfer, in accordance with § 34.7.

(3) By reinstatement or restoration, in accordance with § 34.8.

(4) By temporary utilization of examiners of another agency, in accordance with § 34.12.

§ 34.6 Appointments. (a) Except as otherwise provided in the regulations in this part, the regulations for appointment through the competitive system (Part 2 of this chapter) shall apply to appointments to hearing examiner position, Provided, That no appointment whatsoever, except one made by selection from a certificate of eligibles from the open competitive register, shall be made without the prior approval of the Commission.

(b) All appointments to hearing examiner positions shall be conditional for the first year of service in such position, except where the person appointed has previously served satisfactorily for one year in a hearing examiner position. At the completion of the first year of service (or at any time during the first year of service if the agency decides that the hearing examiner is performing his duties unsatisfactorily), agencies shall submit to the Commission a complete report on the work of the hearing examiner. On the basis of this report the Commission will decide whether or not the hearing examiner is qualified for a permanent appointment. When the decision is that the hearing examiner is not qualified, his appointment shall be terminated after opportunity for a hearing, in accordance with Subpart B.

§ 34.7 Promotion, reassignment, and transfer. (a) Promotion, reassignment, and transfer from one hearing examiner position to another shall be made only with the prior approval of the Commission. The Commission's approval will be given only after the qualifications of the person concerned have been passed upon. An investigation of his character and suitability and an oral interview may also be required.

(b) When an agency desires to fill a hearing examiner position by the promotion, reassignment, or transfer of a person who has a competitive status and is serving in a position other than a hearing examiner position, it shall submit its request to the Commission. An application form (Standard Form 57), executed by the person proposed for promotion, reassignment, or transfer, shall be submitted at the same time. The Commission will rate the applicant on the basis of the open competitive requirements and will enter his name on the open competitive register in accordance with the rating received. If the person is within reach for certification, the Commission will approve the promotion, reassignment, or transfer requested by the agency; otherwise it will disapprove the request.

§ 34.8 Reinstatement and restoration—(a) Reinstatement to a hearing examiner position. Reinstatement of a person with reinstatement status who formerly served as a hearing examiner or trial examiner shall be made only with the prior approval of the Commission. The Commission's approval will be given only after the qualifications of the person proposed for reinstatement have been passed upon and his character and suitability for Federal employment established by investigation. An oral interview may also be required.

(b) When an agency desires to fill a hearing examiner position by the reinstatement of a person who has a reinstatement status and who formerly served in a position other than a hearing examiner position, it shall submit its request to the Commission. An application form (Standard Form 57), executed by the person proposed for reinstatement, shall be submitted at the same time. The Commission will rate the applicant on the basis of the open competitive requirements and will enter his name on the open competitive register in accordance with the rating received. If the person is within reach for certification, the Commission will approve the reinstatement requested by the agency; otherwise it will disapprove the request.

(c) The regulations in Part 10 of this chapter governing reemployment and restoration of persons having reemployment or restoration rights shall apply to reemployment and restoration in hearing examiner positions. Persons applying for reemployment or restoration shall have the same status on the date of application for reemployment or restoration as they would have had under § 34.4 if they were serving in hearing examiner positions on June 11, 1947, and shall be required to qualify for permanent appointment in the manner prescribed by that section.

§ 34.9 Compensation. (a) Hearing examiner positions shall be allocated by the Commission under the Classification Act of 1923, as amended. Such allocations shall be made independently of agency recommendations and ratings.

(b) Hearing examiners shall receive within grade salary advancements in accordance with Part 25 of this chapter, except that the requirements of a good or better than good efficiency rating and of certification by head of the agency as to satisfactory service and conduct shall not apply.

§ 34.10 Efficiency ratings. Agencies shall not rate the efficiency of hearing examiners.

§ 34.11 Rotation of examiners. Insofar as practicable, examiners shall be assigned in rotation to cases of the level of difficulty and importance that are normally assigned to positions of the salary grade they hold.

§ 34.12 Utilization of examiners of other agencies. (a) At the request of agencies occasionally or temporarily insufficiently staffed, the Commission will arrange, if possible, for the temporary utilization by those agencies of the services of hearing examiners of other agencies.

(b) Agencies, by agreement between themselves, may arrange for the temporary utilization by one agency of a hearing examiner or hearing examiners of another agency. Such agreements must have the prior approval of the Commission before being put into effect.

§ 34.13 Separations—(a) Removals. Hearing examiners shall be subject to removal (as defined in § 34.2 (d)) by the agencies in which they are employed only for good cause established and determined by the Commission after opportunity for a hearing and upon the record thereof, as provided in the rules of practice in Subpart B.

(b) Furlough. In exceptional cases, where there are circumstances by reason of which the retention of a hearing examiner in his position, pending adjudication of the existence of good cause for his removal, would be detrimental to the interests of the Government, agencies shall either (1) assign the hearing examiner to duties in which these conditions would not exist, (2) place him on annual leave for the period that will be covered by the annual leave to his credit, or (3) furlough him. Action under this paragraph may be taken only with the prior approval of the Commission after filing of the letter of charges and the answer thereto.

(c) Dismissals at request of Commission. The procedures in this part governing the removal of hearing examiners shall not apply in making dismissals requested by the Commission under § 5.4 of the Civil Service Rules (E. O. 9830, Part II, 12 F. R. 1259, 1263).

§ 34.14 Reductions in force—(a) Retention credits. Retention credits for purposes of reductions in the force of hearing examiners are credits for length of service in determining retention order in each retention subgroup. They are computed by allowing one point for each full year of Federal Government service.

(b) Retention preference; classification. For the purpose of determining relative retention preference in reductions in force, hearing examiners shall be classified according to tenure of employment in competitive retention groups and subgroups, as follows:

Group A: All hearing examiners who have met all requirements for indefinite retention in their present positions. This includes all hearing examiners currently serving under absolute civil service appointments or who were appointed, transferred, or promoted from absolute civil service appointments to war service indefinite or trial period appointments without a break in service of 30 days or more.

A–1 Plus during one year period after return to duty from military, naval, or merchant marine service, as required by law.

A–1 With veteran preference.

A–2 Without veteran preference.

Group B: All hearing examiners serving under appointments limited to the duration of the present war or for the duration of the war and not to exceed six months thereafter, or otherwise limited in time to a period in excess of one year, except those specifically covered in Groups A and C.

B–1 With veteran preference.

B–2 Without veteran preference.

Group C: All hearing examiners serving under appointments specifically limited to one year or less, all non-citizen hearing examiners serving within the continental limits of the United States, all hearing examiners continued beyond the automatic retirement age, and all annuitants appointed under section 2 (b) of the Civil Service Retirement Act, as amended.

C–1 With veteran preference.

C–2 Without veteran preference.

(c) Appeals. (1) Any hearing examiner who feels that there has been a violation of his rights under the regulations governing reductions in force may appeal to the Commission (Attention: Chief Law Officer) within 10 days from the date he received his notice of the action to be taken.

(2) Each appeal shall state clearly the grounds on which it is based, whether error in the records, violation of the rule of selection, restriction of the competitive area or level, disregard of a specified right under the law or regulations, or denial of the right to examine the regulations, retention register, or records.

(3) The agency in which the hearing examiner is employed shall be notified of the appeal and shall be allowed to file an answer thereto.

(4) Except as modified by the foregoing subparagraphs of this paragraph, the procedures prescribed in the rules of practice governing the removal of hearing examiners (Subpart B) shall be followed in adjudicating appeals under this paragraph.

(d) Retention preference regulations. The retention preference regulations for use in reductions in force (Part 20 of this chapter), except as modified by this section, shall apply to reductions in the force of hearing examiners.

SUBPART B—HEARINGS IN REMOVAL CASES; RULES OF PRACTICE

§ 34.101 The Commission—(a) (1) Offices. The principal office of the Commission is at Washington, D. C.

(2) All communications to the Commission must be addressed to "United States Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Chief Law Officer," unless otherwise specifically directed.

(b) Hours. The office is open on each business day except Saturday from 8:45 a. m. to 5:15 p. m.

(c) Proceedings. The Commission may meet and exercise all its powers at any place and may, by one or more of its members or by such examiners as it may designate, conduct any inquiry or hearing necessary to its duties in any part of the United States.

§ 34.102 Executive officer. The Executive Director and Chief Examiner is the executive officer of the Commission and has legal custody of its papers, records, and property. All orders of the Commission shall be authenticated by the signature of the Executive Director and Chief Examiner or by such other officer as may be authorized by the Commission.

§ 34.103 Service. (a) Processes of the Commission shall be served by the Executive Director and Chief Examiner of the Commission by registered mail, except when service by other method shall be specifically ordered by the Commission, by registering and mailing a copy thereof addressed to the hearing examiner and to the agency involved in the proceedings under these rules of practice.

(b) When service is not accomplished by registered mail, processes of the Commission may be served by anyone duly authorized by the Commission or by any examiner of the Commission:

(1) By delivering a copy of the document to the person or the agency to be served; or

(2) By leaving a copy thereof at the principal office of such person or agency.

(c) The return post office receipt for processes registered and mailed as aforesaid, or the verified return by the person serving such process, setting forth the manner of said service, shall be proof of the service of the document.

§ 34.104 Appearance. (a) Any individual who is a party to a proceeding before the Commission under these rules of practice may appear for himself or by an attorney at law possessing the requisite qualifications, as hereinafter set forth, to practice before the Commission. Any agency may appear or be represented by an attorney at law possessing the requisite qualifications, as hereinafter set forth, to practice before the Commission.

(b) Attorneys at law who are admitted to practice before the Federal courts or before the courts of any State or Territory of the United States may practice before the Commission.

(c) No register of attorneys who may practice before the Commission in proceedings arising under these rules of practice shall be maintained. No application for admission to practice before the Commission is required. Written notice of appearance on behalf of a specific party or parties in a particular proceeding should be submitted by attorneys desiring to appear for such specific party or parties. The notice of appearance shall contain a statement that the attorney is eligible under the provisions of this section. Any attorney practicing before the Commission or desiring so to practice may, for good cause shown, be disbarred or suspended from practicing before the Commission, but only after he has been afforded an opportunity to be heard in the matter.

(d) No former officer, examiner, attorney, clerk, or other former employee of this Commission shall appear as attorney or counsel for or represent any party in any proceeding (or one factually related thereto) resulting from any investigation the files of which came to the personal attention of such former officer, examiner, attorney, clerk, or other former employee during the term of his service or employment with the Commission.

§ 34.105 Documents—(a) Filing. Documents submitted in a proceeding under these rules of practice shall be filed by delivering them by registered mail, addressed to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. (Attention: Chief Law Officer), or by personal delivery to the hearing examiner to whom the proceeding may be assigned.

(b) Form. Documents shall show clearly the title and docket number of the proceeding. If not printed, they shall be typewritten, double spaced, on one side of the paper. Signatures to documents shall be in written script above the typed name of the signer.

(c) Copies. Parties to a proceeding shall file with the Commission the original and four copies of documents submitted in the proceeding, other than correspondence, unless other specific directions are given.

§ 34.106 Complaint. Agencies shall initiate removal proceedings against a hearing examiner by filing with the Commission, attention Chief Law Officer, a complaint which shall set forth specifically and in detail the facts that are alleged to constitute good cause for the hearing examiner's removal. The complaint shall be captioned substantially as follows:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
BEFORE THE UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of [Examiner's Name], Hearing Examiner for [Agency Name] — Docket No. ----

. . . . .

The Complaint shall be signed and verified under oath by a representative or representatives of the agency; but the verification may be, to whatever extent desired, upon information and belief.

§ 34.107 Summons. Upon the filing of the complaint, the Commission, through its Chief Law Officer, may issue a summons to be served, with a copy of the complaint, upon the hearing examiner named in the complaint. The summons shall state the time within which these rules of practice require the hearing examiner to file an answer, and shall inform him of his right to a hearing.

§ 34.108 Answers. (a) In case of desire to contest the proceedings, the respondent shall, within fifteen (15) days of the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a concise statement of the facts that constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny, or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.

(b) Failure of the respondent to file answer within time above provided, or failure, without acceptable explanation, to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint.

(c) If respondent desires to waive hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and not to contest the facts, the answer may state that respondent admits all the material allegations of fact in the complaint. Respondent by such answer shall be deemed to have waived a hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and to have authorized the Commission, without further evidence or other intervening procedure, to find such facts to be true. The respondent may also give notice in writing that he desires to be heard on the question whether the admitted facts constitute good cause for removal as charged in the complaint.

§ 34.109 Investigations — (a) When made. The Chief Law Officer of the Commission shall make such investigations as may be necessary to develop all the facts and circumstances and to obtain pertinent testimony of witnesses.

(b) Manner of taking testimony in investigations. Testimony of witnesses in investigations made under this section will be taken by affidavit without any pledge of confidence. Where it is impracticable to obtain testimony under oath from the witness, such statement will be obtained without any pledge of confidence, as the circumstances will permit, and such weight will be given to the unsworn testimony as the record may warrant. Where, however, there is involved a question of the respondent's loyalty to the Government of the United States, testimony and evidence will be obtained under a pledge of confidence and the source of the information secured will not be divulged. Where there is a question of loyalty involved, the standards promulgated in Executive Order 9835 shall be applicable.

§ 34.110 Intervention. (a) So far as responsible conduct of public business shall permit, any interested person or organization, after leave granted, may appear before the Commission or its hearing examiner for the presentation, adjustment, or determination of any issue or controversy in any proceeding arising under these rules of practice.

(b) Any person or organization desiring to intervene shall make application in writing to the Commission, setting out the grounds on which he or it claims to be interested.

(c) The Commission may, by order, permit intervention by such person or organization, or by counsel for such person or organization, to the extent and upon such terms as it shall deem proper.

(d) The Commission's Chief Law Officer may intervene as provided in this section to present evidence obtained as a result of an investigation that he authorized, or for such other reasons as will qualify him as an interested person.

§ 34.111 Notice of hearing. After the filing of answer or other appropriate response, the Commission shall fix a time and place for a hearing and shall, by registered mail, send to the hearing examiner and to the department or agency who are parties to the proceeding, a notice of a time and place of hearing.

§ 34.112 Motions. (a) A party may submit any appropriate motion during the pendency of a proceeding by filing it with the Commission or with the presiding hearing examiner during the conduct of a hearing; or by leave of the presiding hearing examiner, may dictate it into the record during the course of a hearing.

(b) Any motion filed after submission by the presiding hearing examiner of a recommended decision to the Commission shall be acted upon by the Commission. Other motions shall be acted upon by the presiding hearing examiner, or may be referred by him to the Commission for decision: Provided, however, That if the ruling on the motion would be tantamount to final disposition of the case, the presiding hearing examiner shall submit the motion with his recommendation for ruling to the Commission, and shall serve a copy of his recommendation on each party, and shall fix a time within which they may file exceptions thereto. All rulings by a presiding hearing examiner shall be subject to review by the Commission upon its decision of the case.

§ 34.113 Continuances and extensions of time. The Commission or the presiding hearing examiner, upon timely motion and good cause shown, may extend any time limit prescribed by these rules of practice.

§ 34.114 Hearings. (a) All hearings under these rules of practice shall be public unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(b) Hearings shall be stenographically reported by the official reporter of the Commission under the supervision of the presiding hearing examiner. A transcript of said report shall be a part of the record and the sole official transcript of the proceedings. Transcripts will be supplied the parties and to the public by the official reporter at rates not to exceed the maximum rates fixed by contract between the Commission and the reporter.

(c) Each party shall have the right of due notice, cross examination, presentation of evidence, objection, exception, motion, argument, appeal, and all other rights guaranteed by law.

(d) The presiding hearing examiner may withdraw from a case when he deems himself disqualified, or he may be withdrawn by the Commission if timely evidence alleging personal bias or other disqualifications have been filed and the matter has been heard by the Commission or by a hearing examiner whom it has delegated to investigate and report.

(e) Changes in the official transcript may be made only when they involve errors affecting substance and then only in the manner herein provided. No changes shall be made in or upon the official record or copies thereof in the custody of the Commission. Lists of changes agreed to in writing by opposing counsel may be incorporated into the record if and when approved by the presiding hearing examiner at the close of evidence in support of the complaint, or at the final hearing before the presiding hearing examiner, or at any time thereafter before he files his report, and at no other times. If any changes are ordered by the presiding hearing examiner without such written agreement by the opposing counsel, they shall be subject to opposition and exception.

§ 34.115 Hearing examiners. (a) All hearings under these rules of practice shall be presided over by the Commission, by a member of the Commission, or by a hearing examiner appointed under the Administrative Procedure Act.

(b) The presiding hearing examiner is charged with the duty of conducting a fair and impartial hearing and of maintaining order in form and manner consistent with the dignity of the Commission. He will note on the record any disregard by counsel of his rulings on matters of order and procedure, and where he deems it necessary shall make special written report thereof to the Commission. In the event that counsel shall be guilty of disrespect to orders, or of contumacious language or conduct in connection with any hearing, the presiding hearing examiner shall, at the conclusion of the hearing, submit to the Commission his report thereon, together with his recommendation as to whether any ruling should be issued to show cause why such counsel should not be suspended or disbarred, or subjected to other appropriate action in respect thereto. A copy of such hearing examiner's report shall be furnished to any counsel upon whose language or conduct such report is made, and the Commission will take disciplinary action only after an opportunity for hearing has been accorded such counsel.

§ 34.116 Subpenas. (a) Subpenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or the production of documentary evidence from any place in the United States, at any designated place of hearing, may be issued by the presiding hearing examiner or by a member of the Commission. Application therefor may be made either to the presiding hearing examiner or to the Commission.

(b) Application for subpenas for the production of documentary evidence shall be made in writing to the presiding hearing examiner or to the Commission. The application must specify as exactly as possible the documents desired and show their general relevancy. The application shall be verified by oath or affirmation.

(c) An appeal may be taken to the Commission by the parties from the presiding hearing examiner's denial of a motion to quash or refusal to issue a subpena for the production of documentary evidence.

§ 34.117 Witnesses and fees. Witnesses at hearings and witnesses whose depositions are taken shall be entitled to the same fees and mileage as are paid for like services in courts of the United States. Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose instance the witness appears. A witness may decline to appear unless mileage and a fee for one day's appearance are paid in advance. Parties, other than Government agencies, should arrange for tender thereof when the subpena or notice to appear is served. Witnesses may appear voluntarily without subpena.

§ 34.118 Evidence—(a) In general. The agency supporting a complaint shall have the general burden of proof and the proponent of any factual proposition shall be required to sustain the burden of proof with reference thereto. The presiding hearing examiner shall rule upon offers of proof, receive relevant evidence, and shall exclude irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious evidence.

(b) Documentary. Where relevant and material matter offered in evidence is embraced in a document containing other matter not material or relevant and not intended to be put in evidence, such immaterial or irrelevant parts shall be excluded and shall be segregated insofar as practicable.

(c) Official notice of facts. Where any recommended decision of the presiding hearing examiner or any decision of the Commission, or part thereof, rests upon the taking of official notice of a material fact not appearing in the evidence in the record, any party shall, upon timely motion, be afforded an opportunity to show the contrary.

(d) Objections. Objections to evidence shall be stated briefly and shall include the grounds relied upon. The transcript shall not include argument on objections except as ordered by the presiding officer. Rulings on such objections shall appear in the record.

§ 34.119 Depositions — (a) When taken. For good and exceptional cause, testimony may be allowed to be taken by deposition upon written motion by a party to a proceeding.

(b) Form of motion. The motion for taking a deposition shall set out the reasons for taking, the proposed time and place, and the name and post office addresses of the witness and of the official proposed to take the depositions; and shall certify that a copy of the motion has been served, or is being coincidentally served, on all other parties. Any objection to the motion received from a party prior to action on the motion shall be duly considered.

(c) Action on motion. If the motion be granted, an order shall be issued specifying the time, place, and official before whom the deposition is to be taken, but these details need not coincide with those proposed in the motion.

(d) Method of taking. The deposition shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories, in accordance with generally recognized practices in respect to such procedure, and in accordance with specified directions (which shall be consistent with generally recognized practices) given in the order allowing the taking of the deposition.

§ 34.120 Admissions as to facts and documents—(a) Request for admission. At any time after answer has been filed, any party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission of the genuineness of any relevant document, or the admission of the truth of any relevant matters of fact set forth in such document.

(b) Procedure. A copy of the document shall be delivered with the request unless it has already been furnished. The requested admission shall be deemed made unless within a period designated in the request, not less than ten (10) days after service thereof, or within such further time as the Commission or hearing examiner may allow upon motion and notice, the party receiving said request serves upon the party making it a sworn denial, or a sworn statement setting forth why he can neither admit nor deny.

§ 34.121 Proposed findings and conclusions before hearing examiners. At the termination of a hearing, the hearing examiner shall fix a time within which parties may submit to the examiner proposed findings, conclusions, and reasons therefor (or briefs which may contain the same). Proposals submitted shall give exact references to the record and to authorities relied upon. The party shall furnish copies of briefs or proposals to other parties to the proceeding (certifying to the Commission that this has been done), and shall deliver to the examiner three copies including the original. Reasonable time for oral argument before the examiner shall be allowed on request.

§ 34.122 Hearing examiner's recommended decision. The hearing examiner, as soon as practicable after receipt of the transcript of the hearing and of submissions pursuant to the preceding section (or expiration of the time therefor) shall make and file a recommended decision in accordance with section 8 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act. All findings, conclusions, and orders recommended by the examiner shall be upon the whole record, together with matters of which he may take official notice, and shall accord with what he deems to be the applicable law and the greater weight of evidence.

§ 34.123 Exceptions. Upon filing the recommended decision, the examiner shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon each party to the proceeding. Any party may within ten (10) days submit exceptions to the examiner's recommended decision, or to any omission therein, and additional proposals for findings and conclusions, and reasons therefor. The portions of the record and authorities relied upon to sustain each point shall be clearly specified. A party making such submissions shall furnish copies to other parties (certifying to the Commission that this has been done), and shall file three copies, including the original, with the Commission.

§ 34.124 Commission's adjudication. Upon receipt of exceptions, filed pursuant to the preceding section, or expiration of time therefor, the examiner shall prepare the files of the proceeding for transmittal to the Commission, certifying that the record submitted is complete. The Commission will thereafter consider the entire record, including the recommended decision, and decide the issues in accordance with what it deems to be the applicable law and the greater weight of evidence.

§ 34.125 Reopening of proceedings. (a) Within seven (7) days after receipt of the Commission's order, any party may, for good cause shown, petition the Commission to reopen the proceeding for the reception of further evidence. Such petition shall clearly state the grounds relied on.

(b) The Commission may, upon consideration of the petition, order the proceeding to be reopened, and with such limitations as may seem proper, may authorize the reception of further evidence by the hearing examiner who presided at the original proceeding, by another hearing examiner designated by the Commission, by any member of the Commission, or by the Commission itself.

(c) The provisions of these rules of practice governing proceedings leading up to and through the Commission's adjudication shall apply to reopened proceedings.

§ 34.126 Report of action taken. (a) Not later than ten (10) days after receipt of the Commission's order, agencies shall report to the Commission the action taken or proposed to be taken.

(b) Where a petition for reopening a proceeding is filed and the petition is denied, the report required by this section shall be made not later than ten (10) days after notice of the denial of the petition is received. Where a petition for rehearing is granted, the required report shall be made not later than ten (10) days after receipt of the Commission's final decision and order.

NOTICES

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-910]

TENNESSEE GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

JUNE 24, 1947.

Upon consideration of the application filed June 13, 1947, by Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Houston, Texas, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing it through consolidation with Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company, a Tennessee corporation with its principal place of business in Houston, Texas, to do the following:

(1) To acquire and operate all the facilities now operated by Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company, subject to the Commission's jurisdiction, and to acquire, construct and operate facilities now under construction and authorized to be constructed by Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company pursuant to certificates of public convenience and necessity issued to it by the Commission; and

(2) To succeed to all other rights and obligations of Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company over which the Commission has jurisdiction under authority of the Natural Gas Act, as amended.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) Applicant states that it has not begun operations of any nature as it was organized for the sole purpose of acquiring the properties and other assets and assuming the liabilities of Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company;

(b) Applicant proposes the above-described acquisition and operation for the purpose of engaging in the transportation and sale in interstate commerce of natural gas for resale and states it will conduct its operations in all respects as Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company presently operates and will, therefore, be a natural-gas company subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission;

(c) Among other things, Applicant recites that it has entered into an agreement of consolidation with Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company, which agreement will constitute the charter or certificate of incorporation of the continuing corporation (Applicant) after the consolidation; that Applicant now has and the continuing corporation will have the same directors and officers as does Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company; that the outstanding capital stock of Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company will be converted into the same number of shares of the continuing corporation with substantially the same rights and preferences except that the authorized amount of preferred stock will be increased from 150,000 shares of the par value of $100 per share to 400,000 shares of the par value of $100 per share, and the authorized amount of common stock will be increased from 2,250,000 shares of the par value of $5 per share, to 5,000,000 shares, of the par value of $5 per share; that the outstanding capital stock will not be increased by such consolidation and the funded and other indebtedness will not be affected thereby; that the proposed consolidation and acquisition by Applicant will not require a revaluation of the properties of Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company, which will be acquired at their book values at the time of consolidation; and that no change will be recorded in the books of account of Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company because of the consolidation; nor will it necessitate any accounting entries, excepting the change of names.

(d) Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by Rule 32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946.)

The Commission, therefore, orders that:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946), a hearing be held on July 11, 1947 at 9:30 a. m. (e. d. s. t.) in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters of fact and law asserted in the application filed in this proceeding: Provided, however, That if no request to be heard, or protest, or petition to intervene, raising in the judgment of the Commission an issue of substance, has been filed or allowed, the Commission may, after such hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding by order upon consideration of the application and the evidence filed therewith with such additional evidence as may be available or as the Commission may require to be filed and incorporated in the record for its consideration.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by Rules 8 and 37 (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946).

(C) Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application, shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than July 9, 1947, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of the rules of practice and procedure (effective September 11, 1946), and shall set out clearly and concisely the facts from which the nature of the petitioner or protestant's alleged right or interest can be determined.

Date of issuance: June 25, 1947.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. IT-6066]

NORTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JUNE 23, 1947.

Notice is hereby given that on June 20, 1947, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act, by Northwestern Public Service Company (hereinafter called "Applicant"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware and doing business in the States of South Dakota and Nebraska with its principal business office at Huron, South Dakota, seeking an order authorizing the issuance of $1,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds (hereinafter called "New Bonds"), 3% Series. The New Bonds are proposed to be issued on or about August 1, 1947, and will mature on October 1, 1973. The New Bonds, if issued as coupon bonds, will have all interest coupons maturing prior to the date of issuance detached, and if sold as registered bonds, will bear interest from the interest payment date next preceding the date of issuance; and in either case the price to Applicant will include accrued interest from the last preceding interest payment date to the date of delivery and payment for the New Bonds. Applicant proposes to sell the New Bonds to The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States at a price of 101⅝% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest from April 1, 1947, to the date of delivery and payment; all as more fully appears in the application on file with the Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 11th day of July 1947, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 31-544]

INDUSTRIAL ELECTRICA MEXICANA, S. A.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of June 1947.

Industrial Electrica Mexicana, S. A., an electric utility company incorporated and operating in the Republic of Mexico, having filed an application and an amendment thereto pursuant to section 3 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 requesting an exemption from the provisions of said act which would otherwise attach to it as a direct subsidiary of Hydro-Electric Securities Company and as an indirect subsidiary of California Electric Power Company; and

A notice of filing having been issued on June 6, 1947, with respect to said application, said notice having stated that any interested person may not later than June 20, 1947, request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding that Industrial Electrica Mexicana, S. A., has no subsidiaries and derives no material part of its income, directly or indirectly, from sources within the United States, and is not a public utility company operating in the United States, and further finding that it is not detrimental to the public interest or the interests of investors or consumers to grant the exemption requested;

It is hereby ordered, Effective forthwith, that the application, as amended, of Industrial Electrica Mexicana, S. A., for exemption pursuant to section 3 (b) of the act be, and it hereby is, granted, said exemption being subject, however, to the provisions of section 3 (c) of the act, and said company remaining subject to any obligations imposed on it by any provisions of the act in any capacity other than that of a subsidiary company of a holding company.

By the Commission.

STANDARD GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. AND CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER CO.

ORDER PERMITTING APPLICATION-DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE AND RELEASING JURISDICTION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of June 1947.

On May 8, 1947, we issued our Order in this matter permitting, among other things, the proposed issue and sale by The California Oregon Power Company ("Copco") of 60,000 shares of its --% Cumulative Preferred Stock, par value $100 per share, and 18,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $20 per share, and the sale by Standard Gas and Electric Company ("Standard Gas"), the parent of Copco, of 390,000 shares of Common Stock of Copco, par value of $20 per share. These sales were to be made pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and our order provided that the sales should not be consummated until the results of the competitive bidding had been made a matter of record in these proceedings and a further order issued thereon.[1] Standard

[1] A further condition contained in our order of May 8, 1947 requiring Copco to obtain authorizations from the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California and the Public Utilities Commissioner of Oregon for the transactions proposed to be done by it in these proceedings has been satisfied by an amendment to Copco's application and declaration herein containing copies of the orders of these two State Commissions authorizing the transactions proposed to be done by Copco.

Gas and Copco by public advertisement invited separate sealed written bids for the aggregate amount of the Common Stock of Copco to be sold and Copco similarly advertised as to the preferred stock, which bids were to be opened on May 20, 1947. On May 19, however, Standard Gas and Copco considered it advisable to postpone the opening of all bids in view of the market conditions existing on that date and so notified the interested prospective bidders and this Commission.

The applicants-declarants have now filed amendments to their separate applications and declarations requesting that the Commission exempt from the requirements of Rule U-50 promulgated under the act the proposed sale by Standard Gas of 390,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $20 per share, of Copco and the proposed sale by Copco of 18,000 shares of its Common Stock, par value $20 per share, and that the Commission modify its Order of May 8, 1947, so as to permit the sale of said 408,000 shares of common stock on the basis of negotiating in lieu of competitive bidding.

At a public hearing held on June 23, 1947 the applicants-declarants submitted evidence on their request for exemption from competitive bidding and with respect to what was done by them in an effort to sell said 408,000 shares of common stock by "shopping around". The testimony revealed that the three underwriting groups headed by (1) Smith, Barney & Co. and Kuhn, Loeb & Co., (2) Harriman Ripley & Co., Incorporated, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane and Bear, Stearns & Co., and (3) Blyth & Co., Inc. and The First Boston Corporation, which had previously shown interest in the proposed offering had been advised on June 11, 1947 that informal permission had been given tentatively by the Commission to effect a negotiated sale. A series of negotiations was subsequently held between the representatives of these three groups and officials of the two companies. As the underwriting group headed by Smith, Barney & Co. and Kuhn Loeb & Co. indicated that it would require thirty days or more to build up a selling group and enter into a purchase contract, negotiations with it were abandoned. Several conferences were had with each of the other groups and a number of offers of purchase was received from each of them. As a result of these conferences the representatives of Standard Gas and Copco came to the conclusion that it was more profitable to continue the negotiations with the group headed by Blyth and First Boston since it offered a somewhat higher price for the stock and in the applicants' opinion indicated greater assurance of ability to close the transactions on a basis most advantageous to Standard Gas and Copco. Thereafter, on June 23, 1947 a formal purchase contract, a copy of which has been filed in these proceedings, was entered into with the group headed by Blyth and First Boston for the sale of said 408,000 shares of Common Stock of Copco.[2] Pursuant to such contract said group of underwriters proposes to purchase this stock at a price of $20.35 per share, and to offer this stock to the public at a price of $22.25 per share, resulting in an underwriter's spread of $1.90 per share.[3]

In support of their request, Standard Gas and Copco have presented various reasons why they are of the opinion that an exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 should be granted. While we are very doubtful that the reasons which they offer are valid, we have determined, in the light of the special circumstances of this case referred to below, to grant the exemption from competitive bidding.

Standard Gas has since 1941 been under an order of this Commission to divest itself of its holdings in Copco.[4] During June, 1946 Standard Gas offered its holdings in Copco for sale pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50. Bids were solicited and received.[5] Standard Gas rejected the bids as being in its opinion inadequate. As noted above, these same holdings were again scheduled to be sold on May 20 of this year, but on May 19, 1947 the applicants-declarants herein came to the conclusion that the bidding should be postponed because, in their opinion, market conditions had so deteriorated on that date that there was little likelihood that any bid would be received for the new preferred stock of Copco or that any bids submitted for the purchase of the common stock would prove satisfactory to the sellers.

In connection with the hitherto abortive efforts made by Standard Gas to sell its holdings in Copco it should be noted that there are certain outstanding bank loans of Standard Gas as to which two extensions of maturities have been previously approved by us (File Nos. 70–1479 and 70–1511) and that an aggregate amount of $8,010,826.95 of said bank loans will be due and payable on July 10, 1947. In order for Standard Gas to meet the commitments which it undertook at the time it modified its plan of reorganization, it is, of course, urgent that it dispose of assets in order to provide for funds to meet the July 10th maturities. Such action must necessarily be taken within the very near future.[6]

In the light of the past difficulties which have arisen in connection with the various attempts to sell the securities, in view of the present urgency presented in connection with the approaching maturities of the bank loans, and after consideration of all the special circumstances in the case, we have determined that it is appropriate to grant the exemption. So far as appears from the record the applicants-declarants have attempted to maintain, within the limitations of the "shopping around" procedure, competitive conditions so far as they could do so without the use of competitive bidding.

We have also concluded that the price and underwriting spread are not unreasonable. Accordingly we are granting the application and permitting the declaration to become effective. In connection with the transactions applicants-declarants have requested that we find the transactions necessary or appropriate to comply with section 11 of the act in order that they may obtain certain relief under Supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code. Upon consideration we deem such findings appropriate, and we are so ordering as hereinafter provided.

It is therefore ordered, That the applications for exemption from competitive bidding be granted and that the applications-declarations, as amended, with respect to the issue and sale by Copco of 18,000 shares of its Common Stock, par value $20 per share, and the sale by Standard Gas of 390,000 shares of the Common Stock, par value $20 per share, of Copco be granted and permitted to become effective.

It is further ordered and the Commission finds, That the reclassification of the presently outstanding 312,000 shares of Common Stock of Copco into 390,000 shares of Common Stock of Copco, par value $20 per share, and the issuance to Standard Gas and Electric Company of such reclassified common stock are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and that the proposed sale by Standard Gas and Electric Company of said 390,000 shares of Common Stock of Copco, par value $20 per share, is in accordance with and in obedience to an order of this Commission dated August 8, 1941, is necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification of the holding company system of which Standard Gas and Electric Company is a member and is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

It is further ordered, That the reservations of jurisdiction heretofore made with respect to fees and expenses be, and are hereby, released with respect to legal fees and expenses payable to Isham, Lincoln and Beale, counsel for the underwriters, and with respect to fees payable to Public Utility Engineering and Service Corporation, and that the reservation of jurisdiction with respect to other legal fees and expenses (payable to A. Louis Flynn and to Brobeck, Phleger and Harrison, counsel for the applicants-declarants) be, and is hereby, continued.

By the Commission.

[2] In connection with the transactions as presently proposed, the applicants-declarants have determined to take no action at this time with respect to the issue and sale by Copco of 60,000 shares of Cumulative Preferred Stock.

[3] Copco has declared a dividend on its common stock equivalent to 40¢ per share on the 390,000 shares of common stock owned by Standard Gas, payable in July 1947, to holders of record on June 23, 1947. As record holder on that date Standard Gas will be the recipient of that dividend payment and the stock is being offered by the underwriters "ex-dividend".

[4] 9 S. E. C. 862 (1941). In March 1943 Standard Gas filed a plan which provided, among other things, for a distribution by Standard Gas of its holdings in Copco to its security holders. The plan was the subject matter of considerable litigation and was never consummated. Subsequently, the company secured authority from the Court and the Commission to modify its plan to the extent of calling for redemption its notes and debentures, the funds for that purpose to be received from an issuance of bank loan notes. Standard Gas undertook at that time to repay the bank loan notes from the proceeds of sales of various assets, including its holdings in Copco (Standard Gas and Electric Company, — S. E. C. — (1946), Holding Company Act Release No. 6435).

[5] The highest bid at that time was $28.33 per share net to Standard Gas, on the basis of the then outstanding 312,000 shares. Consummation of that sale would have resulted in net proceeds to the company of $8,838,960. To realize an equivalent amount in the present transaction, Standard Gas would have had to receive $22.66 per share for each of the 390,000 shares now being sold.

[6] See, in this connection, our opinion in Standard Gas and Electric Company, — S. E. C. — (1947), Holding Company Act Release No. 7395, permitting the most recent extension of the maturities of these bank loans.

PUBLIC SERVICE CO. OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 24th day of June A. D. 1947.

Public Service Company of New Hampshire ("New Hampshire"), a public utility subsidiary of New England Public Service Company, a registered holding company, having filed an application, and amendments thereto, pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder, regarding the issuance and sale at competitive bidding of $4,500,000 principal amount First Mortgage Bonds, Series B, --% due 1977; and

The Commission by order dated June 12, 1947 having granted said application, as amended, subject to the condition that the proposed sale of the bonds should not be consummated until the results of the competitive bidding, pursuant to Rule U-50, shall have been made a matter of record herein and a further order shall have been entered by the Commission in the light of the record so completed; and

New Hampshire having filed an amendment to its application setting forth the action taken to comply with the requirements of Rule U-50 and stating that pursuant to the invitation for competitive bids, seven bids on said bonds by groups of underwriters represented by the firms set forth below were received:

Underwriting group	Coupon rate	Price to company	Cost to company
	Percent
The First Boston Corp	2¾	101.49	2.67743
Equitable Securities Corp	2¾	101.183	2.69227
Kidder, Peabody & Co	2¾	100.8299	2.70941
Salomon Bros. & Hutzler	2¾	100.82	2.70980
W. C. Langley & Co	2¾	100.80	2.71087
Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc	2¾	100.65	2.71857
Lazard Freres & Co	2¾	100.62	2.71961

The said amendment having stated further that New Hampshire has accepted the bid of the group represented by The First Boston Corporation as set out above, and that the bonds will be offered for sale to the public at a price of 101.915% of the principal amount thereof, resulting in an underwriters' spread of 0.425% of the principal amount of said bonds; and

The Commission having examined the record herein as so completed by said amendment and finding no basis for imposing terms and conditions with respect to the price to be paid for said bonds or the underwriters' spread and allocation thereof;

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the matters to be determined as a result of competitive bidding for said bonds under Rule U-50, be, and the same hereby is, released, and that said application, as further amended, be, and the same hereby is granted, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

COLUMBIA GAS & ELECTRIC CORP. AND ATLANTIC SEABOARD CORP.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 23d day of June 1947.

Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation ("Columbia"), a registered holding company, and its wholly owned subsidiary, Atlantic Seaboard Corporation ("Seaboard"), also a registered holding company, having filed a joint declaration pursuant to the provisions of section 12 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-45 promulgated thereunder, regarding a cash contribution of $1,535,000 to Seaboard which, in turn, proposes to make a capital contribution of $150,000 to Amere Gas Utilities Company ("Amere"), $75,000 to Virginia Gas Distribution Corporation ("Distribution"), and $560,000 to Virginia Gas Transmission Corporation ("Transmission") for the purpose of financing their construction programs, said companies being wholly owned subsidiaries of Seaboard. The remaining $750,000 to be received by Seaboard will be used to finance its own construction program; and

The contribution by Seaboard and the acceptance of such contribution by Transmission and Distribution having been approved by the State Corporation Commission of Virginia by its order dated May 20, 1947; and

Said joint declaration having been filed on May 13, 1947 and an amendment thereto having been filed on June 9, 1947, and notice of such filing having been duly given in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said joint declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to said joint declaration that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder are satisfied, and that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that said joint declaration be permitted to become effective:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the aforesaid joint declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith.

COLUMBIA GAS & ELECTRIC CORP. AND CENTRAL KENTUCKY NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 23d day of June 1947.

Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation ("Columbia"), a registered holding company, and its public utility subsidiary, Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company ("Central Kentucky"), having filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 6, 7, 9 and 10 thereof, with respect to the following transactions:

Central Kentucky proposes to issue and sell to Columbia $2,300,000 principal amount of 3¼% Installment Promissory Notes, such notes to be unsecured and non-negotiable. The principal amounts thereof are to be payable in equal annual installments on August 15 of each of the years 1950 to 1974, inclusive; interest upon the unpaid principal amount thereof is to be payable semi-annually on February 15 and August 15. The proceeds of such sale are to be used by Central Kentucky to finance its 1947 construction program, which, it is estimated, will involve expenditures of approximately $2,583,000. The notes are to be issued by Central Kentucky at such time and in such amounts as funds are required in connection with the construction program, but none of such notes will be issued and sold subsequent to December 31, 1947.

Said joint application-declaration having been filed on May 14, 1947 and an amendment thereto having been filed on June 11, 1947, notice of such filing having been duly given in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said joint application-declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to said joint application-declaration that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Act and Rules thereunder are satisfied, and that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that said joint application-declaration be granted and permitted to become effective:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said Act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the aforesaid joint application-declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith.

CENTRAL VERMONT PUBLIC SERVICE CORP.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 24th day of June A. D. 1947

Central Vermont Public Service Corporation ("Central Vermont"), a subsidiary of New England Public Service Company, a registered holding company, having filed an application, and an amendment thereto, pursuant to the first sentence of section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, with respect to the following transactions:

Central Vermont proposes to borrow from one or more banks, during the remainder of the year 1947, an amount not in excess of $1,600,000 (including $550,000 presently outstanding short-term obligations) and to issue from time to time in evidence thereof its promissory notes with a maturity of not more than nine months from the date of issue thereof. The proceeds of said loans are to be used to finance the company's construction program (including the rebuilding, repairing and replacing of certain of its properties damaged by flood) prior to the time when funds will be available from permanent financing. Applicant states that it has been informed by the First National Bank of Boston that it will loan the company the additional funds required at the rate of 1½% per annum. It is represented by applicant that the transactions are not subject to the jurisdiction of any commission other than this Commission.

The application having been filed on May 28, 1947, and an amendment thereto having been filed on June 10, 1947, and notice of said filing, as amended, having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application, as amended, within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

Applicant having requested that the Commission's order granting the application, as amended, become effective forthwith, and the Commission deeming it appropriate to grant such request; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application, as amended, that the requirements of the applicable sections of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application, as amended, be granted:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that said application, as amended, be, and the same hereby is granted forthwith.

By the Commission.
